SETTING THE SCENE: Cleveland State embarks on its most-important road trip of the season this week, playing a pair of games in the State of Indiana that will impact CSU's seeding in the upcoming Horizon League Championship. The Vikings open the week with a Thursday night (Feb. 14) contest at league newcomer Valparaiso that will tip off at 7:05 p.m. CST in the Athletics-Recreation Center on the Valpo campus. CSU enters the week with a 16-10 overall and 9-5 league record, standing in third place in the Horizon League race, a half-game ahead of UIC (8-5) and a game ahead of Milwaukee (7-5) in the very tight league standings.

PREVIEWING CLEVELAND STATE: The Vikings are a totally different team from the one that went 10-21 a season ago. With five returners and 10 newcomers on the squad, second year head coach Gary Waters has depth available at every position on the floor. Junior forward J'Nathan Bullock (14.4 ppg, 6.2 rpg) leads the returners after becoming only the third player in CSU history to lead the team in scoring as both a freshman and sophomore. All five returners figure prominently in the rotation this season with senior Breyohn Watson (4.7, 2.0) and sophomore Joe Davis (9.2 ppg) sharing time at the off-guard and senior Kevin Francis (5.0, 4.4) and junior Renard Fields (2.3, 1.7) seeing time inside. The Vikings have benefited from the addition of transfers Cedric Jackson (St. John's), Chris Moore (UC Santa Barbara) and George Tandy (Eastern Illinois). Jackson (14.0, 4.8, 4.8 apg) starts at point guard with Moore (5.6, 3.2) and Tandy (4.5, 4.6) sharing the center duties. Freshmen D'Aundray Brown (5.0, 3.2), who has started the last three games, and Norris Cole (4.0 ppg) have each impacted the rotation.

HEAD COACH GARY WATERS: A 33-year collegiate coaching veteran, Gary Waters took over as the head coach of the Vikings in the spring of 2006, bringing with him to Cleveland a head coaching history that included six trips to the postseason in his first 10 years as a head coach. He posted a 92-60 record in five seasons at Kent State, making NCAA appearances in both 1998-99 and 2000-01 and becoming the third coach in Mid-American Conference history to be named league coach of the year in successive years. Waters moved to Rutgers in 2001-02, compiling a 79-75 mark in five seasons, including three trips to the NIT. Waters is 26-31 in his second season at CSU, giving him a 197-166 record in 12 seasons.

SERIES NOTES vs. VALPARAISO

Thursday's game will be the 30th meeting between CSU and Valparaiso with the Vikings owning a commanding 22-7 lead in the series. The series began in the 1979-80 season with CSU claiming the first four meetings. It accelerated in 1984-85 when both school became members of the AMCU-8 (which later became the Mid-Con) and they played each other twice a season. CSU left the Mid-Con following the 1993-94 season and the two teams did not meet again until Valpo joined the Horizon League this season. CSU is 10-4 in games played at Valparaiso.

VIKINGS DRAW MARIST IN ESPNU BRACKET BUSTERS: Cleveland State will host Marist College of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference on Saturday, Feb. 23 beginning at 6:30 p.m. as part of the ESPNU BracketBusters. The game was selected as one of the 14 TV games and will be broadcast nationally on ESPNU. This will be the second meeting all-time between CSU and Marist with the Vikings claiming a 52-49 decision on Jan. 20, 1987 at the Meadowlands in East Rutherford, N.J. It was a triumphant return for CSU to the building that had seen the Vikings fall to Navy in the NCAA Sweet 16 round the year before. CSU won despite a 22-point, 10-rebound effort from Marist's Rick Smits.

