2015 Women's Lacrosse

#3 SEED BC VS. #6 SEED SYRACUSE IN ACC CHAMPIONSHIP FIRST ROUND

- This will be the first meeting between Boston College and Syracuse in the ACC Championships.
- The Eagles and Orange clashed earlier this season on Feb. 28, when BC earned its first ever victory over Syracuse at the Carrier Dome.
- The game will be broadcast on NESN+ and ESPN3 with Leah Secondo on the call.
- Boston College enters the matchup riding a three-game winning streak while Syracuse has won its past two games.

THE LAST MEETING VS. SYRACUSE

- Boston College defeated the Orange, 10-9, earlier this season on Feb. 28 at the Carrier Dome.
- The win marked the first Eagle victory over Syracuse in program history.
- Then #7/6 Boston College, led by junior midfielder Caroline Margolis' four-goal performance, upset then #3/2 Syracuse in front of a crowd of 926.
- Syracuse jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first two minutes, putting the Eagles in a hole early.
- Boston College responded with three unanswered goals (Sarah Mannelly - 2, Caroline Margolis - 1) to even the game at three goals apiece.
- The Eagles and the Orange entered half time knotted up at 5-5.
- In the second half, the teams traded goals until Stanwick and Margolis scored back-to-back to make it 10-8, BC, as the clock ran out to gain an edge on SU.
- Sophomore midfielder Tess Chandler held SU's Kayla Treanor to zero points and zero shots on goal to shut down the Orange's biggest offensive threat.

EAGLES IN THE ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

- Boston College is 2-9 in the ACC Championships since the Eagles joined the conference in 2006.
- The Eagles' two wins have both come against Virginia Tech in the first round (2013 & 2011).
- The last time the ACC Championships were held in Charlottesville, Virginia, BC fell to UNC, 12-8, in the first round.

  - 2014: North Carolina - L, 14-10
  - 2013: Virginia Tech - W, 10-8
  - North Carolina - L, 16-6
  - 2012: Virginia - L, 13-8
  - 2011: Virginia Tech - W, 17-3
  - Maryland - L, 8-5
  - 2010: Duke - L, 17-6
  - 2009: Duke - L, 16-7
  - 2008: North Carolina - L, 12-8 **
  - 2007: Virginia - L, 13-6
  - 2006: Maryland - L, 21-8
MAKING HISTORY
- Boston College earned its highest ranking in program history, coming in at #3 on March 3.
- The Eagles have remained in the top-five in both the IWLCA and Inside Lacrosse polls since their win over Syracuse on February 28.
- BC achieved a program-best 10-0 record to start the year before suffering its first loss of the season to #5 Virginia on March 28.
- Boston College is one win away from tying the most victories in program history, set last year when the Eagles earned 15 wins on the season.

OFFENSIVE ONSLAUGHT
- The Eagles are highly represented in nearly every offensive category in the nation.
- Boston College is sixth in the country, averaging 14.56 goals per game.
- The Eagles are also 11th in the nation in scoring margin, beating their opponents by an average of 5.25 goals per game.
- BC is tied for fourth nationally with a .875 win percentage.

ROAD WARRIORS
- Boston College is a perfect 8-0 on the road this season.
- Three of the Eagles’ wins against top-20 opponents have come on the road: #18 Johns Hopkins (Feb. 14), #3/2 Syracuse (Feb. 28), #2/3 North Carolina (Mar. 21).
- BC has outscored its opponents, 116-61, as the visiting team this season.

EAGLES AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS
- The Eagles have gone up against seven ranked opponents this season.
- In those seven matchups, BC is 5-2:
  - Feb. 18 vs. #18 Johns Hopkins - W, 9-5
  - Feb. 28 vs. #3/2 Syracuse - W, 10-9
  - Mar. 6 vs. #16 Notre Dame - W, 15-6
  - Mar. 11 vs. #12 Louisville - W, 16-15 (OT)
  - Mar. 21 vs. #2/3 UNC - W, 10-9 (OT)
  - Mar. 28 vs. #5/7 Virginia - L, 15-13
  - Apr. 4 vs. #5/4 Duke - L, 13-8
- BC dropped its first game of the season to #5/7 Virginia at home on March 28.
- Boston College is now 11-15 against teams ranked in the top 20 with Acacia Walker Weinstein at the helm.

