Third-seeded Bucknell opens the 2006 Patriot League Tournament against No. 6 seed Lehigh. It is the second consecutive year the two teams have met in the first round. The Mountain Hawks posted a two-point win in Bethlehem, Pa., last year. The Bison enter the game having lost two of their last three games, but they ended the season on a high note by defeating Army at Sojka Pavilion last Saturday. Bucknell will be trying to advance to the semifinals for the fourth time in the last five years, while Lehigh will be attempting to reach the semifinals for the third consecutive year. The Mountain Hawks had a three-game winning streak snapped last Saturday at the Hart Center when Holy Cross defeated them by seven points. The winner of Thursday's game will meet the winner of No. 2 Holy Cross and No. 7 American, which takes place at 8 p.m., immediately following the Bucknell-Lehigh matchup. Saturday's semifinal is slated for 1 p.m. at the Hart Center.

BUCKNELL COACHING STAFF

Head Coach: Kathy Fedorjaka (Fairfield '90)
Career: 203-156 (13th season)
At Bucknell: 136-118 (ninth season)
Assistants: Dan Burt (West Liberty State '93),
 Monique LeBlanc (Bucknell '02), Naomi Bronson (Morehead State '01)

LEHIGH COACHING STAFF

Head Coach: Sue Troyan
 (Dickinson '88)
Career: 150-161 (11th season)
At Lehigh: 150-161 (11th season)
Assistants: Glenn Rigney, Lindsay Davis,
 Jessica DePalo

Series Record: Lehigh leads, 29-27

ABOUT LEHIGH: Eleventh-year head coach Sue Troyan relies heavily on her strating unit. She has used just two different starting lineups this season, with Emily Geosits breaking into the starting five four games ago. The Mountain Hawks are 3-1 since she replaced Tricia Smith. Just six players are avergaing more than 15 minutes per game, while four play more than 31. Senior Jenny Callan, who averages a double-double and led the PL in rebounding, and junior Adrienne Blount earned positions on the PL All-League Team. Callan was a first-team selection, while Blount was a second-team choice. Preseason Patriot League Player of the Year Sara Ellis, who has had a fine season by averaging more than 15 points per game to rank second on the team and third in the conference, was not honored in the league's postseason awards. Lehigh, which outrebounded Bucknell 82-65 in two meetings this season, averages greater than seven rebounds more per game than its opponents.

BISON VS. THE MOUNTAIN HAWKS: Lehigh holds a slight 29-27 edge in the second-most played rivalry in Bucknell history. The Bison have battled Lafayette 57 times, one more than Lehigh. The Mountain Hawks won all three meetings last year and have won seven of the last nine meetings.

LAST MEETING - Feb. 21, 2006 (Sojka Pavilion) - Lehigh 56, Bucknell 55: Kesha Champion and Hope Foster each scored 15 points, but it was not enough as Bucknell dropped its second consecutive one-point game for the second time in program history. Lehigh's Melissa Rich, Adrienne Blount and Sara Ellis combined for 48 of the Mountain Hawks' 56 points.

BUCKNELL VS. LEHIGH PL TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Feb. 27, 1998 (Annapolis, Md.) - No. 5 Lehigh 59, No. 4 Bucknell 55: Lori Houck scored 18 points and Jennifer Winhofer added 17 for Bucknell, but Maureen Trigo and Kelly Collins scored 14 each for Lehigh as the Mountain Hawks outlasted the Bison. Lehigh shot just 42 percent from the free throw line.

March 3, 2005 (Bethlehem, Pa.) - No. 2 Lehigh 54, No. 7 Bucknell 52: Jessica DePalo tipped in a missed shot with 0.4 seconds remaining to give Lehigh a 54-52 win over Bucknell. Lindsey Hollobaugh led all scorers with 23 points in the game that featured 12 ties and eight lead changes.

WITH A VICTORY OVER LEHIGH, BUCKNELL WOULD...

- ...reach 18 wins for just the fifth time in program history
- ...win a PL Tournament game over the Mountain Hawks for the first time
- ...advance to the PL Tournament semifinals for the fourth time in five years
- ...become the second No. 3 seed in the last five years to win a PL Tournament first-round game
- ...set the program record for largest win improvement from one year to the next (eight)

QUICK FACTS: Bucknell is the third seed in the Patriot League Tournament for the first time ... Bucknell is 0-2 all-time vs. Lehigh in the PL Tournament ... Lindsey Hollobaugh became the 15th Bison to eclipse 1,000 points earlier this season ... Kathy Fedorjaka has 203 career victories ... Hollobaugh's 425 career rebounds top current Bison ... Hope Foster has 407 career rebounds ... Foster is the all-time blocks leader in Bucknell history ... Foster is two blocks shy of tying the PL single-season record ... Schober is in position to become the first Bucknell freshman to lead the team in scoring since Molly Creamer in 1999-2000 ... Creamer was the fourth freshman, and just second since 1980, to top the team in scoring ... Bucknell's starting backcourt of Hollobaugh, Brown and Kesha Champion have combined for more than 30% of the team's rebounds ... Bucknell's conference win total equaled its overall win total of last year ... more than 40% of Jacquie Seawright's rebounds have come at the offensive end of the floor ... Bucknell has not had a three-game losing streak this year ... Bucknell secured a top-three finish in the Patriot League standings for just the sixth time ... the Bison have finished second in the PL four times and first once (1995-96).

TWO OUT OF THREE VS. SAME OPPONENT: For the second time this season Bucknell is set to play two out of three games against the same opponent. The last time it happened, last week against Army, the Bison avenged a one-point loss from the first meeting. Ironically, Bucknell lost to Lehigh by just one point last week.

PL Rookie of the Year: Alex McGuire, Army

Bucknell had four players honored by the Patriot League in its postseason award. Sophomore forward Hope Foster garnered First Team All-Patriot League honors, while junior guard Lindsey Hollobaugh was named Second Team All-Patriot League. Freshmen Amanda Brown and Lauren Schober landed on the Patriot League All-Rookie Team.

The selection of Foster to the first team gave the Bison a first-team choice in seven of the last eight years.

Bucknell has had 13 players named all-rookie, while 14 have earned second-team citations and 11 have been first-team selections.

BUCKNELL IN PL TOURNAMENT AT HART CENTER: Thursday's game is the sixth time Bucknell has played a Patriot League Tournament game at the Hart Center. The Bison, who defeated Holy Cross 88-74 on the Hart Center floor for their only conference title, are 1-4 in postseason games at the Hart Center. That championship tilt was the last time Bucknell played a postseason game at the Hart Center.

3/5/93	Holy Cross	L, 75-63
3/3/96	Colgate	L, 65-53
3/8/00	Holy Cross	L, 87-63
3/6/02	Holy Cross	W, 88-74

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT RECORD: Bucknell enters its 16th Patriot League Tournament with an overall record of 9-14. The Bison have never been seeded third prior to this year. They have advanced to the semifinal round three of the last four years.

BISON SPLIT WITH FIRST-PLACE ARMY: With its 60-47 win over Army on Feb. 25, Bucknell was not swept during the regular season by the eventual first-place finisher in the PL standings for the second straight year. Prior to last year's split with Holy Cross, the Bison had been swept by the first-place team every year since 1999-2000.

ELLIS STRUGGLES AGAINST BISON: Lehigh junior guard Sara Ellis, who ranks third in the Patriot League in scoring at over 15 points per game, has been held in check throughout her career by Bucknell. While she owns a career scoring average of greater than 12 points per game, she has tallied just 7.6 per game in seven career contests against the Bison. She has made just 20 of 70 field goals against Bucknell in her three-year career.

EXPERIENCED HOLLOBAUGH: Junior guard Lindsey Hollobaugh is the lone player on the Bucknell roster that has played more than one Patriot League Tournament game. She has played in three games and is averaging 22.7 points per game in the tournament.

Hollobaugh in PL Tournament

SEAWRIGHT STARTS: Junior forward Jacquie Seawright earned her first career start in the season's final regular season game. She immediately produced as she nearly tallied her first career double-double with 12 points and nine rebounds in a career-high 29 minutes. Amanda Brown, the person she replaced in the starting lineup, flourished off the bench and scored 11 points. Bucknell has used six different starting lineups this season, although just two different ones during Patriot League play.

PROTECTING LEADS: One of Bucknell's strengths this season has been not relinquishing leads. If the Bison went up on an opponent by at least six points it was a victory every time. In fact, prior to losing to Army Feb. 18 after leading by eight points (59-51), Bucknell had not lost a game it led by at least six points since the second game of the season. The Bison followed the Army loss with a loss to Lehigh where it led by nine points.

WIN IMPROVEMENT: With a win against Army last weekend, Bucknell equaled its largest win improvement from one year to the next. The Bison won just 10 games last year and claimed number 17 versus the Black Knights. The 1985-86 and 1995-96 teams each posted seven-win improvements over the previous year.

FINAL GAME OF REGULAR SEASON: After winning its final game of the regular season for three straight years, Bucknell had lost its regular-season finale each of the last two seasons. The Bison ended that streak with a 60-47 win over Army last Saturday.

AVOIDING THREE-GAME LOSING STREAKS: By defeating Army on Feb. 25 Bucknell avoided its first three-game losing streak of the season. It is the third time in head coach Kathy Fedorjaka's nine-year tenure the Bison have not registered three consecutive losses in a season. It has happened just four times since the 1979-80 campaign.

