This Week's Game:

Fri., March 4
 Notre Dame at Michigan State, 7:05 p.m.

The CCHA TV Schedule is on page 6.

CCHA ESSENTIAL - "Need to know" items from this week in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association.

Alaska Fairbanks-The Nanooks, who split with in-state rival Alaska Anchorage earlier in the season, play host to the Seawolves this weekend to complete regular-season play with the Alaska Airlines Governor's Cup on the line. UAF has captured the Cup six times in 11 years, including the past three.

Bowling Green- The Falcons, with Friday's 2-1 win over Michigan State, clinched home-ice advantage in the playoffs for the first time since 1995 and also guaranteed themselves a winning record in conference play for the first time since the 1995-96 season.

Ferris State- Northern Michigan swept Ferris State at Ewingleben Ice Arena to leave the Bulldogs with a 2-9-2 record at home in conference games. It marked the third time they've been swept at home in conference play this season.

Lake Superior- Lake Superior State still has a mathematical chance to secure the sixth and final home-ice playoff berth. For that to happen, LSSU would need to sweep NMU in this week's home-and-home series, have Ohio State sweep Miami and Notre Dame take two from Michigan State.

Miami- The RedHawks, who were 4-8-2 at the halfway point of their conference schedule, have gone 7-4-1 in their past dozen conference starts to put themselves in contention for the sixth and final home-ice playoff berth with two games remaining.

Michigan- The Wolverines, who meet Bowling Green in a home-and-home series this weekend, have a chance to go undefeated in cluster play. They finished 4-0-0 against Notre Dame, 2-0-2 versus Michigan State and have already beaten the Falcons twice.

Michigan State-Jim Slater, with three assists on Saturday, moved past Lyle Phair (1981-85) and into 29th place on MSU's all-time scoring list with 61 goals and 161 points. Slater needs three more points to vault ahead of Danton Cole (1985-89) and Gord Flegel (1981-85) for sole possession of the 27th position.

Nebraska-Omaha- Freshman forward Bryan Marshall, who recorded just the fourth hat trick in Mavericks history in Saturday's 7-2 victory over visiting Alaska Fairbanks, leads the team with five game-winning goals and a pair of game-tying tallies on the season.

Northern Michigan- Junior forward Dirk Southern scored his sixth game-winning goal of the season on Saturday as the Wildcats completed their first road sweep of the campaign with a 6-3 victory at Ferris State. He's tied with Brett Hemingway of New Hampshire for the national lead in game-winning markers.

Notre Dame- The Irish, 0-13-2 in the past 15 games, need to win one end of a home-and-home series with Michigan State to avoid tying or setting the record for longest winless streak in team history. The club went 16 games (0-14-2) without a victory during the 1988-89 campaign.

Ohio State- The Buckeyes lead the CCHA in power-play percentage and penalty-killing efficiency in both conference and overall play. Their power-play numbers (59-for-246, 24 percent) and penalty-killing figures (226-for-260, 86.9 percent) rank fifth-best in the nation in both categories.

Western Michigan- Vince Bellissimo turned in one of the more spectacular performances of the season on Saturday in a 3-2 win over LSSU. With his team trailing 2-0 with under 12 minutes left in regulation time, the junior forward struck for back-to-back goals in a span of three minutes and 45 seconds. Bellissimo then completed his second hat trick of the season by scoring an unassisted game-winning goal just 12 seconds into overtime.

CCHA- The possibility exists for a four-way tie for sixth place in the final regular-season standings. However, only three teams: Lake Superior State, Miami and Michigan State, remain in the hunt for the final home-ice playoff spot. See page 2 of this release for CCHA tie-breaking details.

CCHA Tie-Breaking Procedure

The following is excerpted directly from the official CCHA Rules and Regulations:

The CCHA Championship Trophy shall be awarded, and positions for the CCHA Tournament determined, according to the following procedure:

a) The recipient of the CCHA Championship Trophy and first-place ranking for the CCHA Tournament shall be determined by the greater number of CCHA regular-season wins;

b) If not determined by (a), the recipient of the CCHA Championship Trophy and first-place ranking for the CCHA Tournament shall be the team with the best regular-season winning percentage against the other co-champion(s);

c) If not determined by (a) or (b), the recipient of the CCHA Championship Trophy and first-place ranking for the CCHA Tournament shall be determined by comparison of total goals for and against each team in contests between (among) co-champion(s) in regular-season play;

d) If not determined by (a) or (b) or (c), the recipient of the CCHA Championship Trophy and first-place ranking for the CCHA Tournament shall be determined by comparison of the winning percentages of the co-champions against the remaining highest ranked CCHA teams, successively, until the determination is accomplished or all CCHA regular-season contests have been considered;

e) If not determined by (a) or (b) or (c) or (d), the recipient of the CCHA Championship Trophy and first place ranking for the CCHA Tournament shall be determined by the flip of a coin.

In the case of ties among three or more schools, the criteria will be used in order until a team, or teams, is separated from the pack. At that point, the process will begin anew to break the "new" tie. In other words, when a four-way tie becomes a three-way tie, the three-way tie is treated as a "new" tie and the process begins with the first criterion.

To determine a ranking other than first place, simply replace the phrase "first-place ranking" and "co-champions" in the tie-breaking procedure with the standings position (i.e. second-place finisher(s), third-place finishers(s), etc..) that needs to be determined.

Example 'A'

UM and OSU finish tied for first place with 21-5-2 records.

They are equal in conference wins (a), regular-season winning percentage against one another, .500 (b) and goals for/against, seven (c). The tie is broken by winning percentage against the remaining, ranked CCHA teams, starting with third-place NMU. UM went 1-1-0 (.500) while OSU when 2-0-0 (1.000) against NMU, so OSU receives the number-one seed.

