Players/Students will learn:

Pitching and Catching Camp: The pitchers will receive individual instruction on pitching mechanics and strategies, video tape analysis, do drill work with mechanical emphasis, live mound work with velocity readings, a written evaluation and suggested throwing routine for the upcoming spring season. The catchers emphasis will be receiving instruction on blocking, receiving, signal giving, throwing to each base as well as well as catching pitchers live. Catchers will also go through hitting stations and receive individual instruction while hitting.

Position Players: The emphasis will be on hitting.
Hitters will receive instruction on hitting, go through drill work and hitting stations. Video will be taken and evaluated. Defensive instruction will include instruction on fundamental skills of throwing, catching as well as a defensive breakdown for each position.

Enrollment and Cost: In order to maintain our small teaching groups and to control the quality of teaching, enrollment will be limited and applications accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost of the one day clinic is $50. Family/Team Discount: Two or more from same family $45 each. Team of 5 or more $40 each.

future Bucknell Baseball Camp or Clinic. THERE WILL BE NO CASH REFUNDS

Equipment: Players MUST bring their own helmet, bat, water bottle and sneakers.

Misc.: Water will be available, however it is recommended that each camper bring their own water bottle.

Camp Overview: At the Bucknell University Baseball Clinics each camper will receive the training and attention they need to advance their skills and prepare for a competitive baseball environment. They will be trained by the Bucknell Coaching staff, as well as several of the Bison top players. Steve Kline, former major league pitcher with the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco Giants and current minor league pitching coach will also be an instructor. During the clinic the players will be participating in skill & training sessions. We look forward to the opportunity to training each camper to be the best player they can be!

*Participants will be grouped based on grade and skill level.