AMONG NATION'S SCORING DEFENSE LEADERS: Bucknell is allowing just 57.6 points per game this season, the second-best figure in program history. The Bison have allowed less than 63 points per game just once since the 1979-80 campaign. Through games of Feb. 27 Bucknell ranked 32nd in the nation in scoring defense.

Scoring Defense

Year	Points Allowed/Game
1. 1975-76	56.9
2. 2005-06	57.6
3. 1974-75	59.0
1979-80	59.0

NCAA Scoring Defense Leaders (through Feb. 27)

Rank	Team	Opponent PPG
32.	Bucknell	57.6

STRONG DEFENSE: Bucknell has limited its opponents to a Patriot League-best 34.9% shooting from the field this season, including a sparkling 33.5% in league contests. The Bison have held five opponents under 30 percent this year. In the latest NCAA rankings, which include games through Feb. 27, Bucknell ranked seventh nationally in field goal percentage defense.

NCAA FG% Defense Leaders (through Feb. 27)

6.	Tulsa	34.9
7.	Bucknell	34.9

RECORD-TYING SEVEN WINS IN A ROW: Bucknell won seven games in a row from Jan. 18 to Feb. 7 to mark the second time in the 33-year history of the program the Bison have won that many consecutive games. The 1986-87 team that opened the campaign 7-0 owned the record for most consecutive wins in Bison history.

Bucknell's Longest Winning Streaks

Year	Streak	Final W-L
1986-87	7	17-11
2005-06	7	--

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 40 POINTS: Bucknell held American to just 38 points on Feb. 7. It marked the 15th time in program history an opponent has failed to score 40 points, but just the fifth time since the beginning of the 1980-81 campaign. The last time a team scored less than 38 points was Army in 1992-93 when it tallied 37 in a 51-37 game.

LARGE VICTORY MARGIN: Bucknell, which won seven consecutive games by at least 13 points earlier this year, is outscoring its opponents by a league-best 5.7 points per game this season. After winning just five games by at least 10 points last year, the Bison have 12 wins by double figures this season. In Patriot League contests, Bucknell has outscored opponents by 12.1 points per game.

SOJKA SUCCESS: Bucknell is 8-5 at home this season and owns a 27-17 (.614) all-time record at Sojka Pavilion. That figure matches the single-season record for wins in Sojka Pavilion. Bucknell won at least 10 games three times in Davis Gym, its home from 1973-2003.

HALFTIME LEADS: Bucknell owns a 14-4 record when leading at halftime. The Bison, who won their last 12 games they led at the half before falling to Army Feb. 25, have trailed at intermission just three times since Jan. 1.

BLOCKED SHOTS FOR FOSTER: Sophomore Hope Foster leads the Patriot League and has broken her own Bucknell single-season blocks record with 93 this year. She ranks sixth all-time in PL history and is two shy of tying the PL single-season record. The Washington, D.C., native has blocked at least four shots in a game 12 times this season and 19 times in 55 career games. Earlier this year she had a string of 33 games with at least one block snapped. In the latest NCAA rankings, which include games through Feb. 27, Foster ranked fifth in the nation in blocks. Ironically, Foster has more blocks than any Patriot League team. Lehigh's leader in blocked shots is Jenny Callan with 15.

HOLLOBAUGH REACHES 1,000 POINTS: With her first field goal in a 58-45 win over Lehigh on Jan. 18, Lindsey Hollobaugh reached the 1,000-point mark in her career. She is the 15th Bison in the history of the program to reach that figure. She currently ranks 12th on Bucknell's career scoring list with 1,130 points. She is averaging 14.1 points per game in her career, good for fifth on the Bison career list.

BEST PL STARTS: Bucknell started off the conference slate with a 9-2 record. That record matched the best-ever PL start for the Bison.

 2003: W, 82-75 vs. Colgate

Consecutive Road Victories

Year	Streak	Final W-L
2005-06	7	--
1986-87	4	17-11
2000-01	4	20-8

EIGHT STRAIGHT AWAY FROM HOME: Bucknell's win at Colgate on Feb. 4 was its eighth straight away from home. The Bison outscored their opponents by an average score of 74.1-59.2 during the eight games. The program-record streak came to a close Feb. 11 with a 56-41 loss at Holy Cross.

TWO WINS BY 30+ POINTS: With a 73-38 victory over American Feb. 7, Bucknell won its second game this season by at least 30 points. It is just the third time the Bison have won two games in a season by at least 30. The other two times the feat occurred were 1975-76 and 1995-96. There have been just 19 wins in school history by 30 points, and just 10 by at least 35, including two this season.

TRIO STEPPED UP: Freshman Amanda Brown, sophomore Kesha Champion and freshman Corrine Keller stepped up their games when Lindsey Hollobaugh went down with a knee injury against High Point. In the four games Hollobaugh missed, the trio averaged a combined 38.8 points, 11.8 rebounds and 7.3 assists. Through the season's first six games before Hollobaugh was injured, the threesome was averaging 19.7 points, 6.5 rebounds and 4.2 assists.

REPLACING HOLLOBAUGH: Freshman Corrine Keller was inserted into the starting lineup against High Point in place of the injured Lindsey Hollobaugh. The first freshman to earn a starting assignment this year, she averaged 10.5 points and 4.5 rebounds in 34.5 minutes per game in Hollobaugh's absence. The Bison have posted a 4-2 record overall with the Rochester, N.Y., native in the starting lineup.

TEAM CAPTAINS: Juniors Lindsey Hollobaugh and Jacquie Seawright were voted co-captains by their teammates prior to the 2005-06 season. Hollobaugh, who was the 2004 Patriot League Rookie of the Year, earned second-team all-league plaudits last year after leading the team in scoring with 14.9 points per game. That figure ranked third in the Patriot League. The Loganton, Pa., native also completed her sophomore year third in the league in free throw shooting (.806) and 12th in field goal percentage (.417). Seawright, who is in her first year in Orange and Blue, is a transfer from South Plains College in Levelland, Texas, which placed fourth in last year's NJCAA Tournament and finished with a sparkling 31-4 record. She averaged more than 12 points and five rebounds in her two years at South Plains.

UP NEXT: If Bucknell defeats Lehigh, it will play the winner of the No. 2 Holy Cross/No. 7 American matchup at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Hart Center. The Bison are 2-5 all-time in the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament. With a win Saturday, Bucknell would either travel to West Point, N.Y., for the PL Tournament Championship Game or, with an Army loss in its half of the bracket, will host the game at Sojka Pavilion.

HEAD COACH KATHY FEDORJAKA

In her ninth year at the helm of the Bison, head coach Kathy Fedorjaka is the longest-tenured mentor in the 33-year history of Bucknell's women's basketball program. Since arriving in Lewisburg, Pa., Fedorjaka has amassed a 136-118 (.535) record. In her 13-year coaching career, the Groton, Conn., native has totaled a 203-156 (.565) mark. She is the only Bucknell coach to pass the century mark in wins.

The 1997-98 Patriot League Coach of the Year, Fedorjaka has recruited and tutored many of the best players in Bucknell history. Among the most prominent have been Molly Creamer and Desire Almind. Creamer, who was the first player in school or Patriot League history to get drafted into the WNBA when she was a first-round pick of the New York Liberty with the 10th overall selection in the 2003 draft, finished her career in 2003 with 22 school records and 13 Patriot League standards to her name. The only three-time Patriot League Player of the Year, Creamer scored 2,462 points in her career and, in addition to playing with the Liberty, has played professionally in Israel. She has played in the National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) in recent years. Almind completed her four-year career in 2004 as the school's third-leading scorer and rebounder. She has played professionally in France, and joined Creamer in the NWBL in 2005.

Led by that duo, which garnered seven all-league selections, Fedorjaka has seen her players show up on the first, second or rookie all-league teams 22 times. Fedorjaka has also tutored three of the last seven rookie of the years in the league, including current junior Lindsey Hollobaugh, who won the award in 2003-04.

CONTINUITY AT THE TOP

Kathy Fedorjaka is among the most senior coaches in the Patriot League as she embarks on her ninth year at the helm of the Bison. Only Holy Cross' Bill Gibbons and Lehigh's Sue Troyan have been head coaches in the league longer. Pat Flannery, the head coach of Bucknell's men's basketball team, is the dean of league coaches on the men's side as he roams the Bison sideline for his 12th season in 2005-06. Combined, Flannery and Fedorjaka total 21 years of Patriot League experience. Only Holy Cross' Gibbons (16th season) and Ralph Willard (seventh season) form a more veteran combination among Patriot League schools.

STONY BROOK 81, BUCKNELL 72

GAME 1 ■ NOV. 18, 2005

STONY BROOK ATHLETIC COMPLEX ■ STONY BROOK, N.Y.

Jessica Smith scored a game-high 27 points to lead Stony Brook to an 81-72 win over Bucknell in the 2005-06 season-opener for both teams. Lindsey Hollobaugh scored a team-high 14 points to pace Bucknell, which had three players tally double figures. She also grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds to record her fourth career double-double.

The game was a close one with the Seawolves' largest lead of the second half (10) coming in the final minutes of the contest, which was plagued by a combined 52 fouls. The Bison saw two players foul out, and had two others with four fouls, while to Stony Brook players finished the game with four fouls.