Example 'B'

BGSU and UNO finish tied for fourth place with 13-11-4 records for 30 points. Conference wins are equal (13) but BGSU wins the second tie-breaker by virtue of a win and a tie against UNO in the regular season for a .750 winning percentage against UNO.

Example 'C'

UAF, LSSU, MIA and MSU all finish tied for 6th place with 25 points.

UAF	11-14-3	LSSU	9-12-7	MIA	11-14-3	MSU	11-14-3
-----	---------	------	--------	-----	---------	-----	---------

LSSU is separated from the pack and receives the ninth seed. The tie-breaking process starts anew among UAF, MIA and MSU.

Their winning percentages in games involving one another are as follows:

UAF	.500 (2-2 record)	MIA	.750 (3-1 record)	MSU	.250 (1-3 record)
-----	-------------------	-----	-------------------	-----	-------------------

MIA receives the sixth seed by virtue of the best winning percentage. The tie-breaking process for the seventh seed starts anew between UAF and MSU.

UAF receives the seventh seed by virtue of going 2-0 (1.000 winning percentage) against MSU in regular-season play.

WHERE THEY CAN FINISH

Michigan – First or second

Ohio State – First or second

Players of the Week

Offensive

Andrew Contois, NMU Jr., F (Marquette, MI)
Contois (4-1-5, +1) fired four goals in Saturday's 6-3 win at FSU after registering an assist in Friday's 5-2 victory.

Defenseman

Ryan Mahrle, WMU So. (Troy, MI)
Mahrle (0-2-2, +3) collected an assist each night and was +1 on Friday and +2 on Saturday as the Broncos split with visiting LSSU.

Goaltender

Tuomas Tarkki, NMU Sr. (Rauma, Finland)
Tarkki blocked 64-of-69 shots (.927), including 37 in a Perani Cup first-star performance on Friday, as the 'Cats took two games at Ferris.

Rookie

Bryan Marshall, UNO F (Livonia, MI)
Marshall scored in Friday's 6-4 loss to UAF before recording a hat trick, including his fifth game-winning goal, on Saturday in a 7-2 victory.

CCHA Notable Performers

Vince Bellissimo, WMU, JR, F (Toronto, ON): Bellissimo (3-1-4, +2) had an assist in Friday's loss to LSSU and then scored all three goals, including the overtime winner, in Saturday's 3-2 decision.

Brett Pilkington, BGSU, JR, F (Calgary, AB): Pilkington assisted on the winning goal in Friday's 2-1 victory over MSU before adding a goal and another helper in Saturday's 6-3 loss to the Spartans.

Derek Nesbitt, FSU, SR, F (Egmondville, ON): Nesbitt scored twice in Saturday's 6-3 loss to NMU after assisting on a goal in Friday's 5-2 setback against the Wildcats.

Jim McKenzie, MSU, FR, F (Woodbury, MN): McKenzie scored his team's lone goal in Friday's 2-1 loss at BGSU before contributing a goal and an assist to Saturday's 6-3 win over the Falcons.

Jason Grinevitch, UAF, SR, F (Glendon, AB): Grinevitch set up four goals in Friday's 6-4 victory at UNO and added another helper in Saturday's 7-2 loss to the Mavericks.

Mike Santorelli, NMU, FR, F (Burnaby, BC): Santorelli scored twice in Friday's 5-2 win and set up two goals in Saturday's 6-3 victory as the Wildcats swept at Ferris State.

Daniel Bellissimo, WMU, FR, G (Toronto, ON): Bellissimo blocked 49-of-54 shots (.907) in a week-end split with LSSU, including 24 in Saturday's 3-2 victory.

Matt Restoule, LSSU, SO, F (Val Caron, ON): Restoule scored the winning goal in Friday's 3-2 victory at WMU, added an assist in Saturday's 3-2 loss and was +3 in the split.

Joe Grimaldi, UNO, FR, D (Ronkinkoma, NY): Grimaldi, who leads the CCHA with a +24 rating in conference play, picked up an assist and was +2 each night as the Mavericks split with visiting UAF.

Drew Miller, MSU, SO, F (East Lansing, MI): Miller produced his first career four-point game with two goals and two assists in Saturday's 6-3 victory over BGSU.

Geoff Waugh, NMU, JR, D (Winnipeg, MB): Waugh was +3 on Friday and +1 on Saturday as the Wildcats posted their first road sweep of the season at Ferris.

Jeff Legue, FSU, SR, F (Cornwall, ON): Legue scored his team-leading 20th goal of the season and added two assists in Saturday's 6-3 loss to NMU.

THIS WEEK'S MATCHUPS

Thursday & Saturday

NEBRASKA-OMAHA VS MINNESOTA STATE (HOME-AND-HOME)

The Mavs will battle Minnesota State University this week for the "Spirit of the Mavericks" trophy. Nebraska-Omaha hosts MSU on Thursday at the Qwest Center before traveling to Mankato for a game at the Midwest Wireless Center on Saturday. MSU leads the all-time series, 7-5-2. Nebraska-Omaha will look to snap a five-game winless streak (0-4-1) against Mankato. UNO's last victory came on February 28, 2002 in a 4-2 win in Omaha.

Friday & Saturday

MICHIGAN VS BOWLING GREEN (HOME-AND-HOME)

The Falcons welcome George McPhee and Brian Holzinger back to BGSU Ice Arena on Friday to present them with rings for winning the Hobey Baker Award. The Wolverines own a 23-16-3 all-time record at Bowling Green and haven't lost there since Dec. 3, 1999. UM has won the last six meetings, including a home-and-home set in December, by the combined score of 32-16 and are 8-1-1 in the last 10 meetings. The last win for BGSU over Michigan was Jan. 25, 2002, by the score of 4-2 at Yost Ice Arena, where the teams meet on Saturday. Michigan's T.J. Hensick has 4-6-10 in four career games against the Falcons while senior Milan Gajic has an identical line in 10 games.

FERRIS STATE VS WESTERN MICHIGAN (HOME-AND-HOME)

Western Michigan has a 61-34-6 all-time series lead over Ferris State. The Broncos beat the Bulldogs, 5-3, at Kalamazoo on Dec. 3, but Ferris registered a 6-2 win at Big Rapids in the rematch the next night. Senior forwards Derek Nesbitt, with 7-5-12, and Jeff Legue, with 7-4-11, are Ferris' top career points leaders against WMU in 13 outings each. Senior goalie Mike Brown sports a 6-4-0 mark with a 2.62 goals-against average and a .900 save percentage in 11 appearances.

LAKE SUPERIOR VS NORTHERN MICHIGAN (HOME-AND-HOME)

Each club won at home earlier in the season when they began their four-game set for the Father Cappelletti Cup. The Lakers took the opener, 3-1, on Nov. 26 while the Wildcats' 3-0 win in the rematch was the second of the Lakers' three shutout losses in CCHA play this season. This is the second time this season that LSSU and NMU will be playing each other while students are on break. The November series was held during Thanksgiving recess and the final regular-season series occurs during spring break. This will wrap up what has been a hotly contested cluster in 2004-05. Alaska Fairbanks (5-4-3) leads the season series with 13 points, followed by Northern Michigan (5-4-1) and Nebraska-Omaha (5-6-1) with 11 points each. Lake Superior State (3-4-3) has nine. The Lakers are 3-3-1 in their past seven starts against the Wildcats since ending a nine-game losing streak against them.

MIAMI VS OHIO STATE (HOME-AND-HOME)

The rivalry partners, both coming off byes, meet in Oxford, Ohio, on Friday and Columbus on Saturday to close out the regular season. Ohio State swept a home-and-home series earlier this season, with a 9-3 win in Columbus on Oct. 21 and a 2-1 victory in Oxford on Oct. 22. Junior forward Rod Pelley led OSU with five points and three goals in the series, while freshmen forwards Domenic Maiani and Matt McIlvane each had four points in the series. All-time, Ohio State leads the series with the RedHawks, 53-46-6, with a 33-14-3 ledger in Columbus and a 30-17-3 mark in Oxford.

MICHIGAN STATE VS NOTRE DAME (HOME-AND-HOME)

The last regular-season conference win by the Irish came against the Spartans back on Dec. 10 at the Joyce Center. Overall, Notre Dame is winless in 15 games (0-13-2) with their last victory coming on Jan. 2 over Rensselaer. MSU holds a 51-31-8 edge in the all-time series, including a 9-3-3 mark in the last 15 meetings. At Munn Ice Arena, site of Friday's 7:05 start to be televised by FSN Detroit, the Spartans are 18-2-1 in their last 21 meetings against the Irish. Saturday's game back in Notre Dame is also a 7:05 start and will be televised by Comcast Local. Senior forward Ash Goldie notched a hat trick in MSU's 4-1 home-ice win over ND on Dec. 11. That came one night after Matt Amado had scored in overtime for a 3-2 Irish win after defenseman Wes O'Neill had tied the game with an extra-attacker marker with 1:19 left in the third period.

ALASKA ANCHORAGE AT ALASKA FAIRBANKS

These in-state rivals have squared off 11 straight years for the Alaska Airlines Governor's Cup with UAF winning on six occasions, including the last three times. Last year, the Nanooks defended their Division I hockey supremacy in the Last Frontier by winning in a shootout after the teams split the four games. The Cup has been decided by a penalty-shot competition on four occasions, with the Nanooks winning three times, including the first Governor's Cup series in 1994. The battle for the Cup has been a battle of streaks. After the Nanooks won in 1994, UAA captured the next three Cups. Each team then took a pair, starting with UAF, before the Nanooks began their current streak. Earlier this season, the Seawolves won 5-2 on Oct. 22 but the Nanooks held them to just 21 shots in posting a 6-0 victory the next night as freshman Wylie Rogers posted his first career shutout.

College Hockey Breakaway Weekend Provides Unprecedented Conference Tourney Coverage

Unprecedented comprehensive coverage of multiple NCAA Division I collegiate hockey conference tournaments is planned for March 18-19 on FSN regional networks, DirectTV, Fox College Sports and additional affiliates.

Branded as COLLEGE HOCKEY BREAKAWAY WEEKEND, the coverage consists of live semifinal and championship game telecasts from the CCHA and WCHA tournaments, plus continuous in-game updates from other leagues' post-season events. The weekend's action determines which schools in various regions break away from the pack to earn bids into the NCAA Tournament.

The live games on COLLEGE HOCKEY BREAKAWAY WEEKEND originate from Detroit's Joe Louis Arena, site of the CCHA Super 6, and the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul, host facility of the WCHA Final Five. Start times among the two tournaments are staggered to allow for wraparound coverage of all semifinal and championship games.

Before, during and after games, the studio-based Tournament Desk provides highlights and updates from games in progress at the other conference tournaments taking place that weekend, including Hockey East, ECAC Hockey League and the Atlantic Hockey Association.

COLLEGE HOCKEY BREAKAWAY WEEKEND is a collaborative effort among FSN Detroit (originator of CCHA games), FSN North (WCHA games) and FSN Rocky Mountain (Tournament Desk). Those three regional networks are scheduled to air both days' coverage in its entirety. FSN Detroit viewers will see CCHA games from start to finish; when those games are not in progress, they will see the beginning or conclusion of WCHA contests. The opposite will host true for viewers of FSN North and FSN Rocky Mountain, who will receive WCHA Tournament games in their entirety, supplemented by CCHA coverage.

