TONIGHT AT PARKER RINK

• Two of the nation's hottest teams kick off a weekend series at Agganis Arena, as Boston University hosts Maine.

• Since Nov. 13, the Terriers (12-2-0) and Black Bears (9-2-2) are a combined 21-4-2.

• BU is on a nation-best five-game win streak that started at the turn of the new year and is first in the PairWise rankings and second in both national polls.

• The Terriers closed out the first half of their schedule with a 5-1 road win over Maine back on Dec. 10.

• BU (20.8) and Maine (19.2) rank first and second in the nation, respectively, in penalty minutes per game and boast the top two offenses and power plays in Hockey East.

ON A ROLL

• BU has won 12 of its last 14 contests - and seven of its last eight - with the lone blemishes during the stretch being a 6-1 loss to Boston College on Dec. 3 and a 5-2 loss at Notre Dame on Dec. 31.

• The run includes two five-game win streaks, which are the longest for the Terriers since they won their final seven games during their 2009 NCAA championship run.

• The Terriers have come from behind in five of their last seven victories and four of them came on the road.

SERIES HISTORY

• The Terriers and Black Bears have played 113 times since first meeting in the 1923-24 season, and BU holds a 56-45-12 edge (.549), including a 16-3-4 advantage since the beginning of the 2005-06 season.

• BU is 9-1-2 (.833) in the 11 match-ups at Agganis Arena and is undefeated in the nine regular-season meetings

(7-0-2) played there.

• The Terriers' last regular-season home loss to the Black Bears was on Jan. 24, 2004, in an 8-4 setback at Walter Brown Arena.

• Twenty-two of the all-time meetings have gone into overtime and BU holds a 7-2-13 (.614) advantage in those games. BU has recorded six of the 10 shutouts in the series.

• The Terriers' longest winning streak in the series was 13 games (Jan. 16, 1982 - Feb. 15, 1986). The Black Bears' longest streak was 11 games (Oct. 31, 1986 - Nov. 10, 1989) and came just after the BU win streak.

SCOUTING THE BLACK BEARS

• Since falling to the Terriers last month, Maine is 5-1-1, including a tournament title at the Florida College Classic, and moved back into the national rankings following a home sweep of Boston College last weekend.

• The Black Bears boast the second-best power play in the country, having converted on 29.7 percent their chances (33-of-111) thus far.

• Seniors Spencer Abbott and Brian Flynn have teamed up to form the most potent scoring duo in the country. Abbott ranks tied second in the nation in points with 38 (12g, 26a) and Flynn is right behind with 35 points (13g, 22a). Their junior linemate, Joey Diamond, has added 29 points on the strength of a team-best 17 goals.

• Senior defenseman Will O'Neill, ranks fourth on the team with 20 points (1g, 19a).

• Sophomore Dan Sullivan has emerged as the Black Bears' primary goaltender and boasts a 2.98 goals-against average and an .896 save percentage.

• Tim Whitehead is in his 11th season as head coach of the Black Bears and has a record of 227-146-46 (.597) at the school.

- Adam Clendening tallied a career-high three assists and Alexx Privitera added his first career goal.
- Maine opened the scoring with a power-play goal by Mark Anthoine at 8:02 of the second, but the Terriers reeled off five straight goals, including four in the third period, to roll to the victory.
- BU scored on back-to-back power-play chances to tie the game and then take the lead for good.

- Kieran Millan stopped all 26 shots he faced to earn his third shutout of the season and the eighth of his career.

- The result marked BU's most decisive shutout victory since Valentine's Day in 1994, when it posted an 8-0 win over Northeastern in the consolation game of the Beanpot.

TOP OF THE LEAGUE

- Boston University is at the top of the Hockey East standings with 25 points, four points ahead of two teams (Boston College and Merrimack) tied for second place.
- This is the first season the Terriers have been atop the league standings during the month of January since the 2004-05 campaign.
- The Terriers captured regular-season league crowns in 2006 and 2009, but needed a late surge in February and March to achieve the title on both occasions.

