A QUICK LOOK AT WHAT'S INSIDE THESE NOTES...

- BU is making its fifth NIT appearance overall and its third straight trip. Georgetown leads the all-time series with BU, 4-1.
- BU ranks second in the nation in field goal defense (36.8%), third in the nation in scoring defense (55.4 ppg), and is tied for 15th in the country in fewest turnovers (12.0 tpg), which has them in line to once again set a team record. Last year, they were charged with a team-low 352 turnovers - this year, 336.
- BU is 17-2 this season when holding opponents under 60 points. On the flip side, the Terriers are 3-6 when their foes score 60 or more points.
- BU has held 16 of its last 24 opponents - and 18 overall - to 55 points scored or less. Nine of its last 12 opponents have failed to score over 55 points.
- BU is making its fourth straight post-season appearance. Prior to the 2001-02 season, the Terriers had never made back-to-back post-season trips in its 96-year history. Seniors Rashad Bell and Chaz Carr are the first class to make four post-season trips and the first to win 20+ games in each of its four seasons.
- Seniors Rashad Bell and Chaz Carr were voted America East All-Conference First Team selections by the conference's coaches. It's the second First Team nod for Bell (2003) and the third for Carr (2002, 2004). In addition, sophomore Etienne Brower was named to the All-Conference Third Team.
- Chaz Carr and Rashad Bell are among BU's top 10 career scorers. Carr enters the tournament eighth with 1,401 career points, while Bell is right behind him in ninth with 1,353 points.
- Rashad Bell is one of only six Terriers in the program's 96-year history to score 1,200 points and add 600 rebounds in his career.
- Rashad Bell has blocked 114 shots in his BU career. He ranks second on BU's all-time blocked shots list behind Tunji Awojobi (1993-97), who had 302 blocks.
- BU is 0-1 this season against Big East teams, having lost a close 80-74 game at Boston College on Dec. 11.
- America East is ranked 15th among the nation's conference's according to RPIratings.com. The conference has sent three teams to post-season play for the first time in its 26-year history. In addition to BU's contest against Georgetown, Vermont will play Syracuse in an NCAA Tournament first round game on Friday, while Northeastern plays at NIT game at Memphis tonight.

GAME #29: Boston University Terriers (20-8) at the Georgetown University Hoyas (17-12).
WHAT: 2005 National Invitation Tournament First Round.
DATE: Wednesday, March 16, 2005, 7:30 p.m.
ARENA: MCI Center (20,600), Washington, D.C.
RADIO: Tonight's NIT game can be heard locally in the Boston area on WROLAM-950 with Rich Levine and Doug Guy calling the action.
INTERNET: Tonight's game can be heard on the internet at www.bu.edu/athletics/webcast.

ENTERING THE TOURNAMENT
Neither BU nor Georgetown is entering the post-season NIT playing its best basketball. BU is one of the top defensive squads in the country, ranking second in field goal defense and third in scoring defense, but has had trouble on the offensive end. The Terriers have lost three-of-four, averaging only 51.8 points per game in those contests. After starting the season 16-6, Georgetown has lost six of its last seven games.

UP NEXT FOR THE TERRIERS
The winner of tonight's game advances to play the winner of the California State-Fullerton vs. Oregon State and Denver vs. San Francisco opening round games on a date and time to be determined.

IT'S A PROGRAM FIRST - FOUR STRAIGHT 20+ WIN SEASONS FOR BU
BU comes into this year's NIT with a 20-8 record. It marks the program's fourth straight 20-win season. Along with the team's 22-10 record in 2001-02, its 20-11 mark in 2002-03, and its 23-6 record last year, it marks the first time in the program's 96-year history of men's basketball that the team has won recovered. BU opened the second half with five straight points to cut the lead to 16 points, but URI regained control with a 15-3 run over the next 3:25. A 10-2 Rams' run midway through the half pushed the lead to 75-39, their largest of the game, with 7:30 remaining.

HEAD COACH DENNIS WOLFF

In his 11th season at BU, Dennis Wolff is the all-time leader in coaching victories at the school, bringing a 192-132 (.593) record into the tournament. Overall, he is 222-150 (.597) in his 13 years as a head coach (two seasons at Connecticut College). He has led the Terriers to a pair of America East Conference Championships (1997, 2002) and has been named the conference's Coach of the Year on three occasions (1997, 2003, 2004). Including tonight's NIT appearance, the Terriers made post-season appearances in each of the last four seasons, earning an NIT bid the last three years while going to the NCAA Tournament in 2001-02. Their 2002-03 NIT trip marked the first time in the program's history that they had made consecutive post-season trips. This year's return to the NIT only extends that mark.

