4 C-USA BIDS

For a second consecutive season, four Conference USA teams will play in the NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Championship. C-USA tournament champion SMU, regular season co-champions South Carolina and UAB, and UCF have been selected to participate in the 2011 NCAA Tournament.

Conference USA's four bids are tied with the CAA for the third-most for any conference in the tournament field, trailing only the Big East and the ACC.

SMU (13-6-1) is the No. 6 national seed and is making a second straight appearance in the field and its 28th all-time NCAA Tournament trip. SMU is 31-22-6 all-time in NCAA play, with 12 quarterfinal appearances and two College Cup trips, most recently in 2005.

UAB (13-4-3), C-USA regular season co-champion and tournament runner-up, earned the No. 11 national seed. The Blazers make their return to the NCAA stage for the first time since 2006 and their sixth tournament appearance overall.

South Carolina (9-7-2) will make its 20th NCAA Championship appearance after earning a share of the C-USA regular season title.

UCF (11-5-3) will make its fifth appearance in the NCAA Tournament and its second consecutive.

Last season, the four C-USA tournament teams each posted at least one win. Among leagues that received more than two bids, only C-USA (four bids) and the Big Ten (five bids) saw each of its tournament teams post at least one win.

November 9-13 • Hosted by Tulsa

C-USA CHAMPIONSHIP

TULSA, Okla. - No. 5 seed SMU won its second Conference USA Men's Soccer Championship title, 2-0, over No. 2 seed UAB Sunday at Hurricane Soccer Stadium in Tulsa, Okla. With the win, the Mustangs earn an automatic berth into the NCAA DI Men's Soccer Championship.

SMU had the better of the run of play for large portions of the first half, including a blast from midfielder Arthur Ivo from 10 yards out in the 27th minute that was turned away by UAB goalkeeper Carl Woszczynski then cleared by defender Darion Copeland.

Ivo would factor in the game's first goal in the 34rd minute, sending a direct kick from the right edge of the box that found the foot of forward Ben Hill, who redirected the ball into the net from at the back post. Ivo was the player who had drawn the foul against the UAB.

SMU would force four saves from Woszczynski in the first half as five of its seven shots were on goal. UAB put two or its five shots on target during the opening period.

SMU kept up its pressure after the break as Adam Still's shot hit the cross bar in the 48th minute before UAB swept away the rebound. Ivo again would present problems for UAB in the 55th minute when his left-footed shot from 18 yards out hit the left post.

The Mustangs would take a 2-0 lead when Aaron Simmons headed home an Ivo corner kick in the 59th minute.

Woszczynski prevented more damage in the 65th minute, closing the gap on SMU midfielder Damian Rosales and wiping out his shot attempt from 15 yards out.

UAB would pressure forward during the waning moments, but could not beat SMU goalkeeper Jaime Ibarra, who saved a header from All-C-USA striker Babayele Sodade in the 85th minute.

All told, SMU took 21 shots, with nine of them coming on goal. UAB finished with 17 shots, with five on goal.

AGAINST THE FIELD

C-USA tournament teams posted a 13-14-2 record against NCAA Tournament teams this season, including a 6-3-0 mark from No. 6 national seed SMU. UAB, the No. 11 national seed, was 3-2-1 against the field.

Each C-USA entrant has at least one win against one of the 16 national seeds.

HOSTS WITH THE MOST

All four C-USA NCAA participants will host at least one match in the tournament, with South Carolina hosting Wake Forest and UCF hosting Florida Gulf Coast in the opening round Thursday, Nov. 17.

SMU and UAB will host first round winners Sunday, Nov. 20.

NO NIGHTS OFF IN C-USA

All nine C-USA schools are rated among the top 112 RPI teams in the country – something no other league with at least eight teams can claim.

SMU (6) and UAB (11), C-USA's top two RPI teams, hold are each rated higher than the top team in 17 leagues.

The league's top three RPI teams – SMU (6), UAB (11), South Carolina (19) – all ranked higher than the top-rated team in 13 conferences.

RPI ELITE

The strength of Conference USA continues to shine through in the NCAA RPI ratings release at the end of the regular season.

C-USA along with the ACC and Big East are the only leagues in the country with at least three teams in the top 13, five teams in the top 45 and seven teams in the top 77 in the Nov. 15 NCAA RPI release.

COMBINED STRENGTH

SMU (6) UAB (11), South Carolina (19) and UCF (37) have combined to post a 46-22-9 (.656) overall record as of Nov. 13 and an impressive 18-7-4 (.690) mark in road matches.

C-USA RPI RANKINGS (11/15)

- 6 SMU
- 11 UAB
- 19 South Carolina
- 37 UCF
- 45 Memphis
- 73 Kentucky
- 77 Marshall
- 105 Tulsa
- 112 FIU

HEAD-TO-HEAD

C-USA schools have combined to post .500 or better records during non-conference play against 12 Division I conferences, including strong soccer leagues such as the ACC, Ivy, Big West and Missouri Valley. C-USA teams have posted unbeaten marks against five leagues and are 47-28-9 overall in non-conference play.

POLL POSITION

C-USA Tournament champion SMU is No. 19 and regular season co-champion UAB checks in at No. 20 in the latest NCSAA national poll. Regular season co-champion South Carolina is among others receiving votes. C-USA teams hold half of the 10 spots in the NSCAA Midwest Region poll and hold spots Nos. 2 and 5 in the South Region.

STATISTICAL BRILLIANCE

The dynamic goal-scoring threats in C-USA continue to rank among the nation's top attackers. C-USA Player and Offensive Player of the Year Mark Sherrod of Memphis is national leader in goals per game (1.06) and No. 2 nationally in points per game (2.33), total points (42) and total goals (19).

Six C-USA players are among the top 30 in points per game, five in points and goals per game, with four players in the top 20 for goals scored.

BERSON WINS NO. 450

South Carolina head coach Mark Berson won his 450th career match Nov. 1 versus UCF. Berson is the eighth Division I coach all-time to reach the 450-win milestone. Berson is 450-186-60 (.690) for his career, including a 439-181-60 (.690) mark at South Carolina.

SENIOR CLASS

SMU defender Adam Still is one of 10 men's soccer finalists for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, a national honor based on excellence in community, classroom, character and competition. Nationwide fan voting is ongoing at <http://www.seniorclassaward.com> to determine the winner. Fans are encouraged to vote once per day per computer for Still. The fan vote will be combined with media and Division I head coaches' votes to determine the winner. Currently, Still is in second place overall, so every vote matters.
