RUNNERS OF THE WEEK

MEN

Matt Teegenkamp, Wisconsin
SR, Lee's Summit, Mo./Lee's Summit

In his first cross country meet back since being injured last year, Teegenkamp won his second individual Roy Griak Invitational title of his career, finishing the 8-kilometer race with a time of 24:02. Top-ranked Wisconsin claimed the Griak title as a team as well as the top-three finishes individually.

Teegenkamp beat out all other runners from ranked teams such as No. 14 Providence, No. 21 Oregon, No. 27 Colorado State, No. 30 Arizona State, and Big Ten opponents No. 16 Minnesota, No. 22 Ohio State, No. 28 Iowa and Illinois.

Prior to his injury in 2003, Teegenkamp captured the 2002 Big Ten title and finished first on the team and 12th overall (29:49.1) at the NCAA championships, leading the Badgers to a second-place finish.

WOMEN

Molly Landreth, Penn State
SR, Newburyport, Mass./Newburyport

Landreth captured her second Big Ten weekly honor of the year after finishing 19th with a time of 21:46 at the Roy Griak Invitational this past weekend. The Penn State senior was the top finisher among all League runners competing.

Dating back to last season, Landreth has been the Nittany Lions' top finisher in every meet. Earlier this year, she captured her second-straight Spiked Shoe Invitational in State College.

In 2003, she placed fourth at both the Big Ten and Regional Championships, earning her First Team All-Big Ten and All-Regional honors.