SENIORS RASHAD BELL AND CHAZ CARR IN FINAL GO 'ROUND THIS SEASON

It's no secret that the Terriers' recent success coincided with the arrival at BU of Rashad Bell and Chaz Carr. With a win over Maine on Feb. 24, they became the first BU class to accumulate 20-or-more wins in each of its four years. This season, both were named to the America East All-Conference First Team. Bell also earned All-Conference First Team honors as a sophomore, while Carr was selected to the conference's First and Second Team as a junior and freshman, respectively. Combined, they have been a major factor in the team's 85-35 record (a team record for wins by a single class) and three straight conference regular-season titles from 2002-2004.

BU SECOND IN NATION IN FIELD GOAL DEFENSE

BU has one of the best defenses in the country and is second among all Division I teams in field goal defense, allowing opponents to shoot only 36.82 percent from the field. The Terriers are in some pretty good company at the top of the list, as a number of Top 25 teams* join them among the nation's leaders (through March 7):

Team	G	W-L	Avg.
1 (#23) Cincinnati	30	24-6	36.77
2 Boston Univ.	28	20-8	36.82

TERRIERS 15TH IN NATION IN FEWEST TURNOVERS

A further testament to the Terriers' success this season is their turnover numbers this season. They've averaged only 12.0 turnovers per game, a number that ranks them 15th in the nation as of games played March 7.

TERRIERS, CATAMOUNTS THE CLASS OF AMERICA EAST OVER PAST FOUR YEARS

Since America East's realignment prior to the 2001-02 season, either Boston University or Vermont, or both schools, have been on top of the conference standings each and every week. BU shared the conference's 2001-02 regular-season title with UVM and has won it outright the last two seasons. A look at the teams' America East records since 2001-02:

BELL EARNS THREE AMERICA EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARDS THIS SEASON

Rashad Bell played an inspired game against Vermont on Feb. 12, scoring a career-high 29 points and badgering UVM's Taylor Coppentrath the entire game. Due to his efforts, he was named America East Men's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on Feb. 14 along with Coppentrath. It was the third weekly award for Bell, who won on consecutive weeks on Dec. 6 and 13. He earned the first award after tallying 20 points and 11 rebounds in the team's win at UNH on Dec. 4, and took home the second award after going 13-for-16 from the field at Harvard and at BC. He's earned the award six times during his four-year career.

BELL JOINS ELITE GROUP OF TERRIERS WITH 1,200 PTS AND 600 REB

Rashad Bell is one of only six players in BU men's basketball history to score 1,200 career points and grab 600 rebounds. He enters tonight's game with 1,305 points and 616 rebounds in his career.

BROWER FOLLOWING FRESHMAN-TO-SOPHOMORE YEAR SUCCESS PATH

After a freshman season spent mostly as an understudy to the Terriers' more experienced forwards, sophomore Etienne Brower has picked up a trail that upperclassmen Shaun Wynn and Rashad Bell blazed in the last two seasons. That is, having a breakout sophomore campaign. Wynn earned America East's Defensive Player of the Year award and an All-Conference Third Team selection after his sophomore season last year. Bell made his presence known in the league during his sophomore season, earning America East All-Conference First Team honors. A look at how Brower stacks up to Wynn and Bell in their first two seasons:

BELL CONTINUES TO LEAD BU, MOVES INTO BU'S CAREER TOP 10 SCORING LIST

Rashad Bell continues to pace the Terriers in the scoring department this season, averaging 15.7 points per game. With his 17-point game at Hartford on Feb. 5, he moved into ninth place on the team's all-time scoring list. He is second in America East in field goal percentage (54.6%). He's scored in double figures in all but three games this season and has a string of 10+ points in 29 of his last 32 contests.

BELL SECOND ON BU'S ALL-TIME BLOCKED SHOTS LIST

Rashad Bell has moved into second place on BU's all-time blocked shots list with 114. Twice against UMBC this season he tied his career high with five blocks, allowing him to move past Jason Scott (1989-92), who had 93 blocks. That'll be about it for moving up, however, as Tunji Awojobi (1993-97) holds the top spot with an incredible 302 career blocked shots.

BELL BECOMES 27TH TERRIER TO JOIN 1,000- POINT CLUB

Rashad Bell passed the 1,000 points career scoring mark during his 17-point effort at Harvard on Dec. 7, becoming the 27th Terrier to reach the milestone. He joins Chaz Carr on the list. Carr eclipsed the mark last year. You can see the entire list on page 59 of the BU media guide.

