Bucknell opens the 17th Patriot League Tournament Saturday as the No. 1 seed for just the second time. The Bison lost their only contest as a No. 1 seed to Colgate in the semifinals of the 1996 tournament. They will look to win for the 10th time in 11 games and advance to the semifinals for the fifth time in six years. Bucknell dominated the regular-season series against the Raiders, winning the two games by an average of 29.0 points per game. The Bison will be led by First Team All-Patriot League selections Hope Foster and Amanda Brown. After a subpar showing in her postseason debut against Lehigh two years ago, Foster averaged 13.5 points and 11.5 rebounds in a pair of games last March. Foster is not the only Bison to have strong postseason showings as senior guard Lindsey Hollobaugh is averaging 19.4 points in her five career postseason contests, including three 20-point outings. She has made 38 of 67 field goal attempts in the postseason.

NOTES

- Junior forward Hope Foster and sophomore guard Amanda Brown were both named First Team All-Patriot League.
- Bucknell's 12-2 record in Patriot League play marked its most victories in the 17-year history of the conference.
- Bucknell is the top seed in the Patriot League Tournament for the second time. It is the first time since 1995-96 the Bison have won the PL regular-season title.
- Bucknell, which had a program record nine-game winning streak snapped by Army, has won 20 games for the third time in program history.

BUCKNELL COACHING STAFF

Head Coach: Kathy Fedorjaka (Fairfield '90)
Career: 224-166 (14th season)
At Bucknell: 157-128 (10th season)
Assistants: Dan Burt (West Liberty State '93),
 Monique LeBlanc (Bucknell '02), Naomi Bronson (Morehead State '01)

COLGATE COACHING STAFF

Head Coach: Kristin Hughes
 (Elms College '91)
Career: 146-218 (14th season)
At Colgate: 26-62 (third season)
Assistants: Debby Ghezzi, Sean Mackin,
 Angie Zeuch
Series Record: Bucknell leads, 29-17

ABOUT COLGATE: Colgate has undergone its fair share of lineup changes this season with only three players on the roster starting at least 20 games, and no one starting all 29. In fact, only Gretchen Polinski and Katie Garman have seen action in every contest this year. Junior guard Melanie Cargle leads the team in scoring at 11.9 points per game, but missed a handful of contests prior to returning to the lineup in the regular-season finale, a 54-52 loss to Navy, last weekend. Polinski, a 6-1 sophomore, is the squad's best rebounder and outside shooter. She is averaging 6.4 rebounds per contest and has knocked down a team-best 41 3-pointers.

BISON VS. RAIDERS: Bucknell has won the last four games in the series with Colgate by an average of 22.8 points to take a 29-17 advantage in the all-time series. The Bison have won five of the last six contests, and the last five matchups, regardless of winner, have been decided by 21.8 points per contest.

WITH A VICTORY OVER COLGATE, BUCKNELL WOULD...

- ...win a game as a No. 1 seed in the Patriot League Tournament for the first time
- ...win five games in a row against the Raiders for the second time in series history
- ...equal the program record for wins (21)
- ...advance to the Patriot League Tournament semifinals for the fifth time in six years
- ...improve to 3-3 all-time in Patriot League Tournament play against the Raiders
- ...avoid its second losing streak of the season

BISON VS. COLGATE IN PL TOURNAMENT:

March 3, 1995 (First Round): No. 5 Bucknell 53, No. 4 Colgate 52
March 3, 1996 (Semifinals): No. 5 Colgate 65, No. 1 Bucknell 53
March 4, 2000 (Semifinals): No. 2 Bucknell 69, No. 3 Colgate 66
March 3, 2001 (First Round): No. 7 Colgate 85, No. 2 Bucknell 69
March 7, 2004 (Semifinals): No. 1 Colgate 61, No. 5 Bucknell 57

QUICK FACTS: Bucknell reached the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament for the fourth time in five years last year ... Hope Foster leads current Bison with 661 career rebounds, 16 shy of climbing into Bucknell's top-10 list ... the Bison were one of the best defensive teams in the nation last year as they ranked in the top 50 nationally in four defensive categories, including seventh in field goal percentage defense ... just once in the last 99 games has an opponent converted at least 50.0% of its field goals against the Bison defense ... Bucknell recently had a program record nine-game winning streak snapped ... the Bison are the No. 1 seed in the Patriot League Tournament for the second time.

ALL-LEAGUE SELECTIONS: Bucknell had three players honored with All-Patriot League selections following the regular season. Junior forward Hope Foster and sophomore guard Amanda Brown earned First Team All-Patriot League plaudits, while freshman forward Le'Le' LeSeur copped All-Rookie Team honors despite missing the first 12 games of the season with a foot injury. The Bison have now earned 41 postseason honors from the Patriot League, including 13 first-team honorees, 14 second-team awards and 14 members of the All-Rookie squad. Bucknell has had at least one First Team All-Patriot League selection in eight of the last nine years, while it has had the same streak on the All-Rookie team.

POSTSEASON BOUND: While Bucknell's ultimate goal is to win the Patriot League Tournament and claim the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament for the second time, the Bison will still continue postseason play even with a loss in the conference tournament. By virtue of finishing first in the regular-season standings, Bucknell earned an automatic berth into the WNIT should they fail to win the Patriot League Tournament.

CLOSE LOSSES: Bucknell has posted a 12-3 mark since the calendar flipped to 2007, winning those 12 contests by an average of 16.9 points per game. The Bison have lost to Iona, Lafayette and Army by a total of 10 points over that span. In fact, since 2007 commenced, Bucknell has outscored the opposition by a whopping 193 points after playing to a nine-point deficit in the first half of the season.

IMPROVED ACCURACY FROM CHAMPION: Junior guard Kesha Champion, who has tallied 39 points in her last three games, has made at least half of her field goal attempts in championship games in bold.

PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONS: For the first time since 1995-96 Bucknell won the Patriot League regular-season title this year. The Bison are the first current Patriot League squad other than Holy Cross to win multiple regular-season crowns.

All-Time Patriot League Regular-Season Titles (more than one)

School	Number
Holy Cross	11
Bucknell	2
Fordham	2

GAMES ABOVE .500: Before falling to Army in the regular-season finale, Bucknell had climbed to 12 games above .500, marking the first time since the conclusion of the 2002 Patriot League Tournament it had been that many games over .500. If the Bison pick up two wins this weekend to advance to the championship game they will equal the program record of 13 games over .500, which the 2000-01 team achieved on two different occasions late in the campaign.

20-WIN PATRIOT LEAGUE TEAMS: For just the second time in the 17-year history of the Patriot League two 20-win teams met during the regular season when Bucknell and Army squared off last Saturday. The Bison owned a 20-8 record entering the contest, while the Black Knights were 23-5. The only other time two 20-win teams met during the regular season was on Feb. 22, 1997 when Navy (21-4) battled Holy Cross (22-3). A pair of 20-win teams have squared off in the Patriot League Tournament on two occasions, but not since the 1998 championship game.

Patriot League Games between 20-Win Teams

Teams	Date	Outcome
Holy Cross (23-5) vs. Army (20-9)	March 2, 1991	Holy Cross, 65-52
Navy (21-4) at Holy Cross (22-3)	Feb. 22, 1997	Holy Cross, 79-47
Holy Cross (20-8) vs. Navy (23-5)	March 4, 1998	Holy Cross, 67-60
Bucknell (20-8) at Army (23-5)	Feb. 24, 2007	Army, 61-57

20-WIN TEAMS: Bucknell and Army this year increased the list of Patriot League teams to reach 20 wins in the regular season to nine. Holy Cross has reached the 20-win plateau in the regular season on four occasions, while Bucknell and Navy have each done it twice. This is the first time the Black Knights have won 20 games in the regular season since the inception of the Patriot League.

NOT THE ONLY BISON DOING WELL: While Bucknell claimed the top spot in the Patriot League standings on the women's side, the Bison men tied Holy Cross for first during their regular season schedule. Bucknell's women completed the regular season with a 12-2 conference mark, while the men were 13-1. Their combined 25-3 conference record is among the best in the nation.

Men's and Women's Combined Conference Records (through Wednesday, Feb. 28)

5. Belmont	29-5	.853
Southern Illinois	29-5	.853

OPENING MONTH 6-0: For the first time since January 2002, Bucknell commenced a month 6-0 in February. It is just the third time the Bison had done that. A loss to Army prevented them from their first undefeated month since November 2000.

UNDEFEATED HOME RECORD: Bucknell completed its home Patriot League slate undefeated at 7-0. It is the second time the Bison have gone undefeated at home against conference foes, having gone 6-0 in 1995-96.

SCORING MARGIN: Bucknell is outscoring opponents 1,783-1,599 (184 points) this season, the second-highest margin in program history. Only the 2000-01 squad, which outscored its opponents 2,139-1,942 (197 points) had a larger advantage. The Bison are winning games by an average of 6.4 points per game, second only to 2000-01, which had a scoring margin of 7.0 per contest.

WINS FOR SENIOR CLASS: Bucknell seniors Lindsey Hollobaugh and Jacquie Seawright played their final regular season home contest against Colgate on Feb. 17. While Seawright transferred from South Plains Junior College prior to her junior campaign, Hollobaugh will be trying to lead the Bison to their 64th win during her four years against Colgate. The 2002, 2003 and 2004 senior classes all won 69 games to share the program record.

20-4 WHEN LEADING AT HALF: Bucknell led Lehigh 30-26 at halftime on Feb. 20, marking the 24th time this season the Bison led at halftime and they are 20-4 in those contests. Bucknell is outscoring its opponents by 170 points in the first halves of games this season.

BACK-TO-BACK .500 RECORDS: Bucknell has clinched its second consecutive record of at least .500. It marks the first time the Bison will finish with a .500 record in back-to-back years since 2000-01 and 2001-02. Additionally, Bucknell has won 38 games the last two years, marking the second-highest two-year figure behind 2000-01 and 2001-02.