A LOOK BACK AT 2010-11

- Boston University posted a record of 19-12-8 last season and went 15-6-6 (36 pts.) in Hockey East play to finish third in the league standings.
- BU faced crosstown rival Northeastern five times in 10 days to end the season and lost the teams' Hockey East quarterfinal series in three games.
- The Terriers finished 17th in the final USCHO.com national poll and received votes in the final USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine top-15 national poll.
- BU was the lone unbeaten team left in the country before falling at UNH on Nov. 19.
- The Terriers went undefeated in their first 10 games (6-0-4) for their best start in 33 seasons.
- BU reached the six-win mark on Oct. 30, 10 weeks earlier than it did in the 2009-10 season (Jan. 8).
- The Terriers held the top spot in both national polls on Nov. 8.
- After earning six wins in October, the Terriers went just 13-12-7 afterwards, posting just one victory in both November and December.
- BU went 8-1-2 in its final 11 Hockey East contests.
- In the Terriers' last 18 games, 12 were decided by a single goal and two others were ties.
- BU missed the NCAA tournament in back-to-back seasons for the first time since not qualifying for three straight years from 1987-89.

BU FINISHES OFF UNH SWEEP

- Corey Trivino and Wade Megan scored second-period goals and Kieran Millan recorded 28 saves to lead Boston University to a 2-1 come-from-behind win over New Hampshire on Dec. 8 at the Whittemore Center.
- BU, which earned two home wins over UNH earlier this season, swept its Hockey East series with the Wildcats for the first time since the 1996-97 season. That was also the last time that UNH was swept by any team in league play. The Terriers outscored the Wildcats, 11-2, over the three-game series this season.
- UNH took a 1-0 lead into the first intermission, but the Terriers responded with a strong middle stanza and came away with the lead.
- Megan tied the game when finished off a 2-on-1 power-play rush with classmate Alex Chiasson at 4:54 of the second.
- The go-ahead goal was provided by Trivino as he took a pass from Sahir Gill and converted from the inside edge of the right circle. Gill collected the puck after a shot Chris Connolly bounced off the back boards and spotted Trivino all alone for the tally. The goal came just under three minutes after Megan got BU on the board.
- BU had just two power-play chances in the contest but used the latter to record the equalizer. The Terriers successfully killed off all five of UNH's opportunities with the man advantage.

TERRIERS SPLIT WITH EAGLES

- BU earned a home-and-home split last weekend against archrival Boston College. The road team won each contest and the Terriers claimed the season series with the Eagles thanks to a win in their first meeting in November.
- Led by a 42-save performance from Kieran Millan, BU posted a 5-3 victory over BC on Friday evening at Conte Forum.
- Five different Terriers found the back of the net with Yasin Cisse and Cason Hohmann each recording his first collegiate goal. Charlie Coyle, Garrett Noonan and Corey Trivino also scored.
- BU led the entire game and the Eagles were never within a single goal from the late stages of the first period on.
- The Eagles held a commanding 45-15 shot advantage and each team recorded two power-play goals.
- The Terriers actually had more penalties than shots, as they were whistled for 17 minors on the night, giving the home team 11 chances with the man advantage.
- On Saturday, BU fell short in an attempt to sweep the season series and fell to the Eagles, 6-1, at Agganis Arena.
- A late first-period goal by Trivino created a 1-1 deadlock heading into the first intermission, but the Eagles reeled off five straight tallies, including four in the middle stanza, to earn the win.
- Making only his second collegiate start, Brian Billett recorded 40 saves for the Eagles, which got goals from six different players.
- Millan made 17 saves and allowed five goals in two periods of work before classmate Grant Rollheiser took over for the third and stopped eight of the nine shots he faced.
- All seven of the game's markers came at even strength with two of BC's occurring on 4-on-4 situations.

BU TRIUMPHS OVER CORNELL AT MSG

- Ross Gaudet's goal with 2:12 remaining in overtime propelled Boston University past then-No. 17 Cornell, 2-1, on Nov. 26 in front of a sellout crowd of 18,200 at Madison Square Garden in the third installment of Red Hot Hockey.
- The junior forward's first goal of the season came from the slot on a nifty redirection of a Max Nicastro shot from the right point. The puck went off Gaudet's stick then between his legs before sailing above Cornell goaltender Andy Iles' right shoulder to end the thriller.

- Adam Clendenen also notched his first goal of the season to open the scoring at the 11:07 mark of the opening period.
- The Big Red forced overtime when senior Locke Jillson potted a rebound at the foot of the right circle with 8:54 left in the third.
- Kieran Millan made 23 saves, including a huge save in overtime, to earn his fifth win of the season. Cornell got a 25-save performance from Iles.

