OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

AMANDA MARTORANA, UCF
Senior, F, Middleburg, Fla.

Martorana had the best match of her career during Friday's Senior Night match by scoring two goals for the first time in four years as a Knight in a 6-0 win over Southern Miss. She also chipped in two assists for a six-point evening. She opened the day by assisting on Kacie Horner's goal in the 14th minute, then scored twice before halftime as UCF held a 4-0 lead at the break. Martorana added her second assist on UCF's fifth goal en route to the win. She finished with nine shots, placing four on net. Martorana now has four goals and seven assists for 15 points this year. This is Martorana's first career C-USA Player of the Week award.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

LEXA HUGHES, MARSHALL
Freshman, GK, Everett, Wash.

Hughes grabbed her fourth shutout of the season, and the team's seventh, as the Thundering Herd earned a 1-0 double-overtime victory against East Carolina Thursday to send Marshall to its first Conference USA tournament. Hughes came up big with two diving saves, the first with 10:15 left in the opening stanza on a shot by Chrissy Gratz and the second to stop a breakaway with time winding down in regulation. Hughes ended the night with six saves keeping the Pirates scoreless through 105:43 of play. This is the first C-USA Defensive Player of the Week honor of her career.

UCF & MEMPHIS TO MEET IN C-USA FINAL

Top-seeds UCF and Memphis both advanced to Sunday's C-USA Women's Soccer Championship with shutout victories in the semis. It sets up a rematch of the 2009 title game, which the Tigers won to claim their third consecutive C-USA crown.

November 3-7 • Hosted by UCF

Sunday's championship games will feature the two winningest programs in C-USA, and among the Top 20 nationally, over the last four years. UCF and Memphis seniors have combined for 122 victories during their careers, with each team making three-straight NCAA appearances. The championship will begin at 2 p.m. EST at the UCF Soccer Complex and will be televised live on CBS College Sports. Complete coverage will also be available on www.ConferenceUSA.com, including live GameTracker stats, photos and game recaps.

Semifinal #1 – (2) Memphis 1, (3) Houston 0

ORLANDO, Fla. – No. 2 seed Memphis will be making its fourth-straight appearance in the C-USA title game after advancing with a 1-0 semifinal victory over No. 3 seed Houston Friday at the UCF Soccer Complex.

Memphis freshman Christabel Oduro headed the ball in off a corner from C-USA Midfielder of the Year Vendula Strnadova in the 52nd minute to give the three-time defending C-USA tournament champions their return trip to the finals.

“This is the conference championship and we’re playing a lot of injured kids,” Memphis head coach Brooks Monaghan said. “You have to make them think about how many chances they get. We’re playing for a fourth-straight championship and that rarely happens on any level.”

All-Conference USA second-team goalkeeper Cami Koski made five saves for the Cougars.

“They played great individual defense on us all night and they had great team speed,” Houston head coach and C-USA Coach of the Year Susan Bush said. “If we beat one of their players, then another one would be right there. Lizzy Simonin did a great job of covering. They did a good job of getting behind the ball early and that forced us to go backwards and made it harder to create a rhythm going forward. We had a great season though so we’re not disappointed.”

Semifinal #2 – (1) UCF 2, (4) SMU 0

ORLANDO – Top-seed and tournament host UCF got on the scoreboard early and held SMU scoreless for a 2-0 victory to advance the Knights to Sunday's C-USA title match.

UCF senior forward Kim Newsome took a ball at midfield and scored an unassisted goal at the 2:11 mark to give the Knights an early lead. It was Newsome's 10th goal of the season. Sophomore Nicolette Radovic added a goal in the 29th minute off a rebound from All-Conference first-team midfielder Katie Jackson.

“We scored an early goal and again that always helps,” UCF head coach Amanda Cromwell said. “We finished well in the first half. In the second half we were just as dangerous, but just couldn't finish and SMU came at us with a stronger attack. We were lucky that they did not put one in to make it a real interesting game. The goal for the second half was to make sure we kept the shutout. Overall I am very happy we got the win and that we are in the finals on Sunday.”

SMU junior goalkeeper Courtney Webb, who came up big for the Mustangs in Wednesday's quarterfinal match with Rice, registered seven saves on the night. Her team was also credited with a stop.

2010 NCAA RPI

Seven Conference USA teams are among the NCAA's Top 100 based on Ratings Percentage Index (RPI). A total of 322 NCAA Division I teams were ranked in the RPI report issued by the NCAA on Tuesday, November 2:
