C-USA PRESEASON TEAM AND POLL

After battling injuries and guiding her team to its second consecutive postseason tournament, Memphis senior BRITTANY CARTER has been voted the league's Preseason Player of the Year while the Tigers are picked to win the 2012 Conference USA women's basketball regular season title as voted on by the coaches.

Carter, a 5-9 guard from Covington, Ga., missed five conference games last season with a stress fracture but still averaged a team-high 13.8 points per game and led Memphis to the WNIT. She enters her senior season as the conference's all-time single-game scorer as she netted 49 points against Sacramento State on Nov. 27, 2009. Head coach MELISSA MCFERRIN guided last year's club to its 18th 20-win season (21-13). She returns four starters and 74-percent of the team's scoring from a year ago.

With Carter and senior post JASMINE LEE leading the way, Memphis garnered seven first-place votes in the preseason coaches' poll. It's the second time in school history the Tigers were picked to win the league.

Memphis won the 1996-97 C-USA regular season title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament after being the top pick heading into the season.

Lee joins Carter on the C-USA preseason team. She was one of the league's best on the offensive glass as she accounted for the third-most offensive boards per game with 3.58 and was among the elite shooters, hitting 49.5 percent from the floor.

Rice, which garnered three first-place votes, was picked to finish second while No. 3 UCF and No. 4 Tulane also received a first-place vote. The three programs participated in postseason action a year ago. The Owls and Green Wave were selected to the WNIT and the Knights earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Championship after winning the league tournament for the second time in three years. UTEP tied the Green Wave for fourth in the preseason standings and finished the 2011 season at 16-14.

Houston's PORSCHÉ LANDRY and UCF's AISHA PATRICK joined Carter as the three senior guards on the C-USA Preseason Team. The 5-5 Landry was an All-C-USA first-team pick last season after averaging 14.8 points and dishing out 129 assists for her hometown team that won the 2011 conference regular season title and produced the league's second perfect C-USA record of 16-0. UTEP was the first to run the table in league play in 2007-08.

Patrick averaged 10.7 points per game and pocketed 81 steals in UCF's run to the 2011 C-USA Tournament crown. A native of Rockledge, Fla., she ranked among the league's top 10 in steals (2.7/4th), assists (5.0/5th), rebounds (9.7/6th) and field goal percentage (.571/8th) in tournament play.

JESSICA KUSTER of Rice, Southern Miss' RACHEL VIGERS and GLORIA BROWN of UTEP were the three forwards named to the preseason team. Kuster is the only non-senior on the eight-person preseason team.

Kuster had a dazzling freshman season for the Owls as she was just the third freshman in league history to capture All-C-USA first-team honors last season and was an easy pick for Freshman of the Year. The 6-2 San Antonio, Texas, native was the only player to average a double-double in league play, accounting for 15.8 points and 11.9 rebounds per game.

Even though she played only seven conference games due to injury, Vigers was an All-C-USA third-team selection last season and racked up a team-high 16.4 points per game. She's one of two returning starters for the Golden Eagles.

C-USA's 2011 Newcomer and Sixth Player of the Year, Brown carried the Miners throughout the 2011 season with a 12.1 points and 7.2 rebounds per game average as well as 65 blocks. The 6-2 native of Philadelphia, Pa., shot 54.9 percent from the field, second-best in the league, and a solid 80.0 from the free throw line.

Rounding out the 2012 All-C-USA Preseason Team is SMU senior post CHRISTINE ELLIOTT. She led the Mustangs with team-highs of 10.5 points and 7.3 rebounds per game. She also recorded three double-doubles to boost her career total to 14.

AROUND THE RIM

EAST CAROLINA

Second-year head coach Heather Macy needs this year's team to be more consistent on the offensive and defensive ends in order for them to be in the conference race at the end of the season. The Pirates found their stride in mid-January and won nine of their last 13 games. In order to continue that success, seniors Jean Best and Chareya Smith plus senior Ariana Jackson must step up and guide this program with their experience and leadership.

HOUSTON

Houston begins life without all-time great Courtney Taylor. The Cougars breezed through the conference slate a year ago becoming just the second program in league history to win all 16 C-USA match-ups. This year, head coach Todd Buchanan may find his second year with the program a bit tougher as he must replace four of his top five scorers from the 2011 NCAA Tournament team. Look for 5-5 talented point guard Porsche Landry to lead the young Cougars as she enters her senior season.

