C-USA NOTEBOOK

EAST CAROLINA

East Carolina made its 25th NCAA Regional appearance and 11th in the last 13 years after earning a No. 2 seed in the Charlottesville Regional. The Pirates posted wins over Navy and St. John's before being eliminated by No. 1 national seed Virginia. ECU was the No. 3 seed at the C-USA Championship and finished 2-1, posting wins over Tulane and No. 19 Southern Miss. Senior RHP Seth Maness posted his 38th career victory in the win over Navy and he closed out his career tied for the C-USA record of 38, originally set by Tulane's Jared Berkowitz (1998-2001). Maness finished as the school's all-time leader in strikeouts with 334. For the season, he owned a 10-3 record with five complete games and two shutouts in 15 starts. Maness tossed 105.0 innings (second in C-USA) recorded 80 strikeouts to just 17 walks and boasted a career-best 1.71 ERA. The Pirates threw a league-high nine shutouts, a figure which tied for 10th nationally. East Carolina's team ERA of 2.67 was seventh-best among all Division I teams. Senior RHP Brad Mincey allowed just 12 earned runs in 68.2 innings pitched this season. In 30 appearances he was 6-4 with three saves and his 1.57 ERA was the ninth-lowest in Division I. Senior OF Trent Whitehead tied for third in C-USA with 20 doubles, led ECU in doubles with 17 and placed second on the team in batting at .325.

HOUSTON

The Cougars advanced to the title game of the Conference USA Baseball Championship before falling to Rice, 4-3 in 10 innings. Houston finished 12-12 and in a tie for fourth place in the C-USA regular season standings in their first season under head coach Todd Whitting. Houston's 8-4 road record in league play tied for the best mark among league teams away from home. Senior OF Caleb Ramsey earned second team All-Conference USA honors this season. He ranked among the league leaders in doubles with 17, led the team lead in RBI with 46 and batted .318. Senior 2B Ryan Still closed his career on a 12-game hitting streak to finish with a team-high .333 average. He was also named to the C-USA All-Tournament team. Sophomore SS Chase Jensen, a transfer from Weatherford College who began his Cougar career by being named C-USA Player of the Week on Feb. 21, finished the season batting .320 with 12 doubles, three homers and 45 RBI. Junior LHP Jordan Lewis was 5-3 with a 3.75 ERA, striking out 55 and walking just 28. He earned C-USA Pitcher of the Week honors on April 25. Freshman OF Landon Appling has been hit by pitches a league-high 21 times this season, helping raise the Cougars league-leading hit by pitch total to 78. Appling also stole a team-high 22 bases in 24 attempts.

MARSHALL

Marshall closed out its season with one win at UCF to finish 20-31 overall. The Thundering Herd failed to qualify for the C-USA Championship for the first time since 2007. Senior 1B Victor Gomez added a single in his final game and departs Marshall as the all-time leader in program history in hits (294), doubles (48), home runs (52), RBI (211) and total bases (510). He finished in sixth place in C-USA history in home runs and ranks 12th in career RBI. Senior SS Kenny Socorro notched a hit to centerfield in his final at bat to reach the 200 hit plateau in his career. He became only the fifth player at Marshall to accomplish that feat. In Conference games, Socorro led all C-USA players with a .413 batting average. Senior RHP Arik Sikula fanned five UCF batters to become just the fourth pitcher in school history to reach 200 strikeouts in a career.

MEMPHIS

The Tigers finished 12-12 in conference play for the second-straight season. With a 30-27 overall record, Memphis posted its first winning season since the 2007 team played in the NCAA Regionals. Junior SS Chad Zurcher, the Conference USA Player of the Year, has moved to third place all-time at Memphis with 249 career hits. Zurcher continues to lead the nation with a .443 average, the second-highest single-season average in C-USA history. He also drew 33 walks and was hit by pitches 17 times, helping him to a nation's-best .547 on-base percentage. Zurcher recorded two or more hits in a game 29 times and has produced three-or-more hits 11 times. He also recorded 19 doubles, scored 47 runs, drove in 34 and stole 12 bases. Senior LHP Ryan Holland recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts in his final game in a Tiger uniform, May 27 vs. UAB. That was the fifth time this season that a Memphis pitcher recorded double figure strikeouts in a game. The Tigers closed their season with a league-leading team batting average of .309.

RICE

The Owls hosted the Houston Regional as the No. 8 national seed. It marked the fourth time in the last six years that the Owls have been one of eight teams to be awarded national seeds by the NCAA Baseball Committee. This was the Owls' eighth national seed since the selection process went to its current format in 1999. This was Rice's 17th consecutive appearance in the NCAA Baseball Championship, which ranks as the fourth longest active streak in the country. Rice defeated Houston, 4-3 in 10 innings to win its fourth C-USA Championship title in six years. The Owls were also co-regular season champions, marking the 16th consecutive season that the Owls have won a conference championship, dating back to 1995, the final year of the Southwest Conference. Sophomore 2B Michael Ratterree, who earlier this season had a 19-game hitting streak, led the team in hits (85) and RBI (53). He batted .327 and tied for the team lead in doubles (20) and home runs (6). Junior DH Anthony Rendon's 80 free-passes this season was the highest walks total in the nation. He is the C-USA and Rice single-season record holder for bases on balls. Rendon tied for the lead with a .327 batting average to go along with a team-best-tying 20 doubles, six homers and 37 RBI. Right-hander Austin Kubitz was named Conference USA Freshman of the Year. He was 6-5 with a 2.34 ERA in 15 starts with one complete game and two shutouts. He struck out a league-high 102 batters and walked just 24.

