GENERAL BEANPOT NOTES

(These notes pertain to this year's Terrier hockey team. They include last Friday night's 2-0 win over UMass. Notes on the team's Beanpot history and the rivalry against Boston College follow these notes.)

COMING IN ON THREE-GAME WINNING STREAK: The Terriers come into tonight's title game with a three-game winning streak and winners of 4 of their last 5. The streak began with a 5-2 win over the University of New Hampshire on 1/23. After a 3-0 loss to the Wildcats two days later, the Terriers bounced back with wins over Merrimack, 5-0, on 1/30; over Harvard, 2-1, in the Beanpot opener on 1/3; and over UMass, 2-0, last Friday, 2/7. During the three-game winning streak, they have outscored their opponents, 9-1. They are a perfect 14-for-14 in killing penalties, while they are 2-of-15 (.133) on the power play. Senior Brian Collins scored both power play goals and has an assist, as well, for 3 points. Seniors Freddy Meyer (1-2-3) and John Sabo (1-2-3) are tied with Collins for the lead in scoring.

FIELDS IN THE LAST THREE GAMES: Junior goalie Sean Fields has been a standout in the last three games with a pair of shutouts. He now has 4 this season and 6 for his career...In the 3 games, he has a 0.33 GAA and a .987 save percentage.

Vs. Merrimack: He had 24 saves, 10 of which came in the third period, in the 5-0 blanking of the Warriors at Brown Arena on 1/30...It was the 3rd time in his career that he has shut out Merrimack. In his college debut on 11/4/00, he had 25 saves in a 3-0 win. Then, last season, on 10/28/01, he had 25 saves in a 4-0 victory.

Vs. Harvard: In last Monday night's Beanpot opener, he turned aside 28-of-29 (.966 save percentage) Crimson shots in the 2-1 win. His busiest period was the third in which he turned aside all 16 Harvard shots.

Vs. UMass: In Friday night's 2-0 blanking of the Minutemen, he had 25 saves en route to his 4th shutout of the season. Earlier in the year, he shut out Harvard (3-0 with 36 saves on 11/26) and Northeastern (4-0 with 31 saves on 1/4)...In Friday night's win, Fields was busiest in the 2nd period with 11 saves.

MOST SHUTOUTS IN FIVE YEARS: The four shutouts this year are the most since the 1997-98 season when the Terriers blanked RPI, 6-0; Maine, 6-0; Clarkson, 4-0; and Providence, 1-0. That year, Tom Noble had 3 of the 4 shutouts, while Michel Larocque had the 4th... The Terrier record for shutouts in a season is 8 by Jack Ferreira in 1964-65. Ferreira also holds the record for career shutouts with 8 from 1963-66. At that time, freshmen were not eligible to play varsity hockey. Thus, he achieved his record in just 3 seasons.

FIELDS HAS STARTED 16 STRAIGHT: Junior goalie Sean Fields has started the Terriers' last 16 games. The last time he watched the action from the bench was against Cornell on November 30th. In those 16 games, he has a 10-6-0 record along with a 2.12 GAA and a .920 save percentage...During one stretch, he had a six-game winning streak in which he had a 1.52 GAA and a .943 save percentage...Both offensively and defensively, his teammates have been supporting him during this 16-game stretch, as they have outscored their opponents, 53-34...In special teams' play, they are 14-of-82 (.171) on the power play, while they have killed off 72-of-84 (.857) chances by their opponents.

PARKER ON FIELDS: "From day one, he has been our MVP," Terrier head coach Jack Parker said of Fields following the team's 2-0 win over UMass last Friday night. "He has been playing with a lot of confidence. Tonight, he made a great save on (Tim) Turner, but he has come up big all year. He has stolen some games for us."

PARKER RECORD: Now in his 30th year as the Terriers' head coach, Jack Parker comes into tonight's game with an overall record of 672-335-66 for a .657 winning percentage.

PARKER TWO SHY OF CEGLARSKI: With Friday night's win over UMass, the veteran Terrier coach notched his 672nd career win. That moved him to within 2 of former Boston College coach Len Ceglarski for third place on the all-time win list for college hockey coaches. Ceglarski amassed 674 wins during his career at Clarkson and Boston College. The all-time winningest coach is former Michigan State coach Ron Mason, whose team posted 924 wins. Bemidji State's Bob Peters is second with 744 wins.

