Iowa Hawkeye Notes

Newcomers – In addition to returning all 10 letterwinners, including all five starters, the Hawkeyes add two players with Division I experience.

Sixth-year senior Johanna Solverson and sophomore transfer JoAnn Hamlin join Iowa's 2007-08 roster. Solverson, who was a three-year starter for the Hawkeyes (2002-05), missed the last two seasons after suffering season-ending ACL injuries. The 6-2 small forward boasts a career average of 8.5 points, 4.3 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.7 steals in 94 games. She enters the 2007-08 season ranked ninth in Iowa career assists (284), 13th in steals (157), 20th in rebounding (408) and 29th in scoring (802). She has scored in double figures 34 times in her career, including 17 times her junior season.

Hamlin transferred to Iowa after starting 31-of-33 games at center for Kansas State (2005-06). The 31 starts were the fifth-most in the nation among freshmen that season. Hamlin averaged 10.0 points and 4.6 rebounds her freshman campaign playing for the Wildcats. She scored double figures 15 times, including reaching the 20-point plateau four times.

In addition to adding two players with collegiate experience, the Hawkeyes add incoming freshmen Kachine Alexander (Minneapolis, MN) and Kelsey Cermak (Norwalk, IA).

Returnees – Iowa is the only conference team that returns three student-athletes who received all-Big Ten recognition a year ago (Wisconsin, Michigan State and Penn State return two). Wendy Ausdemore and Kristi Smith were named to the third team, while Megan Skouby earned honorable mention recognition. Furthermore, Iowa was the only Big Ten team with two underclassmen (Ausdemore and Smith) on either the first, second or third teams. The Hawkeye trio, all of whom will be juniors, comprised of 55 percent of Iowa's offense last year.

Perimeter Threat – Iowa broke the school record for free throw and 3-point field goal accuracy last season. The Hawkeyes' 78.8 percent free throw percentage and 40.2 percent 3-point field goal percentage ranks first and third in Big Ten single-season history, respectively. Furthermore, Iowa ranked second nationally in 3-point accuracy and fifth in free throw percentage. Individually, Wendy Ausdemore ranked 14th in the country in 3-point field goal percentage, while Kristi Smith and Megan Skouby ranked 21st and 27th, respectively, in free throw percentage (Ausdemore missed only six fouls shots last season, but did not have enough attempts to qualify for the rankings).

Record Breakers – As a team and individually, the Hawkeyes tied or broke 12 school and/or arena records in 2006-07. Wendy Ausdemore broke four records, while Iowa broke or tied eight high marks.

Schedule – Iowa hosts 18 games this season, including two pre-season games, inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The Hawkeyes are slated to play 11 non-conference games and 18 league contests in 2007-08.

The Big Ten Conference expanded its league schedule from 16 to 18 games this season, marking the first time since the 1993-94 season that there will be 18 conference contests. Every team will play each team twice, except playing two teams once.

Again, Iowa is confronted with a demanding schedule as the Hawkeyes have the potential to play 22 of 29 games against teams that played in post-season tournaments, including 10 against NCAA Tournament competition.

Also, Iowa will leave the state of Iowa only once during non-conference action, traveling to Cancun Mexico, to play in the four-team Caribbean Challenge, Nov. 21-22. The Hawkeyes' two true non-league road contests will be played at Northern Iowa (Nov. 18) and Iowa State (Dec. 5).

Big Ten/ACC Challenge – Iowa will host Georgia Tech in the inaugural Big Ten/ACC Challenge on November 28.

The formation of this annual event will span at least four years. The Challenge will match 11 teams from each conference in head-to-head competition traditionally on the first Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after Thanksgiving, following the men's basketball Big Ten/ACC Challenge.

Georgia Tech finished sixth in the ACC a year ago with a 9-5 league record, while Iowa tied for eighth in the Big Ten with a 6-10 conference mark. Both the Yellow Jackets and Hawkeyes return 10 letterwinners. Georgia Tech returns three starters, while Iowa returns all five starters.

Since the 1999-00 season, the Big Ten and ACC have squared off 57 times, with the ACC holding a 29-28 advantage. This will be the first meeting between Iowa and Georgia Tech. Overall, Iowa is 9-2 against teams from the ACC.

In most recent competition, the 2007-08 campaign concluded with the collegerpi.com rating the ACC and the Big Ten third and fourth, respectively, in the final RPI. In the same report, the Big Ten was ranked first in strength of schedule, followed by the ACC in third.

Greece – Iowa traveled to Greece this past summer and had the opportunity to compete against the Greek National Team three times. Greece, a team that won the 2006 World Championships silver medal, was a formidable foe and gave the Hawkeyes a challenge. Although Iowa lost all three games, four Hawkeye starters (Ausdemore, Hamlin, Skouby and Smith) averaged double figures. Hamlin, who competed for the first time in a Hawkeye uniform, ranked second in team scoring behind Ausdemore.

Listed below are Iowa's accomplishments from 2006-07:

- Iowa captured the WBCA Classic and KCRG-TV9 Hawkeye Challenge tournaments.

- Iowa was the only Big Ten team with two underclassmen recognized on all-conference teams. Wendy Ausdemore and Kristi Smith were honored on the third team. Additionally, Megan Skouby earned honorable mention laurels.

- The Hawkeyes played the 24th-most difficult schedule in the country, including one of the toughest conference schedules having to play the top three teams in the league each twice. Iowa finished only one game from fifth place in the Big Ten standings. Iowa's 24th-rated strength of schedule is its highest since playing the 12th toughest in 2003-04.

- Iowa recorded seven road victories in 2006-07; the Hawkeyes tallied six in 2005-06.