GARY WATERS SHOW ON WTAM: WTAM, 1100-AM, the 50,000 watt station that also serves as the home of the Cleveland Browns, Cavaliers and Indians, is the home for the weekly Gary Waters Radio Show. In all 10 episodes of the show are planned, with each airing weekly on either Monday or Tuesday night from 7:00-8:00 p.m. through mid-March. The call-in show is hosted by WTAM's Andre Knott. The next two shows will be broadcast on:

Tuesday, Feb. 12 7:00-8:00
 Monday, Feb. 18 7:00-8:00

VIKING BASKETBALL REPORT RETURNS: The second season of The Viking Basketball Report continues this week on SportsTime Ohio and will run weekly through the end of the basketball season in March. The 30-minute highlight show is hosted by Mike Cairns with commentary from head coach Gary Waters and features on the Viking players. The broadcast schedule for the next week is:

Date Times
 Tuesday (Feb. 12) 3:30 p.m.
 Wednesday (Feb. 13) 7:30 p.m.

FIRST MEETING		Cleveland State	69
		Valparaiso	63
Jan. 19, 2008		Cleveland, Ohio
Final: Cleveland State never trailed in improving to 7-0 in Horizon League play for the first time ever, upending third place Valparaiso, 69-63 in the Wolstein Center. The win was the Wolstein Center record tying seventh straight going back to earlier this season.
Defining Moment: After Valpo cut the CSU lead to 36-32 with 15:55 left, the Vikings answered with baskets by J'Nathan Bullock, Chris Moore and D'Aundray Brown to extend the lead to double-figures and Valpo would get no closer than six the rest of the way.
Key Stats: CSU had a 36-28 rebounding edge with 12 offensive boards. The Vikings made 22-of-30 free throws (.733) while Valparaiso went to the line just seven times, making six (.857).
Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson led CSU with 16 points while Chris Moore added 12 points (6-9 shooting). J'Nathan Bullock had a game-high seven rebounds with 11 points to become 17th player in CSU history to score 1,000 points.

LAST CSU GAME		Cleveland State	81
		Green Bay	64
Feb. 11, 2008		Cleveland, Ohio
Final: Cleveland State used a monster 39-point performance from J'Nathan Bullock to run away in the second half from Green Bay, winning 81-64. The win allows the Vikings to tie their record for most Horizon League wins in a season (9) and claim their 10th win in the Wolstein Center for only the third time ever.
Defining Moment: After allowing Green Bay to score the last seven points of the half to even the game at 37-37 at the break, CSU scores the first five points of the second half and never trails in the contest.
Key Stats: CSU shoots .529 from the field (.27-51) and .786 from the line (.22-28), owning a 30-24 rebounding advantage.
Performance Leaders: J'Nathan Bullock scored a career-high 39 points, the fifth-highest single game scoring total in school history. He was 13-for-14 from the field (.929 field goal percentage 4th best in CSU history) and 11-for-14 from the line. Cedric Jackson hands out eight assists and makes four steals.

33 Nick Weaver (6-3, 195, Jr., G) Reserve as both off-guard and small forward • scored 8 points at Kent State and six points vs. Geneva • ranked sixth nationally in scoring (23.1 ppg) as a sophomore at Glendale Community College.

42 Chris Moore (6-9, 240, Jr., C) Averaging 5.6 points and 3.2 rebounds, shooting .573 (63-110) • career-high 17 points vs. Chicago State • is fifth in the league with 26 blocks, five coming vs. JCU (had just 7 blocks in 30 games his first two years) • transfer from UC-Santa Barbara • first team all-state choice as a senior at St. Edward High, averaging 21.5 points, 10.9 rebounds and 6.0 blocks.

45 Renard Fields (6-7, 210, Jr., F) Reserve at power forward, averaging 2.3 points and 1.7 rebounds • season-high nine points with four rebounds vs. UIC • seven points and four rebounds vs. Loyola (1/3) • set career highs for points (12), rebounds (16), blocks (5) and steals (2) vs. Loyola (2/1/07).

J'NATHAN'S BIG NIGHT: After struggling offensively for most of the Horizon League season, junior J'Nathan Bullock broke out of it in a big way on Monday, scoring 39 points in the win over Green Bay. He was 13-for-14 from the field and 11-for-14 from three-point. Here are a couple of notes on Bullock's performance:

- The fifth-highest single game scoring total in CSU history and the most by a Horizon League player this year.
- The 11th highest point total by a Division I player in the nation this year.
- The highest scoring total by a Viking in the Wolstein Center.
- The .928 field goal percentage was the fourth-highest effort in CSU history and the highest by a Horizon League player this season.
- The .928 field goal percentage was the fourth highest percentage among Division I players this year.
- He entered the game ranked second on the team in scoring, 18 points behind Cedric Jackson. He surpassed Jackson early in the second half and finished the night with a 12-point lead.