TERRIERS POST 4-1 WIN OVER UNH

- Two goals in a span of 36 seconds in the third period broke a 1-1 tie and helped push Boston University past New Hampshire, 4-1, on Nov. 19 at Agganis Arena and snap the Wildcats' seven-game unbeaten streak (5-0-2).
- Four different Terriers lit the lamp and Chris Connolly added a pair of assists in the victory. Kieran Millan made 33 saves, including 22 in the third period.
- The Terriers defeated UNH for the fourth straight meeting, their longest streak in the series since winning six straight from Nov. 11, 1995, to March 15, 1997.
- Wade Megan opened the scoring midway through the game with his sixth goal of the season.
- UNH tied the score, 1-1, with Trevor van Riemsdyk's first career goal at 5:05 of the third, but the Terriers wasted little time in regaining the lead.
- Just over two minutes later, Max Nicastro potted his first goal of the season to put BU on top once again.
- Moments after Nicastro's tally, Corey Trivino made it 3-1 thanks to a nifty pass from Connolly on a rush.
- Matt Nieto iced the game on a long empty-netter with 1:03 left.
- Matt Di Girolamo made 23 saves for the Wildcats, who held a 23-8 shot advantage in the third period.

TERRIERS HOLD OFF VERMONT

- Boston University broke a 2-2 tie with a pair of second-period tallies and went to post a 4-3 victory over Vermont on Nov. 18 at Agganis Arena.
- The visiting Catamounts scored 5:27 into the game, but the Terriers responded with two goals 79 seconds apart from Corey Trivino and Charlie Coyle to take a 2-1 lead midway through the opening stanza.
- After Vermont's Kyle Reynolds made it a 2-2 contest early on in the second, Wade Megan scored his third goal in the past two games to allow the Terriers to regain the lead. With BU's second power-play goal of the night, Garrett Noonan made it a 4-2 affair at 16:34 of the middle frame.
- The Catamounts doubled up the Terriers in shots in the third (14-7) and Sebastian Stalberg scored a power-play goal to get Vermont back within one at 4-3 with 3:18 left in regulation.
- Vermont pulled goaltender Rob Madore for the final 1:42, but the Terriers held on to get back over .500 both overall and in league play.

TERRIERS MAKE STATEMENT IN 5-0 WIN AT BC

- Boston University put forth an impressive showing on Nov. 13, rolling past No. 2 Boston College, 5-0, at Conte Forum in the archrivals' first meeting of the season.
- Kieran Millan stopped all 21 shots he faced to help BU earn its first shutout against the Eagles since Cleon Daskalakis backstopped the Terriers to a 3-0 win on March 1, 1983, when the teams were still part of the ECAC. It was his second shutout of the season for Millan and the seventh of his career.

- The Terriers got goals from four different forwards - including two from Wade Megan in the first multi-goal game of his career - and converted on two of their five power-play chances while posting a perfect 8-for-8 performance on the penalty kill.
- The Terriers scored in the first and final minutes of the opening stanza.
- Corey Trivino got BU on the board with a wristed from the slot just 54 seconds after the opening whistle.

- Matt Nieto made it a 4-0 affair when he tallied his seventh goal of the season with 4:17 left in the middle period.
- BC got a late power-play chance but Megan spoiled the opportunity with a shorthanded tally with 1:38 left in regulation.
- The victory was the most decisive for the Terriers against their crosstown rival since a 10-3 triumph at Walter Brown Arena on Jan. 13, 1996.
- BU entered the game on a five-game losing streak against BC, its longest in the series since 1957.

MERRIMACK STEALS OVERTIME VICTORY AT BU

- Despite holding a 2-1 lead for nearly 43 minutes, Boston University suffered a 3-2 overtime loss to No. 4/6 Merrimack on Nov. 11 at Agganis Arena.
- Merrimack earned a late power-play chance, pulled its goalie and then scored with the 6-on-4 advantage with 1:56 left in the third period to force overtime. Just 22 seconds into the extra session, freshman Connor Toomey potted the game-winner for the Warriors on a redirect from the left circle.
- The Terriers erased an early 1-0 deficit with a pair of first-period tallies. Garrett Noonan tied the game with a power-play strike at the 11:40 mark of the period. Justin Courtnall recorded his first goal of the season with 2:47 left in the frame to give the home team the lead.

- Matt Nieto scored 3:17 into overtime to lead Boston University to a thrilling 5-4 win against Massachusetts on Oct. 29 at Agganis Arena.

