BIG TEN GYMNAST OF THE WEEK

Lindsey Bruck, Michigan
 Jr., Marietta, N.Y./Marcellus

Bruck claimed three titles at the Penn State Quad to earn Gymnast of the Week accolades. Bruck dominated the team, while tallying her 12th straight regular-season all-around score of 39.000 or better. She won her seventh beam title and third all-around crown of her career, while capturing her very first vault championship with a score of 9.750. Bruck currently ranks first in the nation on beam (9.000) and seventh in the all-around with a score of 39.175. The Marietta, N.Y. native earns her third career weekly accolade as she was also honored last week and on Feb. 9, 2005.

2006 BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2006 Big Ten Women's Gymnastics Championships will be held on the campus of Michigan State University on March 25.

Last year, Michigan extended its string of conference dominance to seven consecutive seasons, as the Wolverines won the 2005 Big Ten Championships. Michigan has now won 13 of the past 14 league titles, as the only other program to claim a league crown in that time span was Minnesota in 1998.

Be sure to check out the Big Ten website for updated information.

BIG TEN NOTES

Big Ten Success: The Big Ten has recorded nine top-10 team finishes in the last six years of the NCAA Championships. Last year, two league programs earned a spot in the 12-team field of the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships for the fourth straight season as Michigan won the South Central Regional and Penn State placed second in the West Regional. The Wolverines, collected their 13th straight berth in the NCAA Championships and 14th appearance overall to lead all league schools. Penn State advanced to its first NCAA Championships since the 2000 season.
