PATRIOT LEAGUE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON THE AIR:

Broadcasts of all Bucknell women's basketball Patriot League games will be carried live on the Bison Sports Network, which includes flagship station WMLP (AM-1380) in the Lewisburg area.

Doug Birdsong is in his fourth season as play-by-play announcer and is joined on the broadcast team by Chris Duffany for games on the road, and Evan Gropper at home.

Each broadcast will begin with a pre-game show 15 minutes prior to tip-off and conclude with a post-game show, featuring interviews with head coach Kathy Fedorjaka and select players.

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATIONS: Bucknell was picked to finish seventh in the Patriot League in a preseason poll of head coaches and sports information directors. Defending champion Holy Cross is the preseason favorite, followed by American, Navy, Colgate, Army, Lehigh, Bucknell, and Lafayette.

Senior Desire Almind was also selected to her first preseason all-league squad, joining the Preseason Player of the Year, Katie Macfarlane from Army. Also on the early season team were Navy's Courtney Davidson, American's Chanel Hunt, and Maggie Fontana of Holy Cross.

ABOUT THE LEHIGH GAME: Bucknell welcomes first-place Lehigh to Sojka Pavilion on Wednesday. The Bison have opened the second round of league play on a strong note, handing visiting American a 51-39 loss this past Saturday. BU sits in a tie for sixth place in the league standings at 3-5, and the Orange and Blue are hovering around the .500 range with a 10-11 overall record.

Lehigh is just 9-12 overall, but has put together a solid conference record, sharing the league lead with Colgate at 6-2. The Mountain Hawks recently snapped a two-game slide, but are winners of eight of their last 12 games.

A discouraging fact for Bucknell is that Lehigh is actually a better team on the road than at home. The Mountain Hawks are 3-7 in Stabler Arena, while winning six of nine on the road.

THE LEHIGH SERIES: The Bison and Lehigh are tied at 25-25 in the series which began in 1977 and is the second longest rivalry in school history (Lafayette = 52 games). Lehigh has won three-straight, sweeping the Orange and Blue in two games last season, and defeating Bucknell 69-58 earlier this year.

BU's record against the Mountain Hawks at home is 14-9, but Lehigh has actually had more success in Lewisburg in the past four years than the Bison. Lehigh has won three of the last four games at Bucknell, including last season's 74-67 decision in the Sojka Pavilion debut.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET: Bucknell let a lead slip away in the second half as it fell 69-58 to Lehigh to open Patriot League play at 0-2 for the second-straight year.

The Bison led by as many as eight in the first half before entering the locker room trailing 27-25.

The Orange and Blue then held a five-point lead with just over 11 minutes left, but let the Mountain Hawks get back in it and win going away.

ALMIND'S PURSUIT ON RECORDS CONTINUES: With her 11th rebound of the game against American last Saturday, Bucknell senior Desire Almind pulled down her 290th rebound of the season, passing Kirsten Ellison (1989-90) for first place on the Bison single-season list.

With 291 on the year, Almind's next mission is the Patriot League single-season record of 344. With at least seven games left in the season, Almind needs to average 7.7 rebounds per game the rest of the way to reach the mark, well below her season average of 13.9 rpg.

DRUMGOLD HEATING UP: It appears that junior Lillian Drumgold is warming up at just the right time. Drumgold averaged just 4.4 points per game through the first 12 games of the season for the Bison, reaching double-figures just once.

In the past nine contests, the guard has scored in double-figures on six different occasions, including two outings with a career-high 14 points. She is averaging 9.8 points during the stretch.

BISON CLAMP IT DOWN ON DEFENSE AGAINST AMERICAN:

In Bucknell's most recent game against American, the Bison did something they have not done in the past 11 years.

The squad limited the Eagles to just 39 points, marking the first time since the 1992-93 season that a BU team has held an opponent under 40 points in a game. That year, Bucknell defeated Army by a 51-37 margin on January 20, 1993.

The 39 points was also the fourth-lowest output an American women's basketball team has produced school history.