TERRIER DEFENSE BACK TO FORM THIS SEASON, AMONG NATION'S LEADERS

A BU defense that ranked ninth in the nation last season in scoring defense (59.5 ppg) is strong once again this season. The Terriers enter this game ranked second in the nation in field goal defense (36.8 percent) and third in the nation in scoring "D", holding teams to a league-low 55.4 points per game. Through the regular-season games, BU has allowed only eight teams to score more than 60 points, and is holding opponents to 28.5 percent from the three-point line - both league bests. BU has held 16 of its last 24 opponents - and 18 overall - to 55 points or less.

BU BENCH ROTATES AROUND YOUTH

Nobody on BU's bench played a college game before this season. The BU bench rotation has consisted of three true freshmen (Tony Gaffney, Bryan Geffen, and Matt Wolff), and a transfer sophomore (Omari Peterkin) who hadn't played a college game before BU's game against Canisius on Dec. 23. Ben Coblyn, another true freshman, has seen limited action while he nurses a sore lower back injury. The only other player on the bench, freshman Chris Vasiliou, also didn't see college action before this season.

GEFFEN'S CONFIDENCE ON THE RISE

Dennis Wolff's confidence in freshman guard Bryan Geffen was evident after he scored a career-high 13 points vs. UNH on Jan. 26: "I like everything about Geffen's game," said the coach. "He can handle the ball and he knows how to play." Geffen scored eight straight points, including two three-pointers, sparking a BU second-half run that sent the Terriers to the win. Against Vermont at Agganis Arena last Saturday, his steal and layup gave ended an 8-0 UVM run and gave the Terriers a lead they would not relinquish. Geffen's star has been on the rise in the second half of the season - during which he's averaged 4.3 ppg in the last 18 games. He got off to a slow start after averaging 1.7 ppg and shooting 16.0% in his first 10 games.

GARDNER LOGS FIRST CAREER DOUBLE-DOUBLE IN BINGHAMTON WIN

Kevin Gardner posted his first career double-double in the Terriers' 69-54 win over Binghamton on Jan. 9. He finished with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He's tied for first on the team in rebounding at 5.7 boards per game and leads the team in offensive rebounding with 60. Earlier this season, he set a career scoring high with 20 points at Boston College.

BROWER HAS TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF STARTING ROLE IN SOPHOMORE SEASON

Etienne Brower has found his groove this season. He has tied or set career highs in scoring six times this year, most recently scoring a career-high 19 points at Maine on Feb. 2. He tallied his first two career double-doubles with 18-points and 10-rebounds vs. Stony Brook on Feb. 16 and 11 points and 10 boards vs. Northeastern on Feb. 20. Among team leaders, he's second in blocked shots (40), and third in both rebounding (5.6 rpg) and scoring (8.6 ppg).

MATT WOLFF NAMED AMERICA EAST CO-ROOKIE OF THE WEEK ON DEC. 20

Freshman guard Matt Wolff was named America East Co-Rookie of the Week on Dec. 20 after scoring 11 points on 3-of-5 shooting from behind the three-point line in the Terriers' 63-52 win at Michigan on Dec. 14. He shared the award with Vermont's Ryan Schneider. It was the first weekly award for both players.

MATT WOLFF HAD BREAKTHROUGH GAME AGAINST FORDHAM

Freshman Matt Wolff had a tremendous game against the Atlantic-10's Fordham on Nov. 24. The coach's son, coming off the bench, scored 17 points on 7-of-11 shooting, adding nine rebounds and five assists in 36 minutes in the 66-51 win.

BU ON POSITIVE SIDE OF ASSIST-TO-TURNOVER RATIO ONCE AGAIN

For the third straight season, BU is on the positive side of the assist-to-turnover ratio. Through the regular-season games, the Terriers have a 1.04 ratio (350 assists to 336 turnovers) - good enough for second in America East to Vermont's 1.34. It's always a sure sign that the Dennis Wolff-led Terriers are playing well. Last year, they were credited with 420 assists and charged with 352 turnovers (a team record for fewest turnovers, a stat kept since 1973-74). Their 1.20 assist-to-turnover ratio led the league.

