

Welcome to the 2nd Annual Bucknell Men's Basketball Coaches Clinic

October 18th, 2009 Sojka Pavilion

Areas to be Covered:

Get an inside look into the Bucknell Men's Basketball Program. Watch the Bison complete a full in-season practice with an emphasis on getting your kids to practice hard and play smart. On top of a college practice the clinic will include an on the court chalk talk session, game preparation discussion and a special situations block that includes the Bucknell team. At the end of the clinic there will be an open discussion to answer any questions on the different areas we covered during the day. Both breakfast and lunch will be provided.