SHOOTING WOES FOR EAGLES: In addition to limiting American to just 39 points, the Bison also forced the Eagles into a dismal shooting percentage of .230 (14-61).

The 14 field goals were the fewest the team has allowed since the 2000-01 season when Lafayette came to Davis Gym and only canned 13 in an 83-44 drubbing.

The .230 field goal percentage is the lowest allowed by the squad since December 3, 1995, when Yale suffered a 49-40 setback in Lewisburg while shooting only .206 (13-63).

NOT MUCH BETTER FOR THE BISON: Despite winning the game against Yale in 1995, the Bison did not fare much better in that contest, shooting .308 on a 12-of-39 performance from the field.

MEET THE CAPTAINS

Senior Desire Almind is playing in her final year for the Orange and Blue. The 6-0 guard/forward has enjoyed an impressive career in her three years at Bucknell.

As a freshman, Almind made an immediate impact on not only the Bison squad, but the Patriot League, garnering the conference's Rookie of the Year award and a spot on the all-league second-team. She finished that season second on the team, and third in the league, in scoring with 15.1 points per game.

Almind suffered through an injury and illness plagued sophomore season to again finish among the team leaders in scoring with a 10.4 ppg clip.

As a junior, the talented player made the switch from guard to forward and enjoyed the best season of her career to date. With a career-best 15.4 ppg scoring clip and a career-high 9.0 rebounds per game, Almind earned herself a spot on the All-Patriot League second-team for the second time. She was also named to the Patriot League All-Tournament team at the conclusion of the conference finals after averaging 20.0 points per game and 14.5 rebounds per game in the tournament. Her career-high 19 caroms against Navy in the semifinals set a conference tournament record.

Almind amassed 1,079 career points entering her final season.

Senior Katie Hettler begins her third year with the Bucknell team as a co-captain for the squad.

A transfer from UNC-Wilmington, Hettler has played in 42 games for the Bison since her career in the Orange and Blue began in 2001.

The 5-8 guard saw time in 16 games her first season. As a junior, Hettler played in 26 of Bucknell's 28 games, earning her first career start at American.

Hettler played in 11 consecutive games for the Orange and Blue entering the season-opener.

In similar fashion, BU shot just .326 in the win over American. On 14-of-63 accuracy from the field, the 14 field goals is the lowest by the team since making just 14 at Delaware on December 8, 2002.

The last time Bucknell made less than 14 field goals in a game was in a 58-47 victory over Princeton on November 19, 1997. BU converted just 12-of-39 for a .308 clip.

ALMIND UP FOR NATIONAL AWARD: Senior Desire Almind is leading the country in rebounding at 13.9 rpg, is second in the nation in double-doubles with 14, and the 6-0 co-captain in among the Patriot League leaders in six other categories.

Because of her play this season, and in January to be more specific, the Patriot League office has nominated Almind for the WBCA NCAA Division I Player of the Month award.

The Women's Basketball Coaches Association reintroduced the player of the month program in December after several years of hiatus. The January player of the month will be announced by the WBCA later this month.

BUCKNELL AND THE RPI: The RPI (Ratings Percentage Index) is the measure of strength of schedule and how a team does against that schedule.

In the latest RPI rankings, updated Tuesday, February 10, Bucknell is ranked 233 of 324 schools. Of the eight Patriot League schools, Bucknell is the sixth-highest ranked team. Today's opponent, Lehigh, is third in the conference at 204.

As a conference, the Patriot League is 24th out of 32 conferences.

ALMIND APPROACHING MILESTONES: Senior Desire Almind needs just one more assist to reach 200 helpers in her career. When she hands out her 200th assist, Almind will become the first player in Bucknell history to score over 1,400 points, grab 700 rebounds and hand out 200 assists.

In addition, the co-captain needs 12 more steals to reach 200 in her career, becoming just the second Bucknell player to accumulate over 1,400 points, 700 rebounds, and 200 steals.

PUTTING IT TOGETHER FOR A FULL 40: Bucknell has not led from start to finish in any game this season. Of their 10 victories, the closest the squad has come to leading the whole way through was in a 69-61 win over Winthrop in the Cornell Classic.

