C-USA ANNOUNCES 2012 BASEBALL TV SCHEDULE

IRVING, Texas –Conference USA has announced its preliminary baseball television schedule for the 2012 season. The schedule currently features games to appear nationally on Fox Sports Networks (FSN), CBS Sports Network and ESPN 3, as well as regionally on CSS Sports, Cox Sports Television (Louisiana) and the Longhorn Network. Additional games remain a possibility and will be announced at a later date.

“Conference USA has established itself as a national power in baseball and we are pleased that more of our fans will be able to watch our teams play this season on television,” said Conference USA Commissioner Britton Banowsky.

Included in the current schedule are a record 23 regular season games as well as a live broadcast of the C-USA Baseball Tournament Championship Game on Sunday, May 27 in Pearl, Miss. Additional C-USA Championship games may be added to the television schedule.
