Penn State Two Wins Away From Outright Big Ten Title

No. 4 Penn State (25-2, 16-2 Big Ten) enters the weekend just two wins shy of claiming the Big Ten title outright for the second year in a row. The Nittany Lions could also stake claim to their eighth title in the 13 years since joining the Conference in 1991. PSU travels to Michigan State on Friday and closes out the regular season on Saturday at Michigan. Penn State currently holds sole possession of first place in the Big Ten and a one-match lead over Minnesota (26-4, 15-3) and Ohio State (25-3, 15-3) with just two contests to play.

An Inside Look at the Race for the Conference Title

While last Wednesday could have potentially decided the Big Ten title, with Penn State defeating Ohio State, 3-1, two important matches remain for the top three teams in the League -- Minnesota, Ohio State and Penn State. Here is a look at their remaining schedules:

Pos. Team (Big Ten Record)

- 1 Penn State (16-2)
• @MSU (N26), @MICH (N27)
- T-2 Minnesota (15-3)
• IOWA (N24), @ILL (N26)
- T-2 Ohio State (15-3)
• @MICH (N26), @MSU (N27)

Three Conference Teams Rank Among Top 10

For the seventh time this season and only the eighth time in Big Ten history, three teams rank in the top 10 nationally. In the latest USA Today/CSTV Top 25 Coaches Poll, Penn State is ranked No. 4, followed by Minnesota at No. 5 and No. 8 Ohio State. Illinois and Wisconsin received votes outside the top 25.

Minnesota's Gentil Digs Her Way Into Big Ten Record Books

This past weekend, Minnesota junior libero Paula Gentil broke the Big Ten's all-time record for career digs with 1,947. The previous record was 1,931, set by Janet Moylan of Iowa from 1987-90. Just two weeks ago, Gentil snapped her Big Ten single-season digs record of 656 (2003) and currently sits with a League-best 717. Gentil is just the third player in Big Ten history to reach 1,900 digs and is on pace to eclipse the 2,000-dig plateau this weekend. She broke her own school record with 39 digs (13.0 dpg) against Michigan on September 25, bettering her previous high of 37 against then-No. 1 USC on August 28 in five games. Gentil's school record marked just the first time a League player has recorded 39 or more digs in a match since October 20, 1990.

Badgers Just Miss Big Ten Attendance Mark

Wisconsin barely missed setting the Big Ten volleyball record for attendance for the second year in a row. In 2004, Wisconsin totalled 46,026 fans in 10 Conference matches for an average of 4,603. The Badgers set the current record average of 4,649 in 2003.

BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Maria Carlini, Wisconsin
SO, Outside Hitter, LaSalle, Ontario/Villanova

Carlini earns Big Ten Player of the Week honors after leading the Badgers to a pair of home wins on the weekend. She recorded a career-high 19 kills, including seven in the decisive game four, and 44 attempts as Wisconsin downed Michigan State, 3-1, on Saturday. Carlini, a 6-2 outside hitter, also added 11 digs for her second double-double of the weekend. On Friday against Michigan, Carlini shared match-high honors with 13 kills and 11 digs, while hitting an impressive .550 against the Wolverines. She also added a crucial block solo in both matches.

On the weekend, Carlini averaged 4.57 kills per game while hitting .391. She also added 0.57 assists per game, 0.14 service aces 3.14 digs and 0.29 blocks per game.

This is Carlini's first Big Ten Player of the Week honor and the third for the Badgers this season.

Carlini and the Badgers wrap up the 2004 regular season with two Big Ten matches on the road this weekend. Wisconsin (18-8, 12-6 Big Ten) travels to Purdue (15-13, 8-10) on Friday for a 6 p.m. CST match, followed by a 6 p.m. CST match on Saturday at Indiana (8-21, 2-6).