In that contest, the Lady Eagles were ahead just one time, a 10-9 score with 11:39 to play in the first.

HOLDING ON: Another fact of note is that in every Patriot League game this season, Bucknell has led at some point. In fact, the Orange and Blue have held AT LEAST an eight-point first-half lead on every Patriot League team except Holy Cross (2/1/04). In three of the five conference losses, the squad even led at some point in the second half before falling.

0-FOR FROM DOWNTOWN: In Bucknell's loss to Holy Cross last Sunday, the Bison went 0-12 from three-point territory, marking the first time since 2001-02 that the team has not made at least one trey in a game.

The last time it happened was January 26, 2002, when the Orange and Blue hosted Lehigh and went 0-7 in a 71-63 win.

BU had two games that season with an 0-7 performance from downtown, but ironically, both were victories. In fact, the last time the Bison lost a game in which they did not make a three-pointer was January 24, 2000 - a 65-44 loss at Stony Brook.

LEAGUE PLAY HARD ON HOLLOBAUGH: Freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh is having an all-star caliber rookie season, sitting second on the team in scoring (14.8) and rebounding (5.4).

The newcomer rolled through the non-conference season, averaging 16.9 ppg and shooting .503 (95-189) from the field. In her Patriot League debut, Hollobaugh led the team with 17 points on a 6-of-11 performance from the field.

Since that game, however, Hollobaugh has been held to 10.7 ppg on 25-of-103 shooting (.243). The team's leading three-point shooter, she is just 4-of-32 (.125) from downtown in that time.

ALL ALMIND, ALL THE TIME: Senior Desire

Almind got her first breather in a Patriot League game this season when she left the Lafayette game for four minutes. She also sat down for one minute against Holy Cross, and again for just four minutes against American.

In eight conference contests, Almind has played the entire 40 minutes in five of those. In fact, in a possible 480 minutes in the last 12 games, Almind has played all but 12 of them.

HOLLOBAUGH'S FREE THROW FUNK: Freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh has made quite an impression on the Bucknell women's basketball team so far this season. The 5-9 guard is second on the team in scoring (14.8) and rebounding (5.4).

The rookie has struggled with her performance from the free throw line, however. Since opening the season 12-for-12 from the stripe, Hollobaugh has gone 31-for-52 (.596) at the line and before the American game (2/7/04) had missed at least one free throw in every game she has gone to the line since December 19.

ALMIND'S 20/20 GAME: It was only a matter of time before Bucknell senior Desire Almind pulled down 20 rebounds in a game, as the 6-0 guard/forward had reached 19 once this season, and pulled in 18 on two occasions.

On January 6 at Iona, Almind finally reached 20 caroms in a game, becoming just the sixth women's player in school history to achieve the feat. The last player to do so was Jenny Burke with a 20 rebound effort at Messiah on December 9, 1982.

In addition, with her 29 points, Almind is just the third Bucknell women's player to post at least 20 points, and pull down at least 20 rebounds in a game. Jill Henry was the last Bison player to do so with 22 points and 22 rebounds against Rochester on December 6, 1980, while Liz Rabenhold was the first BU player to do it with 24 markers and 24 caroms against Pitt-Johnstown on December 3, 1978.

HOLLOBAUGH MOVING INTO ROOKIE CHARTS: Freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh has scored 310 points through the first 21 games of her career. The rookie has jumped into the Bucknell top-10 for points by a first-year player, standing in 6th. In addition, her current 14.8 points per game average ranks fifth on the rookie ppg list, just ahead of 2002 graduate Vicki Quimby (14.4 ppg)

ALL-TOURNAMENT ACCOLADES: Bison senior Desire Almind and freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh were named to the La Salle Invitational All-Tournament squad at the conclusion of the tournament on Tuesday, December 30.

For Almind, it is her second all-tournament selection this season, and third straight. The senior was named to the Cornell Classic team earlier this year, and concluded 2002-03 with a spot on the Patriot League All-Tournament team.

The selection is the first of Hollobaugh's career.