Bucknell's Most Wins in Two-Year Span

Years	Wins
2000-01/2001-02	41
2005-06/2006-07	38

500-POINT CLUB: Bucknell's 500-point club has swelled this year as Hope Foster, Kesha Champion and Amanda Brown joined teammate Lindsey Hollobaugh in the exclusive club. Brown was the latest addition, crossing the 500-point plateau Jan. 20 against Colgate as she became the 39th member of the club. Foster currently ranks 20th on the list with 880 points, while Champion is 28th with 664. Brown is 29th, just 20 points behind Champion.

PL Tournament MVP.....	1

ON THIS DATE - (MARCH 3) - 4-3

HOLLOBAUGH RETURNS: Senior guard Lindsey Hollobaugh has played 29 minutes, scored three points and grabbed three rebounds in her last four games since returning from missing a stretch of five out of six games with a knee injury. The Bison are 9-0 in games played without her over the last two years and have an average margin of victory of 11.9 in those contests.

WINNING THE JUMP: Thanks to 6-foot-2 forward Hope Foster, Bucknell has won the opening jump ball 23 times this season. The Bison are 15-8 in games they have possession first and 5-1 when the other team gains control of the opening tip.

HOLDING OPPONENTS TO LESS THAN 40 POINTS: Four times in a seven-game stretch, Bucknell limited its opponents to less than 40 points. The Bison have now accomplished that feat five times in the last two seasons after it had occurred just four previous times since 1980-81.

Games Bucknell has Held Opponents Under 40 Points (since 1980-81)

Year	Opponent	Final Score	Year	Opponent	Final Score
1985-86	Coppin State	W, 83-36	2006-07	Lehigh	W, 64-37
1988-89	Cornell	W, 70-39	2006-07	Holy Cross	W, 63-37

2003-04	American	W, 51-39	2006-07	Colgate	W, 64-32
2005-06	American	W, 73-38

30-GAME SEASONS: The Patriot League Tournament quarterfinal matchup with Colgate will be Bucknell's 30th game of the season. This year is the third time in program history the Bison have played at least 30 games. The 2001-02 squad that finished with a 21-10 record and lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to Baylor holds the Bucknell record with 31 games played. The 1999-2000 team that went 15-15 also played 30 games.

SUCCESS FOR FEDORJAKA: With Bucknell's recent nine-game winning streak, 10th-year Bison head coach Kathy Fedorjaka saw her record at Bucknell climb to 157-127, marking the first time she was 30 games over .500 in her career. With last week's loss to Army she is now 157-128. Second in career Patriot League victories, one ahead of Lehigh's Sue Troyan, Fedorjaka has more than doubled the win total of Lori Howard, who holds down second place on the Bison career wins list with 77.

60+ POINTS USUALLY LEADS TO WIN: With its 63-53 win over Lehigh on Feb. 20, Bucknell improved to 16-1 when netting at least 60 points. The Bison are just 4-8 when falling short of that figure. Bucknell was 14-4 when registering at least 60 points in 2005-06 and is 33-6 in its last 39 games with at least 60 points.

LARGE MARGINS: After playing 10 games last year that were decided by six points or less, Bucknell has played a game that close just six times this season. Twenty of the 29 games for the Bison have been decided by margins of at least 10 points. Fifteen of those 10+-point games have been Bucknell victories, the second-highest figure in school history.

SOJKA SUCCESS: Bucknell posted an 11-3 home mark this year to improve its all-time record at Sojka Pavilion to 38-20 (.655). It is just the fourth time in program history the Bison, who have won seven consecutive home games, their longest streak since 2003-04 to 2004-05, have posted double figures in home wins. The 1995-96 squad holds the record with 12 victories in Davis Gym.

FOSTER CONTINUES TO PILE UP BLOCKS: Junior forward Hope Foster, who already owns the Bucknell career and single-season blocked shots record, has piled up an impressive 91 blocks this year. After setting a Bucknell record for blocks in a single game with eight against Hampton, she surpassed that with 11 against Michigan State one week later to tie the Patriot League single-game standard. She currently ranks sixth in the nation in blocks.

Hope Foster's Blocked Shots Accomplishments

- Bucknell single-game record (11 vs. Michigan State)
- Tied Patriot League single-game record (11 vs. Michigan State)
- 18 career games with at least five blocks (only 26 total in Bucknell history)
- Owns top three spots on Bucknell's single-season blocks list (Fr.-72/So.-95/Jr.-91)
- Tied for Patriot League single-season blocks record (95)
- Second in Patriot League history in career blocks (258)
- First on Bucknell's career blocks list (258) - 126 ahead of second place
- At least one block in 80 of 86 career games

SWEEP OF HOLY CROSS: Bucknell defeated Holy Cross 63-37 on Feb. 9, earning its first-ever sweep of the regular-season series against the Crusaders. It is just the third time in the 17-year history of the Patriot League that a conference school swept the season series from Holy Cross. Prior to Army accomplishing the feat this year, Lafayette swept the 1991-92 season series from the Crusaders, marking the only other time it has occurred.

STRONG DEFENSE: While Bucknell has tallied 70 points seven times this year, just one opponent (Hampton) has eclipsed that figure this season. Eighteen opponents have failed to reach 60 points as the Bison defense is yielding just 55.1 points per game this season. That figure would rank first in program history by 1.8 points per contest. Taking out last year, the next five best scoring defense figures all came in 1980-81 or earlier.

BUCKNELL HOLDS COLGATE SCORELESS FOR 15 MINUTES: On Feb. 17, Bucknell hosted Colgate and held the Raiders without a point for the first 14 minutes, 56 seconds of the game. The Bison jumped out to a 27-0 lead. Colgate was 0-for-16 from the floor with 11 turnovers before Elise Bronzo finally netted its first field goal. The Raiders exhausted all five of their timeouts just over 13 minutes into the contest. Bucknell led 36-10 at halftime and won by a 64-32 margin as it won for the fourth consecutive time against Colgate.

HOLLOBAUGH JOINS 1,000-POINT, 500-REBOUND CLUB: Senior guard Lindsey Hollobaugh grabbed five rebounds in the Patriot League opener against Navy to push her career total to 503 and help her become the 10th member of Bucknell's 1,000-point, 500-rebound club. The Loganton, Pa., native passed the 1,000-point plateau last year and currently ranks sixth in program history in that category. Only three people who are ahead of her on the scoring list grabbed more than 500 rebounds in their careers (Desire Almind, Vicki Quimby and Ann Kirwin). Almind was the latest player to join the exclusive club in 2003-04.

UP NEXT: With a win, Bucknell will move on to the semifinals of the Patriot League Tournament for the fifth time in six years. The Bison would take on either No. 4 American or No. 5 Navy in the semifinals. If Bucknell would fall to Colgate its season is not over. By virtue of finishing first in the Patriot League regular-season standings the Bison earned an automatic bid into the WNIT if they fail to win the PL title and claim the league's automatic NCAA bid.

BUCKNELL 85, HAMPTON 77
GAME 1 ■ NOV. 10, 2006
SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Lindsey Hollobaugh scored a game-high 22 points and Hope Foster just missed a rare triple-double with 20 points, 16 rebounds and a school-record eight blocked shots, leading Bucknell to a season-opening 85-77 victory over Hampton.

The Bison got off to a terrific start in this one but had to sweat things out down the stretch as Hampton used an aggressive full-court press to cut what was once a 22-point deficit down to four in the final minute.

Bucknell shot 54.5 percent from the floor in the first half and parlayed 16 Hollobaugh points into a seemingly commanding 45-29 lead at intermission. The advantage grew to 22 points early in the second half after a crowd-pleasing flurry that saw Foster reject three straight shots on one Hampton possession, followed by a Kesha Champion transition 3-pointer at the other end.

Over the next four minutes they pressured the Bison into seven turnovers and scored 11 straight points after the Champion three. Six different players scored during that run, with Stephanie James' free throw making it 57-46.

Foster's short jumper off a pretty touch pass from Lauren Schober ended a Bison scoring drought that lasted almost five minutes, and Bucknell was able to maintain a double-figure lead until the 6:13 mark, when Ashlee Finley made a pair of free throws to pull Hampton within nine at 65-56.

A 3-pointer from Rachel Butler - one of only two treys the Pirates would hit all night in 13 attempts - made it a five-point game at 76-71 with 1:03 left. But the Bison, and Amanda Brown in particular, turned things around at the charity stripe.

Brown hit six straight and 7 of 8 free throws in the final minute. A 3-point play from Butler actually brought Hampton as close as four with 24 seconds left, but Foster pulled down a rebound and canned two free throws with 11 seconds left.

Brown's 3-pointer 39 seconds into the game gave the Bison their first points of the season, and Bucknell never trailed in the first half while getting just about any shot it wanted. The Bison shot 54.5 percent from the floor in the opening 20 minutes. Hollobaugh made all three of her 3-point tries and the team hit 5 of 10 from downtown in building a big lead.

Foster's monster night was all the more impressive considering she had only four points, six rebounds and two blocks at halftime. She had a double-double in the second half alone, logging 16 points, 10 rebounds and six blocks.

VISITORS: Hampton 0-1

SAINT JOSEPH'S 63, BUCKNELL 56
GAME 2 ■ NOV. 12, 2006
ALUMNI MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE ■ PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Whitney Ffrench scored a game-high 21 points and was 9-for-13 from the free throw line as Saint Joseph's handed Bucknell its first loss of the year, 63-56. Hope Foster paced the Bison with 19 points.

The contest was close throughout, although the Hawks were able to open up a nine-point lead (41-32) early in the second half as Bucknell committed five of its 15 turnovers in the opening five minutes of the half.

Bucknell stormed back from the 41-32 deficit, its largest of the game, to take a 46-45 lead on a short jumper by Foster, but the lights in the arena failed, causing a 15-minute delay. The Hawks came out of the delay on a 10-6 run, which included four points by 6-foot, 4-inch Zoya Pavlovskaya, who tallied all eight of her points and nine of her game-high 13 rebounds in the second half.

Saint Joseph's clung to a 55-52 lead late in the game when Kesha Champion missed a 3-pointer from the corner with 3:18 on the clock that would have knotted the score. The Hawks then tallied the next four points and converted 6 of 8 free throws, including four by Timisha Gomez, in the final minute to seal the game.