MARSHALL

Long-time coach Royce Chadwick will put a small army on the floor this season as he currently sports a 19-person roster. However, the Herd lost all-everything Tynikki Crook to graduation. Chadwick feels Alaya Mitchell, Lateidra Elliott and Dorina Barrett are all capable ball handlers.

MEMPHIS

There are few teams in the league as talented, experienced and deep as Memphis. The Tigers return eight letterwinners and four starters from a team that produced a 21-13 season a year ago. C-USA Preseason Player of the Year Brittany Carter dismantled teams with her ability to score and knack for setting up her teammates. With that skill, opponents can't focus primarily on the senior guard because the Tigers have multiple weapons in Jasmine Lee, Nicole Dickson and Ramses Lonlack.

RICE

No team may be more better positioned than Rice, which returns nine letterwinners and four starters, including all-C-USA everything Jessica Kuster. The sophomore became just the third freshman in league history to be named to an All-C-USA first team. She was also an easy selection for Freshman of the Year and All-Defensive Team. Kuster will rely on 5-0 point guard D'Frantz Smart to be the floor general.

SMU

Senior Christine Elliott has played in the shadow of SMU standout post players for the past three seasons, but this is her year to step forward. Elliott played behind Delisha Wills a year ago and averaged team highs of 10.5 ppg and 7.3 rpg. With opponents focusing more on the 6-2 post this season coach Rhonda Rompola must get consistent play from guards Samantha Mahnesmith and Alisha Filmore, as well as forward Akil Simpson. Simpson has great upside and can relieve the pressure on Elliott with her strong rebounding skills.

SOUTHERN MISS

If a coach could make a wish, Southern Miss' Joye Lee-McNelis would wish for a single season without an injury. Returning to the court is a healthy senior forward Rachel Vigers. She would have arguably been the most dominant post player in the league if she wasn't sidelined with a broken hand during conference play last season. The senior was still able to average 16.4 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. However, Mc-Nelis has plenty of talent in playmaker Jamierra Faulkner and junior college transfers Tanecka Carey, Ance Celmina and Sedreka Plummer.

TULANE

Tulane will look different this year due to the graduation of Danielle Nunn, Roshanda Barnes and Tiffany Aidoo. However, don't count out the Green Wave, a program that has appeared in the last two C-USA Championship games. What remains in tack is the tradition of success at Tulane. This year's team will be turned over to junior guard Olivia Grayson and senior post Brett Benzio. The duo ranked among the league's top 10 in assists and rebounds, respectively, a year ago.

TULSA

Four starters and three of the team's top scorers from a year ago return for first-year head coach Matilda Mossman. Leading this core of players is junior guard Taleya Mayberry who averaged a team-best in points (15.0), assists (3.1) and steals (3.0). For the Golden Hurricane to move up in the conference standings, Mayberry must get help from the nine returning letterwinners and four newcomers. Mossman has already landed the fourth-best mid-major recruiting class 2012 according to ESPN.com.

UAB

With nearly every key player who was a part of last season's WBI championship team back in the fold, head coach Audra Smith expects her team to improve on its 20-15 season from a year ago. UAB is a defense-first team, and the speed and intensity with which it plays causes chaos. The Blazers won the turnover battle by 3.29 per game last season, and set conference records for fewest points allowed in overall (55.3) and C-USA (56.1) games. However, offense will be a spotlight for the program as five of its top scorers return, including 2011 leader Amber Jones.

UCF

With two of the last three C-USA Tournament trophies sitting in head coach Joi Williams' trophy case, the Knights look to add another following their preseason No. 3 ranking. Williams must replace her top two scorers from last year's 22-11 squad but she is excited about the return of All-C-USA Preseason selection Aisha Patrick. The 5-9 senior guard is the top returning scorer, rebounder and assist distributor for UCF. With the addition of four freshman and assistant coach Bob Starkey on the sideline, the Knights have the making of a memorable season.

UTEP

Coach Keitha Adams handed last year's team to freshman point guard Kelli Willingham, who showed great potential. Pairing a more experienced Willingham with C-USA Newcomer and Sixth Player of the Year Gloria Brown and the addition of high school All-American Janzel Nash means the Miners will again have a strong shot at a C-USA title.