... AND BULLOCK APPROACHES RARE SCORING: When J'Nathan Bullock exploded for 39 points against Green Bay, he took over the team scoring lead from Cedric Jackson and put himself into a position to lead the team in scoring for the third straight year, an accomplishment achieved by only three other players in school history. Weldon Kytle (1962-65) and Franklin Edwards (1978-81) each lead the team in scoring during all four years in the program while Ken McFadden (1987-89) achieved it as a sophomore, junior and senior.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME: Gary Waters said when he was hired that one of the first steps towards building a championship program was to make the home court a tough place to play. After a 6-8 mark in the Wolstein Center last season, the Vikings have improved to 10-2 this year, the third-highest season win total in the 17-year history of the building. With at least two home games to go, CSU has a chance to break the arena record of 11 wins, set in both 1992-93 (11-1) and 2000-01 (11-2).

JACKSON IS A STEAL: A four-steal effort against Green Bay on Monday allowed junior Cedric Jackson to become the first Viking in 18 years to break into the single season top 10 list for steals. With 68 steals, Jackson passed Franklin Edwards (63 in 1980-81), Ken McFadden (66 in 1987-88), Mike Sweeney (66 in 1981-82) and Clinton Ransey (67 in 1985-86) and into seventh place on the single season chart.

... JACKSON MAKES HIS MARK NATIONALLY: Not only does Cedric Jackson lead the Horizon League in steals, but the latest NCAA statistics has him ranked 11th nationally.

DAVIS HAS CAREER NIGHT: The loss at UIC on Jan. 31 spoiled a career night from sophomore Joe Davis, who came off the bench to set career highs for points (27) and assists (5). Davis, whose previous career best was a 20-point effort against Geneva, was 10-for-16 from the field and four-for-seven from three-point.

A FOUL CALL: When D'Aundray Brown was forced out of the game with his fifth personal foul against Green Bay on Monday, it marked just the second time this season that CSU had a player disqualified from a game because of fouls. With at least six games to go, the Vikings are on a pace to set the school record for fewest DQ's in a season, which was five set in 1985-86. The only other player to foul out this year is Cedric Jackson, who did not make it through the game at Kent State on Dec. 29.

TANDY SWATS HIS 100TH: Junior George Tandy has seven blocked shots in the last five games to raise his career total to 105. The 6-8 junior ranks second in the Horizon League this year with 34 blocks (1.42 bpg), having nine multiple block games. Tandy had 42 blocks as a freshman (2004-05) at Eastern Illinois and added 29 the following year before transferring to CSU.

... AND CLOSES IN ON CSU TOP 10: With 34 blocked shots this season, George Tandy is just two rejections away from breaking into the CSU single season list for blocks. Tandy needs just two blocks to catch Shawn Fergus, who is currently in 10th place with 36 blocks.

VIKINGS REBOUND TO REBOUND: It has been six seasons since Cleveland State finished the year with a positive rebounding margin, but based on the rebounding performance of the Vikings, the streak may well come to an end this year. In 26 games, CSU has averaged 35.4 rebounds a game while limiting its opponents to 32.1 boards to lead the Horizon League with a +3.3 rebounding margin. The Vikings have out-rebounded their opponent in all but seven games. The last time that CSU was able to hold the rebounding edge for an entire season came in 2000-01 when the Vikings had a +3.1 rebounding margin.

... FROM WORST TO FIRST, A LEAGUE FIRST: Not only are the Vikings near the top of the Horizon League after finishing in last place a year ago, but CSU is also attempting to become the first team in league history to go from last in rebounding margin in one year to first the next. The Vikings were out-rebounded 33.1 to 36.6 last year for a -3.5 margin.

