This is Olinger's second career Runner of the Week award as he was honored for the first time on Oct. 12, 2004.

Kohlmeier earns her third Runner of the Week of the season and second in three weeks after her efforts at the Pre-Nationals meet last week. The Wolverine sophomore finished fourth with a 6K time of 20:26.9 and was the only Big Ten runner in the top 10. Kohlmeier has now been the top U-M finisher in all four of her runs this year.

This marks the first time a Big Ten runner has captured three weekly honors in a single-season since both Michigan State's Michelle Carson and Penn State's Molly Landreth accomplished the feat in 2003.