The first half was close the entire way as neither team built a lead larger than six despite long scoreless droughts for each. Bucknell built its largest lead of the first half early behind a short hook shot in the middle of the lane by Foster and a 3-pointer from the right wing in transition by Hollobaugh that forced a Saint Joseph's timeout with the Bison leading 12-6.

The Hawks later put together an 8-0 run to take a 22-16 edge until Champion ended a 6:30 scoreless stretch for Bucknell with a foul line jumper over an outstretched hand. The Bison then limited Saint Joseph's to just one field goal over the final 6:45 of the half to take a 28-27 lead into halftime as Ffrench tallied five of her points on a field goal and three foul shots in the final minutes of the frame.

Bucknell struggled with foul trouble throughout as Champion, Lindsey Hollobaugh, and Jacquie Seawright each finished with four fouls. The Hawks went to the line 23 times compared to just four times for the Bison.

In addition to her 19 points Foster hauled in a team-high seven rebounds, while she also blocked five shots, giving her 13 in just two games this season. Hollobaugh chipped in 15 on efficient 7 of 11 shooting, while Brown tallied 12 points and five rebounds. Andrea Wright was the lone Bison bench player to score as she scored two points in the first half on a short jumper.

BUCKNELL 71, COLUMBIA 53

LEVIEN GYM ■ NEW YORK, N.Y.

Amanda Brown scored six consecutive points to start a late 21-7 run as Bucknell defeated Columbia 71-53. Hope Foster led the Bison with 21 points and 10 rebounds for her second double-double of the young season.

Leading just 50-46 with eight minutes left in the game, Brown went on a scoring frenzy, knocking down a pair of jumpers and then coming up with one of her career high-tying five steals that led to a fast break layup to put Bucknell up 56-46, its largest lead of the contest at that juncture. Foster helped make the run extend to 10-0 by tallying the next four points.

The Bison defense, which limited the Lions to a season-low 34.5 percent shooting from the field, cracked down in the final four minutes as Columbia made just one of its final six field goal attempts.

A jumper by Ashley Branch in the closing seconds extended the lead out to the final 18-point margin, which was the largest of the game.

Foster helped Bucknell get started early as she tallied 11 of her points in the first 10 minutes of play. She ended up with 15 points in the first half. Despite picking up four fouls Foster was able to block a game-high four shots as she increased her season total to 17 in just three games.

Bucknell blistered the nets, making 52.7 percent (29 of 55) of its field goals. Lindsey Hollobaugh, Brown and Foster combined to make 21 of 33 from the field, including 4 of 5 from 3-point range.

Every player on the active Bucknell roster played in the game and scored as each of the five players off the bench tallied two points, including Ashton Sprouse, who played a season-high 22 minutes and equaled her career high with six rebounds.

One negative for the Bison were their 23 turnovers, however, six of those came on consecutive possessions mid-way through the first half and during that time Columbia was only able to knock four points off the Bison lead.

The strong Bucknell defense that forced 18 turnovers, including 11 in the first half, did not allow a single Lion to net double figures.

NO. 17 MICHIGAN STATE 68, BUCKNELL 51

GAME 4 ■ NOV. 17, 2006

BRESLIN CENTER ■ EAST LANSING, MICH.

Behind four 3-pointers in the first 10 minutes, the Bucknell women's basketball team hung tough against No. 17 Michigan State, but fell to the Spartans by a 68-51 score. Lindsey Hollobaugh led the Bison with 14 points, while Hope Foster broke her own school record and equaled the PL standard with 11 blocked shots.

Playing its first game against a ranked opponent since 2002, Bucknell made a game of it early as it connected on four 3-pointers in the fast-paced opening minutes of the contest that featured the two teams combining to make 10 of their first 17 field goals. A 3-pointer from the right corner by Jacquie Seawright midway through the first half gave the Bison an 18-17 lead, their third of the game.

Following that go-ahead basket by Seawright Bucknell netted just a pair of field goals the rest of the half, until Kesha Champion converted a fast-break layup as the buzzer sounded, ending the first half with the score knotted at 35-25. During that span Michigan State extended its lead to as many as 12 (35-23) as it began using a full court pressure that stymied the Bison offense.

Hollobaugh and Foster both scored on short jumpers in the opening 90 seconds of the second half to narrow the score to 37-29. Amanda Brown corralled a long rebound and started a fast break, but a bad pass by Hollobaugh was the first of two consecutive turnovers as the Spartans began a 10-0 run to open an 18-point cushion.

Bucknell was able to whittle away at the deficit and narrowed the score to 60-49 after a pair of free throws from Champion with just over a minute to play. The Bison then started fouling in an attempt to close the score, but Courtney Davidson and Mandy Piechowski converted 8 of 8 from the free throw line in the final minute to seal the double-digit victory. The Spartans, who made just 6 of 15 from the free throw line before crunch time, got hot at the right time as they finished 21 of 30.

Foster managed just six points as she was matched up with 6-9 freshman Allyssa DeHaan, who tallied a game-high 15 points, six rebounds and three blocks. However, Foster did record her third double-double of the season with a game-high 10 rebounds to go along with her 11 blocks.

BUCKNELL 73, CORNELL 59

GAME 5 ■ NOV. 20, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Lauren Schober hit a pair of 3-pointers and scored 14 of her team-high 16 points in the second half as Bucknell improved to 3-2 with a 73-59 victory over Cornell. The Bison, who led from start to finish besides a 2-2 tie, placed four players in double figures.

Cornell stayed close every time Bucknell tried to extend its lead out. After trailing by as many as 12 points late in the first half, the Big Red closed to within three on a pair of occasions midway through the second half. Each time the Bison, who were 6-for-6 from 3-point range in the second half, increased their lead behind 3-point shooting.

Coming out of a timeout, Kayleen Fitzsimmons, who led the Big Red with a game-high 17 points behind five 3-pointers, hit a 3-pointer to cut the Bucknell lead to 43-40 with just over 14 minutes to play. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Jacquie Seawright and a steal and a pair of assists by Schober extended the lead back to nine.

About five minutes later Lindsay Krasna stole the ball from Schober and went the length of the floor to complete a 7-2 run for Cornell and again cut the Bison lead to 53-50. This time Lindsey Hollobaugh and Schober hit back-to-back 3-pointers, separated by a short jumper from Krasna, to extend the lead back to seven.

Cornell would get no closer than five points the rest of the way as the Bison closed the game on a 13-4 run behind five points from Schober and four from Kesha Champion, who posted her second consecutive 10-point outing.

Bucknell made 5 of its first 6 field goal attempts inside the arc and opened up an early 16-9 advantage behind a pair of turnaround jumpers in the lane by Hope Foster and a couple of free throws by Hollobaugh.

With 14 points Foster joined Schober, Hollobaugh and Champion as the quartet of Bucknell players in double figures. She also tied Schober and Hollobaugh for team-high honors with six rebounds and also blocked six shots. She now has 34 blocks in just five games this season to increase her career total to 201. The 34 blocked shots ranks tied for sixth on Bucknell's single-season list.

Jeomi Maduka, who only played 20 minutes due to foul trouble, tallied 14 points, while Claire Perry chipped in 10 to join Fitzsimmons in double figures for Cornell.

BUCKNELL 67, MONMOUTH 53

GAME 6 ■ NOV. 24, 2006

MOON PALACE RESORT ■ CANCUN, MEXICO

Hope Foster scored a game-high 19 points, including the first seven of the game, and grabbed nine rebounds as Bucknell held on for a 67-53 win over Monmouth. The Bison led by as many as 18 points early in the second half, but the Hawks closed to within eight late in the game.

Bucknell opened up its 18-point lead and led by double digits the entire second half until a three-point play by Jennifer Bender, who led Monmouth with 14 points and nine rebounds, including a career-high eight on the offensive end, cut the Bison advantage to 56-48 with just under five minutes to play.

Bucknell head coach Kathy Fedorjaka used a timeout and the Bison responded with seven consecutive points coming out of the stoppage. Foster scored four points, including a layup off a back-door alley oop, and Amanda Brown knocked down a 3-pointer from the left wing to put the Bison back on top by 15 points (63-48) with less than three minutes to play.

Bucknell jumped out to an early 11-3 lead in the first half behind an 11-0 run that featured an array of post moves by Hope Foster, as she tallied the first seven points of the game for the Bison.

Monmouth closed the gap to five points at 13-8, but a 10-2 run midway through the first half helped Bucknell take a 25-12 lead and the Hawks didn't draw closer the rest of the half. That spurt by the Bison featured four points each from Jacquie Seawright and Andrea Wright. Wright, had a pretty coast-to-coast driving layup as she broke the Monmouth full court pressure to give Bucknell a 23-12 lead.

Bucknell, which made 20 of 28 free throws, including 9 of 9 from Foster, cooled off in the second half from the floor, but still finished the contest at 46.8 percent. Foster was 5 of 9 from the floor, while Seawright knocked down three of her five field goal attempts to equal her season high with nine points.

Bucknell had another strong defensive game as it nearly held its first opponent of the season under 30.0 percent shooting, but the Hawks made 17 of 56 field goals (30.4 percent). All six opponents for the Bison have failed to shoot 40.0 percent from the floor. The Hawks were just 4 of 19 from 3-point range, but did make 15 of 19 from the free throw line.

RICHMOND 58, BUCKNELL 40

GAME 7 ■ NOV. 25, 2006

MOON PALACE RESORT ■ CANCUN, MEXICO

Christina Champion scored 11 of her team-high 13 points in the first half to lead Richmond to a 58-40 victory over Bucknell. The Bison, who trailed the entire game, were led by Hope Foster, who tallied 13 points and was 5-for-6 from the free throw line.

Jacque Seawright joined Foster in double figures with a season-high 10 points off the bench, including seven in the second half.