Bucknell jumped out to a 21-16 lead, its largest of the game, after a second consecutive jumper in the paint by Lauren Schober, who tallied all nine of her points in the first half. However, the Bison would tally just one more field goal over the next six minutes as Stony Brook reeled off a 21-5 run. The key to the run was Smith, who scored 13 of her 27 points in less than a four-minute span during that run. That 11-point lead was the largest of the game.

Bucknell ended the first half with a 10-4 run over the final two minutes. Kesha Champion scored four of her eight points, while Schober and Amanda Brown each hit 3-pointers in the final minute. Brown's came as time expired.

The second half remained close as Bucknell did not allow Stony Brook to pull away. The Seawolves' lead grew to as many as eight points early in the half, but the Bison drew to within three points on two occasions at 57-54 and 59-56.

Six of Hollobaugh's team-high 11 rebounds were of the offensive variety. Schober added eight rebounds as the Bison outrebounded the Seawolves 44-36. Amanda Brown, who came off the bench at point guard in place of Kristina Collymore, tied Hope Foster for third on the squad with six rebounds.

Brown, who also added a team-high five assists, teamed with Foster to join Hollobaugh in double figures with 12 points. Foster contributed 10 as five Bison tallied at least eight points.

IONA 75, BUCKNELL 58

GAME 2 ■ NOV. 20, 2005

MULCAHY CENTER ■ NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y.

Iona used a 29-11 run over the game's final 10 minutes to defeat Bucknell. Kesha Champion, Lindsey Hollobaugh and Lauren Schober led the Bison with 12 points apiece.

The game remained close as neither team built a lead larger than seven points in the first 30 minutes of play, but a key 10-0 run, highlighted by nine points in less than a minute from Joanne Smith and Toni Horvath, gave the Gaels a 56-47 advantage and Bucknell never drew closer than seven points after that. The 17-point final margin was the largest of the contest for Iona.

In a back-and-forth first half, Iona used an 8-0 run to take a 13-6 lead with 13:49 to play, but a 3-pointer by Lauren Schober ended a scoreless drought of more than three minutes for the Bison. She then picked up the second foul of the half on Iona's 6-5 center Martina Weber on a driving layup following an offensive rebound by Hollobaugh. Schober, who tied Champion for team-high honors with eight first-half points, converted the free throw.

Bucknell, which made nine 3-pointers in the contest, including six in the first half, tied the game at 15 on Hollobaugh's first of three 3-pointers in the game.

The teams stayed close the rest of the half, although the Bison opened up their biggest lead of the first half (32-27) on a 3-pointer by Champion from the right wing 33 seconds before intermission. Bucknell led 33-29 at halftime.

In the opening minutes of the second half Bucknell could not stretch its lead out past six despite Hope Foster's first basket of the game and 3-pointers by Hollobaugh and Sprouse.

Iona took its first lead since the first half on a 3-pointer from Melissa Yeagley with 15:35 to play to give the Gaels a 42-41 advantage.

The Bison would lead just one more time (47-46) after a pair of free throws from Schober, before Iona went on its decisive 10-0 run. The Bison went more than 5:30 without a field goal during the run.

BUCKNELL 54, COPPIN STATE 48

GAME 3 ■ Nov. 22, 2005

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Kesha Champion connected on a pair of free throws with 35 seconds remaining to give Bucknell the lead for good as the Bison picked up their first win of the season, 54-48, over Coppin State.

Champion, who scored seven points and was 5 of 5 from the free throw line, also canned a pair of free throws with 4:38 remaining to give Bucknell a 46-44 lead and break the fifth tie of the game.

With 1:04 left to play a free throw by Whitney Cunningham knotted the game again at 48-48 but Champion was sent to the line to shoot two and connected on both to give the Bison a 50-48 advantage. Shalamar Oakley couldn't connect on a layup to tie the game but the rebound was mishandled by Bucknell's Ashton Sprouse. The resulting traveling violation by Sprouse gave the Eagles the chance to tie on an inbounds play with 18 seconds left. A stingy Bison defense forced a five-second call and Amanda Brown connected on a pair of free throws to secure the game for Bucknell. Lindsey Hollobaugh, who posted a game-high 21 points, added two free throws in the final seconds to give the Bison their final six-point spread.

Bucknell jumped out to a 13-6 lead early in the first half as Hollobaugh netted seven of her points in the first five minutes of play. However, following a Hope Foster layup with 14:27 to play in the first half, the Bison failed to connect on a field goal for nearly 12 minutes until Jacquie Seawright made a short jumper from the left wing to narrow the deficit to 19-18 and halt the Coppin State run at 13-3. The only Bucknell points during that stretch were three free throws by Corrine Keller.

Coppin State (0-2) extended its lead out to five points on two occasions in the first five minutes of the second half, but Bucknell used an 8-3 run keyed by five points from Hollobaugh to tie the game at 32 with just under 13 minutes to play. The Bison would trail just three more times in the contest with Coppin State's largest lead the rest of the way being 43-41 after a layup by Tanezia Harden.

Hope Foster, who connected on a jumper from just inside the top of the key to give Bucknell a 48-47 advantage, was Bucknell's highest scorer next to Hollobaugh with eight points. She also hauled in eight rebounds, all on the defensive end of the floor.

BUCKNELL 54, SIENA 48

GAME 4 ■ Nov. 26, 2005

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Lindsey Hollobaugh scored 16 of her game-high 18 points in the first half and Kesha Champion tallied six consecutive points late in the second half to lead the Bucknell women's basketball team to a 54-48 victory over Siena.

Hollobaugh dominated the first half with 16 points on 7 of 8 shooting as Bucknell opened up a 34-25 halftime lead. The Bison extended the lead out to a game-high 13 points (38-25) as Hope Foster and Kristina Collymore knocked down jumpers in the opening minutes of the second half. However, Collymore's basket with 18:15 to play was the last field goal for Bucknell for over six minutes as Siena reeled off 13 consecutive points to tie the game.

Amanda Brown ended the scoreless drought with her first of two critical 3-pointers in the game. She later hit one to give Bucknell a 52-46 lead with just under three minutes left. Those were her only two field goals, although she did dish out two assists in 24 minutes of play.

The Bison were unable to score for nearly five more minutes, although their defense, which forced 18 turnovers and limited the Saints to 34.5 percent shooting, yielded just three points in the interim. Champion keyed a 6-2 run that spanned four minutes by driving to the basket on a number of occasions. She scored all six points and drew two fouls during the run.

Brown's 3-pointer with just under three minutes gave the Bison a six-point lead, but did not seal the game as Siena closed the gap to 52-48 with 1:41 to play on a jumper by Whitney Cave. A Hollobaugh turnover with 50 seconds to play gave Siena a chance to close the gap, but it took more than 20 seconds to get a shot off. Hollobaugh, who came up just short of her second double-double of the year, hauled in the carom, but traveled as she fell to the ground. Cave missed a short jumper on Siena's ensuing possession, but Talaya Wilkins grabbed the offensive rebound. She missed her shot and Collymore came away with her fifth rebound of the contest.

Hollobaugh then sealed the game with a pair of free throws with just over 10 seconds on the clock.

The first half was similar to the second half in that Bucknell jumped out to a 20-8 lead seven minutes into the game as Siena turned the ball over seven times in that span. The Saints did narrow their deficit to three points on four occasions, but Bucknell ended the half on an 8-2 run to take the nine-point halftime lead.

SAINT JOSEPH'S 59, BUCKNELL 55

GAME 5 ■ NOV. 27, 2005

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Freshman Lauren Schober came off the bench to score a career-high 16 points and shot 4 of 5 from 3-point range to lead four Bucknell players in double figures, but Hillary Klimowicz scored 19 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, including nine on the offensive end, to record her first career double-double and lead Saint Joseph's to a tight 59-55 victory over the Bison.

The game was close the entire way as neither team built a lead larger than six points. The Hawks, who led 9-3 at one point in the first half, opened up their largest lead of the second half to that point with a 9-2 run that was keyed by five points from Timisha Gomez. The spurt gave Saint Joseph's a 52-48 advantage with just over three minutes to play.

Kesha Champion brought the Bison back to within one point (52-51) with a 3-pointer with just under two minutes to play. It was the second 3-pointer of the game for Champion, who scored a career-high 14 points. The Hawks quickly answered with a basket by Ayahna Cornish. Champion then brought Bucknell back to within one point as she got fouled on a drive to the basket and converted both free throws to narrow the score to 54-53.

After a layup by Faith Schutte inside of 45 seconds, Bucknell took possession facing a three-point deficit. Hope Foster attempted a baseline jumper that was blocked by Klimowicz and Cornish came up with the rebound. Whitney French converted two free throws to seal the game for Saint Joseph's.

After falling behind by that 9-3 score in the first half after not netting a field goal until a baseline jumper by Champion nearly five minutes into the contest, Bucknell battled back to tie the game at 20 with just under eight minutes to play in the half. Defense was the key as the Bison yielded just two points over the final 9:18 of the first half and took a 27-22 lead into halftime. Bucknell outscored Saint Joseph's 11-2 over the final nine minutes of the half.

Schober, who made a pair of 3-pointers from the top of the key in the first half, kept the Bison in the game early in the second half as she connected on two more in the first six minutes of play following halftime. She scored six of Bucknell's first eight points of the second half and her fourth 3-pointer of the game tied the score at 35.

AIR FORCE 58, BUCKNELL 41

GAME 6 ■ DEC. 2, 2005

CLUNE ARENA ■ USAFA, COLO.

Sophomore Kesha Champion matched a career-high with seven rebounds and led the Bison with 12 points, but the Bucknell women's basketball team suffered a 58-41 setback against Air Force in the opening game of the Air Force Classic.

The Falcons remained undefeated on the season, as the team improved to 4-0, while the Bison suffered their second straight loss and fell to an overall record of 2-4 on the year.

After Bucknell opened the contest with a 9-6 advantage, Air Force managed to hold the Bison to just one field goal over the final 11:27 of the first half as the Falcons went on a 24-5 run to take a 30-14 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Air Force stretched its lead to 29 after beginning the second half with a 17-6 run, but Bucknell finished strong despite being unable to overcome the deficit. The Bison outscored the Falcons 21-9 in the closing 10:17 and held Air Force to just one point over the final 5:34.

Pamela Findlay led the Falcons with 11 points and was 4-for-6 from the field with five rebounds and three steals. Ellen Jaesche posted a double-double for Air Force with 10 points and 12 rebounds while also contributing the team's only two blocks. Lauren Henderson recorded eight points and three assists and Ashley Mickens and Dawn Higginbotham added eight rebounds apiece.

Behind Champion for the Bison, Hope Foster, Corrine Keller and Lauren Schober all chipped in six points each. Foster also led the team with 10 rebounds and three blocks. All of Schober's points came in the second half while five of Keller's six came in the final period. Keller set career marks with six points and three rebounds, as well.

BUCKNELL 71, HIGH POINT 60

GAME 7 ■ DEC. 3, 2005

CLUNE ARENA ■ USAFA, COLO.

Sophomore Hope Foster had a career performance with 24 points, 18 rebounds and seven blocks, helping the Bucknell women's basketball squad to a 71-60 victory over High Point in the Air Force Classic consolation game.

Foster led Bucknell in points, rebounds and blocks. Her seven blocks matched a program single game record originally set by Stacey Spitko on Feb. 8, 1986, against Delaware. Foster also set new career highs in points and rebounds, shot 8-15 from the field and was 8-10 at the free throw line.

Newcomers Amanda Brown, Corrine Keller and Jacquie Seawright all reached new career highs in points as well. Brown totaled 13 points and five assists while Seawright tallied nine points, both coming off the bench for the Bison. Keller had 12 points, six rebounds and two steals in her first collegiate start.

In the opening seven minutes, the score remained close as neither team could pull away by more than four points. Then, at 13:05, sophomore Kesha Champion netted a free throw to begin a 27-8 Bucknell run that closed out the period and gave the Bison a 40-24 advantage at halftime. Bucknell's defense held High Point to just three field goals in the final 13 minutes of the first half.

Champion stretched the Bison lead to 20 to start the second half, recording four of her seven points with two field goals. However, the Panthers were able to chip away at the deficit and came within two with a layup by Raven Truslow with four minutes remaining in regulation. That would be as close as High Point would come as Bucknell responded by outscoring the Panthers 15-6 in the final four minutes. Foster netted nine of her 13 second half points during that stretch, including a perfect 5-5 at the free throw line.

Candyce Sellars led all High Point scorers with 16 points and three steals while Caitlyn Thys recorded a double-double for the Panthers with 10 points and 14 rebounds.

BUCKNELL 93, MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE 92 (3OT)

GAME 8 ■ DEC. 17, 2005

HYTCHE CENTER ■ PRINCESS ANNE, MD.

Amanda Brown scored a career-high 20 points to lead four Bucknell players in double figures as the Bison women's basketball team held off Maryland Eastern Shore for a thrilling 93-92 triple overtime victory.

In the first triple overtime game in the 33-year history of the Bucknell (4-4) program, the Bison held leads late in regulation and in the closing moments of the first two overtime periods, but the Hawks tied the score each time.

Bucknell led 58-53 in the final minutes of regulation after a driving layup by Lauren Schober, but Kristi Veltkamp made a 3-pointer and Toni Kennedy converted a short jumper in the final 90 seconds to tie the game. The Bison had the ball with a chance to win in the final seconds, but Kesha Champion double dribbled. The final score at the end of regulation was 58-58.

Bucknell's largest lead of the first overtime came at 68-62, but Toni Kennedy, who made five 3-pointers in overtime and seven in the game, connected on two in the final 30 seconds to tie the game at 68-68.

The Bison jumped out to a 79-72 advantage with less than 90 seconds left in the second overtime, behind five points from Lauren Schober, but Kennedy quickly made another 3-pointer, and a driving layup by Qiana Cheatham with five seconds left tied the score at 79-79 and sent the game to the third overtime.

The Bison scored the first three points of the final overtime on two free throws by Kesha Champion and one by Latham as DeVaughn Hailey was whistled for a personal foul and a technical foul. However, another 3-pointer by Kennedy and a jumper by Cheatham gave UMES (1-5) an 84-82 advantage to equal its largest in overtime to that point.

The Hawks did lead 89-85 before two free throws and a jumper by Champion tied the score at 89-89 with just over a minute to play to start an 8-0 run that gave the Bison a 93-89 lead.

After a steal of an in-bounds pass by Brown, Jacquie Seawright drove to the basket and a controversial blocking foul was whistled on Tiffany Reid. Seawright converted both free throws, which gave Bucknell a 91-89 advantage and continued the run, while Corrine Keller knocked down a pair of free throws to round out the scoring for Bucknell. Rachael Goodwin connected on a 3-pointer at the buzzer to make the final score 93-92.

BUCKNELL 62, CORNELL 57

NEWMAN ARENA ■ ITHACA, N.Y.

Bucknell limited Cornell to just one field goal in nearly 17 minutes to come back from a 16-point first-half deficit and defeat the Big Red 62-57.

Bucknell, which improved to 5-4 and is in the midst of its first three-game winning streak since 2003-04, shot just 1 of 10 on field goals early in the first half as Cornell opened up a 16-3 advantage with Lindsay Krasna and Jeomi Maduka netting four points apiece for the Big Red.

Amanda Brown and Ashton Sprouse hit back-to-back 3-pointers mid-way through the half to narrow the deficit to just 18-11, but Cornell extended its lead back out to a game-high 16 points at 31-15 after a 3-pointer by Gretchen Gregg. However, the Bison defense, which totaled seven steals in the first half, forced 11 turnovers in the first half and limited the Big Red to just one field goal in the final seven minutes of the half.

A last-second steal and layup by Jacquie Seawright narrowed the halftime deficit to 32-24.

Bucknell's defense, which limited Cornell to 19 of 58 shooting and forced 21 turnovers, continued its strong play in the second half as the Big Red did not net their first field goal until just over 10 minutes remained. By that time the Bison had opened up a 41-37 advantage. Kesha Champion, who tallied double figures for the sixth time in seven games with 12 points, scored seven of her 11 second-half points as Bucknell built its four-point cushion.

The Bison lead did not last long as Cornell scored 11 points on four consecutive possessions, highlighted by back-to-back 3-pointers from Gregg.

Cornell was able to jump ahead by a many as five points, but Bucknell took a 52-50 lead on a basket by Sarah Latham and relinquished the lead just briefly when the Megan Hughes made 1 of 2 free throws to put the Big Red ahead 53-52.

A driving layup by Champion that resulted in a three-point play gave the Bison a 57-54 lead. Clinging to a 57-56 advantage, Brown, who scored a game-high 13 points, knocked down a pair of free throws to give Bucknell a 59-56 cushion. A technical free throw by Champion and two more free throws by Brown in the final seconds rounded out the Bison scoring.

BUCKNELL 74, BUFFALO 63

ALUMNI ARENA ■ BUFFALO, N.Y.

Amanda Brown and Jacquie Seawright came off the bench and each scored a career-high 22 points, while Seawright also grabbed a career-high nine rebounds, to lead Bucknell to a 74-63 victory over Buffalo.

The win was the fourth straight for the Bison, their longest streak since December 2003, as they improved to 6-4.

Seawright and Brown became the first pair of Bison teammates to net 20 points in the same game since Lindsey Hollobaugh and Desire Almind each scored more than 20 in the 2004 Patriot League Tournament against Holy Cross. Seawright made 9 of 17 shots from the field, while Brown connected on 9 of 15 to equal her career high. The rest of the team made just 10 field goals.

Bucknell took a 10-6 lead early in the first half behind seven points from Kesha Champion, but failed to score for more than three minutes as Buffalo reeled off 11 straight points.

The Bison answered that with a 27-7 run of their own to jump out in front 37-24. Seawright and Brown combined for 23 of the 27 points during the spurt. Seawright scored seven points during one stretch of just over a minute.

Buffalo held Bucknell without a point over the final three minutes of the half as it drew to within 37-30 at halftime. That 6-0 spurt was the beginning of a 14-0 run that gave the Bulls a 38-37 advantage early in the first half. The Bison did not score a point for more than six minutes.

Champion, who had been averaging more than 38 minutes per game recently, picked up her fourth foul 90 seconds into the second half and spent more than 11 minutes on the bench, but Bucknell extended its lead from three points (37-34) to seven (56-49) during that time. Hope Foster, who spent nine minutes on the bench after picking up her third foul, also re-entered the game with Champion.

The Bison held onto the lead down the stretch as the Bulls could not draw closer than that seven-point gap. Bucknell's lead ballooned to as many as 14 points before Rachele Matthys made Buffalo's only 3-pointer of the game in the final seconds to cut the final margin to 11 points.

In addition to her 22 points and nine rebounds, Seawright posted a career-high five steals. Bucknell employed a full-court press much of the game, and tallied a season-high 12 steals and forced 19 turnovers.

DELAWARE STATE 60, BUCKNELL 42

GAME 11 ■ DEC. 30, 2005

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Amanda Brown and Jacquie Seawright came off the bench and each scored a career-high 22 points, while Seawright also grabbed a career-high nine rebounds, to lead Bucknell to a 74-63 victory over Buffalo.

The win was the fourth straight for the Bison, their longest streak since December 2003, as they improved to 6-4.

Seawright and Brown became the first pair of Bison teammates to net 20 points in the same game since Lindsey Hollobaugh and Desire Almind each scored more than 20 in the 2004 Patriot League Tournament against Holy Cross. Seawright made 9 of 17 shots from the field, while Brown connected on 9 of 15 to equal her career high. The rest of the team made just 10 field goals.

Bucknell took a 10-6 lead early in the first half behind seven points from Keshia Champion, but failed to score for more than three minutes as Buffalo reeled off 11 straight points.

The Bison answered that with a 27-7 run of their own to jump out in front 37-24. Seawright and Brown combined for 23 of the 27 points during the spurt. Seawright scored seven points during one stretch of just over a minute.

Buffalo held Bucknell without a point over the final three minutes of the half as it drew to within 37-30 at halftime. That 6-0 spurt was the beginning of a 14-0 run that gave the Bulls a 38-37 advantage early in the first half. The Bison did not score a point for more than six minutes.

Champion, who had been averaging more than 38 minutes per game recently, picked up her fourth foul 90 seconds into the second half and spent more than 11 minutes on the bench, but Bucknell extended its lead from three points (37-34) to seven (56-49) during that time. Hope Foster, who spent nine minutes on the bench after picking up her third foul, also re-entered the game with Champion.

The Bison held onto the lead down the stretch as the Bulls could not draw closer than that seven-point gap. Bucknell's lead ballooned to as many as 14 points before Rachele Matthys made Buffalo's only 3-pointer of the game in the final seconds to cut the final margin to 11 points.

In addition to her 22 points and nine rebounds, Seawright posted a career-high five steals. Bucknell employed a full-court press much of the game, and tallied a season-high 12 steals and forced 19 turnovers.

STONY BROOK 65, BUCKNELL 56

GAME 12 ■ JAN. 3, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Mykeema Ford scored a season-high 21 points and Jessica Smith added her 20th career double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds to lead Stony Brook to a 65-56 victory over Bucknell. The Bison were led by a career-high 18 points and nine rebounds from freshman Lauren Schober.

Stony Brook, which defeated Bucknell 81-72 in November, opened up a 10-0 lead as the Bison missed their first eight shots. A running floater by Kristina Collymore nearly seven minutes into the contest marked the first field goal for Bucknell. The Bison would draw to within eight on just two other occasions during the first half as the Seawolves entered halftime with a 34-19 edge.

Smith scored eight straight points to open the second half as Stony Brook stretched its lead to a game-high 20 points at 42-22. The junior forward scored 10 of the Seawolves' first 11 points in the second half.

The 20-point deficit was the largest of the game for Bucknell, which narrowed the gap to 54-45 on a short jumper by Schober with just under six minutes to play. From there, the two teams traded baskets as the Bison closed to within eight points four times, but never again trailed by more than 11. Stony Brook, which shot 20 of 25 from the free throw line, made 9 of 10 in the final 3:22 to hold on for the win.

Bucknell made went 8-for-14 from the foul line and turned the ball over 21 times, its second-highest total of the season. Thirteen of those turnovers came in the first half.

In addition to Schober, who tied her career high with her nine rebounds, Amanda Brown also reached double figures in points with 16 in her first career start. Schober and Brown combined to shoot 14 of 29 (48.3 percent) from the field, while the rest of the team made 9 of 34 (26.5 percent). Overall, the Bison converted 36.5 percent of their field goals. The Seawolves were 21-for-66 (31.8 percent), including 7-for-25 (28.0 percent) in the second half. Bucknell made 45.5 percent after halftime.

Hope Foster entered the game second in the nation in blocked shots and finished with five rejections to boost her season total to 48.

In addition to her game-high 21 points, Ford dished out five assists for the Seawolves. She finished the game one point shy of 1,000 in her career. Dana Ferraro, who was averaging 10.9 rebounds per game, snared 11.

BUCKNELL 88, NAVY 51

GAME 13 ■ JAN. 7, 2006

ALUMNI HALL ■ ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Bucknell used a game-opening 14-0 run to catapult it to an 88-51 victory over Navy in its Patriot League opener. Amanda Brown led three Bison in double figures with 21 points as the Bison won by the fourth-largest margin in program history.

After the game-opening 14-point lead, Bucknell never led by less than 10 points the rest of the way and built a 32-12 advantage with 4:25 left in the first half. The largest lead of the game was the 37-point final margin.

Navy made just 7 of 33 field goals in the first half and turned the ball over 10 times. Bucknell, which made four of its first seven field goals, ended the half making 14 of 30. Kesha Champion had 13 points in the first half and Lauren Schober added 10.

The Bison took a 36-21 lead into intermission with Champion scoring 13 of her 15 points in the first half.

Bucknell opened the second half on a 12-4 run over the first three minutes of the second half to build a 23-point cushion as it coasted to the 88-51 win.

Brown scored 19 of her game-high 21 points in the second half. Champion added 15 points and Schober tallied 13. Jacquie Seawright and Hope Foster scored nine points apiece for the Bison who scored their most points in a regulation game since a 90-66 victory over Iona last January.

Foster and Champion each grabbed six rebounds to pace Bucknell, which outrebounded its first opponent since Dec. 3 against High Point with a 40-39 edge on the boards over the Mids.

Bucknell shot a season-high 53.3 percent, including 60.0 percent in the second half. Brown, who added four rebounds and six assists to go along with her 21 points, made 6 of 8 from the field, including 4 of 4 from 3-point range. Champion was 6-for-10 and tallied five assists.

BUCKNELL 66, AMERICAN 43

GAME 14 ■ JAN. 10, 2006

BENDER ARENA ■ WASHINGTON, D.C.

Lauren Schober scored a career-high 22 points and pulled down four rebounds, while Hope Foster added 12 points and 13 rebounds for her third double-double of the season as Bucknell defeated American 66-43.

The Bison improved to 8-6 overall and 2-0 in the Patriot League for the first time since 2001-02. It was the fifth consecutive road victory for Bucknell, which established a new program record.

Schober, who was making her second career start, netted double figures for the third straight game as she and Foster combined to take 35 of Bucknell's 67 field goal attempts. Schober was 7 of 18 from the field, including 3 of 6 from 3-point range, while Foster made 6 of 17 from the field.

After playing to an even 16-16 score over the first 14 minutes of the fast-paced first half, Bucknell outscored American 15-5 over the final six minutes of the half. The Bison scored seven straight points, ignited by a 3-pointer from the left corner by Schober. The Eagles answered with five consecutive points, but Bucknell tallied the final eight points of the half over the final three minutes, including a 3-pointer by Lindsey Hollobaugh from the right corner as time expired to take a 31-21 lead into halftime.

That 8-0 run extended into the second half when the Bison scored the first five points to take a 36-21 lead as American went more than six minutes total without scoring.

The Bucknell defense, which forced 19 turnovers, was the key later in the second half as well. The Bison limited the Eagles to one field goal and four points over the final eight minutes of the game until Pam Stanfield knocked down a 3-pointer with 13 seconds remaining. During that time the Bucknell lead ballooned from 46-36 to as many as 26 points at 66-40.

The Bison grabbed 51 rebounds to outboard the Eagles 51-39 saw their guards hit the boards hard. In addition to Hollobaugh's eight caroms, Kesha Champion hauled in eight and Amanda Brown grabbed seven.

The 43 points Bucknell yielded was the lowest total for an opponent since American tallied 39 in a 51-39 loss two years ago.

HOLY CROSS 67, BUCKNELL 63 (OT)

GAME 15 ■ JAN. 14, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Bucknell used an 11-0 run over the game's final four minutes, capped by a game-tying 3-pointer from Kesha Champion with less than 30 seconds to play to force overtime, but fell to Holy Cross 67-63 in overtime.

Lauren Schober led five Bucknell players in double figures with 18 points, marking her fourth consecutive double-figure scoring contest. She also added a team-high 12 rebounds for her first career double-double.

In a game that featured 13 ties and was deadlocked at 27-27 at halftime, neither team led by more than four points until Holy Cross held Bucknell without a field goal for more than eight minutes as it ran off a 12-2 run. The Bison missed 10 consecutive field goal attempts in that span.

Schober's hit a 3-pointer to cut the Holy Cross lead from a game-high 56-45 to 56-48, but neither team would score again until the final minute. After Champion knocked down a pair of free throws, Hollobaugh knocked an in-bounds pass away and off a Holy Cross player. She then quickly connected on a 3-pointer to bring the Bison to within three. Another Crusader turnover gave the Bison the ball with just over 30 seconds remaining. After a few passes, Champion made her only 3-pointer of the game from three feet behind the line to tie the score. Holy Cross's Shannon Bush missed a potential game-winning shot from the right baseline, resulting in the second overtime game of the year for Bucknell.