Record Five Top-10 Meetings Highlight 2004-05 Season

On five occasions this season, two Conference teams ranked in the top 10 nationally battled against one another. Prior to this season, the most top-10 meetings that occurred in a single season was four in 1995. This instance has happened on 20 different occasions and was highlighted this season by the highest-ranked match in League history. Then-No. 1 Minnesota defeated fourth-ranked Penn State, 3-2, on October 2. Here is a look at the all-time top-10 meetings in the League:

Illinois' Nickname: Fighting Illini or Streak Busters?

There is no question that Illinois has lived up to its nickname "Fighting Illini" this season, but some would argue that a more appropriate nickname for the Orange & Blue would be "Streak Busters." Illinois has ended three notable streaks by its opponents this season.

On October 23, Illinois knocked a team from the ranks of the unbeaten for the second time this season. The No. 24 Fighting Illini upset No. 7 Ohio State, 3-0, in Champaign, snapping the Buckeyes' 19-match winning streak. Earlier this year, the Illini upset two-time defending national champion and then-No. 1 USC in Champaign, ending the Women of Troy's 52-match winning streak. The win against OSU marked the first time since 1995 that Illinois had defeated two Top 10 teams in the same season when the Illini knocked off No. 8 Penn State and No. 9 Ohio State in back-to-back nights.

Most recently, Illinois swept Wisconsin -- a team that entered the November 5th match a winner of eight straight. A week prior to the Illinois match, Wisconsin upset No. 2 Minnesota, 3-2.

Opponent	Streak	W/L	Date
#1 USC	52	W, 3-2	9/11/04
#7 OHIO STATE	19	W, 3-0	10/23/04
WISCONSIN	8	W, 3-0	11/5/04

Illini Head Coach Don Hardin Earns 350th Career Victory

In sweeping Wisconsin on November 5, Illinois gave head coach Don Hardin his 350th career victory. Hardin is the eighth Big Ten mentor to reach a coaching milestone this season (See Page 5). Hardin, who is in his 17th year as a head coach, spent eight seasons at Louisville before spending the past nine at Illinois.

Gophers Say Just Bring it

Minnesota has built a record of 26-4 this season, with nine of those 30 matches coming against top 25 competition. Currently, Minnesota holds a record of 5-3 versus top 20 teams and a 5-2 record against teams in the top 15.

Opponent (Now Ranked)	W/L	Date
#1 USC (6)	L, 2-3	8/28/04
#4 Penn State (4)	W, 3-2	10/2/04

BIG TEN VOLLEYBALL BITS

Illinois (18-9, 10-8) will host Minnesota this Friday as the Wildcard selection for FSN Chicago. Senior defensive specialist Kathleen Bazzetta moved into 10th on the Illinois' all-time digs list this past weekend and now has 943 for her career. Fellow senior Lauren Harks is third at 1,299. With two victories, Illinois would win 20 matches for the 16th time in school history.

Indiana (8-21, 2-16) fell 3-0 to Minnesota last week after dropping its mid-week match at Iowa, 3-2. The Hoosiers close the season at home against Northwestern and Wisconsin this weekend. Seniors Katie Pollom and Christina Archibald lead IU with 406 and 390 kills, respectively. Sophomore Tasha Arsenych serves as the primary setter with 1,233 of the squad's 1,369 assists.

Iowa (10-20, 2-16) captured just its second win in Conference play last Thursday, with a 3-2 thriller over Indiana in Iowa City. However, the Hawkeyes fell 3-0 on Sunday to Purdue. Prior to the 2004 campaign, the Hawkeyes had not reached the 10-win plateau since the 2000 season when they went 15-13 on the year. Iowa ends the season this weekend on the road at Minnesota (11/24) and at Illinois (11/27).

Michigan (19-10, 9-9) split over the weekend with a 3-0 loss at Wisconsin, but rebounded at Northwestern with a 3-0 win. Head coach Mark Rosen recorded his 104th victory with Michigan, tying him for second all-time with the Wolverines. Sophomore Megan Bowman moved into 11th place over the weekend on the all-time blocked list at Michigan.