Other FSN regional networks confirmed to carry portions of the two-day coverage include: FSN Chicago, FSN Ohio, FSN New England, FSN New York and FSN South. More regional networks may be added in the near future. Based on current confirmations, COLLEGE HOCKEY BREAKAWAY WEEKEND will go to approximately 40 million households served by the participating regional sports networks. Additionally, COLLEGE HOCKEY BREAKAWAY WEEKEND is available nationally to DirectTV Sports Pack subscribers and to subscribers of Fox College Sports, which will program all of the CCHA and WCHA games between its Atlantic and Central feeds, respectively. Also joining the COLLEGE HOCKEY BREAKAWAY WEEKEND networks is Leafs TV (Ontario, Canada) and KFX-TV (FOX Broadcasting affiliate in Fairbanks, Alaska).

RADIO SHOW RETURNS THIS WEEK

The CCHA's radio show, hosted by Fred Pletsch, will air live each Friday on AM 1270 The Sports Station from 9:00-9:30 p.m. The show will also be available each Wednesday on ccha.com. This week's tentative lineup includes:

- WMU junior forward Vince Bellissimo
- BGSU alum Garry Galley
- OSU head coach John Markell
- WMU head coach Jim Culhane

IS ON FSN DETROIT

CCHA Weekly will continue to air on Fridays at 7 p.m. All programs re-air Saturdays at 11:30 a.m. and Mondays at 6:30 p.m.

2005 CCHA Tournament Bracket

CCHA Tournament Format/Tie-breakers

The CCHA Tournament begins with all 12 teams seeded based on the final regular-season standings. The top-six seeds will host a first-round, best-of-three series. The winners of the six first-round series will then advance to Joe Louis Arena for the CCHA Super Six Championship where they will be re-seeded based upon their regular-season finish. The top two remaining seeds will receive quarterfinal-round byes while the No. 3 seed will face the No. 6 seed and the No. 4 seed will take on the No. 5 seed. The lowest seed to advance from the quarterfinals will take on the No. 1 seed in the semifinals, while the No. 2 seed will play the other remaining team. The winners will then advance on to the CCHA Championship Game while the semifinal losers will play a third-place game prior to the championship contest. The winner of the CCHA Tournament will receive the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament and the Ron Mason Cup.

ALASKA FAIRBANKS

Head Coach: Tavis MacMillan (1st Season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 12-15-3
2004-05 Conference Record: 11-14-3

The Nanooks captured their first Friday night road win of the season with a 6-4 win at Nebraska-Omaha, but saw their home-ice playoff hopes disappear with a 7-2 defeat on Saturday. Despite splitting the series in Omaha, UAF was 3-1 against the Mavericks on the season. The Nanooks have finished CCHA regular-season play against UNO in three out of the last four years, with a 3-2-1 record in six meetings. SR F Jared Sylvestre had two goals and an assist against the 'Mavs to improve his team-leading points against UNO to 8-7-15 in 14 games. With four assists in Friday's victory, SR F Jason Grinevitch reached his career high for assists in a season with 13 and then surpassed his point total from last season with a helper in Saturday's game. He now has 3-14-17. UAF closes out the regular season at home by hosting Alaska Anchorage in the second leg of the Alaska Airlines Governor's Cup. The competition is in its 11th year, with UAF winning on six occasions, including the last three Cups. Last year, UAF won the Governor's Cup in a shootout after the teams split the four games. The Cup has been decided in a shootout on four occasions, with the Nanooks winning three times, including the first Governor's Cup series in 1994. Earlier this season in Anchorage, UAA took the first encounter, 5-2, but UAF rebounded with a 6-0 shutout in the rematch. FR G Wylie Rogers stopped all 21 shots to earn his first collegiate shutout while six different 'Nooks notched markers in the Saturday night win.

THEY SAID IT...

"This is a huge weekend coming up and we've got to move on. As much as we put an emphasis on our season, the Governor's Cup is always a goal for us. We've won it the last three years and we want to take it again." - UAF head coach Tavis MacMillan.

FERRIS STATE

Head Coach: Bob Daniels (13th season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 11-19-4
2004-05 Conference Record: 6-16-4

Northern Michigan swept Ferris State at Ewingleben Ice Arena to leave the Bulldogs with a 2-9-2 record at home in conference games this season. SR F Derek Nesbitt has compiled 5-7-12 in his last eight outings, which includes four multi-point games. SO D Joe Van Culin's goal in Friday's 5-2 loss was his first in 17 games, since last scoring at Western Michigan on Dec. 3. He has a career-best 3-7-10 in 34 games this season compared to 1-2-3 in 20 games last season. Ferris State's top two points leaders this season, SR F Jeff Legue, with 20-14-34, and SR F Derek Nesbitt, with 13-18-31, have combined for 26.5% (65-of-245) of the squad's total point production. Legue is within three points of tying Steve Banonis (1977-81) and Jim File (1980-84) for 11th place among Ferris's all-time points leaders. Legue has 63-84-147 in 147 games. His 63 career goals tie him with Brian McCullough (1996-00) for 11th place on the Bulldogs' all-time goal-scoring list. Legue has accumulated 5-7-12 in the past nine games and has at least a point in 23 of his 32 appearances this season. JR F Greg Rallo has tallied a point in seven of his last eight games while totaling 4-3-7 during that span. Coach Bob Daniels is eight games away from coaching his 500th contest behind the Bulldogs' bench. Daniels is 206-246-40 in 13 seasons at Ferris State. FR F Adam Miller has posted 0-5-5 in his last four games after recording 2-4-6 in his previous 27 games.

THEY SAID IT...

"I feel like the goals we gave up were a direct result of us being sloppy with the puck and giving up opportune turnovers. The five-on-three really hurt us. All in all, we really didn't play poorly, it was a pretty evenly played game tonight. Our seniors played some pretty good hockey." - Coach Bob Daniels after Saturday's home loss to Northern Michigan which was FSU's Senior Night.

BOWLING GREEN

Head Coach: Scott Paluch (3rd season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 16-12-4
2004-05 Conference Record: 13-10-3

BGSU clinched home ice for the first round of the CCHA Playoffs with Friday's 2-1 victory over Michigan State. The home playoff series for the Falcons will be the first since March 10-11, 1995, when they swept Notre Dame. Former Falcons George McPhee (1982) and Brian Holzinger (1995) will be presented with rings to honor them as Hobey Baker Award winners during the first intermission of this Friday's game against Michigan. BGSU is one of just two CCHA schools, and seven schools in the nation, with multiple winners of the award that goes to college hockey's best player each season. BGSU's 16 wins are the most since the 2000-01 season (16-19-5). The 13 league victories are the most since the 1998-99 season (13-14-3). BGSU has clinched an overall regular-season and CCHA regular-season winning record for the first time since the 1995-96 season (26-14-1 overall, 18-11-1 CCHA). FR F's Jonathan Matsumoto (28 points) and Alex Foster (27 points) are looking to become just the ninth and 10th Falcon rookies to reach the 30-point plateau over the past 20 seasons. The last BGSU frosh to hit 30 points was Curtis Fry over a decade ago in 1993-94 (16-18-34). McPhee set the standard for BGSU rookies with 88 points in 1978-79. The 2,661 attendance average for the Falcons this year is the best since 1999-2000 (3,007 avg.). That's also the last time BGSU had three crowds of 4,000-plus. BGSU has 43 power-play goals in 215 opportunities (20.0 percent) this season, the most since 45 PPGs in 2000-01 (18.8 percent in 40 games).

THEY SAID IT...

"It was a significant goal for us. We talked at the start of the year about being home for the playoffs. It's been a long time, it's been too long since we've had home ice." - Coach Scott Paluch on securing home-ice advantage in the playoffs for the first time since 1995.

LAKE SUPERIOR

Head Coach: Frank Anzalone (12th season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 9-18-7
2004-05 Conference Record: 8-12-6

Lake Superior State still has a mathematical chance to secure the sixth and final home-ice playoff berth. For that to happen, LSSU would need to sweep NMU and have Ohio State sweep Miami and Notre Dame take two from Michigan State. The Lakers' third-period struggles continued at Western Michigan where they twice allowed two-goal leads to slip away but still managed a split. They have been outscored 41-16 in the third period this season and are 7-3-4 in games in which they have led after two periods. The Lakers have had two-goal leads in four of their last six games and are 2-1-1 in those contests. The Lakers' record in the opener of CCHA series play this season is 6-4-3, but their record in game two is 2-8-3. SO F Matt Restoule scored his second game-winning goal of the season in Friday's 3-2 win at WMU. He also had an assist in LSSU's 3-2 overtime loss. JR D Ren Fauci also had a goal and an assist for the weekend, while JR F Jon Booras contributed two assists. SR G Matt Violin improved his record to 4-3-3 after earning the win in relief on Friday. He took over for the starter, SO G Jeff Jakaitis, at 1:18 of the third period with the score tied 2-2 and stopped all 11 shots he faced. SR F Bo Cheesman, SR D Ryan Reid and Violin will be honored following Saturday's game after making their final appearance in a Lakers uniform at Taffy Abel Ice Arena. The starting time of Saturday's game in Sault Ste. Marie will be changed to 7:35 p.m. if the LSSU plays host to the GLIAC Women's Basketball Tournament finals. The GLIAC Tournament site will be determined after Tuesday's quarterfinal round.

THEY SAID IT...

"We went to the bullpen. Jeff has been having problems in the third period. He has to think positively. I took a gamble with putting Matt in, and it worked." - LSSU coach Frank Anzalone on why he pulled goaltender Jeff Jakaitis in favor of Matt Violin with the game tied 2-2 in the third period on Friday at Western Michigan.

Team notes

MIAMI

Head Coach: Enrico Blasi (6th Season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 15-15-4
2004-05 Conference Record: 11-12-3

Miami will enter the final weekend of the regular season with a .500 record overall after taking two games from Alaska Fairbanks on Feb. 18-19. The last time Miami was at .500 was on Oct. 30 with a 2-2-0 mark • In Miami's last three games it is 12-for-25 (.480) on the power play. The RedHawks' power play is scoring at a 21.2 percent clip on the season • Miami and Ohio State will play a home-and-home series to close out the regular season. They met twice earlier this year with the Buckeyes winning both games • Miami sits two points ahead of Michigan State, and three ahead of Lake Superior, in the race for home ice in the first round of the CCHA playoffs. They are the only two teams in the league that can catch the RedHawks. Miami's magic number on the Spartans is two, meaning any combination of Miami wins and MSU losses totaling two eliminates MSU from home-ice contention. Miami's magic number over LSSU is one. A Miami win and a tie would also eliminate the Spartans • SO F Marty Guerin has 3-7-10 points in the last five games • SO F Matt Christie has 4-5-9 in Miami's last four games and has turned the red light on in all four • JR D Andy Greene has 2-8-6 in Miami's last three games • Miami has won three straight CCHA games and two in a row on the road. Miami's longest league winning streak this season is four games and its longest league road-winning streak is three games.

THEY SAID IT...

"After the trip to UAF we needed the week off and now we know what we have to do. We have been playing some very good hockey over the past six weeks or so. It has been a great team effort each and every night and that is definitely what is going to take to get this thing done." - Enrico Blasi following the sweep at Fairbanks.

MICHIGAN STATE

Head Coach: Rick Comley (3rd season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 15-15-4
2004-05 Conference Record: 10-13-3

MSU, which carries a 10-13-3 conference slate into its final two regular-season games, has never finished the CCHA regular season with a losing record in its 23 seasons in the conference. The last time a Spartan squad has finished below .500 in conference play was in 1980-81, MSU's last season in the WCHA. State posted a 10th-place 7-20-1 WCHA mark • The Spartans' worst CCHA finish is fifth out of nine teams in 1990-91 when they went 14-13-5 • 1990-91 also marks the last time that State failed to host a first-round playoff and advance to the CCHA Championships at Joe Louis Arena. That season, the Spartans were swept at Western Michigan (4-3 and 4-2) in the first round of the playoffs • JR F Colton Fretter collected his 10th multiple-point game of the season and tied a career-high with a goal and two assists in Saturday's 6-3 win over BGSU. Fretter has collected three points three other times this season, his last three-point performance coming on Jan. 15, 2005 at Western Michigan • SO F Drew Miller also had a career-high four points (two goals, two assists) against the Falcons. Miller broke his previous record of three points at Western Michigan on Jan. 15, 2005, where he scored a hat trick • FR F Jim McKenzie continues to roll for the Spartans. The Woodbury, Minn., native tallied a goal each night against Bowling Green to give him seven goals in the last seven games. The Spartans are 2-8 in one-goal games this season, including Friday's 2-1 loss at Bowling Green. Four of State's last five losses have been by one goal, including a pair of one-goal games at Alaska Fairbanks on Feb. 11-12 and at Western Michigan on Jan. 14.

THEY SAID IT...

"Our performance was great tonight. We needed our big-time players to step up, and that is why I put (Drew) Miller, (Colton) Fretter and (Jim) Slater together. Drew has had a great season. He went a little flat recently, probably from being tired, but he obviously played outstanding tonight. His goal to tie the game was huge." - Rick Comley following Saturday's 6-3 win over BGSU.

MICHIGAN

Head Coach: Red Berenson (21st season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 24-7-3
2004-05 Conference Record: 21-3-2

Four of Michigan's six U.S. NTDP alumni tallied points against their former team. SO D Matt Hunwick led the charge with three assists, SO F T.J. Hensick had two assists, FR F Kevin Porter had one goal and one assist, and FR F Chad Kolarik had one helper. SR F Eric Nystrom and SO F Mike Brown did not record points • The U-18 Team has four players that have signed National Letters of Intent to play for Michigan in 2005-06. Forwards Zac MacVoy and Jason Bailey and defensemen Jack Johnson and Mark Mitera will suit up for the Wolverines next season. Johnson had one goal and one assist against his future team • The Wolverines can clinch their ninth CCHA regular-season title next weekend if they win one game in a home-and-home set with Bowling Green or if Miami takes two points from Ohio State in a home-and-home series. U-M holds a three-point lead over the Buckeyes with both squads having two games left in regular-season play • Michigan is playing its final two games against a member of its cluster, Bowling Green. Through 10 games against its clustermates, U-M is 8-0-2. The Wolverines swept all four games against Notre Dame, went 2-0-2 versus Michigan State and took two games from the Falcons in the previous weekend series in December.

THEY SAID IT...

"We definitely had a good third period and we started to play harder. It's a week we otherwise wouldn't have had a game and I think this game was good for us. Some players need to play better, and overall I think it was good for our team." - Coach Red Berenson on taking positives away from Saturday's 6-5 win over the U.S. NTDP.

NEBRASKA-OMAHA

Head Coach: Mike Kemp (8th season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 17-13-4
2004-05 Conference Record: 13-11-4

For the first time since the 2001-2002 season, Nebraska-Omaha clinched home ice for the opening round of the CCHA Playoffs. The Mavs, currently in fourth place in the CCHA, can finish no lower than fifth in the regular-season standings • UNO snapped a three-game losing streak to UAF with a 7-2 victory on Saturday night. The Mavs tied a season-high for goals and also had a season-high 40 shots on goal • FR F Bryan Marshall scored his first career hat trick on Saturday night and the fourth in program history. The Livonia, Mich., native leads the team with five game-winning tallies and two game-tying goals. Marshall notched all three of UNO's power-play goals on the weekend • SO F Scott Parse, with 18-28-46, needs one more point to tie the UNO single season scoring record • FR F Bill Thomas and SO F Alex Nikiforuk each scored a shorthanded goal for UNO over the weekend, giving UNO a school record 10 "shorties" for the year • Thomas is the first rookie in the country to reach 40 points this year • Parse and Thomas became the first duo at UNO to achieve 40 points in a season • UNO will battle Minnesota State University this week for the "Spirit of the Mavericks" trophy. Nebraska-Omaha will host MSU on Thursday at the Qwest Center before traveling to Mankato for a game at the Midwest Wireless Center on Saturday. MSU leads the all-time series, 7-5-2. Nebraska-Omaha will look to snap a five-game winless streak (0-4-1) to Mankato. UNO's last victory came on February 28, 2002 in a 4-2 win in Omaha.

THEY SAID IT...

"It felt great. They seem to outwork us a lot, but tonight we'd had enough." - Sophomore goalie Chris Holt following UNO's 7-2 victory on Saturday over visiting UAF.