Bush, who made four 3-pointers and led Holy Cross with 19 points, made a 3-pointer on the Crusaders' first possession in overtime and Holy Cross never trailed in the extra period. The lead ballooned to as many as six points in overtime and the Crusaders made 4 of 6 free throws in the final 90 seconds to seal the win. The key play was a steal and length-of-the-court layup by Jessica Conte that put Holy Cross up 63-58 with just over two minutes to play.

Hollobaugh finished with 12 points and nine rebounds, narrowly missing her fifth career double-double. Champion added 11 points, while Hope Foster and Amanda Brown each scored 10 points to round out the quintet of Bison in double figures. Brown, the team's leading scorer, struggled from the field making 4 of 16 overall and 1 of 11 from 3-point range.

Champion had a strong all-around game. In addition to her 11 points and game-tying 3-pointer, she snared six rebounds dished out a career high-tying six assists and recorded a career-high five steals.

Bucknell did struggle from the free throw line, making just three of its first 10 from the foul line.

BUCKNELL 58, LEHIGH 45

GAME 16 ■ JAN. 18, 2006

STABLER ARENA ■ BETHLEHEM, PA.

Lindsey Hollobaugh, who passed the 1,000-point mark in her career in the first half, scored 14 of her team-high 16 points in the second half as Bucknell held off Lehigh for its sixth consecutive road victory, 58-45.

The Bison, who held their fourth opponent of the season to less than 50 points, improved to 9-7 overall and 3-1 in the Patriot League and moved into a first-place tie with Army atop the standings. The Mountain Hawks fell to 7-10 overall and 2-2 in league play.

Bucknell made seven of its first eight field goal attempts on its way to a 16-9 lead in the fast-paced opening minutes of the game. Hope Foster scored eight of her 10 points in the first six minutes of play as the Bison built the seven-point cushion.

Lehigh closed to within 16-13 with more than 11 minutes to play in the half, but tallied just three points in the next 10 minutes as Bucknell built an 11-point spread at 27-16. Adrienne Blount, who led Lehigh with 18 points on 9 of 18 shooting, then scored on three straight possessions in the final 1:20 to bring the Mountain Hawks to within 27-22 at halftime.

Bucknell kept at least a five-point cushion throughout the second half as Lehigh drew to within 42-37 following a 3-pointer by Emily Geosits with just less than seven minutes to play. The final 13-point spread was the largest of the game.

The key to the game was Bucknell's defense, which limited its third opponent in the last four games to less than 30 percent shooting from the field. The Mountain Hawks made just 27.0 percent of their field goals. Hollobaugh and Kesha Champion held Sara Ellis, who entered the game averaging nearly 17 points per game, to just five points on 1 of 10 shooting.

Foster contributed to the defensive effort by blocking three shots to vault her into first place on the Bison career list with 134.

Lauren Schober rounded out the trio of Bucknell players in double figures with 14 points on 6 of 10 shooting. The Bison shot better than 40 percent as a team.

Jenny Callan posted a double-double with 13 points and 17 rebounds for Lehigh, which outrebounded Bucknell 48-33. Foster led the Bison with eight rebounds.

Bucknell turned the ball over just five times in the game and just once in the second half.

BUCKNELL 73, COLGATE 58

GAME 17 ■ JAN. 21, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Four Bucknell players tallied double figures, led by 15 points from Lauren Schober, as the Bison snapped a four-game home losing streak with a 73-58 victory over Colgate.

The win kept Bucknell in a first-place tie in the Patriot League standings with Army, which defeated Navy 83-69 Saturday. The Bison and Black Knights are both 4-1 in league play. Bucknell is 10-7 overall, marking the first time it has been at least three games over .500 since the end of the 2001-02 campaign.

The Raiders took their only lead of the game when Melanie Cargle, who scored 16 points, including the first six of the game for Colgate, knocked down a baseline jumper for a 6-5 lead. That was the last basket the Raiders would get for nearly seven minutes as they missed eight consecutive field goal attempts while Bucknell reeled off 12 consecutive points.

Bucknell did allow Colgate to draw to within 20-16, but a 3-pointer by Amanda Brown with just less than six minutes to play in the half gave the Bison a seven-point cushion and the Raiders would not come closer than that the rest of the game.

Bucknell ended the first half on a 14-5 run as it took a 34-21 lead into halftime. Schober and Brown each contributed five points to the run.

The Bison sprinted out of the gates in the second half following a 3-pointer from Megan Ballard in the opening seconds that brought the Raiders to within 10. Bucknell proceeded to score 13 of the next 15 points over a three-minute stretch to take a commanding 47-26 lead. The advantage ballooned to as many as 26 points after a 3-pointer from Schober, who was 2-for-3 from behind the arc, made it 64-38.

Colgate chipped away at the lead over the final 10 minutes of play, but could not draw to within the 15-point final margin.

Hope Foster, Lindsey Hollobaugh and Brown joined Schober in double figures for Bucknell. Foster tallied 12 points and five rebounds, while Hollobaugh chipped in 11 points and a team-high seven boards. Brown added 11 points and a team-high five assists. That quartet combined to make 57.6% of its shots from the field, including 55.6% from 3-point range. As a team, the Bison shot 49.1% overall and 50.0% from behind the arc.

BUCKNELL 63, COLUMBIA 45

GAME 18 ■ JAN. 24, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Jacquie Seawright scored a game-high 14 points and grabbed six rebounds off the bench and Ashton Sprouse added a career-high 10 points also in a reserve role to help lead Bucknell to a 63-45 victory over Columbia.

The Bison bench tallied a total of 33 points, buoyed by Seawright and Sprouse. Corrine Keller added six points off the bench. The Lions, who did not have a player in double figures, received just 13 points from their bench with no reserve player tallying more than two points.

Bucknell, which made 41.9 percent of its field goals, opened the game making its first five shots, and 13 of 19, to build a 31-16 lead 12 minutes into the game.

Seawright put the Bison up 34-18 when she connected on her third consecutive 3-pointer. She worked her way around the key, making the first from the right corner, then the top of the key and finally from the left corner.

A 3-pointer from Lauren Schober gave Bucknell a 39-20 lead, its largest to that point, with just over five minutes to go in the first half and it appeared as though the Bison would run away with the game. However, Bucknell would score just five more points over the next 10:41 as Columbia drew to within 44-30 before back-to-back baskets from Amanda Brown and Seawright.

The Bison extended the lead out to a game-high 27 points following a layup from Keller that concluded a 15-2 run and made the score 59-32. The Bucknell defense, which forced 20 turnovers and held Columbia to 31.5 percent shooting, limited the Lions to just one field goal and 1-for-11 shooting during one 12-minute stretch in the second half.

Schober was the lone Bucknell starter in double figures with 11 points. She also added three steals as the Bison totaled 12 in the game. Keller also registered three steals, while Seawright and Kristina Collimore added two apiece.

BUCKNELL 74, NAVY 54

GAME 19 ■ JAN. 28, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Lindsey Hollobaugh scored a game-high 18 points and Amanda Brown added 17, including eight in a three-minute stretch late in the second half, as Bucknell won its fourth straight game, 74-54.

Navy (10-9, 3-3 PL) built a 21-15 lead, its largest of the game, midway through the first half, but Bucknell quickly tallied eight points in less than three minutes to take a 23-21 lead. The Bison never trailed again.

After leading just 33-30 with two minutes to play before intermission, Bucknell scored seven of the final nine points of the first half thanks to a pair of steals from Hollobaugh. Hollobaugh made a pair of free throws and then stole the Navy inbounds pass and immediately scored. She then stole the next inbounds pass as Bucknell employed an effective full court press. After the ball squirted out of bounds, Kesha Champion converted a three-point play to give Bucknell seven points without the Mids crossing halfcourt.

Navy hung tough in the second half, not allowing Bucknell to pull ahead by more than 12 points until Brown got hot and made three driving layups and one jumper in a span of five possessions to help the Bison take a 65-49 lead with just over four minutes to play.

Bucknell extended the lead out to a game-high 22 points (74-52) following a pair of free throws by Corrine Keller with less than 30 seconds to play.

Jacquie Seawright tallied 13 points off the bench to round out the trio of Bison in double figures. It was her second consecutive double-figure scoring game and third of the year.

Despite playing just 19 minutes because of foul trouble, Hope Foster spearheaded the Bucknell rebounding effort with eight boards to go along with eight points. The Bison, who saw their starting backcourt of Brown, Champion and Hollobaugh combine for 19 rebounds, outrebounded the Mids 42-32. Foster, who leads the PL in blocked shots, failed to block a shot for the first time in 34 games.

Bucknell, which has not allowed an opponent to shoot better than 40 percent since the second game of the season, limited Navy to 35.6 percent shooting from the field. The Bison made 45 percent of their field goals and 19 of 26 free throws. The Mids converted seven free throws on just nine attempts.

BUCKNELL 62, LAFAYETTE 48

GAME 20 ■ FEB. 1, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Hope Foster scored 19 points and pulled down nine rebounds and Bucknell used a 22-5 run midway through the second half to defeat Lafayette, 62-48.