SETTING THE STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE:

With a perfect 100% graduation rate according to the latest NCAA/USA Today survey, Bucknell is a national model of scholar-athlete success. Bucknell, which recently garnered a USA Today Academic Achievement Award for leading the nation in graduation rates, also ranks third among all Division I institutions (behind Nebraska and Notre Dame) in total number of Academic All-Americans, with 107 since 1970. Bison teams also get it done on the playing fields, winning the Presidents' Cup - the Patriot League's all-sports crown - in 10 of 13 years, including the last six in a row.

SOJKA PAVILION: Bucknell will be playing its first full season in its brand new, 4,000-seat arena - Sojka Pavilion (pronounced SOY-ka). The facility is a part of the new Kenneth G. Langone Athletics & Recreation Center, which also includes a 16,000-square foot fitness center, a state-of-the-art natatorium featuring a 50-meter-by-25-yard pool, a new sports medicine center and new office suites for coaches and staff. The Bison debuted in Sojka Pavilion last Jan. 15 vs. Lehigh and went 4-2 in their new digs over the last six weeks of the season.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS: With merit aid in place for the first time at Bucknell, Kathy Fedorjaka has brought in two talented scholarship players, as well as a third recruited newcomer. In addition to the freshmen, the Bison welcome a transfer student to the fold. The first merit-aid recipients in Bucknell women's basketball history are Rachel Hanley, a 6'0" guard/forward from Charlottesville, Va. (Albemarle) and Lindsey Hollobaugh, a 5'9" guard from Loganton, Pa. who played at Central Mountain. In addition, Bucknell also welcomes 5'8" guard Amanda Fleming of nearby Sunbury, Pa., who attended Shikellamy High School. Joining the freshmen is junior transfer Lillian Drumgold. A 5'9" guard from Baltimore, Md., Drumgold played two seasons at UNC-Wilmington before coming to Bucknell.

NEW FACES ON THE SIDELINES: Kathy Fedorjaka welcomes two new faces to her coaching staff this season. Russ Sarfaty joins the staff after serving as an assistant at Winthrop and James Madison University's. Jackie Smith joins the Bison after a successful career at Furman University and a brief stint in Europe and Israel in the professional leagues.

MERIT AID APPROVED AT BUCKNELL: In November of 2002, the Bucknell University Board of Trustees approved a three-year pilot program that immediately implemented merit aid for the first time in school history. Bucknell awarded 42 merit scholarships to the incoming members of the Class of 2007, with six targeted to the basketball programs — three to the men's program and three to the women's program.

The merit scholarships will not take away from Bucknell's current need-based financial aid program. The merit aid plan is intended to help Bucknell enroll even more top academic students; increase campus diversity; support performing arts talent, such as music, theatre and dance; protect recent gains in Bucknell's first-year class profile; and strengthen Bucknell's competitive position with the Patriot League in men's and women's basketball.

COLLYMORE SIGNS NLI FOR BUCKNELL:

Bucknell head coach Kathy Fedorjaka recently announced the signing of Kristina Collymore, a recruit from Montclair, N.J.

Collymore has scored 1,169 career points entering her senior season, and is a three-time all-conference and all-county player.

3 BUCKNELL 69, Coppin State 64
Sojka Pavilion
Lewisburg, Pa. - Nov. 30, 2003

The Bison trailed by four at halftime but used a 21-4 run in the second half spanning 10 minutes to turn an eight point deficit into a nine point advantage. Bucknell survived a late surge by Coppin State to hang on for the 69-64 win and pick up its first victory of the season. Senior Desire Almind led all players with a season-high 23 points and 18 rebounds. The 6-0 co-captain set a Sojka Pavilion single-game record with her career effort. Freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh also recorded her first career double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds. As a team, BU also set a Sojka Pavilion record for rebounds with 50.

5 Cornell 68, BUCKNELL 62
Newman Arena (Cornell Classic)
Ithaca, N.Y. - Dec. 5, 2003

The Orange and Blue opened up an 11-point lead with more than 16 minutes left in the game, but could not hold on for their second victory of the season.

