SWIMMER OF THE WEEK

Erika Templeton, Michigan State

JR, Canton, Ohio/Jackson

Templeton collects Swimmer of the Week honors after posting her first career collegiate sweep in a 174-126 win against Ball State on Saturday. The junior touched the wall first in both the 100 (1:07.60) and 200-yard breaststroke events to claim her first victories of the season.

This is Templeton's first career weekly award.

The 2005 Big Ten Women's Swimming and Diving Championships will be held at Indiana University from February 16-19. Check out the Big Ten website for further details at www.bigten.org

Purdue University will serve as the host for the 2005 NCAA Division I Swimming and Diving Championships on March 17-19. All-session passes are currently on sale at purduesports.com, while individual-session passes will not be available until the start of the event. For more information, contact the Purdue Athletics ticket office at (765) 494-3194 or 1-800-49-SPORT.

Five Big Ten programs are ranked in the top 25 in the latest College Swim Coaches Association (CSCAA) released Thursday, December 2. Wisconsin leads all Conference squads as the Badgers are No. 11. Other teams appearing in the dual meet rankings include Michigan, Penn State, Purdue and Indiana. The Wolverines picked up two places to No. 13, while the Nittany Lions moved up one spot to No. 16. The Boilermakers remain idle in the 20th position, while the Hoosiers gain two spots to come in 23rd.

The CSCAA Dual Meet Poll is an indication of a team's ability to win dual meets throughout the season, but is not a predictor of a teams placement at the NCAA Championships. There will be nine polls released every two to three weeks during the season with a dual meet champion crowned in early March.

The next dual meet poll is set to be released Thursday, December 16.