Bucknell struggled early as it opened the game just 1-for-9 from the field as Lafayette built a 12-2 lead seven minutes into the contest. Four straight points by Foster kicked off a Bison run that evened the score at 14-14 following a jumper from the left baseline by Corrine Keller.

Bucknell's defense, which entered the game ranked 12th in the country in field goal percentage defense at 34.9 percent, held Lafayette to just one field goal in a span of nearly nine minutes to help draw even. The Leopards made just 29.6 percent of their field goals in the first half and 33.3 percent in the game.

A jumper by Jacquie Seawright, who joined Foster in double figures with 11 points off the bench, as time wound down at the end of the first half gave the Bison their first lead (21-20).

It appeared Bucknell, which had won three straight games by at least 15 points for the first time in program history, was going to break the game open early in the second half. Kesha Champion helped ignite a 7-0 run with a pair of steals, a fast break layup and a jumper on a fast break to give the Bison a 28-23 advantage, its largest of the game to that point. However, Lafayette answered with a 7-0 run of its own in less than a minute to take a two-point lead.

Over the next 10 minutes Bucknell's defense really clamped down, forcing Lafayette into a 2-for-14 cold spell from the floor as the Bison went on a 22-5 run to take a 50-35 lead, their largest of the game, with just under six minutes to play. Foster and Seawright each scored six points during the spurt.

The Leopards, who were led by Vanessa Van De Venter's third double-double of the season (19 pts-10 rebs), could not close the gap to within 10 points the rest of the way as they fell for the third straight game.

Lindsey Hollobaugh chipped in nine points for Bucknell despite not netting her first points until 11 minutes remained in the game. Champion added eight to go along with six rebounds and a game-high three steals.

After making just 8 of 27 (29.6 percent) from the field in the first half, Bucknell converted 17 of 28 (60.7 percent) in the second half. Foster (8-11), Champion (4-5) and Seawright (4-6) combined to go 16-for-22 from the field in the game.

Lauren Schober tied Foster for team-high honors with nine rebounds as Bucknell held a 37-36 advantage on the boards over the much-smaller Leopards.

BUCKNELL 81, COLGATE 63

GAME 21 ■ FEB. 4, 2006

COTTERELL COURT ■ HAMILTON, N.Y.

Lauren Schober scored 21 points, including 14 in the second half, as Bucknell outscored Colgate by 19 points after halftime on its way to an 81-63 victory. The win was the sixth in a row for the Bison and gave head coach Kathy Fedorjaka her 200th career victory.

Schober made all seven of her field goal attempts and was 5-for-6 from the free throw line. Lindsey Hollobaugh added 18 points, six rebounds and four steals, while Amanda Brown tallied 17 points, seven rebounds and six assists. That trio combined to make 20 of its 30 field goal attempts. Melanie Cargle, Gretchen Polinski and Meghan Curtin led Colgate with 13 points apiece.

A 23-2 run in the second half was key for Bucknell, which limited Colgate to just one field goal in a seven-minute span. Colgate opened the second half with five straight points to take a 40-34 lead, its largest of the game, but then the Bison began to push the tempo. They limited the Raiders to 1-for-13 shooting during the run and forced three turnovers on their way to a 57-42 lead. Schober scored seven points during the run, many on fast break layups.

The Bison led by as many as 21 points on four occasions in the second half as they made 17 of 30 field goals after halftime.

The first half was much closer than the second. After Bucknell jumped out to a 9-3 lead in the opening two minutes of the game and forced a Colgate timeout, the Raiders reeled off an 8-2 run.

Both teams had balanced scoring in the first half as eight players for each scored in the first 20 minutes of play. The Bison were limited to 11 of 35 shooting as the Colgate defense forced them to hurry many of their field goal attempts.

The first half featured a total of 30 free throw attempts, 15 by each team. Bucknell connected on 11, while Colgate made 13. A pair of free throws by Hollobaugh with six seconds remaining gave the Bison a 34-32 lead and it appeared as though they would take a lead into intermission, but Meghan Curtin gave the Raiders the halftime advantage by beating the buzzer with a 25-footer.

The Bison dominated the rebounding category, grabbing a season-high 52 to Colgate's 41. Hope Foster led the way with 12, while Jacquie Seawright and Brown each added seven. Kesha Champion matched Hollobaugh with six.

BUCKNELL 73, AMERICAN 38

GAME 22 ■ FEB. 7, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Bucknell forced a season-high 30 turnovers, including 18 in the first half, as it won its program record-tying seventh straight game, 73-38 over American. Five players netted double figures for the Bison, who were led by 13 points each from Hope Foster, Amanda Brown and Jacquie Seawright.

The win kept Bucknell in first place by itself as it equaled its best-ever conference start. American fell to 6-16 overall and 3-6 in the Patriot League and saw its two-game winning streak come to an end.

American took its second, and final, lead of the game at 8-7 just over five minutes into the first half, but Bucknell ended the half on a 21-5 run and limited the Eagles to just two field goals over the final 14:45 of the first half. Foster scored seven consecutive points at one stretch during the run and tallied nine points and eight rebounds in the first half.

The Eagles knocked down just 19 percent of their field goals in the first half, and just 27 percent overall against the nation's seventh best defense in terms of field goal percentage. They also turned the ball over 18 times as Bucknell took a 28-13 lead into halftime.

The Bison opened up the second half with an 18-6 run capped by Lauren Schober's second 3-pointer in a two-minute span.

Bucknell was able to extend the lead out to as many as 36 points following a pair of free throws from Seawright with 2:27 to play. Seawright scored 11 of her points in the second half, while Corrine Keller contributed eight of her 12 in the second half with an array of jump shots. She fell one point shy of her career high.

In addition to forcing 30 turnovers, the Bison outrebounded the Eagles 48-31, including 23-16 on the offensive glass, which helped result in 22 more field goal attempts. Bucknell shot 43.5 percent in the game, including 52.9 percent in the second half.

The 38 points Bucknell yielded was the lowest since giving up 37 to Army in the 1992-93 season. It was just the fifth time since the 1980-81 campaign a team failed to score 40 points against the Bison, who held American to an average of just 40.5 points per game in two meetings this year.

HOLY CROSS 56, BUCKNELL 41

GAME 23 ■ FEB. 11, 2006

HART CENTER ■ WORCESTER, MASS.

Brittany Keil and Kaitlin Foley combined for 26 first-half points and a stifling Holy Cross defense held Bucknell to a season-low 23 percent shooting as the Bison fell to the Crusaders 56-41.

Lauren Schober led Bucknell with 13 points and added a team-high 10 rebounds for her second career double-double, while Keil paced Holy Cross with 16, all in the first half. Foley added 12, with 10 coming before halftime.

Bucknell opened the game missing its first 13 shots before Kesha Champion finally converted a short jumper in the lane with 12:23 to play in the first half to cut its deficit to 12-2. The Bison were able to claw back into the game and narrowed the gap to seven points on three occasions. However, the Crusaders went on another 12-0 run to open a 32-13 lead. Schober beat the buzzer with a short jumper in the lane to make the halftime score 32-15. Keil and Foley combined to shoot 12-for-19 from the floor in the first half, while the rest of the team was just 2-for-12.

Bucknell opened the second half with a 12-5 run to cut its deficit to just 37-27 following a layup from Hope Foster with 14:30 to play. However, Holy Cross held the Bison without a field goal for nearly eight minutes as it opened a 46-30 lead with less than seven minutes to play.

The Crusaders led by as many as 17 points in the second half as Laura Aloisi made 7 of 9 free throws and tallied 14 points in the second half to pace the Crusaders, who were 13 of 23 from the line overall.

Kesha Champion was the second Bison in double figures with 10 points and six assists. Lindsey Hollobaugh added nine points and nine rebounds. She made 1 of 4 3-pointers as Bucknell was just 2 of 15 from 3-point range.

The Bison forced 17 Holy Cross turnovers, but the Crusaders forced 18 and shot 40 percent from the floor. It was the first Bucknell opponent to shoot that well from the field since the second game of the season.

The loss ended Bucknell's seven-game winning streak and dropped the Bison's record to 15-8 overall and 8-2 in the Patriot League. Holy Cross improved to 11-12 overall and 7-3 in the Patriot League.

BUCKNELL 54, LAFAYETTE 51

GAME 24 ■ FEB. 14, 2006

KIRBY SPORTS CENTER ■ EASTON, PA.

Kristin Doherty and Lindsay Myers each missed last-second 3-pointers for Lafayette and Jacquie Seawright made 1 of 2 free throws with two seconds remaining as Bucknell defeated Lafayette 54-51.

Bucknell led most of the game until Lafayette took its first lead at 46-45 with just over five minutes to play on a driving layup by Myers. The Bison held a 50-49 lead entering the final minute of the game. Hope Foster, who was just 4-for-8 from the free throw line in the game, made two free throws to give the Bison a 52-49 advantage. Myers, who scored all 10 of her points in the second half, quickly cut the lead back to one with another layup.

Bucknell took possession with just over 45 seconds to play. Kesha Champion missed a 3-pointer as the shot clock wound down, but Lindsey Hollobaugh soared for the offensive rebound and was immediately fouled. She made 1 of 2 free throws for a 53-51 lead with 20 seconds left.

Doherty, who had already made four 3-pointers in the game, nearly gave Lafayette the win with a 3-pointer from the right wing, but it came up short. Seawright grabbed the rebound and made one free throw with two seconds showing on the clock. Myers' last-second desperation heave from midcourt caromed off the back of the rim as the buzzer sounded.