FITZGERALD RETURNS TO BU AS DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Former Terrier Kevin Fitzgerald ('04) was named BU's Director of Basketball Operations prior to the team's game at UNH on Dec. 4. Fitzgerald finished his playing career fifth on BU's career lists for assists (372) and steals (166), leading BU to 79 wins in his four years in addition to three America East regular-season titles, one conference championship, and three straight post-season appearances. He averaged 3.6 points, 3.1 assists, and 1.4 steals per game. His 2.20 assist-to-turnover ratio is second best in program history.

THREE-POINT STREAK AT 271 GAMES AND COUNTING

BU finished last season (and the last eight complete seasons) having made at least one three-pointer in each game. Including this year's games, the Terriers have extended their streak of consecutive games with a three-pointer to 271. The last time the Terriers were held scoreless from beyond the arc was Feb. 10, 1996, when they missed each of their 10 three-point attempts at Vermont. BU has hit three-pointers in 321 of the 324 games under Dennis Wolff.

CARR NAMED AMERICA EAST PRE-SEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Chaz Carr was among the players selected by a vote of the league's coaches to the America East Pre-Season All-Conference Team. Carr, an All-Conference First Team selection last year, will lead the Terriers in their attempt to retain their spot among the conference's top teams.

BU PICKED SECOND IN COACHES' POLL

The BU men's basketball team was picked to finish second in America East this season in the coaches' pre-season poll. For the second straight season, the coaches picked Vermont to win the conference title and the Terriers to finish behind the two-time defending champs. Maine, last year's

BELL, CARR, WYNN CAPTAIN TERRIERS IN 2004-05

Seniors Chaz Carr and Rashad Bell, along with junior Shaun Wynn, will serve as team captains during the 2004-05 season. It's the first captaincy for each player.

FOURSOME NAMED ALL-LEAGUE IN 2003-04

Four Terriers earned America East post-season honors last year. Chaz Carr and Jason Grochowalski both earned a spot on the All-Conference First Team. Shaun Wynn earned the league's Defensive Player of the Year award as well as a Third Team nod. Finally, Ryan Butt earned Third Team accolades for the second year in a row.

2003-04: SEASON IN REVIEW

The Terriers ended the regular season on a 12-game win streak and winners of 23 of their last 24 games. They had also won 12 consecutive road games to end the regular season, second in the nation at the time only to No. 2 Saint Joseph's 13-game road streak. BU had two impressive 11- and 12-game winning streaks during the season. For the first time in the program's 95-year history, the team has had three straight 20-win seasons, and made an unprecedented third consecutive post-season trip.

IN 2003-04, WOLFF EARNS "TRIPLE CROWN" AWARDS FOR SECOND TIME

For his part in leading the Terriers to a 23-6 record last year, Dennis Wolff earned America East, National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 1, and New England Division I Basketball Coach of the Year honors. It's his second straight America East Coach of the Year award and third overall (1997). He also earned all three awards after the Terriers' 25-5 NCAA season of 1996-97.

BU ATHLETICS EARNED THIRD STRAIGHT AMERICA EAST COMMISSIONER'S CUP

For the third straight season, Boston University earned America East's Stuart P. Haskell Jr. Commissioner's Cup, which annually recognizes the strongest athletic program in the conference.

BU won two championships (women's soccer and women's tennis) and finished as a runner-up another four times. For their part, the Terrier men's basketball team contributed with a regular-season championship, its third in a row. BU also won the first two Commissioner's Cups, after the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons, and is the only current America East school to have earned one.

NICOLE WOLFF CONTRIBUTING ONCE AGAIN FOR UCONN WOMEN

Dennis Wolff's daughter, Nicole, is a junior on the University of Connecticut women's basketball team. After battling injuries in her first two seasons at UConn, she's back in the lineup this year. In 30 team games (19 starts), she's averaging 4.1 points per game for the Huskies, who are seeded No. 3 in this year's NCAA Tournament.

WOLFF ALL-TIME LEADER IN COACHING WINS AT BU

With a 69-42 victory over Hartford on Jan. 22, 2001, Terrier head coach Dennis Wolff became Boston University's all-time leader in coaching wins when he earned victory number 102. Wolff passed Mike Jarvis, who was 101-51 in five seasons at BU. Entering this game, Wolff has an overall mark at BU of 192-132 (.593).

BU BASKETBALL IN 96th SEASON

The Boston University men's basketball program is in its 96th season of competition. While it may be the 96th season of basketball at BU, it has been 103 years since the school first fielded a men's basketball squad. The Terriers' first year of competition was during 1901-02. Since 1980, there have been 15 winning seasons, nine 20-win campaigns (including the last three), six NCAA Tournament appearances, and, including tonight's game, five NIT trips.