NORTHERN MICHIGAN

Head Coach: Walt Kyle (3rd season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 18-9-7
2004-05 Conference Record: 15-7-4

The Wildcats earned their first road sweep of the season with 5-2 and 6-3 wins at Ferris State on the weekend. NMU is now 40-15-2 all-time against the Bulldogs and 16-6-2 in Big Rapids • The 11 goals represent the most scored in a weekend road series this season for NMU • The 'Cats are on their third three-game winning streak of the season • NMU is 4-0-2 in the past six games and 5-1-2 in the past eight • JR F Andrew Contois notched his first career hat trick and added another marker for a four-goal game on Saturday. JR F Dirk Southern scored and assisted on all four of Contois's goals for his first career five-point game • Contois is riding a six-game point streak in which he's produced 6-3-9. Fifteen of his 17 goals this season have come in conference action. He's established career highs in goals, assists (15) and points (32) • SO F Darin Olver has 3-6-9 during a career-high five-game point streak • SR G Tuomas Tarkki, the first star of Friday's win with 37 saves, continues to lead the CCHA, and ranks 10th in the nation with a 2.00 goals-against average outhern is tied with Brett Hemingway of New Hampshire for the national lead with six game-winning goals • FR F Mike Santorelli had a four-point weekend with two goals and two assists. He is seventh in CCHA scoring by rookies • This week the 'Cats conclude the regular season with a home-and-home slate against their other U.P. rival, Lake Superior State. The winner will receive the Cappel Cup. The two teams split earlier in the season, with each team winning at home.

THEY SAID IT...

"This game was all about goaltending. We got a great performance from ours, and Ferris didn't." - Coach Walt Kyle following Friday's 5-2 win at FSU in which the Bulldogs outshot the Wildcats, 39-15.

OHIO STATE

Head Coach: John Markell (10th season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 23-8-3
2004-05 Conference Record: 20-5-1

The Buckeyes close out regular-season and cluster play this weekend with a home-and-home series against Miami. OSU is 8-2 against teams in its cluster this year (2-0 versus Miami, 3-1 versus Ferris State and Western Michigan). Miami is second with a 4-5-1 ledger, followed by Western Michigan at 4-6 and Ferris State at 3-6-1 • Friday's contest closes out Ohio Cup competition among OSU, MIA and BGSU. The Buckeyes already have clinched the title with a 3-0 record, however. It is the fifth Ohio Cup title for the Buckeyes in the 24 years of the competition. OSU last claimed the title in 2003 • The Buckeyes lead the CCHA in penalty killing and on the power play for both overall and in conference games this season. The squad is fifth in the nation on the PK (86.9 percent) and also ranks fifth on the PP (24.0 percent) • The Buckeyes have 20 wins in conference play this season, which marks the first time they've hit the 20-win mark in CCHA play since the 1984 squad went 21-9. OSU has a program-best 78.8 percent winning percentage in league play and has clinched the best winning percentage in program history in CCHA action, topping the 71.9 percent of the 1983 team • SO F Matt Beaudoin extended his scoring streak to four (4-1-5) with a point in each game at Michigan State. Beaudoin and JR F Rod Pelley are tied for the team and league lead with a dozen power-play goals apiece.

NOTRE DAME

Head Coach: Dave Poulin (10th season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 5-23-6
2004-05 Conference Record: 3-18-5

Saturday night's game at the Joyce Center will mark Senior Night and the final home game for SR G Morgan Cey, SR F and team captain Cory McLean and SR F/D Joe Zurenko • On Feb. 18 versus Michigan, Cey moved into second place on Notre Dame's all-time minutes-played list. He has logged 6,316:35 minutes in his career. The leader, Lance Madson (1986-90), played 6,900:09 minutes in his career • Notre Dame will look to snap its 15-game winless streak (0-13-2) versus Michigan State. The winless skid is the second longest in program history. From Nov. 5, 1988 to Jan. 2, 1989, the Irish went winless in 16 games (0-14-2). Notre Dame's last win came on Jan. 2, a 2-1 decision over Rensselaer • McLean has a three-game point streak (1-3-4) and now has points in five of his last six games (2-4-6). He leads the Irish in scoring with five goals and a career-high 15 assists for 20 points • JR F Matt Amado has a two-game goal-scoring streak as he scored once in each of the Michigan games on Feb. 18-19 • JR F Tim Wallace will tie Notre Dame's "Iron Man" streak when he takes the ice on Friday night at Michigan State. Wallace comes into the game having played every game of his career - 113 consecutive appearances. He is just one behind the school record set by Evan Nielsen ('03) who played in 114 consecutive games. He has career highs in assists (9) and points (12) this season • Despite scoring 14 goals in six games during the month of February, the Irish still remain last in the nation in scoring, averaging 1.65 goals per game on 56 goals in 34 games. The Irish trail Army; the Cadets are averaging 1.89 goals per game (51 goals in 27 games) • After going 14-2-2 at home last season, the Irish are 3-11-4 on home ice this year.

WESTERN MICHIGAN

Head Coach: Jim Culhane (6th season)
2004-05 Overall Record: 12-18-2
2004-05 Conference Record: 7-17-2

After being outshot in 14-of-16 games, WMU turned the tables in the LSSU series, finishing with an 83-54 shot advantage • JR F Vince Bellissimo turned in one of the more spectacular performances of the season on Saturday in the Broncos' 3-2 overtime win against Lake Superior State. With his team trailing 2-0 with under 12 minutes left in regulation, Bellissimo struck for back-to-back goals in a span of 3 minutes, 45 seconds. He then provided the game-winner 12 seconds into overtime, registering his second hat trick of the season • The Broncos recorded a season-high 48 shots on Saturday, including 18 in the first period alone • The Brown & Gold are 6-0-1 when holding opponents to two or fewer goals • A victory on Saturday would give the Broncos an identical home record to last season when they went 11-6-1 • SR F Pat Dwyer is three points shy of 100 for his career • Sixth-year coach Jim Culhane can reach the 100-win plateau with a sweep this weekend • FSU and WMU traded home victories in December. The Broncos captured the series opener, 5-3, in the 100th meeting. WMU rookies accounted for all five goals, including FR F Mike Lesperance's game-winner with 2:53 left in regulation. FSU finished with a 48-20 shot advantage in the contest. The Bulldogs prevailed the next night, 6-2, scoring five straight goals, sparked by a three-goal outburst in a span of 3:10 in the second period • WMU owns a 61-33-6 lead in the series.