Bucknell jumped out to a 10-0 lead early in the first half as Lafayette missed its first five shots and did not score until a layup by Val Gomez with 13:15 left. Lauren Schober, who led the Bison with 17 points and 12 rebounds for her second consecutive double-double, made a pair of 3-pointers during the game-opening run.

The Bison led by as many as 10 points twice in the first half, but Lafayette was able to narrow the gap down to one on two occasions, including 19-18 after a basket by Jessica Spicer with 5:40 to play. Bucknell then scored seven straight points and held the Leopards without a field goal for more than five minutes. However, Lafayette's Vanessa Van De Venter scored on a short jumper and Doherty connected from the top of the key for her third 3-pointer of the half to make the halftime score 28-23.

Foster was not the only Bucknell player to struggle from the free throw line as the Bison made just 11 of 21 overall. Lafayette converted just 8 of 16, including 1 of 5 shooting by Myers.

ARMY 66, BUCKNELL 65

GAME 25 ■ FEB. 18, 2006

CHRISTL ARENA ■ WEST POINT, N.Y.

Alex McGuire made two free throws with 4.8 seconds remaining to lead Army to a 66-65 victory over Bucknell in a matchup of first-place teams. The Bison led most of the second half, but tallied just two field goals in the final 6:45 of play.

Hope Foster tallied her fourth career double-double in the losing effort with 20 points and 13 rebounds. She made 9 of 15 field goals, including 6 of 8 in the second half.

After holding a 32-31 halftime lead, Bucknell came out of the gate in the second half slowly as Army scored eight consecutive points during one stretch to open a five-point lead, its largest of the half. However, the Bison, who made 12 of their first 15 field goal attempts in the second half, went on a 25-12 run to take a 59-51 lead, the largest of the game for either team.

Following a layup by Keshia Champion with 6:46 on the clock, Bucknell was able to muster just two more field goals. The layup gave the Bison a 61-54 edge.

Bucknell still held a 63-60 lead entering the final 90 seconds of play, but a high-arching jumper from the left corner by Margaree King brought Army to within one. Lauren Schober answered with an off-balance layup to put the Bison back up by three, but it was the final basket of the game as Stefanie Stone and McGuire combined to go 4-for-4 from the free throw line in the final seconds.

Bucknell held a one-point lead when Army took possession with 13 seconds to play. McGuire drove toward the basket and was fouled by Champion. Corrine Keller dribbled the length of the court, but came up short on the potential winning jumper as time expired.

Bucknell fell behind early as Army scored the first seven points. Schober ended the Bison draught four minutes into the contest with a driving layup. That basket began a 13-0 Bucknell run. The key to the run was a Bison defense that limited the Black Knights to no field goals in a nearly nine-minute span, and just one in nearly 12 minutes.

Despite the strong defense, Bucknell's largest lead in the first half was five points as the score stayed close due to excellent free throw shooting from both teams. The Bison were 12 of 14 from the free throw line in the first half, while the Black Knights were 12 of 16.

LEHIGH 56, BUCKNELL 55

GAME 26 ■ FEB. 21, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Keshia Champion and Hope Foster each scored 15 points, but it was not enough as the Bucknell women's basketball team lost its second consecutive one-point game as it fell to Lehigh 56-55.

Lehigh was led by the trio of Melissa Rich, Adrienne Blount and Sara Ellis, who combined to score 48 of the team's 56 points. Rich tallied a career-high 17 points to match Blount for game-high honors. Ellis poured in 14, all in the second half.

After leading the first 24 minutes of the game, Bucknell finally relinquished its lead when Lehigh scored five straight points, all by Ellis, to tie the game at 34-34. Rich scored on a short jumper on the Mountain Hawks' next possession to give Lehigh its first lead. It was the first of 11 lead changes in the game with all coming in the final 15 minutes of play. There were also four ties in the contest as neither team led by more than three points the rest of the way.

Leading 55-52 after back-to-back layups by Champion, including one on a fast break after a steal by Lauren Schober that forced a Lehigh timeout, it appeared as though Bucknell was going to get a defensive stop, but Ellis connected on a one-handed turnaround jumper in the lane as the shot clock wound down to get Lehigh back to within one point. The Bison would not score the rest of the game.

The eventual winning basket came with just over one minute remaining and the shot clock winding down again. This time Jenny Callan, who had been 0-for-6 from the field, ended up with the ball on the right wing and knocked down a 10-foot jumper with three seconds on the shot clock.

Bucknell still had plenty of time to score and got an open look for Lindsey Hollobaugh from 3-point range, but she fired a little long and Callan came down with the rebound with about 40 seconds showing on the clock. The Bison defense, which featured Hollobaugh guarding Ellis, the Preseason Patriot League Player of the Year, most of the night, forced Ellis into a missed shot from just inside the foul line. Foster corralled the rebound and Bucknell called timeout with 11.8 seconds remaining.

On the final possession Champion came up short on a heavily defended jumper from the right wing as time expired.

Early in the game it looked like Bucknell might cruise to its 17th win of the season as it jumped out to a 9-0 lead and held Lehigh to just 3-for-13 shooting early in the contest, but the Mountain Hawks battled back to close to within 19-18 following a layup from Rich, who scored 10 of her 17 points in the first half.

BUCKNELL 60, ARMY 47

GAME 27 ■ FEB. 25, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Kesha Champion led four Bison in double figures with 14 points as Bucknell wrapped up the regular season with a 60-47 victory over first-place Army.

A 9-0 run that spanned just two minutes early in the second half was key to Bucknell's victory. Champion, who started at point guard instead of her customary off-guard position, made a short jumper to begin the run. Lindsey Hollobaugh followed with five of her 12 points, while Jacquie Seawright connected on a basket to conclude the run and give the Bison a 10-point cushion (37-27).

Seawright, who made her first career start in place of Amanda Brown, made 6 of 19 shots and scored 12 points, her highest total since netting 13 against Navy nearly a month ago. Brown came off the bench to score 11, her first double-figure game since Feb. 7.

Following that 9-0 run, the closest the Black Knights could get would be five points following a driving layup by Alex McGuire, who was the lone Army player in double figures with 10, with nine minutes remaining. Seconds later Lauren Schober connected on a 3-pointer from the top of the key to put the Bison back up by eight points. Army would draw no closer as Brown scored seven of her 11 points late in the second half.

Hope Foster and Champion combined to go 6-for-6 from the free throw line in the final 70 seconds to seal the victory for Bucknell, which avoided its first three-game losing streak of the year and simultaneously ended the Black Knights' six-game winning streak. The 47 points were the lowest Army has scored this year.

The first half was close even though Bucknell led for all but 52 seconds in the opening minutes. The Black Knights, who led just twice in the game for a total of just over two minutes, took a 3-2 lead on a 3-pointer by Jen Hansen with the shot clock winding down. Champion, Seawright and Hollobaugh each scored baskets to put Bucknell up 8-5. The Bison lead increased to as many as eight points in the first half, but Army used a 14-7 run over the final 10 minutes of the half.

After holding a one-rebound edge at halftime, Bucknell outrebounded Army 20-12 in the second half. Foster hauled in a game-high 13 rebounds, while Seawright added nine. Champion grabbed seven, including five after intermission.

#21 Hope Foster

Washington, D.C. • Dunbar

Notes:

- 93 blocks this season broke her own single-season Bucknell record
- First Bucknell player since Desire Almind in 2003-04 to grab at least 10 rebounds in four straight games
- First in PL and among nation's leaders in blocked shots (3.4)
- 165 career blocks ranks first on Bison career list and is sixth on PL career list
- Saw string of 33 straight games with a block stopped against Navy on Jan. 28
- Second in PL in rebounding (9.0)
- One of two Bison to start every game this season (Champion)
- Tied Bucknell single-game record with seven blocks against High Point and again versus Cornell
- Named to Patriot League All-Rookie Team in 2004-05
- Broke Bucknell single-season blocks record with 72 in 2004-05

Bucknell Team

2005-06 Record: 17-10 Overall, 10-4 Patriot League
Head Coach: Kathy Fedorjaka (Ninth Season)

Notes:

- Bucknell's had a program-record seven straight road game win streak snapped by Holy Cross on Feb. 11
- 37-point victory at Navy was largest in series and fourth-largest in Bucknell history
- The three-overtime game against UMES was the first in the 33-year history of the Bucknell program. The win helped head coach Kathy Fedorjaka improve to 8-3 all-time in overtime games at the helm of the Bison.
- The Bison did not allow an opponent to score more than 60 points in regulation for eight games to break a program record before Colgate netted 63 on Feb. 4.
- Bucknell defeated Coppin State and Siena in back-to-back games by matching scores (54-48). It was the first time in program history the Bison won back-to-back games by the exact same score.
- Bucknell lost its first two games of the season for the fourth straight year.
- Bucknell's 72 points against Stony Brook was its most in a loss since a 100-77 loss to Bowling Green Dec. 3, 2003.
- The Bison made nine 3-pointers against Iona which was more than they made in any single game in 2004-05.
- Bucknell has played two overtime games in the same season for the first time since 2001-02
- Bucknell has won two games by at least 30 points in the same season for just the third time in program history
- Bucknell is 7-4 against teams from New York state this season.