Michigan State (12-14, 7-11) has won six of its last nine matches and split between Northwestern and Wisconsin this past weekend. The Spartans swept Northwestern, 3-0, but dropped a 3-1 match at Wisconsin. MSU closes out its regular season at home against Penn State on Friday and Ohio State on Saturday.

Should No. 5 Minnesota (26-4, 15-3) finish out the regular season with two more victories, it would tied its record for its best Big Ten record in school history at 17-3. The Golden Gophers accomplished that in 2000 and 2002. Minnesota and Penn State are each tied for the best record in the Big Ten since 2002 at 47-11. Minnesota is on record pace as team for digs per game at 19.78 dpg.

Northwestern (8-20, 3-15) will look to end its season on a high night as the Wildcats travel to Indiana and Purdue this weekend. The 'Cats will face the Hoosiers on Friday, followed by Purdue on Saturday. Seniors Leah Delcourt and Drew Robertson, who played their last home matches last weekend, will battle in two final matches before closing out their careers at Northwestern.

No. 7 Ohio State (25-3, 15-3) stands at 25-3 this season after finishing 11-17 last season. Rebecca Kastein had a career-high 20 digs against Penn State, while Danielle Meyer had a career-high nine assist blocks against Illinois. Ami Stevens equaled her career high of 17 digs against Penn State. She set her high at Minnesota. Briana McCarthy had a season-high seven assist blocks and Marisa Main had a career-high 68 assists against Illinois.

No. 4 Penn State (25-2, 16-2) remains alone in first place in the Conference with two matches remaining. Freshman Melissa Walbridge fell just two blocks shy of her career best with eight stuffs against Illinois last weekend, and just one kill shy of her career high. She recorded 10 kills at Ohio State on November 17. The Nittany Lions lead the all-time series with Michigan State (22-6) and Michigan (26-3). The last time PSU traveled to the state of Michigan was September 26-27, 2003, when it squeaked out 3-2 wins against both schools.

Purdue (15-13, 8-10) won its eighth conference match last weekend for the first time since the 1998 season. The Boilermakers also posted its 15th win in a season for the first time since 1999. The team is one win away from its best season since 1992, when the team went 17-13 overall and 10-10 in the League. Last Sunday's win over the Hawkeyes also marked the team's first sweep of Iowa since the 1998 season.

Wisconsin (18-8, 12-6) captured two wins last weekend, which stopped a three-match skid. It was the Badgers' eighth-straight win at the UW Field House. Freshman Jackie Simpson has recorded over 1,000 assists this season, becoming the first UW freshman since Laura Abbinante in 1993 to accomplish that feat. Junior Sheila Shaw moved into 14th on the UW career list with 910 kills.

PSU's Nadeau Named AVCA National Player of the Week
 For the third time this season, a Big Ten student-athlete has been recognized as the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Division I Player of the Week. Last week's Big Ten Player of the Week, Syndie Nadeau of Penn State, earned the honor marking the Nittany Lions' first-ever National Player of the Week award in the history of the program. Minnesota's Kelly Bowman, a sophomore setter who was named Big Ten co-Player of the Week on October 25, also earned the weekly AVCA national award as well as Ohio State's Stacey Gordon on September 13.

Minnesota Split Pair of Top-10 Big Ten Matchups
 While Penn State is currently atop the League standings, Minnesota sits tied with Ohio State just match game behind. Over the weekend of November 5-6, the Golden Gophers hosted the League's top two teams and came out with a split. No. 6 Penn State topped No. 5 Minnesota on November 5, 3-1, but rebounded to top Ohio State in four games on November 6.

Earlier in the year, Minnesota met both teams in historic matches. Against Ohio State, then top-ranked Minnesota fell to the Buckeyes, 3-1, with the outcome bumping the Gophers from the top spot the following week. Minnesota rebounded the next night at Penn State when the Gophers brought their No. 1 ranking into State College and defeated then-No. 4 Penn State, 3-2. The match marked the highest-ranking matchup in Big Ten history and only the second time ever that two League teams faced off while each were nationally ranked in the top five. The only other time this scenario occurred in Conference history was when No. 4 Ohio State battled No. 5 Penn State on November 29, 1994.