COUNT ON COVIE
- Senior attacker Covie Stanwick is having a season to remember for the Eagles.
- Stanwick, with her 173rd career goal, surpassed former Eagle Kristin Igoe (2008-12) with her 25th goal of the season vs. #12 Louisville on Wednesday, March 11.
- The Baltimore, Md. native leads the Eagles in every offensive category, totaling 65 points on 42 goals and 23 assists.
- Stanwick has racked up praise for her performance this season, earning two ACC Offensive Player of the Week awards and two Eagle of the Week nods.
- The senior captain, in addition to a Preseason All-America First Team selection, has also been named to the Tewaaraton Award watch list for the third straight year.

RIX RISING IN THE RECORDS
- Senior midfielder Mikaela Rix, despite being sidelined by an injury for three games, has put up a dominant offensive performance for the Eagles this season.
- Rix has 40 goals through 14 games and ranks 24th in the country with her 2.86 goals per game.
- The senior captain has been outstanding on the draw control this year, leading the Eagles with 48 draw controls.
- With her seven draw controls against USC, senior midfielder Mikaela Rix broke the program’s all-time draw control record, passing Brittany Wilton (2009-12).
- Rix’s 219 career draw controls remain first in the BC record books.
- In addition to earning ACC Offensive Player of the Week on Mar. 24, Rix was also named to the 2015 Preseason All-America First Team.

“MANNELLY”ING THE MIDFIELD
- Junior Sarah Mannelly has been a staple in the Eagles’ midfield corps this season.
- Mannelly is second on the Eagles with 58 points on 41 goals and 17 assists.
- The junior captain is a dangerous two-way player, leading the team with four game-winning goals, 27 ground balls, and 16 caused turnovers.
- Mannelly’s play has earned her multiple accolades this season: ACC Defensive Player of the Week (Mar. 10), ECAC Defensive Player of the Week (Mar. 17).
- Mannelly was also named a Preseason All-America Third Team selection.
- The New Canaan, Conn. native is one assist away from a new single-season best (18).

MARGOLIS MAKING HER MARK
- Junior midfielder Caroline Margolis is having a breakout season for Boston College.
- Margolis is third on the Eagles with 55 points on 41 goals and 17 assists.
- Margolis’ 55 points is a new single-season best, as the junior has more than doubled her point total from last year (21).
- Margolis, with instrumental performances against Johns Hopkins and Syracuse, earned two ACC Offensive Player of the Week honors this season.
- The Raleigh, N.C. native also garnered Eagle of the Week on Mar. 3.

ALL-ACC EAGLES
- Four Eagles, the most in program history, have earned All-ACC honors for their play this year.
- Mannelly, Rix, and Stanwick earned First Team accolades while Margolis garnered Second Team Honors.
- Boston College has the most representatives on the First Team.
- The Eagles make up 3/13 of the First Team and 4/26 overall.
SCOUTING THE ORANGE

TEAM RECORD
• Syracuse sits at 11-6 heading into Thursday’s ACC Quarterfinal matchup.
• The Orange finished the regular season in fifth in the ACC standings and #7 in the national polls.
• Notable Syracuse wins include: #8 Virginia, #5 Florida, #14 Louisville, and #19 Albany.