C-USA IS SET TO OPEN ITS 17TH SEASON

On Nov. 12, Conference USA will begin its 17th season of women's basketball. The 2011-12 campaign is expected to be one of the closest races in league history as eight programs return at least three starters and five teams welcome back four starters. Tulane leads both groups with four regular season and five tournament trophies. Six of the 12 programs have won the regular season title while seven have claimed tournament crowns. Over this time frame, the league has seen numerous teams participate in the NCAA, WNIT and WBI Championships.

UAB SET FOR PRESEASON WNIT

For the fourth consecutive year, Conference USA will have a team participating in the Preseason WNIT. UAB was selected this year, while UCF, UTEP and Tulane played in the event the prior three seasons. The Blazers will travel to play Chattanooga at McKenzie Arena in Chattanooga, Tenn., on Friday, Nov. 11. Game time is set for 6 p.m. CT. The 2011 Preseason WNIT follows a three-game guarantee format involving 16 teams from 16 different conferences that are included by invitation only. All games are hosted by participating schools. The Blazers are coming off its first 20-win campaign since the 2000-01 season. UAB returns six players who started at least 14 games for the 2010-11 team that went 20-15 overall and won the Women's Basketball Invitational postseason tournament.

HOUSTON OUT TO DEFEND TITLE

After becoming just the second program in league history to march through the C-USA regular season schedule undefeated (16-0), Houston will face a different challenge in 2011-12. The Cougars welcome eight newcomers to a program that won 26 games (26-6), captured the C-USA regular season title, was ranked among the Top 25 and played in the 2011 NCAA Tournament. Houston is one of seven teams in the league that will have five or more new faces on the court this season. Leading those newbie's will be senior guard Porsche Landry. The Houston native earned All-Conference USA first team honors a year ago after averaging 14.8 points per game. She is one of only four Cougars all-time with 1,000 points (1,015) and 300 assists (335). UTEP was the first program to go undefeated in league play in 2008.

TULSA WELCOMES NEW COACH

Tulsa welcomed a new women's basketball coach to its program on March 22, 2011. Since that time, Matilda Mossman has talked about a change in attitude, a change in work ethic and a change in expectations. She not only brings a refreshing excitement to the Tulsa program, but an abundance of coaching experience and success. Most recently she was prep coach in Oklahoma, after holding head coaching position at Arkansas and Kansas State. With more than 16 years of experience, Mossman has compiled a 341-148 record for a .697 winning percentage. She served as a collegiate coach for eight years, while coaching on the high school level for the last nine seasons.

CARTER AMONG LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS CANDIDATES

Memphis senior guard Brittany Carter was named as one of 30 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award women's basketball candidates. Carter, also the preseason C-USA Player of the Year, is a two-time first-team all-conference honoree. She holds Memphis' single game scoring record for both men's and women's teams after a 49-point outing at the University of Washington tournament in her sophomore season. That figure also tops the C-USA women's single game performance mark. The CLASS (Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School) Award honors senior student-athletes in four areas: community, classroom, character and competition.

MEMPHIS GAINS INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Memphis, the Conference USA Preseason favorites, used a 10-day trip to Italy in August to jump start the 2011-12 season. The Tigers return four starters and eight letterwinners from last year's 21-13 squad. Last year, the Tigers put their second straight 20-plus win season in the books and qualified for the WNIT for the first time since 2003-04. Memphis closed out the 2011 Italian road trip with a flawless 4-0 record with exhibition wins over Rome All-Stars, All-Stars from Europe, Italian Professional Squad and Slammers All-Star Team. While in Italy, the team was able to visit Rome, Vatican City, Florence, Mestre (just outside Venice) and Lake Como.

WE ARE C-USA

Conference USA was formed in 1995 and quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences. The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner on April 24, 1995 in Chicago. The league's charter members included Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, Houston, Louisville, Marquette, Memphis, Saint Louis, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB and USF. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996.

The league's headquarters were established in Chicago and after nine years, relocated to the current office in Irving, Texas. Britton Banowsky was named Commissioner in October 2002, succeeding Mike Slive, the league's first commissioner.

C-USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB began football play in 1999. The league added TCU and ECU (1999) for all sports and they began competition in 2001. USF started C-USA football in 2003.

After celebrating its 10th Anniversary during the 2004-05 season, C-USA began a new chapter in 2005-06 when its current membership came together to form the new look of the league.

Since its formation, C-USA has established a strong foundation, an identity and a history that reflects the league's national presence. Eleven years of remarkable history has reinforced the league's position in collegiate athletics, setting the course for the next decade and beyond.