Minnesota's Hebert Three Wins Shy of 800
 Minnesota head coach Mike Hebert stands just three wins away from the 800th-victory milestone only seven total and four active coaches have ever reached. Hebert, in his ninth year at Minnesota, has recorded a career record of 797-338 (.702), as head coach of the Gophers, Illinois (1983-95), New Mexico (1980-82) and Pittsburgh (1976-79). Hebert is expected to eclipse the 800-win plateau in the NCAA Tournament.

Penn State head coach Russ Rose is also one of the four active coaches to have reached 800 wins as he eclipsed the mark in the Nittany Lions' season opener. On September 3, PSU swept Rutgers 3-0, to make Rose only the sixth coach in Division I history to reach the 800-win plateau. Currently, Rose ranks second all-time among active coaches in winning percentage (.846, Hawaii's Dave Shoji-.850) and third all-time in victories (824).

Ohio State's Gordon Sets All-Time Big Ten Kill Mark
 Ohio State's Stacey Gordon, who set a Big Ten record last season with 6.62 kills per game and currently has an average of 7.08, broke the all-time Big Ten kill record of 2,379, established by Minnesota's Nicole Branagh from 1997-2000, on October 15. Her record-breaking kill came on her 27th of 31 kills against the Wolverines. Gordon currently stands at 2,674 kills for her career, which is sixth on the NCAA Division I career kills list. She stands 54 kills behind No. 5 Priscilla Pacheco (1991-94) of Georgia who has 2,675.

BIGTEN.ORG QUICKIES

Badgers Upset Minnesota in Madison

Wisconsin upset No. 2 Minnesota in a thrilling 3-2 match in Madison on October 30. The win, which was Wisconsin's seventh straight, was witnessed by a season-high crowd of 5,136 at the UW Field House and marked the first time since 2001 that the Badgers had beaten an opponent ranked as high as No. 2, when they last did it against USC.

Michigan State's Erbe Earns 550th Career Win

Michigan State head coach Chuck Erbe earned his 550th career win on October 27, with a 3-2 victory over intrastate rival Michigan. Erbe, now in his 12th year in East Lansing, was head coach at Southern California from 1976-1988, before taking the helm of the Spartans in 1993.

Three Standouts Setting Own Marks in Kills History

Several other Big Ten student-athletes have their sights set on individual marks for kills this season as well. Indiana's Christina Archibald has 1,777 kills over her career, while Minnesota's Erin Martin has 1,679 kills. Michigan's Jennifer Gandolph (1,507) surpassed the 1,500-kill mark on November 12.

Michigan's Rosen Joins Century Club With Wolverines

Michigan head coach Mark Rosen captured his 100th win with the Maize and Blue against Northwestern on October 22, marking the second milestone for the Wolverine mentor this season. Rosen, in his 13th year, recorded his 300th career victory on September 11 against Oakland.

Big Ten Ranks Among Nation's Best

As of November 14, the Big Ten boasted several of its teams and student-athletes at or near the top of the NCAA statistical rankings. Ohio State's Stacey Gordon leads the nation in kills per game (7.20), while teammate Marisa Main is third in the country in assists per game (14.82). Minnesota's Paula Gentil ranks third currently in digs with 6.44 per game. In team categories, Ohio State ranks second in the nation in assists per game (16.98) followed by Minnesota (16.26) at No. 5 and Penn State (16.22) at No. 6. OSU also holds the nation's best mark in kills per game (18.47) and is second in hitting percentage (.322).

Nearly 11,000 Gopher Fans Help Minnesota Set Record

On October 16, Minnesota broke a school record for attendance with 10,927 fans for a match at Williams Arena. The 10,927 fans that came to see the Gophers defeat then-No. 23 Illinois, were the most fans to attend a Division I volleyball match this season. Minnesota's old record of 6,046 was set in Williams Arena on September 28, 1990 against Purdue.