... BUT DO THEY HAVE TO BE SO OFFENSIVE ABOUT IT? Part of the reason for CSU's success on the boards this season has come at the offensive end of the floor where the Vikings lead the Horizon League with an average of 12.85 offensive rebounds a game. CSU has two of the top six individuals in offensive rebounds with J'Nathan Bullock (2.23) and Kevin Francis (2.04), ranking third and seventh, respectively.

BIG CROWDS: The 5,352 fans that attended the Jan. 17 Butler game marked the largest crowd in the Wolstein Center since the curtain was added four years ago on the west side to trim the capacity of the building to approximately 8,500. The last time CSU had a larger crowd in the Wolstein Center came on Nov. 29, 2003 when 11,534 saw the Vikings drop an 82-76 decision to North Carolina.

... AND THE SEASON AVERAGE IS UP: With at least two games remaining in the Wolstein Center this year, the Vikings are approaching some attendance high marks for the decade. With 42,916 attending the first 13 homes games, CSU is averaging 3,301 per game, the most since 1998-99 when the Vikings played in front of an average of 3,668 fans. CSU stands a good chance of reaching the 50,000 mark for season attendance for the first time since 1998-99.

FINALLY: The win over 12th-ranked Butler on Jan. 17 marked only the second time in school history that the Vikings defeated a ranked opponent and the first during the regular season and the first at home. The only other time that CSU knocked off a ranked team came on March 14, 1986 when it upset 14th-ranked Indiana, 83-79, in an NCAA first round game at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y. The Butler win improved CSU to 2-26 all-time against ranked opponents, snapping a 19-game losing streak.

JACKSON & BULLOCK REACH FREE THROW MILESTONE: The junior tandem of Cedric Jackson (103 free throws made) and J'Nathan Bullock (119) hold the distinction of being just the fourth pair of teammates in school history to each make 100 free throws in the same season. The milestone was previously achieved in 2003-04 (Jermaine Robinson, 141, & Omari Westley, 124), 1989-90 (Brian Parker, 119, & Steve Givens, 104) and 1986-87 (Ken McFadden, 177, & Clinton Ransey, 100).

... AND AN EVEN BIGGER ACCOMPLISHMENT FOR JACKSON: The 100th free throw made of the season also made Cedric Jackson just the fourth player (and sixth time) in school history to make 100 field goals, 100 free throws and hand out 100 assists in the same season. He joins Damon Stringer (195 FGM, 113 FTM & 108 assists in 1999-00), Ken McFadden (159, 144 & 146 in 1988-89 & 205, 177 & 177 in 1987-88) and Franklin Edwards (265, 134 & 142 in 1980-81 & 253, 131 & 117 in 1979-80). In 26 games, Jackson has made 114 field goals, 103 free throws and handed out 124 assists.

CSU HAS BLOWN PAST LAST YEAR'S RECORD: With a 16-10 overall and 9-5 league record, Cleveland State has significantly improved its record from a season ago. The Vikings enter the week with six more overall and league wins than CSU posted during all of last season. Cleveland State was 10-21 overall and 3-13 in the Horizon League a year ago.

BULLOCK MAKES 61ST CONSECUTIVE START: J'Nathan Bullock enters the week as one of 12 Viking players who have started 50 consecutive games in their career. Bullock, who earned the honor when he started against UIC on Jan. 5, currently ranks eighth on the list with 61 straight starts. He needs two more starts to catch Warren Bradley (1983-88), who made 63 straight starts. If Bullock stays healthy, he could catch record-holder Ken McFadden (1985-89), who started 86 straight games, early next year.

A REVERSAL OF FORTUNES: Over the course of the last eight seasons, Cleveland State has recorded its top five season totals of three-point field goals made, including a school-record 198 last year. The record is safe for at least another year as the Vikings enter the week having made just 108 three-pointers in their first 26 games. The 4.15 three-pointers per game is the sixth-lowest season average in the 22 years since the three-pointer was created. The marksmanship isn't much better as CSU's current .285 effort from three-point is the worst in program history, surpassing the previous low of .301 in 1993-94.