SOUTHERN MISS

The Golden Eagles made their ninth consecutive NCAA appearance when they played in the Atlanta Regional. The Golden Eagles captured a share of the Conference USA regular season title, the first for Southern Miss since the 2003 campaign, when it also won the conference tournament. Senior RHP Todd McInnis became just the second player in league history to be named C-USA Pitcher of the Year twice in a career (he also won following the 2009 season). McInnis was 8-3 with a 2.65 ERA in 15 starts. He threw 98.2 innings and struck out 87, while walking 32. Senior OF Tyler Koelling won the Boo Ferris Award, given to the top collegiate player in the state of Mississippi. He led Southern Miss in batting at .362 (second in C-USA) with 18 doubles, four homers and 46 RBI. Senior RHP Collin Cargill made 25 relief appearances this season, going 6-4 with a 0.93 ERA and eight saves. Catcher Jared Bales was named a Freshman All-American by several outlets. He played in 41 games, batting .281 with nine doubles, two homers and 20 RBI. Southern Miss led the nation in double plays for the third consecutive season, turning 81 in 2011.

TULANE

Tulane closed out its season with a 7-1 win over Houston at the C-USA Baseball Championship to finish the season at 31-26. Junior C Jeremy Schaffer led the Green Wave in batting all season long and finished with a .338 average, along with a league-best 23 doubles, six homers and a team-high 37 RBI. He earned first team All-Conference USA honors. Junior 1B Nick Schneeberger reached base safely in 18 of his final 19 games. Over that span he is 23-for-64 (.360) with six doubles, 13 RBI, nine walks and six runs scored. For the season, he batted .301 with eight doubles and 35 RBI. Senior RHP Nick Peppone registered a league-high 14 saves this season, a figure that ties for the fourth-most in a single-season in C-USA history. He earned first team All-Conference honors as a relief pitcher, going 3-3 with a 3.02 ERA in 27 appearances. Freshman RHP Alex Facundus was 8-2 with a 3.43 ERA in 29 appearances this season. All of his wins have come in relief and only one pitcher in C-USA has more wins. The Green Wave played a league-high 20 one-run games this season, going 14-6 in such games.

UAB

The Blazers were 1-2 at the C-USA Championship to finish the season at 29-28, the program's third consecutive winning season. UAB's victory came against C-USA regular season and tournament champion Rice, the second time in four years that the eighth-seeded Blazers defeated the top-seeded Owls in the championship. Sophomore 1B John Frost earned a spot on the All-Tournament team after batting .500 (7-for-14) with two doubles, two runs scored and five RBI. Junior OF Jamal Austin was named first team All-Conference USA after leading the league in stolen bases with 26 and topping UAB in batting at .351. Junior RHP Dillon Napoleon became the first Blazer to win a major individual award in C-USA, as he garnered Newcomer of the Year recognition. He ranks seventh in the league in ERA (2.87), posting a 5-3 record in 13 starts. Napoleon has struck out 56 batters and walked 27 in 84.2 innings pitched, notching one complete game. Senior SS Nick Crawford became the school's all-time leader in games played in the season finale. He played in 224 games in his four years at UAB and was named second team All-C-USA this season.

UCF

The Knights were back in the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2004 and played in the Tallahassee Regional as the No. 2 seed. With a 39-23 overall record, UCF posted its highest victory total since going 42-18 in 2005. UCF also produced a 12-12 Conference USA record to finish in fourth place in the standings, the Knights' best showing since joining the league in 2006. They went 2-1 in the C-USA Championship with wins over Memphis and UAB before dropping a close 4-2 decision to top-seed Rice in the final day of pool play. UCF went 8-8 this season against ranked teams and had 10 wins vs. teams ranked in the top 50 of the RPI. Among those victories, it defeated Rice (twice), Florida (twice), Stetson (twice), Florida State and Alabama. Redshirt sophomore DH D.J. Hicks earned All-American honors after leading the Knights with a .351 average, driving in a C-USA-high 66 runs and hitting 14 homers. Hicks and senior 1B Jonathan Griffin formed one of the top 1-2 power combinations in the NCAA this season. Griffin, an All-C-USA First Team selection, pounded out 19 home runs which ranked second on the UCF single-season chart. In all, UCF batted .307 as a team, and carries a .978 fielding percentage, the best percentage in school history. Eight different pitchers have three wins or more, and closer Joe Rogers earned nine saves this year.