Cornell put together a 20-4 run over the next eight minutes, erasing the deficit and taking over a five-point advantage. Freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh tied the contest with her three-point play with 2:32 left in the contest, but the Big Red closed out the game with a 10-4 spurt to come away with the six-point victory and advance to the championship game of the Cornell Classic.

6 BUCKNELL 69, Winthrop 61
Newman Arena (Cornell Classic)
Ithaca, N.Y. - Dec. 6, 2003

Bucknell held a nine-point halftime advantage, and led by as many as 12 in the second half, on its way to a 69-61 victory over Winthrop in the consolation game of the Cornell Classic (12/6/03).

Playing for third-place, and their second win of the season, the Orange and Blue also held an 11-point lead late in the first period. Winthrop got as close as six with 4:17 left in the game, but a Lindsey Hollobaugh three-pointer with under four to go pushed it back to a nine-point game and the Eagles could get not closer than seven the rest of the way.

The Bison got a 22 point, 16 rebound effort from senior Desire Almind en route to All-Tournament honors for the 6-0 guard/forward. Hollobaugh was also impressive with 16 points, while freshman Rachel Hanley chipped in with 10.

8 BUCKNELL 62, Albany 45
Sojka Pavilion
Lewisburg, Pa. - Dec. 21, 2003

Every member of the Bison squad saw time in Bucknell's game against Albany before the holiday break, and BU put together its best all-around effort in a 62-45 victory.

The Orange and Blue led by as many as 21 in the contest, and never let the Great Danes get any closer than 14 in the final 17:03 of the game. The victory was Bucknell's third-straight.

10 La Salle 61, BUCKNELL 54
Tom Gola Arena (La Salle Inv.)
Philadelphia, Pa. - Dec. 30, 2003

Bucknell was appearing in the La Salle Invitational for the third time in program history, and advanced to the championship game for the first time. The Bison and the Explorers went back and forth for nearly the entire game with neither team holding more than a five-point lead until the final five seconds of the contest.

The Orange and Blue led 52-50 with 3:30 to play before a layup by Monica Garrido-Sanz tied the game, and a three-pointer by Jill Marano with 1:47 left gave La Salle the lead for good. Junior Lillian Drumgold got the Bison within one with 41 seconds remaining, but La Salle made all six free throw attempts in the final 37 seconds for the win.

11 Manhattan 59, BUCKNELL 49
Sojka Pavilion
Lewisburg, Pa. - Jan. 2, 2004

Despite an 18 point, 11 rebound effort from freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh, and a league-leading eighth double-double of the year from senior Desire Almind, the Bucknell women's basketball team could not overcome a 16-point halftime deficit in a 59-49 loss to Manhattan.

Hollobaugh gave BU its largest lead of the game with a layup at the 17:24 mark to put the host team ahead 5-2, but the Bison hit a skid at that point and did not score again for two minutes while allowing the Jaspers to embark on an 8-0 run which started and ended with buckets from Rosalee Mason. The Orange and Blue outscored Manhattan 11-4 over the next four minutes to regain the lead, 16-14, but it was short lived.

12 BUCKNELL 67, Fairleigh Dickinson 65
Rothman Center
Hackensack, N.J. - Jan. 5, 2004

Bucknell held a seven-point lead at halftime, and built that to as many as 11 in the second before Fairleigh Dickinson came back to take an eight-point advantage with just over five minutes to play.

The Bison still trailed by six with 51 seconds left when junior Brooke Tomovich and sophomore Lindsey Geosits hit back-to-back three-pointers to tie the contest at 65-65 with just 40 seconds to play.

After a defensive stop on the other end, the Orange and Blue got the ball to freshman Lindsey Hollobaugh, who hit the 15-footer with six ticks left on the clock, giving BU the thrilling 67-65 win.

13 BUCKNELL 86, Iona 76
Mulcahy Center
New Rochelle, N.Y. - Jan. 6, 2004

The Bison overcame a 14-point first-half deficit, turning it into a 15-point second-half lead, on its way to an 86-76 come from behind victory at Iona. Bucknell placed four players in double-figures on its way to its second-straight road win.