10-4 IN THEIR LAST FOURTEEN GAMES: The Terriers have a 10-4-0 record in their last 14 games...During this 14-game stretch, they have doubled their opponents' goal output, 48-24. By period, the Terriers have outscored their opponents, 16-5 in the first, 14-10 in the second, and 18-8 in the third... They have given up 1 goal in overtime to Providence on 1/9... Eighteen players have at least one goal, while 21 players have at least one point. Frantisek Skladany (7-6-13) leads the team in both goals and points, while Bryan Miller (2-7-9) leads the team in assists...Sean Fields is 10-4-0 with a 1.72 GAA and a .935 save percentage during this stretch...Fourteen of the Terriers' 44 goals have come on special teams—13 on the power play and one shorthanded goal. They are 13-of-73 (.178) on their power play, while opponents are 9-of-73 (.123).

HOTTEST TERRIERS DURING THIS STRETCH: During this 14-game stretch, Frantisek Skladany, Brian Collins, and Mark Mullen have hit double-figure totals, while Freddy Meyer, John Sabo, Kenny Magowan, and Bryan Miller each has 9 points.

Skladany: Despite being held without a point in his last 4 games, Skladany remains the Terriers' strongest offensive threat with 7-6-13. Fourteen games ago, in the Terriers' 5-4 loss to UMass on 12/6, he was a healthy scratch. It was the first game he had missed all season. He returned to action the next night and had a goal in the Terriers' 3-1 victory over the Minutemen. Since then, he has been the team's most productive point-scorer with 7-6-13 in 13 games. He has 3 multiple-point games, including his 1-2-3 vs. UNH on 1/23. On 12/6, the night he was a healthy scratch, he was the team's fourth-leading scorer with 1-8-9. As a result of this offensive tear, he has jumped to the scoring lead on the team with 8-14-22.

Collins: After getting off to a slow start with 1-4-5 through the team's first 15 games, he is in a scoring groove with 6-6-12 in the last 14 games. He comes into tonight's game with 7-10-17, which ties him for 5th on the team in scoring. Five of his 7 goals have come on the power play, which ties him for the team lead.

Mullen: Tied for 2nd in scoring with Sabo with 20 points, he has 5-5-10 in the last 14 games. He is enjoying his best offensive season as a Terrier 8-12-20 in 29 games. Last year, he had 8-9-17 in 38 games.

Meyer: The team's top-scoring defenseman with 5-13-18, he has 3-6-9 in the past 14 games. The team captain, he is 4th on the team overall in scoring coming into tonight's game.

Sabo: The team leader in goals with 10, he has 3-6-9 in the past 14 games. In the past 3 games, he has 1-2-3. He has equaled his best goal-scoring total for a season with his 10. Last season, which had been his best, he had 10 in 37 games.

Magowan: Tied for 5th on the team in assists with 10, he comes into tonight's game with 4-5-9 in the last 14 games. In the past 14 games, he has 3-6-9. He is tied with Bryan Miller for the team lead in assists with 14, while he is tied for the lead in power play goals (4) and is tied for second in goals (8).

Miller: As noted above, his 7 assists lead the team over the past 14 games, while he also has 2 goals to account for his 9 points.

MILLER'S BEEN A PLUS: Sophomore defenseman Bryan Miller has a team-leading plus-18 this year. In addition, Miller is closing in on his freshman-year offensive totals. Last season, in 34 games, he had 4-15-19 and was the fourth-leading scorer among the freshmen as well as among all the defensemen. This year, in 29 games, he has 3-14-17. He is tied with Frantisek Skladany for the team lead in assists (14) and is second to Freddy Meyer (5-13-18) for scoring among the defensemen.

COLLINS CONTINUES AS IRONMAN: Brian Collins comes into tonight's game having played in 146 straight games over the past three-plus years. He was in uniform, and had a goal, in the Terriers' 1999-2000 season-opener against the Air Force Academy at the Johnson Nissan Classic on October 9, 1999, and he has been in the lineup ever since...Senior assistant captain John Sabo is second on this year's team in games played with 140, including all 29 this year. The last game Sabo missed was vs. Boston College last January 20th. Since then, he has played in 47 straight games...

Mark Mullen is also on a consecutive game streak, as he has not missed a game since Colorado College on November 25, 2000. Since then, he played in his last 26 games his freshman season, all 38 last year, and the team's 29 games this year. That's a stretch of 93 straight games.

COLLINS NEEDS 9 FOR 100: With his goal vs. UMass on Friday night, Collins brought his career total to 46 goals. Coupled with 45 assists, he comes into tonight's game with 91 career points. With another 9 points, he will become the 73rd player in Terrier hockey history to reach the 100-point total for his career.

FIVE HAVE PLAYED 28: Only 5 players have seen action in all 29 games this year. In addition to Collins, Sabo, and Mullen, the other 2 are sophomore Bryan

Miller and freshman Brad Zancanaro.

