2007 OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD NCAA REGIONALS

The 2007 NCAA Regionals are set to begin on Friday, May 25 at four campus sites across the country. Penn State will compete in the East Region, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin will travel to the Mideast Region, and Iowa and Minnesota will compete at the Midwest Region.

East Regional:

Penn State is the Big Ten's lone representative in the East Region in Gainesville Fla., hosted by the University of Florida. The Nittany Lion women finished third at this year's Big Ten Championships just 7.5 points behind first-place Illinois and Michigan. The PSU women placed a conference-best five student-athletes on the All-Big Ten first team (Aleesha Barber, Dominique Blake, Shana Cox, Gayle Hunter, Briene Simmons), while the men finished fourth -- three spots better than 2006.

Mideast Regional:

Seven Big Ten teams will compete in the Mideast Regional in Columbia, Mo., hosted by the University of Missouri. The women's contingent will be led by conference co-champions Illinois and Michigan. The Wolverines are tied for 10th in the Trackwire Top 25 and boast two of the top athletes in the country in Big Ten Track Athlete of the Year and of the Championships Anna Willard, and Bettie Wade, the conference's Field Athlete of the Year and of the Championships. Big Ten men's champion Wisconsin looks to add to its collection of hardware after having won the national indoor title in February. Demi Omole, this year's Big Ten Track Athlete of the Year and of the Championships, fronts the Badger squad. Joining the Illini, Wolverines and Badgers in the region will be Indiana, Michigan State, Ohio State and Purdue.

Midwest Regional:

Iowa and Minnesota will represent the Big Ten at the Midwest Regional, hosted by Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. The Hawkeye women are ranked 18th in the latest Trackwire Top 25, led by Tiffany Johnson who owns the region's best time in the 100-meter hurdles, while on the men's side, A.J. Curtis owns the region's best distance in the discus. The Minnesota men will be led by Big Ten Field Athlete of the Year and of the Championships, Derek Gearman, who owns top-10 regional marks in all three jumping events. For the women, Heather Dorniden has the best time in the 800 meters while Emily Brown is tops in the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

Student-athletes qualified for regional competition by reaching standards established for each event or by earning automatic access as the conference event champion. The 10,000-meter run, decathlon and heptathlon are the only events in which qualifying is based on competition outside the regional championships.

The regional format is set up so the top five individuals and top three relay teams from each of the four sites will automatically qualify for the 2007 NCAA Championships, set to take place June 6-9 at the A.G. Spanos Sports Complex in Sacramento, Calif. Sacramento State and the Sacramento Sports Commission will serve as co-hosts of the event.

BIG TEN ANNOUNCES 2007 INDIVIDUAL POSTSEASON HONORS

PARK RIDGE, Ill. - Michigan's Anna Willard was named the Big Ten women's Track Athlete of the Year and of the Championships while teammate Bettie Wade was named the women's Field Athlete of the Year and of the Championships. On the men's side, Wisconsin's Demi Omole was named the Track Athlete of the Year and of the Championships, while Minnesota's Derek Gearman was named Field Athlete of the Year and of the Championships, the Big Ten office announced on Wednesday.

Gary Winckler of Illinois was named the women's coach of the year for the sixth time in his career, while Wisconsin mentor Ed Nuttycombe received the men's honor for the fourth consecutive year and the 10th time in his career.

Rounding out the postseason awards, Penn State's Bridget Franek was named the women's Freshman of the Year, and Purdue's Jon Pullum received men's first-year honors.

Willard and Wade are the first Wolverines to ever receive awards for excellence throughout the year, while Tania Longe (1998) and Richelle Webb (1994) are the only other Michigan athletes to receive championships honors.

Willard won three individual events at the 2007 Big Ten Outdoor Track and Field Championships last weekend, setting a meet record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase with a time of 9:57.90. The senior also took home the gold in the 1,500- (4:15.93) and the 5,000-meter (16:23.57) runs. During the regular season, Willard owned the conference's top times in the 1,500 (4:15.99) and 5,000 (15:53.36) as well as the second-fastest mark in the 800 meters (2:03.94). Willard's regular-season time in the 800 meters is currently fourth-best in the country while her championships time in the 1,500 meters is also the nation's fourth-fastest.

Wade became the first Wolverine since Longe in 1998 to win the heptathlon at the Big Ten championships, totaling 5,722 points in the event, which is the largest amount since Longe put up 5,861 in 1997. Wade placed first in three events en route to the heptathlon title, winning the high jump, shot put and long jump. The sophomore's score is currently the fourth-best in NCAA Division I this season. Wade also took home the silver medal in the championships high jump, clearing a height of 6'00.00".

Omole won the 100- (10.19) and 200-meter (20.92) dashes at the 2007 conference championships, becoming the first Big Ten athlete to ever win the 100-meter race in four consecutive years. The senior was also part of the winning 4x100-meter relay team for the fourth straight year, making him the first athlete in history to win two events in four consecutive championships. Omole also set the standard in the 100- and 200-meter races during the regular season while the Wisconsin 4x100 squad also notched the Big Ten's best regular-season time. The senior's time in the 100-meters is currently the fifth-fastest in the country.

Gearman recorded team points for the Gophers in four events at the Big Ten championships, placing second in the high jump and the long jump and fourth in the triple jump. The senior was also part of the Gophers' 4x100-meter relay team which clocked in fourth. During the regular season, Gearman posted top-five marks in the conference in all three jumping events, including the best distance in the long jump (24'09.00"). The senior also qualified for NCAA Regionals in the high jump (7'2.50") and the triple jump (51'00.00").

Franek is the second Nittany Lion to receive Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors. Franek finished third in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the championships last weekend, clocking in at 10:05.96. During the regular season, the freshman posted the best time in the Big Ten in that event with an NCAA Regional qualifying mark of 9:59.21, which is currently the fourth-best time in the nation. The freshman also qualified for NCAA Regionals in the 1,500-meter run at 4:21.16.

Pullum is the fourth Boilermaker to earn Freshman of the Year honors and the first to take home the award since Michael Turner in 1996. Pullum won the discus throw at this year's championships, throwing for a distance of 177'08". The distance set a career high for the freshman and qualified him for NCAA Regionals.

The conference office also announced honorees from each team for the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. The student-athletes chosen are individuals who have distinguished themselves through sportsmanship and ethical behavior. In addition, the student-athletes must be in good academic standing and have demonstrated good citizenship outside of the sports-competition setting.

Honorees for men's and women's outdoor track and field are Illinois' Lesiba Masheto and Camile Robinson; Indiana's Doug Dayhoff and Vera Neuenswander; Iowa's Micah VanDenend and Sarah Burgett; Michigan's Jeff Porter and Katie Erdman; Michigan State's Ryan McMillian and Anna Coster; Minnesota's Walter Langkau and Liz Alabi; Ohio State's Leonard Jatsek and Veronica Jatsek; Penn State's Tyler McCandless and Amber Strouse; Purdue's John Porter and Laura Farley; and Wisconsin's Nathan Brown and Alex McCannel. These 20 student-athletes are now candidates for the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award, as the conference office will honor one male and one female student-athlete from each institution at the end of the school year.
