2007 OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Michigan women's squad posted the best finish of any Big Ten team at the 2007 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, June 6-9, in Sacramento, Calif., placing third with 36 team points. Wisconsin grabbed the top conference men's finish, taking seventh with a 22-point total.

Five Big Ten student-athletes took home individual NCAA Championships, including two members of the Michigan women's squad in Anna Willard and Tiffany Ofili. Willard set an NCAA Championships record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at 9:38.08, while her teammate took home the gold in the 100-meter hurdles at 12.80. Lindsey Blaine of Purdue won the conference's third women's title, throwing the javelin for a distance of 182'03", accounting for all 10 of her team's total points.

Wisconsin's Chris Solinsky won his fifth overall title and his second consecutive outdoor 5,000-meter championship, clocking in at 13:35.12. Michigan's Andrew Ellerton also earned an individual crown, crossing the finish line at 1:47.48 in the 800 meters.

The Wolverine women also received major team points from senior Katie Erdman, who took second in the 800 meters with a time of 1:59.35, a mere .06 seconds off the pace of California's Alysia Johnson. Sophomore Geena Gall finished fifth in the event at 2:02.24, while Erin Webster added to Michigan's total with a seventh-place finish in the 1,500 meters (4:17.33). Sophomore Bettie Wade placed seventh in the heptathlon, finishing with 5,724 points.

The Wisconsin men got a large chunk of their points from senior Joe Detmer, who took second in the decathlon with a total score of 7,963, setting a new school record. Detmer's performance included a time of 4:04.11 in the 1,500 meters, setting a new decathlon collegiate record. Senior Tim Nelson also added to the Badgers' final team total, placing fifth in the 5,000 meters with a time of 29:00.75.

Thirty-six points is the most for the Wolverine women in school history, while the third-place finish is also a program best. The third-place finish is also the highest for any Big Ten women's team since Wisconsin took second in 1993. The last time a conference squad finished in the top five at the NCAA Championships was in 1996 when Illinois placed fourth.

The Wisconsin men's seventh-place finish is the team's highest outdoor finish since it took fourth in 1997. The last team to place higher than seventh at the NAAs was Ohio State in 2004, when the Buckeyes tied for fourth.

The U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association announced NCAA Division I All-America honors on the Monday following the championships. Twenty-two athletes representing all 10 conference women's teams were named All-Americans, including seven from Michigan. Nine athletes from five of the conference's men's teams received the same honors, including four members of the Wisconsin squad.

BIG TEN ANNOUNCES 2007 INDIVIDUAL POSTSEASON HONORS

PARK RIDGE, Ill. - Michigan's Anna Willard was named the Big Ten women's Track Athlete of the Year and of the Championships while teammate Bettie Wade was named the women's Field Athlete of the Year and of the Championships. On the men's side, Wisconsin's Demi Omole was named the Track Athlete of the Year and of the Championships, while Minnesota's Derek Gearman was named Field Athlete of the Year and of the Championships, the Big Ten office announced on Wednesday.

Gary Winckler of Illinois was named the women's coach of the year for the sixth time in his career, while Wisconsin mentor Ed Nuttycombe received the men's honor for the fourth consecutive year and the 10th time in his career.

Rounding out the postseason awards, Penn State's Bridget Franek was named the women's Freshman of the Year, and Purdue's Jon Pullum received men's first-year honors.

Willard and Wade are the first Wolverines to ever receive awards for excellence throughout the year, while Tania Longe (1998) and Richelle Webb (1994) are the only other Michigan athletes to receive championships honors.

Willard won three individual events at the 2007 Big Ten Outdoor Track and Field Championships last weekend, setting a meet record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase with a time of 9:57.90. The senior also took home the gold in the 1,500- (4:15.93) and the 5,000-meter (16:23.57) runs. During the regular season, Willard owned the conference's top times in the 1,500 (4:15.99) and 5,000 (15:53.36) as well as the second-fastest mark in the 800 meters (2:03.94). Willard's regular-season time in the 800 meters is currently fourth-best in the country while her championships time in the 1,500 meters is also the nation's fourth-fastest.

Wade became the first Wolverine since Longe in 1998 to win the heptathlon at the Big Ten championships, totaling 5,722 points in the event, which is the largest amount since Longe put up 5,861 in 1997. Wade placed first in three events en route to the heptathlon title, winning the high jump, shot put and long jump. The sophomore's score is currently the fourth-best in NCAA Division I this season. Wade also took home the silver medal in the championships high jump, clearing a height of 6'00.00".

Omole won the 100- (10.19) and 200-meter (20.92) dashes at the 2007 conference championships, becoming the first Big Ten athlete to ever win the 100-meter race in four consecutive years. The senior was also part of the winning 4x100-meter relay team for the fourth straight year, making him the first athlete in history to win two events in four consecutive championships. Omole also set the standard in the 100-and 200-meter races during the regular season while the Wisconsin 4x100 squad also notched the Big Ten's best regular-season time. The senior's time in the 100-meters is currently the fifth-fastest in the country.

Gearman recorded team points for the Gophers in four events at the Big Ten championships, placing second in the high jump and the long jump and fourth in the triple jump. The senior was also part of the Gophers' 4x100-meter relay team which clocked in fourth. During the regular season, Gearman posted top-five marks in the conference in all three jumping events, including the best distance in the long jump (24'09.00"). The senior also qualified for NCAA Regionals in the high jump (7'2.50") and the triple jump (51'00.00").

Franek is the second Nittany Lion to receive Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors. Franek finished third in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the championships last weekend, clocking in at 10:05.96. During the regular season, the freshman posted the best time in the Big Ten in that event with an NCAA Regional qualifying mark of 9:59.21, which is currently the fourth-best time in the nation. The freshman also qualified for NCAA Regionals in the 1,500-meter run at 4:21.16.

Pullum is the fourth Boilermaker to earn Freshman of the Year honors and the first to take home the award since Michael Turner in 1996. Pullum won the discus throw at this year's championships, throwing for a distance of 177'08". The distance set a career high for the freshman and qualified him for NCAA Regionals.

The conference office also announced honorees from each team for the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. The student-athletes chosen are individuals who have distinguished themselves through sportsmanship and ethical behavior. In addition, the student-athletes must be in good academic standing and have demonstrated good citizenship outside of the sports-competition setting.

Honorees for men's and women's outdoor track and field are Illinois' Lesiba Masheto and Camile Robinson; Indiana's Doug Dayhoff and Vera Neuenswander; Iowa's Micah VanDenend and Sarah Burgett; Michigan's Jeff Porter and Katie Erdman; Michigan State's Ryan McMillian and Anna Coster; Minnesota's Walter Langkau and Liz Alabi; Ohio State's Leonard Jatsek and Veronica Jatsek; Penn State's Tyler McCandless and Amber Strouse; Purdue's John Porter and Laura Farley; and Wisconsin's Nathan Brown and Alex McCannel. These 20 student-athletes are now candidates for the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award, as the conference office will honor one male and one female student-athlete from each institution at the end of the school year.
