SOJKA PAVILION will be the headquarters for Bison Basketball Camps. Completed in 2004, it is one of the finest mid-size arenas in the nation. For camp purposes, there are three full courts in the Pavilion, with an additional four full courts in Davis Gymnasium and the Gerhard Fieldhouse. Campers will have access to the beautiful Kinney Natatorium and will stay in Bucknell dormitories and eat in the campus dining center. The combined dorm, dining, and athletic facilities provide Bison Basketball campers one of the finest experiences in the nation!

How to Apply: Mail in your application, making sure to indicate which session of Bison Basketball Camp you wish to attend. A $100.00 non-refundable deposit will reserve a camper’s place with the balance due one week prior to the first day of camp.

COACH PAULSEN is completing his fourth season as the head basketball coach after guiding the 2010-2011 squad to both the regular season and tournament championships in the Patriot League. The 2011 squad finished with an overall mark of 25-9 before losing to eventual National Champion Connecticut in the NCAA Tournament. Paulsen was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year. His 2011 squad finished among national leaders in a multitude of statistical categories including free throw percentage (3rd nationally) and three point field goal percentage (7th in the nation).

Prior to coming to Bucknell, Paulsen spent eight highly successful seasons as the head coach at Williams College, where he guided his 2003 team to the Division III National Championship and his 2004 squad to a national runner-up finish. A two time National Coach of the Year while at Williams, Paulsen has won well over 300 games in eighteen years as a collegiate head coach at St. Lawrence, LeMoyne, Williams, and Bucknell.