IN THEIR WINS AND TIES THIS YEAR: In the 19 games in which the Terriers have either won (17) or tied (2) this year, they have outscored their opponents, 77-33. They have enjoyed a scoring edge in each period—25-11 each in the first, 24-11 in the second, and 28-11 in the third...In special teams' play, they have converted on 20-of-103 (.194) power play chances, while the 19 opponents are 17-of-105 (.162)...Individually, Frantisek Skladany is averaging just under a point a game as he has 7-11-18 in 19 games. Ten other players have hit double-figure totals. They are John Sabo (7-9-16), Mark Mullen (6-9-15), Justin Maiser (7-7-14), Bryan Miller (3-11-14), Brian Collins (6-7-13), Kenny Magowan (5-8-13), Freddy Meyer (3-10-13), Brian McConnell (6-6-12), David Klema (5-7-12), and Jekabs Redlihs (2-8-10)...Sean Fields has a 1.60 GAA and a .941 save percentage in 18 of the 19 games (16 -0-2), while Stephan Siwiec has a 4.00 GAA and an .800 save percentage in one appearance (1-0-0).

IN THEIR LOSSES: In the Terriers' 10 losses, they have been outscored, 41-19. They have been outscored in each period—14-8 in the first, 13-8 in the second, and 12-3 in the third. They have lost 2 games in overtime—5-4 to UMass on 12/6 and 3-2 to Providence on 1/9...In special teams' play, the Terriers have converted on 5-of-49 (.102) power play chances, while opponents are 16-of-59 (.271)...Mark Mullen (2-3-5) and Freddy Meyer (2-3-5) are tied for the team lead in scoring, while John Sabo leads the team in goals (3) in the 10 losses...Sean Fields has been charged with 9 of the 10 losses and has a 4.06 GAA and an .858 save percentage in those 9 games. Stephan Siwiec has been hit with one of the losses and has a 3.57 GAA and an .861 save percentage.

ABOUT PENALTIES: Much has been said this year about the Terriers and the penalty box. An interesting note is comparing per-game penalty totals in the wins/ties and losses. In the wins and ties, the Terriers have averaged 8.1 penalties for 18.2 minutes a game, while they have averaged 9.6 penalties for 22.4 minutes a game in their losses. In the wins and ties, opponents have been called for an average of 7.7 penalties for 18.1 minutes. In the 10 losses, opponents have been whistled for 8.6 penalties and 18.8 minutes per game.

ON THE ROAD: Sixteen of the Terriers' 29 games have been on the road, and they are 9-6-1. This includes three neutral sites—the University of Wisconsin for the Ice Breaker Tournament, Detroit's Joe Louis Arena for the Great Lakes Invitational, and the FleetCenter in last Monday night's Beanpot opener. In those games, the Terriers are 4-0-1. Thus, they are 5-6-0 on opponents' home ice...They have outscored their 16 opponents, 53-45. They have enjoyed a scoring advantage in the first (20-15) and second (22-13) periods but have been outscored in the third period (16-11) and overtime (1-0)...Mark Mullen (4-10-14) leads the team in scoring in the road games. Justin Maiser has a team-leading 7 goals and is second in total points with 13. Just behind them are John Sabo (4-8-12) and Frantisek Skladany (5-7-12)...Sean Fields is 9-5-1 on the road with a 2.71 GAA and a .906 save percentage. Stephan Siwiec is 0-1-0 with a 3.02 GAA and an .864 save percentage...In special teams' play, the Terriers are 15-of-78 (.192) on the power

MORE POWER ON THE ROAD: The Terriers have fared better on their power play away from home than they have at Walter Brown Arena. As noted above, they are 15-of-78 (.192) on their man-advantage situations on the road, while they are 10-of-74 (.135) on the power play in their 14 home games.

BETTER KILLERS ON THE ROAD: Similarly, the Terriers are better killing penalties on the road than they are at home. On the road, they are 82-of-100 (.820) on their penalty killing, while they are 49-of-64 (.766) in killing penalties at Brown Arena.

HOW THEY ARE FARING IN FEBRUARY: The Terriers have opened the month with 2 wins—2-1 over Harvard in the Beanpot opener and 2-0 vs. UMass on Friday night. Freddy Meyer leads the team with 1-2—3...Sean Fields has a 0.50 GAA and a .981 save percentage en route to earning the 2 wins...In special teams' play, the Terriers are 1-for-11 (.091) on their power play, and they have killed off all 11 chances by the Crimson and Minutemen.