... BUT THE FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE IS UP: CSU enters the week shooting .438 from the field this season, the highest shooting performance by the Vikings in five seasons. CSU shot .446 as a team in 2002-03.

VIKINGS POST THIRD CONSECUTIVE WINNING MONTH: Despite losing their last three games in January, the Vikings finished the month of January with a 6-3 record. It allowed CSU to post its third consecutive winning month for the first time since the Vikings put together six consecutive winning months between February, 1992 and March, 1993. CSU went 4-3 in November, 4-2 in December and 6-3 in January this year.

... BUT ARE JUST 1-2 IN FEBRUARY: The loss at Loyola on Feb. 2 may have been a bad omen as the Vikings lost the first game of the month for the first time this season. CSU previously won the first game in November (at USF), December (Geneva) and January (Loyola) en route to three straight winning months. The Vikings enter the Valparaiso-Butler road trip with a 2-2 mark this month with five contests remaining.

THREE-POINT DEFENSE: The Viking perimeter defense has been outstanding in league games to date as CSU leads the league in three-point field goal defense in conference games. In the 14 games, Viking opponents have shot .295 from behind the arc, making 62 of their 210 three-point attempts. The percentage is 32 points ahead of second-place Youngstown State, who has allowed .327 shooting, and the 62 treys allowed is the fewest in the league, two less than the 64 allowed by Milwaukee, which has played two less games.

GOING FOR A RARE DOUBLE: Junior Cedric Jackson, who leads the Horizon League in steals (2.62) and is second in assists (4.77), is attempting to become just the fifth player in league history to lead the league in both categories. Jackson's 2.62 steals per game is significantly ahead of Detroit's Woody Payne (1.96) while his assist total is slightly behind Butler's Mike Green (4.83). Jackson is attempting to join Loyola's Darius Clemens (1980-81) and Earl Brown (1997-98), Detroit's Roy Simms (1982-83) and LaSalle's Paul Burke (1993-94).

... BUT DON'T FORGET HIS REBOUNDING: Although he leads the team in assists and steals, the part of Cedric Jackson's performance that has been overlooked this year has been his rebounding. Jackson enters the week second on the team and 15th in the Horizon League averaging 4.8 boards a game. He has turned up his performance over the last seven games, averaging 7.0 rebounds a game, including a career-high 11 against Milwaukee and 10 vs. UIC.

BULLOCK PASSES 1,000 POINT MARK: An 11-point effort in the win over Valparaiso on Jan. 19 allowed junior J'Nathan Bullock to become the 17th player in school history to score 1,000 points in a career. Bullock went over the mark when he scored on a three-point play with 9:39 left. He is the first Viking to accomplish the feat since Jermaine Robinson ended his career in 2003-04 with 1,408 points. Bullock enters the week ranking 15th with 1,111 career points, needing 13 points to pass Anthony Reed (1,123 points from 1990-93) and move into 14th place and 19 points to catch 13th-ranked Andre Battle (1,129, 1990-93).

... AND BREAKS INTO FREE THROW TOP 10: J'Nathan Bullock is also making his mark on the free throw charts, entering the week ranked sixth in school history in free throws made (324) and seventh in free throws attempted (444). He needs 30 more free throws made to reach fifth place and 27 more attempts to move up into sixth place.

BULLOCK'S FREE THROW IMPROVEMENT CONTINUES: J'Nathan Bullock continues to show improvement at the foul line, going 119-for-142 this season to improve his career free throw percentage to .730 (324-444). He struggled from the line as a freshman, making only 83-of-139 (.597), including just .511 (47-92) in the first 22 games. Bullock improved to .748 last year (122-163) and is fifth in the Horizon League in free throw percentage (.838) this season.

MOORE ENJOYS PLAYING WITH BLOCKS: Junior Chris Moore has added a weapon to his defensive arsenal this year, entering the week ranking fifth in the Horizon League with 26 blocked shots this season. That is quite a total, especially when you consider that in two seasons at UC Santa Barbara, Moore blocked just seven shots (in 30 games).