TEAM LEADERS
• Junior attacker Halle Majorana leads the Orange with 66 points on 38 goals and 28 assists.
• Junior attacker Kayla Treanor is Syracuse’s second leading scorer, amassing 65 points on a team-high 45 goals and 20 assists.
• Senior attacker Kailah Kempney leads the Orange with 142 draw controls, which is second in the ACC.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY
• In its first year as an ACC member last year, Syracuse fell to Maryland, 13-7, in the ACC Championship game.
• Overall, the Orange is 2-1 in ACC Championship play, defeating Notre Dame and North Carolina en route to the Championship game in 2013.

Acacia Walker Weinstein enters her third season in 2014-15 as the head coach of the Boston College women’s lacrosse team. She took over the position on May 23, 2012.

As either a player or coach, Walker has participated in 12 of the last 13 NCAA Tournaments and was a part of Northwestern’s three consecutive NCAA titles from 2006-08 as an assistant coach. In 2014 Walker led the Eagles to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament, beating Bryant and Loyola before finally falling to Syracuse. During the 2014 season BC reached a national ranking as high as No. 4. She coached two players to IWLCA All-American honors and four to IWLCA All-Northwest Region honors. She guided the program to a 15-6 overall record and a 3-4 ACC record.

In her first year as a head coach in 2013, she led the Eagles to their second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance and coached BC to school records for ACC wins in a season (3) and consecutive games won within a season (8). The winning streak began with victories over then-No. 9 Virginia and then No. 6-Duke with the win over Duke marking the first time BC had defeated the Blue Devils.

She guided the Eagles in matching a program record for wins in a season (12) while playing the seventh-most difficult schedule in the country based on the RPIs of a team’s top-10 opponents faced. Also in 2013, she tutored All-ACC performers Covie Stanwick and Mikaela Rix and helped attract over 2,000 fans to the Newton Field in a single season for the first time in program history.

Walker spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as associate head coach for Boston College. In that role, Walker served as the Eagles’ offensive coordinator and played a key role in recruiting, as well as in many other facets of the daily operations of the BC program. In 2012 the Eagles finished the season at 10-8 and 1-4 in the ACC. In 2011, Walker’s first season with the team, BC went 12-7 (1-4 ACC) and reached the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history.

In 2012, Walker helped guide BC’s first-ever ACC Freshman of the Year winner, Stanwick, as well as All-American Kristin Igoe. Stanwick, Igoe, and Rix each garnered All-ACC accolades marking the first time that three BC players earned such honors in the same season. The Eagles also set a program-record with 263 draw controls on the year while scoring 230 goals as a team - the third-highest total in school history.

During the 2011 season, BC set a single-season program records goals scored (232). The Eagles defeated two ranked opponents - No. 7 Virginia and No. 20 Hofstra - on the season while Igoe and Brittany Wilton both garnered All-American honors.

A former player herself, Walker continued to play at the elite level after her collegiate playing days competing on the U.S. Women’s Senior National Lacrosse Team from 2002-12. She won a gold medal with the team at the 2009 World Cup in Prague, Czech Republic and was also a member of the 2010-11 U.S. National Team that was undefeated on American soil.

Prior to working with the Eagles, Walker was the associate head coach at the University of Massachusetts. During her tenure, Walker acted as the offensive coordinator, handled recruiting responsibilities and helped lead the team to two consecutive Atlantic-10 Conference championships. She also handled travel, budget management, video breakdown, and camps.

From 2005-08, she was an assistant coach at Northwestern, where the Wildcats won three consecutive NCAA National Championships and three consecutive American Lacrosse Conference titles.

Walker graduated from the University of Maryland in 2005 with a degree in American Studies. She played for the Terrapins and captained the team in her senior year. She was an IWLCA All-American as well as an All-ACC selection. In 2005 she won the University of Maryland M Club ‘James H. Kehoe’ Award, and in 2004 and 2005 was a Tewaaraton Candidate, the award given to the male and female Collegiate National Player of the Year.

At age 15, Walker was the youngest member of the World Championship Under-19 Team that won gold in Perth, Australia in 1999.

Walker hails from Annapolis, Md. and currently resides in Boston, Mass.