ONE LAST NOTE: TERRIER MASCOT

The Terrier seems to be uniquely qualified to be the BU athletics' mascot. Boston terriers (the dogs) were first bred in the U.S. in 1869, the same year that Boston University was granted its charter. BU students selected the Boston terrier, known for its expression of determination, strength, energy, and activity, as their mascot in 1922. That makes "Rhett" 82 years old! Or 574 in dog years!

GAME 1 - Nov. 20, 2004

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Holy Cross (1-0)	22	36	-	58
Boston University (0-1)	25	23	-	48

Case Gymnasium, Boston, Mass.

Holy Cross junior Kevin Hamilton hit three 3-pointers during a decisive 24-4 run midway through the second half, leading the Crusaders to a 58-48 win over BU on Saturday, Nov. 20 in the season opener for both teams. The game was played before a spirited sold-out crowd at Case Gym. BU opened the second half on a 10-2 run to open an 11-point lead, but Holy Cross put the game away with its big run. Senior Chaz Carr led the Terriers with 15 points.

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Fordham (1-1)	22	29	-	51
Boston University (1-1)	38	28	-	66

Case Gymnasium, Boston, Mass.

Senior Chaz Carr scored 18 of his game-high 19 points in the first half and Matt Wolff added 17 points and nine rebounds in his second collegiate game, pacing BU to a 66-51 win over visiting Fordham on Nov. 24. BU raced to a 10-0 lead in the first five minutes. Wolff gave the Terriers their largest lead of the game at 49-27 with a 3-pointer 6:09 into the second half and it seemed like BU would cruise to the win. Fordham, however, began a comeback that saw the Rams hit four 3-pointers during an 18-2 run that cut BU's 22-point lead to just six points at 55-49. The Rams went cold from that point and the Terriers closed the game on an 11-2 run. BU shot 48 percent, holding Fordham to just 35.8 percent. The Terriers made 9-of-19 3-pointers but only 5-of-14 free throws.

Rashad Bell scored 18 of his game-high 24 points in the first half, leading BU to a 71-55 win at YSU on Saturday. Bell scored BU's first six points to help the Terriers to a 13-2 lead less than four minutes into the game. The Terriers again went up by as many as 11 points later in the half, and led, 36-32, at the half. They extended their lead at the beginning of the second half, scoring 13 of the half's first 14 points and taking a 49-33 lead on a 3-point play by Etienne Brower with 13:12 remaining. Gardner and Brower each tallied career-high scoring efforts. Gardner had 14 points, while Brower had 12.

Chaz Carr scored a game and season-high 25 points and Etienne Brower added a career-high 14 points, leading BU to a 73-68 win at URI. BU, which came into the game shooting 42 percent from the free throw line, connected on 21-of-24 for the game, making their first 18 from the line. Rashad Bell got the Terriers off on the right foot, scoring seven straight points, giving them a 13-8 lead at 13:21. URI, emotional after losing Jon Lucky to a nasty fall under the basket, went on a 13-2 run to take a short-lived 26-25 lead with 4:04 on the clock. It was to be the Rams' only lead of the game. Carr and Brower scored B.U.'s first 15 points in the second half to give BU its largest lead of the game to that point at 48-39 4:50 into the second half.

Kevin Gardner (career high) and Rashad Bell each scored 20 points, but they and their BU teammates didn't have an answer for BC's Craig Smith and Sean Marshall. The pair powered the Eagles to an 80-74 victory over the Terriers. Smith, who scored 16 of his 19 points over the final 12 minutes, and Marshall, who scored 17 of his 19 points in the first half, proved to be too much for the Terriers. After BU took a 51-50 lead on a Gardner jumper with 12:38 remaining, Dudley hit a layup to give the Eagles a lead they would never relinquish. Dudley and Smith took over from that point, combining for 21 straight BC points over the next eight minutes. BU narrowed the margin to as few as four points at 78-74 with 10 seconds to go on a Bell steal and layup, but Steve Hailey hit a pair of free throws to seal the victory.

Michigan (6-4)	22	30	-	52

Crisler Arena, Ann Arbor, Mich.