RICE AND SOUTHERN MISS SHARE CROWN

For the first time in C-USA's 16-year history, two teams shared the regular season title, as Rice and Southern Miss each finished 16-8 in league play. For the Owls it was their fifth regular season C-USA championship in six years, while the Golden Eagles were regular season champions for the first time since 2003.

Rice earned the No. 1 seed at the C-USA Championship by virtue of winning two-of-three games in the regular season series between the teams. The two teams met in the championship game of the tournament two straight years, with Rice winning in 2009 in Hattiesburg and Southern Miss taking the title in 2010 at the University of Houston.

PSEUDO-RPI REPORT

As a league, Conference USA was ranked No. 5 among the nation's conferences in 2011. Seven of the league's nine schools ranked among the top 77, including four in the top 27. Here's a look at where each C-USA school was ranked in the final 2011 Pseudo-RPI's ratings (published by Boyd Nation (www.boydsworld.com)):

12.	Rice
22.	UCF
24.	Southern Miss
27.	East Carolina
62.	Houston
74.	UAB
77.	Tulane
117.	Memphis
194.	Marshall

C-USA VS. RPI TOP 25

Conference USA posted a total of 12 wins this season against non-conference teams ranked in the top 25 of the final RPI report, including seven vs. top 10 foes. Included are wins against No. 2 Florida (twice), No. 3 Virginia, No. 6 Florida State, No. 9 Texas A&M (three times), No. 14 Stanford, No. 19 Stetson (twice), No. 20 TCU and No. 21 Arizona.

MEMPHIS' ZURCHER NAMED C-USA MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Memphis junior SS Chad Zurcher was named the Male Athlete of the Year in Conference USA for the 2010-11 athletic season.

Zurcher earned All-America third-team honors from Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA). He was a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and was the first Tiger to earn conference Player of the Year honors since 1994. Zurcher led the nation in hitting this season with a .443 batting average, the second-highest single-season average in Conference USA history. The shortstop also drew 33 walks and was hit by pitches 17 times, helping him to a nation's-best .557 on-base percentage. Zurcher recorded two-or-more hits in a game 29 times and produced three-or-more hits on 11 occasions. He also recorded 19 doubles, scored 47 runs, driven in 34 and stolen 12 bases. Zurcher, who hails from Knoxville, Tenn., will begin his professional career in the New York Mets organization after being selected by them in the 31st round of the MLB Draft. Zurcher's efforts led Memphis to its best record since the 2007 season.

He is the fifth baseball player to earn C-USA Male Athlete of the Year honors in the eight-year history of the award.

QUICK NOTES ON C-USA PLAY

There were 36 conference series' played in 2011 and just nine ended in three-game sweeps. Southern Miss has posted three of them, Rice has produced two and East Carolina, Houston, Memphis and UCF each have one.

C-USA teams were 122-34 (.789) at home in non-conference play, but finished just 49-59 (.454) at home vs. league opponents.

The conference season was one of the most competitive in C-USA history. Of the 100 conference games played in 2011, more than one-third (35) were decided by just one run.

2011 C-USA BASEBALL AWARDS

Memphis junior infielder Chad Zurcher headlines the league's top individual baseball awards. He is the first Tiger to be named Player of the Year in Conference USA and the first Memphis player to earn conference Player of the Year recognition since Mark Little won the Great Midwest Conference's top honor in 1994.

Southern Miss senior right-hander Todd McInnis was named the league's Pitcher of the Year for the second time, while Newcomer of the Year honors went to UAB junior right-hander Dillon Napoleon, the first major award winner for a Blazer in Conference USA. Rice right-hander Austin Kubitza was named Freshman of the Year, the Owls third rookie of the year award recipient in five seasons. The Keith LeClair Coach of the Year award went to second-year Southern Miss head coach Scott Berry. The award is named for the former East Carolina skipper who courageously battled ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) before his passing in 2006.

2011 C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2011 Conference USA Baseball Championship presented by Trustmark was held May 25-28 in Pearl, Miss. The eight-team tournament was held at Trustmark Park, the home of the Mississippi Braves, class AA affiliate of the Atlanta Braves in suburban Jackson, Miss. This was the first time in the 16-year history of the C-USA Baseball Championship that the event will be held at a neutral site.

Trustmark Park, which opened April 18, 2005, has capacity for nearly 7,500 fans. There are 5,500 chair-back seats in the reserved seating areas. The grass berm beyond the outfield walls has room for an additional 2,000 general admission customers.

C-USA Championship Format

The 2011 Conference USA Championship presented by Trustmark featured the top eight teams in regular-season league play. Those six were split into two four-team pools (or pods), with the winner of each pod playing in a single championship game. Teams were assigned pods based on seed, which will be determined by the order of finish in regular-season conference play.

Rice won its fourth C-USA championship title in six years with a 4-3 win over Houston in 10 innings. It was just the second time in 16 years that the championship game went to extra innings.
