BIG TEN PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Offensive Player of the Week

Katie Morris, Michigan

Jr., F, Ann Arbor, Mich./Pioneer

Morris captures her first career Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week accolade after leading the Wolverines to consecutive home victories over Miami (Ohio) and Old Dominion. She opened weekend play tallying one goal against the RedHawks to give Michigan a 2-1 victory. Morris then followed with her first career hat trick against the Monarchs for a 4-3 win. For the week, she tallied a total of eight points and notched the game-winning goal in each contest. Morris currently leads the Wolverines with five goals and 10 points on the season.

Defensive Player of the Week

Haley Exner, Indiana

So., GK, San Diego, Calif./Scripps Ranch

Exner was named Defensive Player of the Week after recording her first shutout of the season against Pacific. Holding the Tigers to only seven shots, the sophomore goalkeeper saved all seven in the team's first shutout of the season while also earning her fourth win as the Hoosiers' first-year starter. Exner picks up her first career Big Ten weekly accolade and Indiana's second of the season as Lydia Schrott was also named the Offensive Player of the Week on Aug. 29.