BU's 63-52 win at Michigan was its second win in Ann Arbor in two seasons. Chaz Carr led all scorers with 16 points, scoring 14 of those points in the second half. BU opened a 30-22 lead after a jumper by Etienne Brower on the team's first possession of the second half. Michigan then got back into the game with a 13-3 run to take a 35-33 lead. Carr then hit two of his three second-half three-pointers to book-end a 10-2 Terrier run and give BU a 43-37 lead with a little over 10 minutes remaining. Momentum swung back around to Michigan as Brent Petway's dunk with 3:48 to go cut the lead to 50-49. The Terriers seized control from there, however, outscoring the Wolverines, 13-3, the rest of the way, taking their largest lead of the game (the final score) on a pair of Bell free throws with six seconds on the clock.

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Canisius (1-6)	22	23	-	45
Boston University (7-2)	26	36	-	62

Case Gymnasium, Boston, Mass.

Etienne Brower scored a career-high 17 points and Chaz Carr had a career-best eight assists, leading BU to a 62-45 win over visiting Canisius on Dec. 23. After leading, 26-22, at the half, BU opened the second half on a 19-6 run, taking a 47-28 lead after hitting four straight three-pointers. The lead grew to as much as 24 points on a Brower layup with a little over six minutes to go. Omari Peterkin made his collegiate debut, playing 16 minutes and tallying five points and four rebounds. BU committed a season-low eight turnovers and held Canisius to 1-for-15 shooting from the three-point line. The 45 points allowed was a season low for the Terriers.

GAME 10 - Dec. 28, 2004

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Boston University (7-3)	39	26	-	65
Massachusetts (6-3)	30	37	-	67

Mullins Center, Amherst, Mass.

BU let one slip away in the final 27 seconds, falling at UMass, 67-65, at the Mullins Center on Dec. 28. BU had everything going for it with 27 seconds to go. It had a 65-63 lead and possession of the ball, but the UMass backcourt press led to a turnover by Etienne Brower and a game-changing three-point play by Art Bowers that turned the tables and lifted the Minutemen to the win. Rashad Bell scored a career-high 27 points, 18 in the second half, but was matched by UMass's Rashaun Freeman. Freeman had 25 points and a game-high 13 rebounds. The Terriers had two chances to take the lead in the final 19 seconds, but a layup attempt by Shaun Wynn was blocked and Chaz Carr's three-point attempt at the buzzer fell short.

Kevin Gardner led the way, registering his first career double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. In a tight first half that saw five ties and five lead changes, the Terriers outscored the Bearcats, 11-1, in the final 3:18 to take a 39-28 edge at the half. BU's lead grew to 16 points at 44-28 less than two minutes into the second half on a Shaun Wynn three-pointer. Binghamton's Andre Heard helped slice that advantage in half by scoring all 10 of his points during a 17-9 Bearcat run. Matt Wolff turned the momentum back in favor of the Terriers on his team's next possession as he hit a big baseline three-pointer to extend the lead back to 11 points.

NU's Jose Juan Barea tallied game highs with 30 points and nine assists, leading the Huskies to the win. The game featured eight ties, the last coming at 70-70 with 1:52 to go. The game came down to BU's Etienne Brower needing to intentionally miss a free throw with 2.3 seconds remaining. He did, and the ball caromed right back to him. He one-handed shot hit the backboard and glanced off the rim as time expired, giving NU the two-point win. BU lead by as many as nine points in the first half and by six points in the second half. Rashad Bell scored a team-high 17 points for BU.

It was another strong defensive effort for BU as the Terriers earned a 67-51 victory over UMBC. The Terriers held UMBC to 16 first-half points and 29.5 percent shooting, while blocking 11 Retriever shots. A backdoor alley-oop dunk from Bryan Geffen to Kevin Gardner made it 17-4 Terriers at the 11-minute mark. The outcome fell squarely into BU's hands in the first 4:30 of the second half after a 12-0 run gave it a 44-18 advantage. BU took its largest lead of the game (27 points) on a Bell layup with 6:47 remaining. Chaz Carr had 15 points, while Bell swatted a career-high five shots.

Boston University (12-5, 6-2)	33	32	-	65
Stony Brook (7-10, 2-6)	19	28	-	47

SB Sports Complex, Stony Brook, N.Y.

Rashad Bell scored a game-high 19 points and Etienne Brower tied his career high with 17 points, earning BU a 65-47 win at Stony Brook. BU got out to a quick 9-1 lead 4:10 into the game and never trailed. The Terriers owned a double-digit lead throughout most of the first half. A three-point basket by Chaz Carr pushed the BU advantage to 14 points at 29-15 with less than two minutes to go in the period. Carr hit another three-pointer early in the second half to make it 36-21. SBU cut the lead under 10 points only once, on an Antwan Hardy jumper at 15:26 that make the score 37-28. Bryan Geffen followed with a jumper on the next possession and the Terrier lead would remain at double digits the rest of the way.