Behind six points from Champion in the first five minutes, Richmond jumped out to a 17-7 lead. Bucknell then put together an 8-0 run that featured a 3-pointer from the right wing by Lauren Schober, a pretty post move that resulted in a baseline hook shot by Foster and a driving layup by Jacque Seawright where she made the basket and a free throw after a hard foul.

After drawing to within two, the Bison hit a cold spell as they managed just one field goal and six points over the final eight minutes of the first half. Richmond extended its lead out to as many as 15 points at 34-19 following six consecutive points from Danielle Bell and Sarah Williams in the closing minutes of the frame. A pair of free throws by Foster narrowed the halftime deficit to 34-21.

Bucknell attempted to feed the ball to Foster early in the second half and she scored the first basket of the half to bring the Bison to within 11 points. However, they would not draw closer the rest of the game as the Spiders went on a 9-2 run to open up an 18-point lead. The Richmond advantage oscillated between 17 and 20 points over the final 13 minutes of the game as the Spiders built a 20-point cushion on three occasions.

After allowing Richmond to shoot better than 51 percent in the first half, Bucknell's defense clamped down in the second half, limiting the Spiders to 34.5 percent. Overall, Richmond made 43.1 percent from the floor to become the first Bison opponent to shoot better than 40 percent this season. Bucknell connected on 32.6 of its field goals, including 40.0 percent in the second half.

In addition to her team-high figures in points and rebounds, Foster, who played all 40 minutes, blocked five shots to increase her season total to 41. She is averaging nearly six blocks per game.

Bucknell's total of 40 points was its fewest since totaling 37 against Albany Dec. 4, 2004.

BUCKNELL 54, ST. BONAVENTURE 48

GAME 8 ■ NOV. 30, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Hope Foster scored 13 points and grabbed 11 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the year as she helped Bucknell hold off a pesky St. Bonaventure squad for a 54-48 victory. Amanda Brown added a team-high 14 points for the Bison, who led by as many as 13 points in the second half.

Foster was Bucknell's main offensive option in the game as she was 6-for-14 from the floor despite facing a double team every time she touched the ball in the post.

A 3-pointer by Audrey Latendresse, who led the Bonnies with a season-high 21 points, from the top of the key with just over two minutes left completed a 25-12 run that brought St. Bonaventure even at 46-46. It was the first time Bucknell failed to lead since mid-way through the first half. Lindsey Hollobaugh, who went nearly 36 minutes between field goals, gave the Bison the lead for good when she converted a driving layup coming out of a timeout right after Latendresse's 3-pointer. Brown then took over as she knocked down a long jumper from the right wing that was just inches shy of a 3-pointer to put Bucknell up 50-46 with less than 90 seconds to play. She then converted 3 of 4 free throws in the final minute to seal the game as St. Bonaventure missed three 3-pointers in that span.

Brown finished with 14 points and a season-high six rebounds with nine points and four boards coming in the second half.

Latendresse helped St. Bonaventure jump out to an early 7-0 lead as she knocked down three field goals with Andrea Doneth getting an assist on each. Bucknell quickly came back and took its first lead at 12-11 behind back-to-back turnaround jumpers in the lane by Foster.

The Bison extended their lead out to 30-21 at halftime behind a 13-5 run that featured three 3-pointers by Jacque Seawright, who netted a season-high 11 points in a career-high 30 minutes off the bench. She is averaging 9.8 points per game over the last four contests.

With Brown scoring the first four points of the second half on a pair of free throws and a wild driving layup, Bucknell opened up a 13-point advantage with just over 16 minutes to play. That basket was the final field goal by a Bison besides Foster for more than 14 minutes until Hollobaugh's driving layup in the final minutes.

MARIST 57, BUCKNELL 38

GAME 9 ■ DEC. 2, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Meg Dahlman and Rachele Fitz scored 15 points apiece as Marist opened the game with a 16-3 run and easily defeated Bucknell 57-38. Hope Foster and Kesha Champion led the Bison with eight points apiece, marking the first time in just over two years they failed to place a player in double figures.

Bucknell, which shot a season-low 26.9 percent (14 of 52), missed its first 13 field goal attempts as Marist jumped out to a 16-3 advantage behind five points from Dahlman. Jacquie Seawright, nch, finally connected on a field goal for the Bison with a short jumper just over nine minutes into the contest.

Bucknell used a 6-0 run late in the first half to close the deficit to just seven at 22-15, but it missed its final three field goals and turned the ball over twice in the final three minutes of the first half as the Red Foxes went on an 8-0 run to take a 30-15 lead into the locker room.

Behind a driving right-handed layup from Amanda Brown and a 3-pointer from the top of the key by Lauren Schober, the Bison scored the first five points of the second half and looked poised to make a run. However, Marist was able to keep its lead in the low double-figures for much of the second half as Bucknell was unable to string baskets together.

Four consecutive points by Foster brought the Bison to within nine at 45-36 with just under six minutes to play. Julianne Viani, who was the third Marist player in double figures with 13 points, missed a 3-pointer and Bucknell pushed the ball up the court and got a wide-open 3-pointer in the left corner for Champion that would have pulled it to within six, but the ball glanced off the rim and into the hands of Lindsey Hollobaugh. Hollobaugh was fouled and converted both free throws to bring Bucknell to within seven. However, those were the final points for the Bison, as they turned the ball over three times and were 0-for-7 in the final five minutes of play.

Marist, which won its fourth consecutive outing to improve to 5-2, ended the game on a 12-0 run following Hollobaugh's two free throws. The 19-point final margin was the largest of the contest.

Foster led Bucknell with a game-high eight rebounds as she missed her fifth double-double of the season by just two points and two boards. Brown added a season high-tying six as the Bison totaled 36 caroms to 37 for Marist.

BUCKNELL 53, DELAWARE STATE 42

GAME 10 ■ DEC. 5, 2006

MEMORIAL HALL ■ DOVER, DEL.

Strong first halves by Kristina Collymore and Ashton Sprouse, who were inserted into the starting lineup, helped propel Bucknell to a 53-42 victory over Delaware State. Collymore scored a season high-tying four points and equaled her career high with six rebounds, while Sprouse provided solid play and grabbed two rebounds in eight first-half minutes.

The Bison used a 7-0 game-opening run and a 13-0 spurt later in the first half to hold a commanding 31-18 advantage at halftime.

Lindsey Hollobaugh netted the first five points and Collymore scored on a driving layup to put the Bison up 7-0 as their stifling defense held the Hornets without a field goal for the first three-and-one-half minutes. However, once Raquel Collier, who led Delaware State with a game-high 18 points, knocked down a foul line jumper, the Hornets got on a roll, totaling 11 consecutive points and holding Bucknell without a field goal for more than seven minutes. The Bison were 0-for-6 from the field and committed seven turnovers during that span.

Then it was Bucknell's turn to go on a long run as it held the Hornets without a field goal for more than seven minutes as it went on the 13-0 spurt with five different players netting field goals during the span, including Hope Foster, who converted a pair of turnaround jumpers in the post for four of her team-high 12 points.

Jacquie Seawright connected on a 3-pointer as the shot clock wound down to conclude the 13-0 run and put Bucknell up 20-11 with six minutes remaining. She continued her hot shooting as she tallied all eight of her first-half points in the final six minutes of the half to help the Bison to their 13-point halftime advantage, their largest of the game to that point.

Bucknell extended its advantage to a game-high 17 points at 40-23 just over five minutes into the second half, but then stopped scoring as it converted just two field goals over the final 14:30 of play. Delaware State chipped away at the lead and closed to within six on a pair of occasions, but drew no closer.

The Bison totaled just eight points in a 14-minute span until Brown paraded to the line six times in the final minute and converted five of her free throws.

The second half featured just 16 field goal attempts for the Bison compared to 34 for Delaware State.

COPPIN STATE 64, BUCKNELL 50

GAME II ■ DEC. 16, 2006

COPPIN CENTER ■ BALTIMORE, MD.

Shalamar Oakley scored a career-high 25 points on an array of driving layups and floaters to lead Coppin State past the Bucknell women's basketball team by a 64-50 score. Hope Foster led the way for the Bison, who turned the ball over a season-high 26 times, with 18 points and eight rebounds.

The game was close most of the way with neither team leading by more than five points until Coppin State used a 16-2 run midway through the second half to take a 47-37 lead. The Bison were able to climb back to within nine at 51-42 after a 3-pointer from the top of the key with the shot clock winding down from Keshia Champion with just under seven minutes to play. However, Oakley scored the next seven points for Coppin State, which extended its lead out to a game-high 16 points at 60-44 before Foster converted three late jumpers in the closing minutes to round out the scoring for the Bison.

Rashida Suber helped Oakley with the scoring load for the Eagles as she tallied 21 points, but was limited to just one 3-pointer after entering the game averaging more than four per contest to lead the nation. She and Oakley combined to shoot 20 of 38 from the field as they accounted for nearly two-thirds of the team's field goal attempts.

Bucknell led most of the first half, but the score remained close throughout. The Bison took a 24-19 lead with just under five minutes to play when Andrea Wright converted a layup and got fouled. She missed her foul shot, but Jacquie Seawright hauled in the offensive rebound. She proceeded to knock down a 3-pointer from the right corner later in the possession, giving the Bison five consecutive points on the one trip down the court.

That 3-pointer was the last field goal of the first half for Bucknell as Coppin State went on a quick 6-0 run in a span of just over a minute. Suber, who totaled four points during the run, capped it off with a steal of a Lindsey Hollobaugh pass and a fast break layup.

A pair of free throws from Wright, who finished with six points, in the final minute gave the Bison a 26-25 halftime advantage, marking the eighth time in 11 games they have held the lead at intermission.

Bucknell's bench of Seawright, Amanda Brown and Wright had a solid day with 11 points and 12 rebounds total. Wright corralled six boards, while Seawright totaled five.

Behind Foster's eight rebounds, five from Hollobaugh and the 12 from the bench Bucknell outrebounded Coppin State 32-31.

BUCKNELL 65, BINGHAMTON 64 (OT)

GAME 12 ■ DEC. 19, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

A driving Amanda Brown found Lindsey Hollobaugh for an open layup with 4.7 seconds remaining in overtime to give Bucknell a 65-64 victory. Brown led the Bison with a season-high 19 points, while Jacquie Seawright chipped in a season-high 16 points and a career-high six steals.