- The Terriers, who were faced with a 3-0 deficit after the opening period, took three out of four points in their weekend home-and-home series with the Minutemen.
- After UMass took a 3-0 lead into the first intermission, the Terriers scored twice in the second period before tying the game on a shorthanded goal by Charlie Coyle at 9:51 of the third. Corey Trivino made it four unanswered goals for the Terriers when he scored less than two minutes later to give BU a 4-3 lead.
- UMass' second power-play tally with 5:05 left in regulation forced overtime, but Nieto provided the heroics when he scored for the eighth straight game. His winner came from the top of the right circle following a cross-slot pass by Coyle on a BU power play.
- Nieto also assisted on the game-tying and go-ahead goals to turn in a three-point night. Coyle, Trivino and Sahir Gill each recorded a goal and an assist while Evan Rodrigues earned his first two collegiate points with a pair of assists. Garrett Noonan kickstarted the comeback with his second goal of the year.
- In his first start of the season, Grant Rollheiser recorded 29 saves to pick up the victory. Jeff Teglia stopped 34 BU shots for the Minutemen.

- Boston University used goals from Matt Nieto and Sahir Gill to erase a 2-0 deficit and come away with a 2-2 draw at Massachusetts on Oct. 28 at the Mullins Center
- UMass scored a power-play goal in the final minute of the opening period and made it 2-0 just 6:08 into the middle stanza.
- Nieto scored for the fifth straight game with 4:15 left in the second and then assisted on a goal by Gill that knotted the contest at 5:16 of the third and forced overtime. Charlie Coyle picked up assists on both tallies.

- The Terriers tried to rally back with two third-period goals, but it was too little, too late, and the Crusaders escaped with the victory.
- Holy Cross was paced by Adam Schmidt who helped the visitors take the lead for good with the first two tallies of the four-goal run. Andrew Cox contributed three points (1g, 2a).
- Each team recorded 31 shots on the evening, as Kieran Millan made 26 saves for the Terriers and Matt Ginn stopped 27 BU shots in goal for the Crusaders.

BU HOLDS OFF #3 DENVER

- Boston University held off a third-period Denver rally to post a 4-3 victory over the third-ranked Pioneers on Oct. 15 at Agganis Arena.

- Four different Terriers found the back of the net to help the home team build a 4-0 lead through two periods before the Pioneers scored a trio of goals and threatened to tie in the closing minutes.

- After Alex Chiasson scored the lone goal of the first period on a breakaway, the Terriers extended their lead with three goals in the first three minutes of the second period.
- Corey Trivino and Matt Nieto recorded shorthanded goals 43 seconds apart early in the middle stanza. It was the first career shorthanded goal for both players.
- Wade Megan backhanded a deflected puck past Denver netminder Adam Murray at 2:58 of the second on a power play to complete the spurt and push the Terriers' lead to 4-0.
- The Pioneers eventually solved Millan and the BU defense when Luke Salazar scored at 6:01 of the third. John Lee made it a 4-2 game when he scored from the blue line at the 13:09 mark.
- With Murray pulled, the Pioneers made it a one-goal affair when Drew Shore knocked in a rebound with 2:21 left in regulation.
- Denver continued its late barrage in search of an equalizer, but the Terriers hung to claim an important non-conference win.
- The Pioneers held a slim 38-37 advantage in shots and got a 33-save performance from Murray. BU went 1-of-7 on the power play and successfully killed off all six of Denver's chances with the man advantage.

- Boston University erased an early 3-0 deficit, but Providence regained the lead and posted a 5-3 victory on Oct. 14 at Schneider Arena.
- Down 3-0 entering the second period, the Terriers got two goals in the middle stanza before Garrett Noonan completed the comeback with a marker just 3:13 into the third.
- PC, however, regrouped and used a power play to regain the lead at 4-3 at 5:42 of the third before adding another tally just over five minutes later.
- Kieran Millan recorded 25 saves for the Terriers, who went 1-of-6 on the power play. The Friars also converted on one of six chances with the man advantage and got a 23-save performance from Alex Beaudry.
- The Friars, who were playing in their season opener under first-year head coach Nate Leaman, scored twice within a span of 34 seconds in the opening minutes and then tacked on another with 3:36 left in opening frame.

BU SHUTS OUT UNH IN SEASON OPENER

- Backed by a 35-save shutout from Kieran Millan, Boston University opened its 2011-12 campaign with a 5-0 victory over then-No. 12 New Hampshire on Oct. 8 at Agganis Arena.

- The Terriers broke a scoreless tie early in the second with goals by Wade Megan and Corey Trivino.
- Matt Nieto, Alex Chiasson and Kevin Gilroy all tacked on third-period markers to complete the scoring.

The most veteran Olympian is Keith Tkachuk, who played in his fourth Olympiad in 2006. Former BU standout Rick DiPietro was on the 2006 team and Ryan Whitney made his Olympic debut in 2010.
- Two of his players, center John Cullen and defenseman Peter Ahola, were named to the Hockey East All-Decade Team of the 1980s.