GAME 19 - Jan. 30, 2005

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Albany (9-10, 5-5)	18	26	3	47
Boston University (14-5, 8-2)	24	20	4	48

Case Gymnasium, Boston, Mass.

In a game that featured more defense than offense, BU earned a 48-47 overtime win over Albany. There were no field goals in overtime, during which BU outscored Albany, 4-3, from the free throw line. BU built a 40-30 lead on a Kevin Gardner layup with 10:41 to go in regulation, but wouldn't score again for over eight minutes, allowing Albany's anemic offense to tie the game at 40-40. A tough layup by Rashad Bell broke the scoring drought and gave BU a 42-40 edge. BU had possession with the clock under 10 seconds and the score tied at 44-44, but couldn't get off a potential game-winning shot. Down, 48-47, with the clock running down, Albany's Brian Lillis misfired on an off-balanced 17-foot jumper at the buzzer. Bell finished with a game-high 18 points and was the only Terrier to shoot above .500 from the field.

GAME 22 - Feb. 9, 2005

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Boston University (17-5, 11-2)	34	27	-	61
UMBC (9-13, 4-9)	16	35	-	51

Retriever Activities Center, Baltimore, Md.

BU won for the sixth straight time, downing UMBC, 61-51, in Baltimore. Rashad Bell sparked a 16-0 first-half BU run with a pair of blocked shots on the defensive end and a layup on the offensive end, helping BU take a 30-12 lead over the next 5:23. UMBC opened the second half by scoring the first nine points during a two-minute spurt that cut an 18-point halftime deficit to just nine at 34-25 with 17:18 on the clock. BU took a 57-46 lead on a Bell layup with 6:15 remaining. It would be the Terriers' last field goal of the game. Neither team would score again until the 1:12 mark - a span of 5:03. BU hit 4-of-6 free throws in the final minute to hold off the Retrievers.

GAME 20 - Feb. 2, 2005

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Boston University (15-5, 9-2)	20	32	-	52
Maine (10-10, 5-6)	18	25	-	43

Alfond Arena, Orono, Maine

Etienne Brower scored six of his career-high 19 points during a decisive 11-2 second-half run in a 52-43 win at Maine. BU overcame a poor shooting night, making a season-low 27.4 percent in the first half but rebounding to shoot 47.4 percent in the second stanza. BU took control of the game midway through the second half. Maine led, 31-29, after a pair of Kevin Reed free throws. Brower tied the game with a baseline jumper, pushed the advantage to 35-31 with a layup, and then 40-33 with 5:19 to go after a 17-foot jumper. Chaz Carr hit a three-pointer and Rashad Bell hit a pair of free throws to account for the rest of the scoring during the 11-2 streak. Maine wouldn't get to within five points the rest of the way. Maine's Mark Flavin matched his career high with 19 points.

Vermont (18-4, 13-1)	31	24	-	55
Boston University (18-5, 12-2)	34	27	-	61

Agganis Arena, Boston, Mass.

BU opened the hoops era at Agganis Arena with a 61-55 win over Vermont in a battle of the conference's premier hoops programs. Rashad Bell (career-high 29 pts) and Chaz Carr (24 pts) combined to score 53 of the Terriers' 61 points, more than outdoing the Catamounts' Taylor Coppentrath, who scored 37 of his teams' 55 points. The announced attendance of 5,736 was by far the largest crowd ever to see a BU men's basketball game in an on-campus facility. Bell battled Coppentrath the entire game and Carr hit three of his four three-pointers during a pivotal second-half run that sealed the win for the Terriers. Bryan Geffen ended an 8-0 UVM run and changed the game with a steal and layup to give BU the lead for good, 49-47, with 8:12 to go.

GAME 25 - Feb. 20, 2005

Northeastern (17-8, 13-3)	18	45	-	63
Boston University (19-6, 13-3)	23	25	-	48

Agganis Arena, Boston, Mass.

Northeastern outscored BU, 30-7, over the last 12 minutes of the game to erase an eight-point deficit and beat the Terriers, 63-48, in front of 4,316 fans at Agganis Arena. NU's Marcus Barnes scored 17 of his game-high 20 points in the decisive second half. BU led, 23-18, at the half and extended that lead to eight point on three different occasions, the last coming on a jumper by Etienne Brower with 11:53 to go that put the Terriers ahead, 41-33. It was then that BU went cold and NU started heating up from outside. A Brower basket at 8:18 gave BU a 45-44 lead and proved to be the Terriers' last field goal of the game, as the Terriers went a combined 0-for-13 the rest of the way. Brower finished with 11 points and 10 rebounds, but Chaz Carr went 2-for-18 for only six points.