Brown and Seawright combined to shoot 13 of 23 from the field as they paced the Bucknell offense all night. In fact, Seawright tallied the first five points of the game and Brown registered five of her nine first-half points during a 13-6 run that helped the Bison build a 27-16 lead, their largest of the game, in the first half.

Bucknell did not trail the entire game until Laine Kurpniece, who posted a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, made 1 of 2 free throws to put the Bearcats up 53-52 with just over a minute to play in regulation. Hope Foster appeared to clinch the game for Bucknell with four free throws in the final minute to make the score 56-53 with less than 15 seconds to play. However, after having the ball stripped from her by Keshia Champion, Erica Carter regained control deep in the left corner and swished in a 3-pointer as time expired to send the game to overtime.

Brown and Seawright scored the first seven points in the overtime period for the Bison, who jumped out to a 63-58 advantage less than two minutes in. The Bucknell offense then went into a funk where it turned the ball over twice and missed a pair of 3-pointers.

The Bison still held a one-point lead (63-62) with just over 30 seconds to play when Binghamton called a timeout to set up an offensive play. Following the timeout, Lauren Schober fouled out reaching in on Juta Jahilo 35 feet from the basket. Jahilo knocked down both free throws to put the Bearcats up by one point again for their second lead of the contest.

Following a timeout, Bucknell struggled to get open against the Binghamton defense that limited it to 37.7 percent shooting from the field. As time on the clock ran down, Brown aggressively drove into the Bearcat defense and drew three defenders underneath the basket before finding Hollobaugh for her only assist of the night. Without a timeout, the Bearcats hurried the ball down the court, but could not get off a last-second shot.

In addition to her scoring, which was her highest figure since netting a career-high 22 against Buffalo last December, Seawright wreaked havoc on the defensive side of the floor with her six steals. She also corralled five rebounds, including four key ones on the offensive boards. The biggest of those came in overtime and led to a 3-pointer by Brown to put Bucknell up by five points.

BUCKNELL 79, SIENA 67

ALUMNI RECREATION CENTER ■ LOUDONVILLE, N.Y.

All nine players on the active roster scored, led by a season-high 17 points from Kesha Champion, and Bucknell used a game-opening 14-0 run to easily defeat Siena.

Champion was one of four Bucknell players in double figures as Lindsey Hollobaugh and Amanda Brown netted 15 apiece and Lauren Schober added 12.

The Bison set the tone early, sprinting out to the 14-0 advantage as the Saints were 0-for-9 from the field with four turnovers before Sarah Fullmer connected on a jumper from just inside the foul line to put Siena on the board.

Bucknell extended its lead out to 19-2 and 29-12, but used a 16-9 run over the final five minutes of the half to build a commanding 45-21 lead, equaling its largest of the first half. The 45 points equaled the most the Bison have tallied in a half this year and was just 13 shy of their per game average.

Champion, Schober and Brown led the run at the end of the half with a barrage of 3-pointers. Champion connected on a pair from the left wing that hit nothing but net, including one in the waning seconds of the half. Schober and Brown, who registered seven consecutive points during the run as she totaled a team-high 11 points before halftime, hit one apiece from behind the arc.

The Bison forced 10 turnovers and nine steals in the first half as they had numerous fast-break opportunities. That helped them blister the nets at a 60.7 percent clip (17-28), including 5 of 7 from 3-point range.

Siena slowed play down in the second half and turned the game into a half-court contest. The Saints continually dumped the ball inside to Laura Menty, who tallied a game-high 25 points, including the first 12 of the second half as Siena closed to within 53-40 mid-way through the second half.

The Bison were able to extend the lead back out and held on to the victory by scoring their final 15 points from the free throw line as Siena repeatedly fouled in the final minutes. The Saints connected on four desperation 3-pointers during that time to cut the deficit to 12.

Bucknell tallied just six field goals in the second half after netting 17 in the first 20 minutes of play. It finished the game at 44.2 percent from the field, but a sparkling 7 of 13 from 3-point range. Hollobaugh, Champion and Schober each knocked down a pair from behind the arc.

Le'Le' LeSeur saw her first action of the season for Bucknell and tallied three assists, two steals and one point in 13 minutes of action before fouling out.

BUFFALO 69, BUCKNELL 51

GAME 14 ■ DEC. 29, 2006

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Rachelle Mathys made 5 of 7 3-pointers and led four Buffalo players in double figures with 15 points as the Bulls defeated Bucknell 69-51. The Bison, who saw their two-game winning streak snapped, were led by 18 points and seven rebounds from Lindsey Hollobaugh as she moved into seventh place on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,320 points.

Led by Mathys, who made three 3-pointers in the game's first five minutes, Buffalo shot 10 of 21 from behind the arc. Bucknell was just 6 of 24, with Hollobaugh accounting for three 3-pointers. Overall, Buffalo made 52.8 percent of its shots, becoming the first opponent in 84 games to shoot at least 50 percent against the tight Bison defense.

Outside of an early 2-0 lead, Bucknell trailed the whole game as Buffalo opened an early 23-11 lead by holding the Bison without a point for more than seven minutes.

A 10-6 run that featured a traditional three-point play by Lauren Schober and then a 3-pointer on back-to-back possessions brought Bucknell to within eight points, but Buffalo ended the half on a 7-0 run and took a commanding 39-24 lead into halftime.

A 3-pointer from the left corner by Stephanie Bennett on the opening possession of the second half put Buffalo up 42-24 and Bucknell would draw no closer than 12 the rest of the way.

The Bison cut the score to 12 with just over 10 minutes to play, but Buffalo limited Bucknell to just two points over the next five minutes and extended its advantage to a game-high 19 points with a 9-2 spurt.

Hope Foster joined Hollobaugh in double figures with 11 points. She added four rebounds, three blocks and three steals. Kesha Champion scored just four points, but dished out six assists, all in the second half.

The Bison struggled on the boards as Buffalo held a 41-26 edge in rebounding.

Bucknell's defense did hold Heather Turner, a low-post player who was averaging a team-high 13.2 points and 7.7 rebounds per game and totaled 25 points and 12 rebounds in last year's 74-63 Bison victory, to eight points and six rebounds.

Jacquie Seawright and Amanda Brown each scored 22 points in last season's win at Buffalo, but managed a total of just seven points on 3 of 10 shooting Friday night. Brown did record two steals, while Seawright hauled in three rebounds.

IONA 45, BUCKNELL 44

GAME 15 ■ JAN. 3, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Martina Weber made a pair of free throws with 0.8 seconds on the clock to give Iona its first lead in nearly 17 minutes as the Gaels defeated Bucknell 45-44. Lindsey Hollobaugh led the Bison with a game-high 18 points in the contest that featured a combined 43 turnovers.

Bucknell took its second-largest lead (42-35) of the game with about 6:30 left on the clock on a backdoor layup from Hollobaugh, who was 8-for-12 from the field. However, the Bison would manage just one field goal the rest of the way as the Gaels ended the game on a 10-2 run.

The Gaels inbounded the ball with 11 seconds left, but Bucknell still had a foul to give before Iona was shooting one-and-one from the free throw line. After the foul from Champion the Gaels again inbounded the ball, this time with eight seconds left, and found Weber at the foul line. She spun and went strong to the basket, drawing a foul on Hope Foster. She then calmly swished the game-winning free throws following a timeout.

Bucknell led most of the way, building an eight-point lead on two occasions in the first half and again in the second. The Bison never trailed by more than two points and the first time Iona took a lead late in the first half, Amanda Brown answered with two of her three first-half 3-pointers to give Bucknell a 24-20 advantage and momentum going into halftime.

Foster narrowly missed her sixth double-double of the season with nine points and a team-high nine rebounds. She also blocked five shots for the first time since Nov. 25 as she pushed her season total over 60. Brown added nine points, all coming in the first half, and a team-high four assists.

Despite registering 13 steals, including a season-high three from Hollobaugh, and forcing a season-high 25 turnovers, Bucknell recorded just one steal in the final seven minutes of play.

The Bison struggled on the boards against the much-larger Gaels as they were outrebounded by their largest margin of the season, 47-28. Iona grabbed 17 offensive rebounds, including four from the 6-5 Weber, who recorded a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

Bucknell also struggled from the field against the tough Iona defense, making just 30.9 percent of its shots, including 25.9 percent in the second half. In fact, the Bison were just 28.6 inside the 3-point arc as they made 5 of 13 from 3-point range.

BUCKNELL 67, NAVY 47

GAME 16 ■ JAN. 6, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Amanda Brown equaled her career high with 22 points and Lauren Schober added a season-high 19 as Bucknell defeated Navy 67-47 in its Patriot League opener. It was the largest win of the year for the Bison, who also opened league play with a victory against the Mids last January.

Brown, who returned to the starting lineup for the first time since Dec. 2, and Schober combined to make 15 of their 27 field goals, including 6 of 13 from 3-point range as their 41 combined points were the most for a pair of Bucknell teammates since Lindsey Hollobaugh and Hope Foster combined for 42 points in an opening-night win against Hampton.

The Bison, who turned the ball over a season-low eight times, jumped out to three 10-point leads in the up-tempo first half, but then Navy's Carly Meyer got hot and narrowed the deficit. She tallied 18 first-half points and turned a 21-11 Bucknell lead into a tie game as she went on a personal 10-0 run with a pair of 3-pointers, a long jumper and two free throws.

Bucknell finally ended its six-minute scoreless drought when Brown found Schober ahead of the pack for a three-point play. A step-back jumper by Brown and a pair of Jacquie Seawright free throws completed a 7-0 run.

Meyer brought the Mids, who never led in the contest, to within one when she made three consecutive free throws after being fouled by Kesha Champion while shooting a 3-pointer from the right wing. A 3-pointer by Hollobaugh and a free throw from Champion rounded out the first-half scoring and sent the Bison into halftime with a 34-29 cushion.