HOW THEY FARED IN JANUARY: The Terriers' win over Merrimack allowed them to finish the month with a non-losing record. The team has now finished each month this season with a .500 record or better. The Terriers opened the month by sweeping Northeastern, 4-0 and 7-2, on 1/4 and 1/5 but then lost to Providence, 3-2 in overtime on 1/9 and to BC, 3-1 (1/16) and 3-2 (1/17) in back-to-back games. The three-game losing streak came to an end with their 5-2 win over UNH on 1/23. However, two days later, they lost to the Wildcats, 3-0, as their record slipped to 3-4-0. The month ended a winning note with a 4-0 win over Merrimack last Thursday, 1/30...Brian Collins was the offensive leader with 4-4—8 in the 8 games, while Frantisek Skladany was next with 3-4—7...Bryan Miller led the team in assists with 6 and was third in scoring with 0-6—6... Sean Fields was 4-4-0 with a 2.02 GAA and a .920 save percentage. He opened and closed the month with a shutout as he blanked Northeastern, 4-0, on 1/4 and Merrimack, 5-0, on 1/30...In special teams' play, the Terriers were 9-of-42 (.214) on the power play, while Northeastern, Providence, BC, New Hampshire, and Merrimack were a combined 7-of-40 (.175) on their power play chances.

HOW THEY FARED IN DECEMBER: The Terriers were 4-2-0 in December. After opening the month with back-to-back losses to Cornell and UMass, B.U. bounced back to win four straight to close out the month. The highlight came in the Great Lakes Invitational in which the Terriers defeated Michigan State, 6-1, in the first game and Michigan, 5-4, in the title game ...In the six games, B.U. outscored its opponents, 23-17. The Terriers' best periods were the first and third during which they enjoyed a three-goal advantage—9-6 in the first and 8-5 in the third. In the second period, they had a 6-5 lead...In special teams' play, the Terriers were 4-of-29 (.138) on their power play, while they have killed off 28-of-33 (.849) chances by their opponents...Individually, Mark Mullen led the team in points (8), while he tied Frantisek Skladany in goals (4). Kenny Magowan had a team leading 6 assists in the 6 games. Magowan was second in scoring (7 points), while Skladany was third (6)...Sean Fields was the only goalie of record during the month, as he has a 2.80 GAA and a .902 save percentage to go along with his 4-2-0 record.

HOW THEY FARED IN NOVEMBER: The Terriers were 5-3-0 in November. They opened the month with three straight wins, including a 3-2 victory at then number one-ranked New Hampshire. Then, after back-to-back losses to Boston College, which had taken over the top spot in the polls from UNH and Maine, the Terriers bounced back with wins over UMass/Lowell and Harvard. They closed out the month last Saturday with a 4-1 loss at Cornell...During the month, their opponents outscored them, 25-24. B.U. was outscored, 13-6, in the first period in the 8 games, but came back to

SCORING BY CLASS

Thus far, the sophomore class has been the most productive for the Terriers this year, as the class leads the team in both assists and points. Here is a breakdown of the scoring by class, along with the top scorer in each class. The number in parenthesis indicates the number of players in that class who have contributed at least one point.

Class	Goals	Assists	Pts	Leader
Sophomores (6)	27	47	74	Justin Maiser (8-9—17)
Seniors (6)	29	40	69	John Sabo (10-10—20)
Juniors (5)	24	41	65	Frantisek Skladany (8-14—22)
Freshmen (5)	16	31	47	Jekabs Redlihs (4-9—13)

enjoy a 10-4 margin in the second period, while they tied their opponents in the third period, 8-8...In special teams' play, the Terriers converted on 8-of-40 (.200) power play chances and killed off 38-of-50 (.760) opportunities by their opponents. Individually, Justin Maiser was the team's top offensive threat with 3-5—8 in the 8 games. John Sabo had a team leading 5 goals in the 8 games, while he also chipped in with 2 assists. Brian McConnell (2-4—6) and Freddy Meyer (1-4—5) were just behind Sabo...Sean Fields was 5-2-0 during the month with a 2.89 GAA and a .911 save percentage. Stephan Siwiec was 0-1-0 with a 3.57 GAA and an .861 save percentage.

HOW THEY FARED IN OCTOBER: The Terriers were 2-1-2 during October. Certainly one of the highlights was winning the season opening Ice Breaker Tournament hosted by the University of Wisconsin. In the 5 games during the month, the Terriers outscored their opponents, 19-14. They were most successful during the first period, outscoring their opponents, 8-3. They trailed in the second period, 8-7, and they tied their opponents in the third period, 4-4...In special teams' play, the Terriers were 3-for-30 (.100) on the power play and 21-of-30 (.700) killing penalties...David Klema (2-3—5) and Frantisek Skladany (1-4—5) tied for the team lead in scoring...Brian McConnell was the team's top goal scorer with 3 in the 5 games...Sean Fields was 1-1-2 with a 2.65 GAA and an .888 save percentage, while Stephan Siwiec was 1-0-0 with a 4.00 GAA and an .800 save percentage.
