More than 65 National/Regional Games on the Slate for 2011-12 Season

IRVING, Texas – More than 65 national and regionally-televised games are scheduled to feature Conference USA teams during the 2011-12 season. Non-conference games against teams from the ACC, Big East, Big 12 and SEC combine with great conference duels featuring all 12 member institutions to highlight C-USA's national package on CBS, CBS Sports Network and Fox Sports.

At least 15 regular-season men's basketball games will be shown on CBS Sports Network, which will also air the 2012 C-USA Championship quarterfinals and semifinals to a national audience. CBS will once again air the C-USA Championship title game on Saturday, March 10, at 11:30 a.m. Eastern time from FedExForum in Memphis, Tenn. CBS will also broadcast a Memphis non-conference game at Louisville, as well as the regular-season finale between Memphis and host Tulsa.

FSN has announced 13 games as part of its national package, and is expected to add more to its regional package.

Coverage of C-USA basketball is also available online through the C-USA Digital Network, available exclusively on the league's official website www.ConferenceUSA.com.