In the second half Bucknell shut down Meyer, holding her without a point and limiting her to just four field goal attempts until the final minutes of play. Margaret Knap did score nine of her 14 points in the second half, but Bucknell used a 26-8 run that spanned nearly 10 minutes to seal the game. Consecutive 3-pointers by Brown, Schober and Champion capped the run and put the Bison up 65-45 with five minutes to play.

Bucknell converted a season-high nine 3-point field goals with Brown knocking down four, the same number she hit against Navy in their meeting last January.

Despite scoring a season-low two points, Foster led the team in rebounding with seven as the Bison won the battle of the boards 38-36. During the game-deciding 26-8 run, Bucknell held a 13-2 edge in rebounding. Foster also added three blocks to increase her season total to 64.

BUCKNELL 70, AMERICAN 62

GAME 17 ■ JAN. 10, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Hope Foster tallied her sixth double-double of the season with 19 points and 14 rebounds as Bucknell team held off a late run by American to defeat the Eagles 70-62 after leading by double figures the majority of the game.

Despite yielding 45 second-half points, Bucknell's defense was strong, limiting the Eagles to 29.8 percent shooting. Liz Hayes, the third-leading scorer in the Patriot League at 15.8 points per game, was held to just 10 points and Nicole Ryan, who was averaging just shy of 11.0 points per game, tallied only eight. That duo combined to make just 4 of 19 field goals.

The Bison jumped out to an early 18-4 lead as they held American without a field goal for the first 6:31 of play. The Eagles opened the game 0-for-7 from the floor and were just 1-for-10 with five turnovers in the first nine minutes.

Bucknell held a 14-point lead on three occasions in the first half before Foster knocked down a pair of free throws with 23 seconds left in the first half to give the Bison a 33-17 halftime advantage, their largest of the first 20 minutes. The 17 points American scored in the first half was the fewest in any half for a Bucknell opponent this season. Going back to the second half of Saturday's game against Navy, opponents had tallied just 35 points in a 40-minute stretch against the stingy Bison defense.

Two more free throws by Foster, who was 9-for-9 in the game, minutes into the second half put Bucknell up 41-21, its largest lead of the game. Behind junior forward Stephanie N'Garsanet, who played all 16 of her minutes in the second half and entered the game averaging just 11 minutes a game, American started a series of comebacks that the Bison held off each time. N'Garsanet tallied four points in a 7-0 run that brought the Eagles back to within 41-28.

N'Garsanet finished with a career-high 18 points and seven rebounds as she made all 10 of her free throws and was 4 of 7 from the floor as she helped the Eagles bring the Bison to within striking distance every time the lead extended out close to 20 points. In fact, a layup by N'Garsanet with just under 10 seconds remaining brought American to within six points, the closest it had been since the score was 6-2.

Bucknell staved off the pesky Eagles, who tallied 45 points in the second half, with a balanced scoring attack that featured all seven players who scored registering at least seven points.

BUCKNELL 63, HOLY CROSS 50

GAME 18 ■ JAN. 13, 2007

HART CENTER ■ WORCESTER, MASS.

A relentless full court pressure defense forced 20 turnovers and Lindsey Hollibaugh and Amanda Brown combined for 39 points as Bucknell ended a three-game losing streak to Holy Cross with a 63-50 victory.

An active Bison squad equaled its season high in steals (14) and established new season highs in offensive rebounds (20), rebounds (47) and field goals attempted (72).

Hollobaugh posted her fifth career double-double as she equaled her career high with 12 rebounds to go along with 19 points. Brown registered a game-high 20 points, including 12 in the second half and equaled her career high with four 3-pointers.

After a relatively tight first half that ended with Bucknell on top 31-23, Hollibaugh and Brown keyed the Bison on the offensive end in the second half with a combined 23 points. The duo combined for 19 consecutive Bucknell points and Brown hit three consecutive jumpers for a personal 7-0 run that put the Bison up 54-37, their largest lead of the game.

A layup by Ashley McLaughlin, who scored 11 of her team-high 13 points in the second half, and a 3-pointer by Brianna McFadden, who registered 10 of her 13 points in the first half, cut the Bucknell advantage to 58-49 with just under four minutes to play, but the Bison yielded just one free throw, that coming with 15 seconds on the clock, on their way to victory.

Bucknell built that eight-point halftime lead by holding Holy Cross without a field goal for the final 7:30 of the first half. The Crusaders only points during a 13-4 Bison run came from McFadden at the foul line. Le'Le' LeSeur (Snellville, Ga./Wesleyan) tallied all of her career-high five points during the span as she also provided full-court pressure on Holy Cross' Ashley McLaughlin. A 31-21 lead late in the first half was the largest for Bucknell in the first 20 minutes of play and the only time they trailed was at 19-18 following a 3-pointer by McFadden.

The Bison set the tone for the game early as they built a 6-0 lead with four of the points coming on offensive rebounds off missed 3-pointers on their first two possessions. The only time they trailed was at 19-18 following a 3-pointer from the left wing by McFadden.

With two late field goals Hope Foster reached 10 points to round out the trio of Bison in double figures. She also added seven rebounds.

LAFAYETTE 68, BUCKNELL 63

GAME 19 ■ JAN. 16, 2007

KIRBY SPORTS ARENA ■ EASTON, PA.

Bucknell relinquished a 16-point lead in the second half and fell to Lafayette by a 68-63 score. The Bison, who were led by 18 points from Amanda Brown, saw their three-game winning streak come to an end.

Bucknell's Lindsey Hollobaugh injured her knee and missed the final 11:34 of play. The Bison, who have now lost at Lafayette two of the last three years, led 53-42 at the time of her injury and were outscored 26-10 after her departure.

In addition to Hollobaugh playing just 28 minutes, Bucknell's leading scorer, Hope Foster played a season-low 25 minutes due to foul trouble. However, both long stretches she was on the bench the Bison were able to keep their lead steady. Foster finished with 14 points and five rebounds as she made all five of her field goals and all four free throws.

Hollobaugh and Brown helped Bucknell score the first seven points of the second half as it jumped out to a 48-32 lead, the largest of the game, in the opening minutes of the half. However, the Bison then went on a cold spell, scoring just five points over the next six minutes.

Lafayette tallied the final 10 points of the game as it was 8-for-9 from the foul line over that span. Overall, the Leopards shot 23 of 26 from the line, including 6 of 6 from Vanessa Van De Venter, who led them with a game-high 22 points and seven rebounds.

After a slow start in the first eight minutes of play, Bucknell closed out the first half on a 28-17 run to take a 41-32 lead into halftime. The Leopards gave the Bison trouble early as Van De Venter tallied 13 of Lafayette's first 17 points on an array of post moves. Bucknell went on an 8-0 spurt, keyed by five points from Jacquie Seawright, to take a 21-15 advantage and never trailed again until the final minute of play.

The steady Bison attack that featured 13 points from Amanda Brown and 60 percent shooting in the first half slowly extended the lead out to 41-27 in the final minutes of the first stanza before Brittany Purr and Jessica Spicer combined to register the final five points of the half and cut the Bucknell lead to nine at 41-32.

Bucknell played the final 6:46 of the first half without Foster after she picked up her second foul. The Bison scored 20 of their points during that span, including seven from Brown and five from Kesha Champion, who equaled Brown for the team lead with five assists.

Hollobaugh tallied 10 points before her injury to give Bucknell three players in double figures. She also dished out four assists.

BUCKNELL 74, COLGATE 48

GAME 20 ■ JAN. 20, 2007

COTTERELL COURT ■ HAMILTON, N.Y.

A 12-0 run near the end of the first half and a 15-0 spurt at the beginning of the second helped Bucknell overcome a sluggish start and defeat Colgate 74-48. The Bison were led by 16 points apiece from Jacquie Seawright and Lauren Schober. Melanie Cargle led the Raiders with 21 points, including 16 in the second half.

Bucknell trailed 15-10 after its slow start and didn't take the lead for good until the beginning of its 12-0 run, which ended with the score 32-22 and spanned just 2:30. Cargle scored on a fast break in the final seconds to cut the Bison halftime advantage to 32-24.

Both teams started off blazing hot in the second half as they combined for 17 points in the first three minutes of play. Colgate narrowed the score to two points, but three consecutive 3-pointers from Schober and Seawright helped Bucknell begin its second-half run and stretch its lead to 54-34. It took just three minutes for the lead to go from five points to 20.

The Bison then held on over the final 14 minutes of play as the 26-point final margin equaled the largest of the game and was their largest win since defeating American by 35 points last February.

Cargle provided Colgate's only offense in the second half as Bucknell's lead ballooned. She tallied 16 of her 21 points after halftime and the rest of the team contributed just eight of the Raiders' 24 second-half points.

Bucknell blistered the nets at 54.2 percent in the second half and forced 24 turnovers, including 15 in the first half, to key the victory. In addition to her 16 points, Seawright led the team with three steals and pulled down six rebounds.

Amanda Brown tallied 15 points, registered a career-high seven assists and equaled her season high with six rebounds, all in the first half. She knocked down a pair of 3-pointers in the second half, marking the fourth time in five games she has done that.

Hope Foster rounded out the quartet of Bucknell players in double figures as she tallied eight of her 10 points in the second half. She pulled down four rebounds. Le' Le' LeSeur led Bucknell with a career high-tying seven rebounds as the Bison won the rebounding battle 39-36.

Bucknell's 74 points was its third-most of the season as it won for the 10th time in 11 games when tallying at least 60 points.

BUCKNELL 64, LEHIGH 37

GAME 21 ■ JAN. 24, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Bucknell forced 23 turnovers, limited Lehigh to 36.2 percent shooting from the field and outrebounded the Mountain Hawks by a season-high 13 boards as it cruised to a 64-37 victory. The 37 points were the fewest scored by a Bison opponent since Army netted the same amount on Jan. 20, 1993.

The win, the fifth in six Patriot League games, vaulted Bucknell back into a first-place tie with Army.

Bucknell's strong work on the boards as well as on the defensive end of the floor helped it tie for the second-fewest points it has allowed since the 1980-81 season and the fewest ever in the 58-game series with Lehigh that is now tied 29-29.