The Minnesota-Illinois match was the second-highest attended match between two Big Ten teams in the history of the League. The highest attended match came when 10,935 fans watched Illinois and Wisconsin battle on November 30, 1990, in Madison.

Bowman on Top of Game Versus Top-Ranked Competition

Minnesota's Kelly Bowman has tallied seven triple-doubles this year, with two coming against three of the top four teams in the nation. On August 28, Bowman recorded 17 kills, 18 digs and 40 assists versus No. 1 USC, while on September 11, she recorded 11 kills, 19 kills and 15 assists against No. 4 Florida. Bowman also delivered 16 kills, 21 digs and 34 assists at No. 4 Penn State on October 2. In the Gophers' 3-2 loss at Wisconsin on October 30, she recorded 17 kills, 10 digs and 26 assists. Most recently, Bowman posted 11 kills, 10 digs and 31 assists at Michigan on November 12.

BIGTEN.ORG QUICKIES

Big Ten Boasts Big Upsets of Top-Ranked Teams

On two occasions this season, a Big Ten team has upset the nation's top-ranked team. No. 16 Ohio State knocked off No. 1 Minnesota 3-1 (30-24, 30-23, 18-30, 30-24) on October 1, while on September 11, then-No. 16 Illinois defeated top-ranked and two-time defending national champion USC, 3-2, ending the longest winning streak in NCAA volleyball history at 52 straight. The Illini topped the Women of Troy 30-24, 24-30, 12-30, 30-27, 15-8, which marked the first time in school history that the Orange and Blue defeated a number one team. Earlier this year, Minnesota dropped a 3-2 heartbreaker to then-No. 1 USC at the NACWAA Tournament.

Crashing The Net

Three Big Ten season highs have been recorded at the net by League standouts over the past month. On October 30, Wisconsin's Jackie Simpson set a season high for assists with 75 against Minnesota, while on October 20, Ohio State's Stacey Gordon tied her top total for the year against Penn State with a League's best mark of 36 kills this season. Wisconsin freshman Taylor Reineke turned in a 12-block performance against Indiana on October 15, marking the highest total number of blocks in a match by a League player in 2004.

A Streak To Remember

Prior to falling 3-1 to Ohio State on October 1, Minnesota spent three weeks at the top spot in the national rankings -- the first time in school history the Golden Gophers had ever been rank No. 1. In that span, Minnesota went 6-1, marking the first time a Big Ten squad had ruled the collegiate volleyball scene in three-consecutive weeks since Penn State in 1999. The Nittany Lions held the No. 1 rank for 11-straight weeks from October 4, 1999 until the final poll of the 1999 season when PSU captured the NCAA title.

Big Ten Boasts Winning Record Over Top-25 Teams

In the four total weeks of non-conference action, Big Ten teams were a combined 10-5 against top-25 competition. League teams defeated two top-10 teams, including then top-ranked USC (Illinois, 3-2), and posted a record of 7-4 against teams in the top-15. On three occasions, three different Big Ten teams defeated the 12th-ranked team, as Purdue and Wisconsin topped then-No. 12 Georgia Tech the first week of September, while Penn State topped No. 12 Stanford the week after.

Gophers' Gentil and Lions' Walters Dig Down Deep

Two Big Ten student-athletes from two different teams were looking for one League record on October 2. Minnesota's Paula Gentil set the Big Ten record for digs in a match with 47, bettering the previous record of 44 set by Wisconsin's Susan Wohlford against Iowa on October 20, 1990. On the other side of the net, Penn State junior libero Kaleena Walters matched Wohlford's mark with a career-high and Penn State record 44 digs against the Gophers.

OSU's Stone Reaches No. 500

Ohio State head coach Jim Stone captured his 500th career win on September 17 when his Buckeyes defeated Northeastern, 3-1. The win ranks him fourth among active coaches in the League. With his Buckeyes owning a 25-3 record this season, Stone has a career mark of 516-302 (.631).