BU found itself down 28-14 with 12 minutes left in the first half, and the Orange and Blue still trailed by 10 with 7:03 to play before the intermission. The squad refused to quit, however, outscoring the Gaels 10-3 over the final 4:14 of the half to enter the locker room trailing by just two.

Bucknell opened the second-half on a 12-5 run, taking its first lead of the game in the process. Iona briefly regained the advantage with 14:19 remaining in the game, but the Bison outscored the Gaels 23-6 over the next 10 minutes to put the game out of reach.

14 American 50, BUCKNELL 49
Bender Arena
Washington, D.C. - Jan. 10, 2004

For the second year in a row, American spoiled Bucknell's Patriot League opener with a last second bucket, as the Eagles defeated the Bison 50-49. Kaitlin Schuyler took a pass from Chanel Hunt and made a tough layup with 1.2 seconds remaining to give AU the lead and the win.

BU trailed by four with 4:11 left before two consecutive three-pointers from junior Brooke Tomovich gave the Orange and Blue a 47-45 lead with 2:51 to play. The Eagles took the lead again on a three-point play by Kim Salem, and a minute later, junior Lillian Drumgold put Bucknell back on top with two free throws. Neither team scored again until Schuyler's game-winning basket.

17 Army 51, BUCKNELL 46
Christl Arena
West Point, N.Y. - Jan. 23, 2004

The Orange and Blue led by as many as 12 in the opening half against the Black Knights, and still held an eight-point advantage at the intermission after holding Army to the lowest first-half total of the season.

The Bison built the lead back to double-figures in the opening minutes of the second half, but then the Cadets started to make their move. Army chipped away at a nine-point deficit, outscoring Bucknell 13-4 over a six minute span to tie the contest at 38. The Black Knights eventually regained control for the first time since the 19 minute mark of the first half, and led the rest of the way. BU got as close as three in the final two minutes, but ultimately dropped the 51-46 decision.

19 Colgate 78, BUCKNELL 66
Sojka Pavilion
Lewisburg, Pa. - Jan. 30, 2004

Junior Brooke Tomovich paced four Bucknell players in double-figures, but the Bison women's basketball team could not hold on to a 10-point first half lead in falling to Colgate.

The visitors made nine of their first 10 shots, including an Emily Braseth layup with 10:45 left in the half to tie the game for the fourth time at 19-19. From there, the Bison mounted a 10-0 run to build their largest lead of the game.

The Raiders used their hot shooting again to finish the half on an 18-4 run, hitting 6-of-8 shots from the field during the spurt. The Bison, despite committing just four turnovers in the half, entered the locker room in a 37-33 hole.

BU got as close as two early in the second, and tied the contest with 14 minutes left, but could never recover the lead.

20 Holy Cross 71, BUCKNELL 55
Sojka Pavilion
Lewisburg, Pa. - Feb. 1, 2004

Holy Cross' Maggie Fontana scored 13 of her game-high 22 points in the first half, staking the Crusaders to a 31-22 halftime lead that would never dip below seven in the second half.

Hollobaugh drained two free throws with 8:44 on the clock, and an Almind jumper at 8:26 capped a 4-0 run and gave the Bison their only lead of the night, 17-16. Holy Cross proceeded to outscore Bucknell 15-5 over the remainder of the frame for the nine-point intermission score.

Despite outscoring the Crusaders 12-0 on fast break points, the Orange and Blue suffered an 0-12 night from downtown, while allowing HC to hit 6-of-12 behind the arc.

21 BUCKNELL 51, American 39
Sojka Pavilion
Lewisburg, Pa. - Feb. 7, 2004

The Bison overcame an early eight-point deficit to win going away for their first victory over American since 2001-02.

Bucknell held the Eagles to just 39 points in the game, marking the first time since the 1992-93 season that BU has limited a team to fewer than 40 points. In addition, the point total was the fourth-lowest in American women's basketball history.

Junior Lillian Drumgold tied her career-high to lead all scorers with 14.