BU defeated Maine for the eighth straight time, 66-50. An Ernest Turner fast break layup gave Maine a brief 17-16 advantage. It would also mark the final time the Black Bears scored a field goal in the opening half. BU's league-leading defense held them without a field goal in the final 11:22 of the first half. The Terriers, meanwhile, got back on track offensively, outscoring Maine, 17-4, the rest of the half. The Terriers took as much as a 15-point lead early in the second half, but Maine stood up to the charge, cutting the Terrier lead back to six points at 50-44 with 5:27 remaining. Chaz Carr would put the game out of reach with a three-pointer with 3:46 to go that gave BU a double-digit lead it wouldn't give up.

Binghamton controlled the action for much of the game. The Bearcats opened the game with a 14-3 spurt before the Terriers hit their first field goal. They took a 30-11 lead, their largest of the half, on a Heard three-pointer with 8:27 remaining in the half. BU cut the lead down to eight points at 30-22 on a layup by Rashad Bell, but Troy Hailey hit a pair of three-pointers in the final two minutes to extend the Binghamton lead to 36-22 at the half. The Terriers cut to lead to 42-29 4:10 into the second half but Binghamton exploded from there, going on a 10-0 run over the next five minutes to go ahead, 52-29, with 10:26 to go.

6 Maine (14-14)	13	34	-	47
3 Boston University (20-8)	18	27	-	45

AET Quarterfinal - Events Center, Vestal, N.Y.

Maine's Chris Markwood hit a three-pointer with three seconds remaining, lifting the sixth-seeded Black Bears to a 47-45 America East quarterfinal-round victory over third-seeded BU on March 5. Neither team had more than a two-point lead for the final six minutes. Chaz Carr hit a pair of free throws to give the Terriers a 45-44 edge with only nine seconds to go. Markwood hit an off-balance trey with three seconds remaining to give the underdog Black Bears a 47-45 lead with only three second showing. A Carr desperation three-point attempt fell short, giving Maine the victory. BU shot a season-low 28.3 percent from the field.

2004-05 HIGHLIGHTS

- Went 4-for-4 from the free throw line (both ends of two-shot fouls at 1:40 of regulation and :58 of overtime) to help seal BU's overtime win over Albany on Jan. 30. Had a team-high seven rebounds in the game.
- Made his first career start at Northeastern on Jan. 19.
- Was two points shy of his career high with a 15-point game vs. Binghamton on Jan. 9. Had career highs when he went 8-for-9 from the free throw line.
- Scored all 11 of his points in the second half at Albany on Jan. 2, helping spark the Terriers to a 72-69 win. Hit two late three-pointers, one to cut a six-point Albany lead to three points and one to build a four-point BU lead to seven.
- Scored in double figures for the second time this season at Michigan on Dec. 14 with 11 points on a career-best 3-of-5 effort from behind the three-point line.
- Named America East Co-Rookie of the Week after his 11-point game at Michigan on Dec. 14.
- Had a solid effort off the bench at Harvard on Dec. 7. He scored nine points on 3-of-4 shooting.
- Had an impressive performance in only his second collegiate game, scoring 17 points on 7-of-11 shooting. Added nine rebounds, five assists, and one steal in 36 minutes. Was the first Terrier off the bench.

2004-05 HIGHLIGHTS

- Changed the momentum of the game by ending an 8-0 Vermont run when he ripped the ball out of Alex Jensen's hands and turned it into a layup at 8:12 of the second half, breaking a 47-47 tie and giving BU the lead for good in its 61-55 win in the Agganis Arena opener on Feb. 12.
- Grabbed a career-high six rebounds at UMBC on Feb. 9.
- Scored a career-high 13 points vs. New Hampshire on Jan. 26, scoring eight straight points in a critical BU run midway through the second half that sealed the win. Went 5-for-8 from the field, including 3-for-4 from the three-point line in a career high 26 minutes.
- Came off the bench at Harvard on Dec. 7, notching then career highs in scoring (4 points), rebounds (2), assists (5), minutes (20), and free throws (4-for-4).
- Saw 14 minutes of action at Youngstown State on Nov. 27, scoring two points on 1-of-5 shooting.
- Played the final minute of the first half against Holy Cross on Nov. 20.