Worth the Wait for Waite

Wisconsin head coach Pete Waite captured career win No. 400 on September 17 in a 3-0 sweep of Virginia. Waite, who is in his 17th year at the helm of the Badgers, has 414 career wins and ranks near the top 10 in winning percentage at .739 (414-146) overall.

OTHER TOP LEAGUE PERFORMERS

ILLINOIS - Rachel VanMeter, JR, Outside Hitter

VanMeter recorded a team-high 22 kills against No. 7 Ohio State and then followed with a team-best 15 kills the following night against No. 4 Penn State.

INDIANA - Juli Pierce, FR, Libero

Pierce notched a double-double against Minnesota on November 20 with 14 digs and 10 assists. She also tallied 19 digs against Iowa.

IOWA - Carolyn Giese, SR, Middle Blocker

Giese led five Hawkeye players in double-digits with 16 kills in Iowa's 3-2 in over Indiana. The victory (30-16, 30-19, 27-30, 27-30, 15-13) ended Iowa's 15-match drought.

MICHIGAN - Katie Bruzdinski, FR, Outside Hitter

Bruzdinski hit .521 on the week, leading Michigan in kills in back-to-back matches and notching a double-double against Wisconsin. She also moved into second place all-time at U-M among freshmen for single-season kills and attempts.

MICHIGAN STATE - Meghan Schoen, FR, Middle Hitter

Schoen hit a team-best .319 on the weekend to go along with 25 kills, the second-best total on the MSU team. She averaged a team-best 1.43 blocks per game, with 10 blocks on the weekend. Her 10-block total gave her 84 on the year, good for third place among all Spartan freshmen.

MINNESOTA - Erin Martin, SR, Outside Hitter

Martin averaged 5.83 kpg and hit .366 for the week in two victories against Purdue and Indiana this past week. Against Indiana she hit .457 (18-2-35) with 18 kills, while she had 17 kills and .298 against Purdue. Martin moved to 10th on the Golden Gopher single-season kills list with 556 for the year. She now has double-figures in kills in 28 of Minnesota's 30 matches this season.

NORTHWESTERN - Drew Robertson, SR, Setter

Robertson recorded a total of 68 assists on the weekend, giving her 5,006 on her career at Northwestern. She became NU's first-and-only setter to reach 5,000 assists.

OHIO STATE - Stacey Gordon, SR, Outside Hitter

Gordon had match-highs of 21 kills and 22 digs against Penn State adding a solo and three assist blocks. She also had match-highs of 32 kills and 27 digs against Illinois adding a solo and five assist blocks. Gordon's 27 digs against Illinois equaled her career high set against Northwestern the previous week. Gordon has extended her streak of double-figure kill matches to 104. Her 32 kills against Illinois was her sixth game with 30 or more kills this season.

PENN STATE - Cassy Salyer, SO, Middle Hitter

Salyer's performance over the last two matches aided the No. 4 Nittany Lions in moving closer to a second consecutive Big Ten title. In a crucial matchup at No. 7 Ohio State on Wednesday, the 6-5 sophomore was one of five Penn State players in double-digit kills, recording 10 kills on .240 hitting and tallying four blocks. On Saturday against Illinois, Salyer was virtually unstoppable, posting a team-high 14 kills, two shy of her season high, while hitting a match- and Conference-season-high .565. For the weekend, the pre-season All-Big Ten middle hitter attacked at a team-high .396 clip while amassing 3.43 kills per game and 1.00 blocks per game.

PURDUE - Kim McConaha, SR, Middle Hitter

McConaha played a key role in both of Purdue's weekend matches, posting a team-leading six blocks against No. 5 Minnesota, helping the team out-block the Gophers, 8-5. She just missed a double-double in the match with 10 kills and 9 digs. Against Iowa, the senior posted a match-high 18 kills on a .469 hitting percentage, while adding 10 digs and five blocks as well as an ace. For the weekend, McConaha average 4.67 kills, 3.17 digs, 1.83 blocks and 5.83 points per game, while hitting .333.