- Iowa rallied from a 17-point second-half deficit and ultimately won at Minnesota (58-56) on Dec. 28. The 17-point rally is the second-largest in school history. The win was Iowa's first at Williams Arena under Coach Lisa Bluder. Additionally, Iowa overcame a 24-point second half deficit in its home contest vs. Minnesota (Jan. 25), but ultimately fell in overtime (80-78).

- Iowa broke the school record for free throw and 3-point field goal accuracy. The Hawkeyes' 78.8 percent free throw percentage and 40.2 percent 3-point field goal percentage ranks first and third in Big Ten single-season history, respectively.

- Iowa finished the season ranked second in the country in 3-point accuracy and fifth in free throw percentage. Individually, Wendy Ausdemore ranked 14th nationally in 3-point field goal percentage, while Kristi Smith and Megan Skouby ranked 21st and 27th, respectively, in free throw percentage.

- Iowa broke the school record and Carver-Hawkeye Arena record for free throws made in a single-game when it sank 33 vs. Indiana State on Nov. 15. The Hawkeyes' 43 attempts against the Sycamores is an arena record for foul shot attempts. Iowa also converted 31-38 from the charity stripe against Wisconsin at Carver-Hawkeye Arena on Feb. 25. The 31 free throws made and 38 attempts are new arena records for a Big Ten game. Not to be outdone, Iowa converted 14-15 (.933) from the free throw line against Illinois on Feb. 18, which matches the Iowa arena and school conference single-game record for accuracy.

- Kristi Smith finished the season converting (45-91, .495) from behind the 3-point arc, a percentage that ranks second-best in Iowa single-season annals. Wendy Ausdemore's 41.6 percentage (62-149) ranks seventh-best.

- Iowa poured in 56 second-half points against the Badgers on Feb. 25 at Carver-Hawkeye Arena, which is an arena record for second half points.

- Iowa was 7-8 (.875) from 3-point territory in its 79-72 triumph over Penn State on Feb. 18. The 87.5 percent shooting behind the arc broke the Carver-Hawkeye Arena record and tied the Big Ten single-game mark for percentage.

- Iowa converted 14-15 (.933) from the foul line against Illinois on Feb. 15. The 93.3 percent free throw percentage tied a Carver-Hawkeye Arena record by an Iowa team. The Hawkeyes also made 14-15 (.933) against the Fighting Illini on Dec. 28, 1998.

- Wendy Ausdemore tied the Carver-Hawkeye Arena record for 3-pointers made by an Iowa player when she drained five vs. Quinnipiac on Nov. 17. She bested that performance by sinking six vs. Wisconsin on Feb. 25 to establish a new arena record. The six triples was one shy of Lindsey Meder's school-record of seven treys set on Dec. 31, 2000, also against the Badgers.

- Wendy Ausdemore was named to the Academic All-District second team. The pre-business major, who boasts a 3.83 GPA, was the only sophomore named to either the first or second District team.

- Kristi Smith finished the season with 402 points and 124 assists. The sophomore became the first Iowa underclassman to amass over 400 points and 100 assists in a single-season. In fact, the feat has been accomplished only four other times by two other players (Jollette Law and Michelle Edwards) in Hawkeye history.

- In her first start since recovering from a dislocated right shoulder, Krista VandeVenter netted a career-high 23 points on 8-8 shooting from the field and 7-9 from the free throw line at Drake on Dec. 22. The perfect shooting was one field goal made and attempt from equalling Jamie Cavey's (9-9, 1.000) school record, which was set on March 23, 2003 against Marquette.

- Iowa's 103-point outburst vs. Wisconsin was a season high by a Big Ten team in 2006-07 and marked only the fifth time in school history the Hawkeyes netted over 100 points. The 103 points is the second-highest scoring output in school annals and is a Carver-Hawkeye Arena record.

- Wendy Ausdemore missed only one free throw attempt (39-40, .975) during the 16-game conference season; her 97.5 percent shooting from the charity stripe is a school record and ranks second in Big Ten history during league play. Additionally, she converted 55-61 (.902) from the foul line, a school record for single-season free throw accuracy.

- Iowa was the only Big Ten team with two players, both sophomores, ranked in the top-seven in scoring during conference play. Wendy Ausdemore, who averaged 10.6 points in non-conference action, improved to 15.2 per contest in Big Ten play and finished ranked fifth. Kristi Smith was only three points behind Ausdemore and was seventh, averaging 15 points per Big Ten game.

- Iowa was the only league team with three players who made 39 triples or more in 2006-07. Wendy Ausdemore led the Hawkeyes with 62, followed by Kristi Smith (45) and Lindsey Nyenhuis (39). Ausdemore's 62 triples broke Lindsey Meder's (60) mark for 3-pointers in a single-season by a sophomore. Smith's 45 treys rank third by an Iowa sophomore, while Nyenhuis' 39 rank fourth.

- Last year, after starting center Stacy Schlapkohl suffered a season-ending knee injury, Megan Skouby filled the role successfully. This year, after Megan Skouby was sidelined with an injury, Nicole VanderPol stepped in and made the most of her increased role. VanderPol averaged 3.5 points, in a limited role, in the first 24 games, but averaged 11.5 points the last six. She also posted team highs in rebounding twice and scoring once.

- With Iowa's leading rebounder (Krista VandeVenter) sidelined for the first seven games of the season, Jenee Graham stepped up and filled the rebounding void. Graham pulled down double-digit rebounds 11 times and was the Hawkeyes leading rebounder 15 times. Graham finished the season ranked fourth in Big Ten rebounding (7.8).

- Iowa's five-member sophomore class was responsible for 69 percent of its offense (1,408 of 2,034 points).

- Kristi Smith averaged 34 minutes per contest in 2006-07, which is the highest playing average by a Hawkeye since point guard Cara Consuegra averaged 35.1 minutes during the 2000-01 season.
