SWIMMER OF THE WEEK

Leila Vaziri, Indiana

Vaziri led the Hoosiers with five event titles, including four NCAA provisional times, in a loss to Penn State (211-158). Her individual victories came in the 100- and 200-yard backstroke events as she touched first in B-cut times of 55.13 and 2:00.76, respectively. The Coral Springs, Fla., native was also part of the 200-, 400- and 800-yard freestyle relay squads that each claimed first place finishes and swam the leadoff leg in the 200-yard medley relay (1:43.85) that finished in second.

This is Vaziri's first weekly honor of her career and the first for a Hoosier since Brooke Taflinger and Lindsay Weigle swept the Conference laurels on Oct. 22, 2003.

DIVER OF THE WEEK

Carrie McCambridge, Purdue

McCambridge swept the springboard competition for the third time this season as she defeated opponents from Wisconsin, Minnesota and Illinois last weekend. She scored her second highest total of the season off the 1-meter board with 306.50 points and recorded a season high 524.10 points in 11 dives on the 3-meter board.

This is McCambridge's third weekly honor of the season and fifth of her career.