THEY SAID IT...

"This was a win we really needed. We battled the whole game, even when we weren't getting the breaks. We kept the pressure on throughout the game and were finally able to break through. It's nice to see the guys rewarded for their efforts." - WMU head coach Jim Culhane.

BELLISSIMO'S HAT TRICK GIVES BRONCOS WIN

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich.— Western Michigan junior forward Vince Bellissimo fired the game-winning goal 12 seconds into overtime to win a 3-2 decision for the Broncos and earn his second hat trick of the season. In conference action elsewhere, Northern Michigan downed Ferris State, 6-3, Nebraska-Omaha averted a series sweep at the hands of Alaska Fairbanks with a 7-2 win and Michigan State topped Bowling Green, 6-3. In exhibition play, Michigan edged out the U.S. Under-18 team, 6-5.

At Kalamazoo, Mich., junior forward Vince Bellissimo put his team's three goals on the board, notching a hat trick and an overtime victory for the Broncos. Bellissimo lifted Western Michigan from a 2-0 third-period deficit, courtesy of goals by Lake State junior defenseman Ren Fauci and freshman forward Dan Eves. Lake State sophomore goaltender Jeff Jakaitis made 45 saves; Broncos freshman goalie Daniel Bellissimo kicked aside 24.

At Big Rapids, Mich., Northern Michigan junior forward Andrew Contois struck for four goals and Dirk Southern recorded a five-point night as the Wildcats defeated Ferris State, 6-3. Ferris State senior forward Jeff Legue tallied his 20th goal of the season in the closing seconds of the second period; senior forward Derek Nesbitt lit the lamp twice for the Bulldogs. Northern Michigan senior goaltender Tuomas Tarkki earned the win with 27 stops; Ferris State senior goaltender Mike Brown recorded 25 saves.

At Omaha, Neb., Nebraska-Omaha freshman forward Bill Thomas fired in his 17th of the season on a shorthanded goal, while classmate Bryan Marshall picked up a hat trick to lift the Mavericks to a 7-2 win. Leading 3-2 after two periods, the Mavericks pulled away with four goals in the final stanza. Senior goalie Keith Bartusch turned away 33 Mavericks shots; Nebraska-Omaha sophomore goaltender Chris Holt made 24 saves. Sophomore forward Curtis Fraser and freshman forward Kyle Greentree were the marksmen for the Nanooks.

At East Lansing, Mich., Michigan State stopped Bowling Green, 6-3, to win the final leg of a home-and-home series with the Falcons. Sophomore forward Drew Miller notched two for the Spartans; Bowling Green senior forward Ryan Minnabarriet fired a power-play goal and an assist. Deadlocked after two periods of play, Miller, sophomore forward Ethan Graham and freshman forward Bryan Lerg scored third-period goals to lift Michigan State to its 15th win of the season.

At Ann Arbor, Mich., junior forward Jeff Tambellini netted a trio of goals and teammates senior defenseman Nick Martens, senior forward Milan Gajic and freshman forward Kevin Porter scored as Michigan stopped the U.S. Under-18 team, 6-5, in exhibition action.

Friday Games

BGSU & UNO CLINCH HOME-ICE PLAY-OFF SPOTS

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich.— Five of the six home-ice positions have been claimed for the CCHA's first-round campus-site playoffs following Friday night action. The Bowling Green Falcons earned their first home-ice playoff berth since 1995 with a 2-1 victory over visiting Michigan State on Friday night. That result also secured a spot for Nebraska-Omaha, despite a 6-4 loss to visiting Alaska Fairbanks. Elsewhere, the two other road teams posted wins as Lake Superior knocked off Western Michigan, 3-2, and Northern Michigan beat Ferris State, 5-2.

At Bowling Green, Ohio, the Falcons skated past Michigan State, 2-1, in the first game of a home-and-home series. Freshmen John Mazzei of Bowling Green, just 24 seconds into the game, and Jim McKenzie of MSU, near the seven-minute mark, traded first-period goals. Sophomore James Unger picked up the game-winning tally with 1:12 left in the second period and senior goaltender Jordan Sigalet made the lead stand up with 33 saves to earn first-star honors.

At Kalamazoo, Mich., sophomore forward Matt Restoule snapped a 2-2 tie at 8:26 of the third period to lift Lake Superior to a 3-2 win over Western Michigan. The Lakers led 2-1 after two periods of play, on goals by senior forward Bo Chessman and defenseman Kory Scoran, before Bronco freshman Jeff Pierce notched a power-play marker just 1:18 into the third period. Senior goaltender Matt Violin entered the game at that point and closed out the victory for LSSU making 11 third-period saves.

At Big Rapids, Mich., senior goalie Tuomas Tarkki blocked 37 shots for Perani Cup first-star honors while freshman forward Mike Santorelli and sophomore forward Dirk Southern both scored twice as the Northern Michigan Wildcats potted five goals on 15 shots in a 5-2 win over Ferris State. Sophomore forward Dusty Collins had the other goal for the 'Cats while sophomore Joe Van Culin and junior Greg Rallo replied for the Bulldogs.

At Omaha, Neb., visiting Alaska Fairbanks scored three times, on a pair of goals by senior Jared Sylvestre and one by sophomore Curtis Fraser, in the first 9:50 of the third period and held on to beat UNO, 6-4. Senior forward Jason Grinevitch notched four assists for Alaska Fairbanks while Sylvestre added a pair of helpers to go with his two goals. The Mavericks and Nanooks traded first- and second-period goals and entered the third period tied at two; forwards Mike Lefley and Bryan Marshall tallied for Nebraska-Omaha, while freshman forwards Ryan McLeod and Aaron Lee scored for the Nanooks. Senior Keith Bartusch went the distance between the pipes to pick up the win for UAF.