Jacque Seawright totaled a team-high seven rebounds to lead five Bison with at least five boards. Hope Foster and Amanda Brown each recorded six, while Lauren Schober and Kesha Champion pulled down five apiece. Seventeen of Bucknell's 42 rebounds were on the offensive end, including four by Seawright.

The Bison came out of the gate slowly as they turned the ball over five times in the first five minutes and trailed 10-8 following a layup by Sara Ellis on an in-bounds play eight minutes in. However, Bucknell then held Lehigh to just one field goal in a nearly six-minute span and opened up an eight-point advantage. That 14-4 run was the beginning of a 24-8 spurt over the final 12 minutes of the first half.

The Bison opened the second half with a 15-6 run to more than double up Lehigh at 49-24 following a steal and a layup by Kristina Collymore. Lehigh could only close the gap to 22 following that play as Bucknell extended the lead to a game-high 29 points on three occasions despite not scoring for the final 3:45.

Brown, who is averaging 17.5 points per game in Patriot League play, registered double figures for a career-high sixth straight game with a game-high 20 points. She connected on a career-high four 3-pointers for the fourth time in the last six games. Foster, who scored 12 of her 14 points in the second half, joined Brown in double figures, while an active Seawright tallied double figures for the second consecutive game with 13 off the bench.

BUCKNELL 59, ARMY 55

GAME 22 ■ JAN. 27, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Hope Foster scored 22 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for her seventh double-double of the season and Bucknell's starting five played all but six minutes as the Bison defeated Army 59-55. Bucknell, which won its third consecutive game, took over sole possession of first place in the Patriot League standings as the two teams were tied for the top spot entering the contest.

The Bison saw three of their starters each play 40 minutes and two others play 37 as they outlasted the Black Knights, who saw their bench account for 63 minutes.

Foster was the key to the game as she was 8 of 11 from the field and 6 of 6 from the free throw line despite drawing multiple defenders every time she touched the ball. She also added two blocks and a pair of steals. A three-point play from her with just over 13 minutes remaining gave Bucknell a 43-35 lead, but she did not take another shot until less than three minutes remained and Army had climbed to within 52-47. During that span the Bison did build a pair of nine-point leads, but endured a stretch of more than five minutes without a field goal that ended with another three-point play from Foster.

The second three-point play from Foster put Bucknell up 55-47, but back-to-back jumpers from Alex McGuire cut the lead to four with less than a minute to play. The second of those two jumpers came with McGuire's foot on the 3-point line in the left corner that would have made the contest a one-possession game in the final minute.

Amanda Brown and Lauren Schober combined to shoot 4-for-6 from the free throw line in the final 25 seconds of play to seal the game for the Bison.

While Bucknell led the entire second half, the first stanza was a back-and-forth affair that featured four lead changes and three ties. Neither team was able to jump out in front by more than five points until the Bison went on a 7-0 run in a span of just over 90 seconds near the end of the first half. Schober connected on a 3-pointer from the top of the key, Foster added two free throws and Jacque Seawright scored on a short jumper coming off a screen to put Bucknell up 30-23. Courtney Wright, who led Army with 11 rebounds in 23 minutes off the bench, scored on back-to-back possessions to cut the Bison halftime lead to three points.

Facing the Patriot League's best rebounding team, Bucknell was outrebounded by a 44-35 margin, but Schober totaled a season-high 10 to join Foster in double figures, marking the first time two Bison were in double figures in more than three years.

BUCKNELL 76, NAVY 66

GAME 23 ■ FEB. 3, 2007

ALUMNI HALL ■ ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Lauren Schober led four Bucknell players in double figures with 16 points as Bucknell outlasted Navy, 76-66. The Bison defeated the Mids for the fifth consecutive time and for the 18th time in their last 20 meetings as they held on to their top spot in the Patriot League standings by improving to 7-1 in league play and 15-8 overall.

Jacque Seawright and Amanda Brown added 15 points apiece to join Schober in double figures, while Hope Foster chipped in 13, including 11 in the second half.

Despite converting just one field goal in a seven-minute stretch, Bucknell led 54-47 midway through the second half when Navy's leading scorer, Carly Meyer, picked up her fourth foul and went to the bench. In the 2:26 she was out of the game the Bison outscored the Mids 12-4 and opened up a 15-point lead, their largest of the contest to that point.

Meyer scored eight of her 12 points, 10 of which came in the second half, as Navy tried to chip away at Bucknell's game-high 16-point advantage. However, Navy could draw no closer than nine points on a pair of occasions in the final five minutes.

The first half was a close affair until midway through when Bucknell opened up a 10-point lead following a 13-2 run highlighted by four points each from Le'Le' LeSeur and Brown and a 3-pointer from the top of the key from Schober. That 3-pointer was the fourth lead change of the half and gave the Bison the lead for good.

Like Meyer, who played just 20 minutes due to foul trouble, Foster, Bucknell's leading scorer, was limited to just 26 minutes. She grabbed four rebounds, all on the offensive end and reached the 800-point mark in her career.

Navy was led by 27 points from Margaret Knap, including 19 in the first half as she was 11 of 19 shooting in the contest.

Kesha Champion led the Bucknell defense that pressured Navy most of the game with four steals as the Mids turned the ball over a season-high 26 times. She also equaled Brown for team-high honors with six rebounds and dished out a career-high eight assists.

Meyer and Lindi Conner led Navy with 10 boards apiece as they each recorded double-doubles. The Mids outrebounded the Bison 40-30.

BUCKNELL 70, AMERICAN 57

GAME 24 ■ FEB. 6, 2007

BENDER ARENA ■ WASHINGTON, D.C.

Amanda Brown equaled her career-high with 22 points and added a career-high eight rebounds to lead three Bison in double figures as Bucknell defeated American 70-57 to win its season-high fifth straight game and equaled its best-ever start in the Patriot League at 8-1.

Brown shot just 3 of 11 in the first half, including 1 of 5 from 3-point range, but bounced back to make 5 of 6 after halftime, including both of her 3-point attempts.

Bucknell jumped out to 8-0 and 12-2 leads in the first few minutes of the game as it limited American to 1-for-4 shooting from the field, 0-for-2 from the free throw line and forced three turnovers as it opened up the 10-point lead in the first five minutes of the game.

The Bison came out so strong they forced an Eagles' timeout just 41 seconds into the contest.

Bucknell extended their lead to 21-7 following a strong post move to the basket by Hope Foster, who had eight of the first 21 points for the Bison. They then failed to convert a field goal for more than four minutes as American poured in eight consecutive points, including back-to-back baskets by Liz Hayes, who led the Eagles with 19 points.

A 3-pointer from the top of the key by Nicole Ryan with 5:17 left on the clock brought the Eagles to within 26-20, the closest they would get to the Bison outside of the opening minute of play. Another basket by Foster and three foul shots from Kesha Champion and Brown helped give Bucknell a 31-22 cushion at the break.

In the second half Bucknell extended its lead out to 18 points on two occasions at 50-32 and 58-40, but each time the Eagles were able to cut the Bison advantage back to 11 points at 50-39 and 59-48, respectively.

Foster contributed 16 points in the contest on 7 of 10 shooting. Champion rounded out the Bison double-figure scorers with 14 points. She also dished out a team-high six assists as Bucknell totaled 22 on its 27 field goals. Champion also eclipsed the 600-point mark for her career and now has 612.

The Bison full-court defense forced 18 American turnovers and limited the Eagles to 34.0 percent shooting. Bucknell made 48.2 percent of its field goals as Foster, Brown and Champion all shot at least 50 percent.

BUCKNELL 63, HOLY CROSS 37

GAME 25 ■ FEB. 9, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Hope Foster scored seven points and tallied five rebounds before the first media timeout and Bucknell jumped out to a 17-2 lead as it easily defeated Holy Cross 63-37. Foster finished with her eighth double-double of the season as she led all players with 19 points and 10 rebounds.

Bucknell's 26-point victory was its third consecutive double-digit win and was its largest in the history of the 41-game series with Holy Cross. The Bison also swept the regular-season series from the Crusaders for the first time in history. Additionally, the 37 points scored by Holy Cross were the fewest by either team in series history.

By allowing just 37 points for the second time in five games, Bucknell equaled the lowest point total it has allowed in a game since yielding 36 to Coppin State during the 1985-86 campaign. The strong Bison defense that pressured the Crusaders, who are missing two point guards to season-ending injuries, the entire game, forced 20 turnovers and held Holy Cross to just 28.6 percent shooting.

After jumping out to that early 15-point lead, which featured seven points from Foster and eight more from Amanda Brown, Bucknell never let Holy Cross get to within 11 the rest of the game. In fact, it took the Crusaders more than 10 minutes to net their first field goal. Kaitlin Foley, who led Holy Cross with 13 points and eight rebounds, hit a short jumper in the lane to end the drought at 0-for-12.

A 3-pointer from the left wing by Kesha Champion that hit nothing but net gave the Bison a 37-14 lead, their largest of the first half. Foley then connected on a layup and a pair of free throws in the final two minutes to cut the halftime score to 37-18.

Bucknell kept a lead of at least 17 points the entire second half and led by as many as 29, equaling its largest advantage of the season, following a layup by Le'Le' LeSeur with just over nine minutes to play.

The Bison managed just four points in the final four minutes, but held Holy Cross without a point over the final 4:15 of play. In fact, the Crusaders were 0-for-2 from the floor with four turnovers in the waning minutes of the contest.

In addition to her double-double, Foster added five blocked shots, marking the 17th time in her career she has recorded at least that many. Additionally, she connected on an efficient 8 of 10 field goals, including all four of her first-half attempts.

VISITORS: Holy Cross 9-16, 4-6

BUCKNELL 53, LAFAYETTE 39

GAME 26 ■ FEB. 13, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

Amanda Brown scored a game-high 17 points and Hope Foster chipped in 16 points and 11 rebounds for her ninth double-double of the season to help Bucknell hold off a pesky Lafayette squad, 53-39. The Bison extended their winning streak to seven games, equaling the program record.

Despite making just five field goals in the first half, the Bison led by a slim 20-17 margin at halftime. Brown, who scored 10 of her points in the first half, was the lone Bucknell player to connect on more than one field goal in the first 20 minutes of play. Vanessa Van De Venter, who led Lafayette with 14 points, including eight straight early in the first half, was the only Leopard with more than one field goal in the first half as she connected on 4 of 5 attempts before her third foul.

The Bison defense, which is now allowing 55.9 points per game, including 51.5 in league play, limited Lafayette to just 7 of 24 shooting and forced 12 turnovers in the first half. A nearly six-minute stretch midway through the first half when the Leopards did not make a field goal helped Bucknell take a 17-14 lead.

Highlighting that 7-0 run by the Bison was the return of senior captain Lindsey Hollobaugh, who missed five of the last six games with a knee injury.

A 3-pointer by Cristin Zavocki on the first possession of the second half and two free throws by Van De Venter, who ended up fouling out with a team-high 14 points in just 23 minutes, gave the Leopards their final lead of the game at 22-20. Bucknell then held Lafayette to 0-for-3 shooting and forced four turnovers as it went on a 13-0 run over a three-minute span. Foster posted six of her points during the spurt, while Jacquie Seawright capped it with a wide open 3-pointer from the right corner. Seawright joined Brown and Foster in double figures with 11 points.

Lafayette narrowed Bucknell's advantage to four points on a pair of occasions, but Bucknell finally sealed the win by ending the game on a 10-2 run. The Leopards managed just one field goal in the final seven minutes of play as the Bison held their third opponent in the last six games under 40 points.

Most of the margin of victory came from the free throw line where the Bison made 17 compared to just four for Lafayette. Bucknell made 68.0 percent of its free throws despite Brown, Foster and Hollobaugh making just 2 of 8 during one stretch in the first half.

VISITORS: Lafayette 6-20, 4-7

BUCKNELL 64, COLGATE 32

GAME 27 ■ FEB. 17, 2007

SOJKA PAVILION ■ LEWISBURG, PA.

A smothering Bucknell defense held Colgate scoreless for the first 14 minutes, 56 seconds and the Bison jumped out to a 27-0 lead and never looked back as it defeated Colgate 64-32. On Senior Day, Jacquie Seawright netted a season-high 17 points, equaled her season high with seven rebounds and tied her career high with six steals as she played her final regular season home contest.

Colgate was 0-for-16 from the floor and had 11 turnovers before a short jumper from Elise Bronzo finally put the Raiders on the board. By that time Bucknell had already sealed the outcome against the undermanned Colgate squad that had just seven players in uniform and exhausted all five of its timeouts in just over 13 minutes.

The win was a school-record eighth in a row for the Bison, who improved to 19-8 overall and a Patriot League-best 11-1. The 32 points Bucknell limited the Raiders to was the lowest figure for a Bison foe since a 53-30 win over Elmira on Feb. 3, 1980. It was also the seventh-lowest point total for an opponent in the 34-year history of the program. Colgate last recorded fewer than 32 points in the 1991-92 season opener against Dartmouth when it netted just 27.

Seawright and Amanda Brown, who came off the bench with senior Lindsey Hollobaugh taking her place in the starting lineup, paced the Bison during that game-opening run. Seawright had a personal 8-0 run that helped Bucknell to a 12-0 advantage. Brown followed with her own 7-0 spurt to put the Bison up 23-0. Seawright and Brown, who finished with 14 points and five rebounds, combined to tally 17 of Bucknell's first 27 points.

Behind field goals from four different players, Colgate did outscore Bucknell 10-9 over the final five minutes of the first half to trail 36-10 at halftime. The Raiders were just 4 of 23 from the field, including 1 of 5 from 3-point range, in the game's first 20 minutes. The Bison connected on 16 of their 33 field goals.

With five points from Katie Garman and four from TaHara Williams, who paced Colgate with 10 points in the game, in the opening minutes of the second half, the Raiders were able to close to within 19 points (40-21). However, Colgate netted just four points in a 10-minute span and the Bison opened up a lead of better than 30 points.

With each player on the roster grabbing at least two rebounds, Bucknell outrebounded Colgate 47-33. Seawright and Hope Foster paced the squad with seven boards apiece, while Brown, Kesha Champion and Le'Le' LeSeur each pulled down five.

BUCKNELL 63, LEHIGH 53

GAME 28 ■ FEB. 20, 2007

STABLER ARENA ■ BETHLEHEM, PA.

A 7-0 run, highlighted by five points from Amanda Brown, in the game's final minutes helped Bucknell hold off Lehigh for a 63-53 victory. The win, the ninth in a row for the Bison, clinched the first regular season crown for Bucknell since 1995-96.

Bucknell led for all but 3:04 in the game, but could not build its lead larger than seven points until the final minute of the game.

A three-point play by Adrienne Blount, who tied Kristen Dalton for the team lead with 12 points, brought Lehigh to within 53-51 with just over four minutes to play. However, the Bison held the Mountain Hawks scoreless for more than three minutes and reeled off seven consecutive points to take a commanding nine-point lead in the final minute of play. A contested driving layup by Brown and then a 3-pointer from the left corner from her opened the game-deciding run.

In the first half it looked as though the Bison, who opened up a 27-0 first-half advantage against Colgate on Saturday, would jump out to another large lead as they took a 6-0 lead behind a trio of jumpers from Kesha Champion, who led them with a season high-tying 17 points. The Mountain Hawks finally got on the board after missing their first seven field goal attempts more than four minutes into the contest when Blount, who tallied the first six points for Lehigh, knocked down a pair of free throws and less than a minute later connected on a short jumper.

Bucknell led by as many as seven points early in the first half at 11-4. However, Lehigh went on a 19-11 run over a span of 10 minutes to take a one-point lead with five minutes remaining in the first half. Kristen Dalton came off the bench to net seven of her 10 first-half points during that stretch.

Behind 3-pointers from Brown and Seawright in the final 90 seconds of the half, Bucknell took a 30-26 lead into halftime despite turning the ball over 10 times.

Champion, who had 13 points at halftime, and Seawright, who had eight points in the first 20 minutes, combined to shoot 8 of 10 from the floor and scored the first 15 points of the game for the Bison.

Brown equaled Champion for team-high honors with 17 points, including 12 in the first half. She also dished out six assists and grabbed four rebounds. Seawright added 13 points and equaled her season high with seven rebounds. Brown, Champion and Seawright combined to shoot 18 of 30 from the field for the game. Overall the Bison were 23 of 47 (48.9 percent).

ARMY 61, BUCKNELL 57

GAME 29 ■ FEB. 24, 2007

CHRISTL ARENA ■ WEST POINT, N.Y.

A short jumper by Amanda Brown with 36 seconds remaining capped a 22-10 run that brought Bucknell to within three points, but a potential game-tying 3-pointer from Hope Foster with 10 seconds remaining came up short as the Bison closed out the regular season with a 61-57 loss to Army.

The loss halted Bucknell's school record nine-game winning streak, although the Bison, who finished up the regular season with a 20-9 record, including 12-2 in Patriot League play, will still be the top seed in next week's Patriot League Tournament. Army, which completed its regular season 24-5 and 11-3 in Patriot League play, will be the second seed.

Bucknell, which trailed by as many as 17 points in the second half, used a 10-2 run to draw to within 44-35 with just over 11 minutes left. Army extended its advantage back out to 15 points at 50-35, but in a span of less than eight minutes the Bison outscored the Black Knights 22-10.

A pair of 3-pointers from Lauren Schober and Kesha Champion and the short jumper from Brown, all within a 35-second span, cut the Army lead from 58-49 to 60-57.

Margaree King missed a pair of free throws after Brown's jumper, leading to a Bucknell possession with 34 seconds on the clock and a chance to tie. After a tough time inbounding the ball, the ball ended up in Foster's hands on the right wing and her first 3-point attempt of the year came up short.

Bucknell never led in the game as it opened 0-for-8 from the field, including 0-for-5 from 3-point range, and was outrebounded 10-4 before scoring its first points nearly five minutes into the contest. After Army scored five straight points to open a 13-6 advantage, the Bison never drew to within five points until the final minute.

The key to the game was Army's rebounding as it posted a 48-39 advantage over Bucknell. The Bison also yielded 20 offensive rebounds.

Foster and Champion led Bucknell in scoring with 14 points apiece, while Jacquie Seawright added 11. Foster also posted a seven rebounds, one shy of Champion's career high-tying eight, and blocked six shots.

For the first time in Patriot League play, Brown failed to reach double figures as she posted just seven points on 3 of 15 shooting. As a team the Bison were just 21 of 62 (33.9 percent).

VISITORS: Bucknell 20-9, 12-2

Bucknell Team

2006-07 Record: 20-9 Overall, 12-2 Patriot League

Head Coach: Kathy Fedorjaka (10th Season)

Notes:

- Bucknell won its first PL regular season title since 1995-96
- Bucknell clinched at least a .500 record with a win against Navy, marking the first time the Bison will do that in back-to-back years since 2000-01 and 2001-02.
- Bucknell limited both Lehigh and Holy Cross to 37 points, the fewest amount of points by an opponent since 1992-93
- Bucknell opened its PL season 3-0 for the first time since 2001-02
- The 89 combined points in Bucknell's loss to Iona was the lowest in a Bison contest since the third game of Kathy Fedorjaka's tenure as head coach
- 38 points vs. Marist was fewest since 37 vs. Albany in December 2004
- With 26 3-point FG attempts against Michigan State, Bucknell came up one short of equaling the program record.
- Bucknell played its first ranked opponent since 2002 when it faced No. 17 Michigan State on Nov. 17.
- By making 52.7% of its field goals against Columbia, Bucknell converted at least half of its field goals for the first time since last January's 88-51 victory at Navy.
- Bucknell won its season opener for the first time since 2001-02 when it defeated Hampton 85-77.
- Bucknell's Nov. 10 game with Hampton marked the earliest starting date to a season in the 34-year history of the Bucknell women's basketball program.
