PREGAME:

Both teams will be asked to line up on their free throw lines for the playing of the National Anthem, immediately followed by a players/coaches handshake at mid-court before returning to their bench areas for introductions.

ELECTRONIC MEDIA TIMEOUTS:

In accordance with ACC policy, there will be timeouts at, or immediately following a dead ball, under the 16, 12, 8, 4 minute marks on the clock during each half. During a timeout, the first horn will sound at 90 seconds (1:30). The second horn will sound at 105 seconds (1:45) at the end of the timeout. The first 30 second timeout of the second half will become a full timeout, regardless of which team calls the timeout or when it is called.

TEAM TIMEOUTS:

60 Second: One (1) per team, per game. It can be carried over to the second half.

30 Second: Four (4) per team, per game. Three can be carried over to the second half.

Each team will receive an additional 30 second timeout in overtime, along with carrying over unused 30 second/60 second timeouts.

OVERTIME:

There will be a two-minute (0:02:00) intermission between regulation and a five-minute (0:05:00) overtime period. The first timeout called by a coach in each overtime period will become an electronic media timeout.
