BIG TEN GOLFER OF THE WEEK

Pariya Junhasavasdikul, Purdue
 SO, Bangkok, Thailand/Bangkok Christian

Junhasavasdikul earns his first career Golfer of the Week selection after tying for seventh overall and improving his score in each round at last week's Hall of Fame Invitational. The Purdue sophomore recorded the best 54-hole total by any Big Ten golfer last week, posting a 213 (74-71-68), including a final-round 68, which tied his career low.

Junhasavasdikul is the first Boilermaker to earn the Conference's weekly honor since Shiv Kapur was tabbed by the League on March 19, 2004.