NEXT UP: The Vikings close out their final two-game road swing of the season by playing a rematch against ninth-ranked Butler on Saturday (Feb. 16) at 2:00 p.m. The contest will be televised regionally on SportsTime Ohio.

GAME 1

Cleveland State 73
USF 70

Nov. 9, 2007 Tampa, Fla.

Final: J'Nathan Bullock set career highs for points (26) and steals (5), adding a game-high 10 rebounds and Cedric Jackson scored 14 of his 18 points in the second half as CSU opened the regular season with a 73-70 win over South Florida.

Defining Moment: Trailing 67-59 with 4:29 left, CSU holds USF on 7 of its next 8 possessions, out-scoring USF, 14-3 down the stretch.

Key Stats: CSU shoots .840 from the line (21-25), including a 13-for-13 effort for Bullock, who tied a school record for free throw percentage in a game (eighth player perfect on 10 or more attempts in a game). USF is just 23-for-33 (.697) with Dominique Jones missing two free throws down 71-70 with 4.6 left.

Performance Leaders: Bullock records eighth career double-double. Jackson sets scoring high in CSU debut. Moore 9 points, 5 rebounds. Francis eight points, seven rebounds.

GAME 2

George Mason 56
Cleveland State 47

Nov. 13, 2007 Fairfax, Va.

Final: Cedric Jackson set a career high with 20 points but poor second half shooting and 19 turnovers helped George Mason claim a 56-47 win. CSU shot just .276 in the second half (8-29) and .373 for the game (19-51).

Defining Moment: Trailing 36-34 with 14:16 left, CSU has seven chances over the next 4:14 to either tie or go ahead but can't convert. GMU counters with a 6-0 run and the Vikings can come no closer than four points down the stretch.

Key Stats: George Mason has a decisive 28-5 edge in free throws, out-scoring the Vikings 19-4 from the stripe. GMU turns 19 CSU turnovers into 24 points. With CSU leading 16-10 (10:51), the Patriots go on a 19-3 run to take the lead for good (29-19, 4:36).

Performance Leaders: Jackson 20 points, five rebounds, four assists and four steals. Joe Davis 13 points. GMU's Will Thomas and John Vaughan 18 points each.

GAME 3

Georgia Southern 72
Cleveland State 70

Nov. 16, 2007 Daytona Beach, Fla.

Final: Matt Fields scored on a layup with one second left as Georgia Southern rallied from a 12-point second half deficit to steal the win.

Defining Moment: Trailing 70-61 with 2:27 left, Georgia Southern scores the final 11 points of the game for the victory. CSU turns the ball over twice and misses all three shots during that span.

Key Stats: CSU has a 39-30 rebounding edge. The Vikings however turn the ball over 22 times with GSU scoring 24 points off them. Georgia Southern gets 42 points from its bench.

Performance Leaders: Jackson sets his career high for points (21) and assists (9). Bullock records his second double-double of the year (9th of career) with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Louis Graham came off the bench to lead GSU with 18 points, one of four double-digit scorers for GSU.

GAME 7		Cal St. Northridge	78
		Cleveland State	68
Nov. 28, 2007		Cleveland, Ohio
Final: Four Matadors scored in double figures, including 22 points from Calvin Chitwood and a 16-point, 15-rebound effort off the bench from Tremaine Townsend as Cal State Northridge rallied to get past CSU, 78-68 in a rematch of an ESPNU BracketBusters matchup a year ago. The game featured six ties and 11 lead changes with CSU leading for the majority of the first 28 minutes.
Defining Moment: With CSU leading 46-45 with 12:20 left, CSUN went on an 11-2 run to take the lead for good (56-48, 7:51). CSU would come no closer than six points the rest of the way.
Key Stats: Cal State Northridge shot .588 from three-point (10-17) while CSU could make just three of its 13 treys (.231). The Matadors also had a 38-13 edge in bench scoring.
Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson posted his fourth 20-point game of the year, finishing with 24 points. Breyohn Watson scored a career-high nine points.

GAME 9		Cleveland State	77
		Chicago State	73
Dec. 4, 2007		Chicago, Ill.
Final: Joe Davis scored 18 points and Chris Moore added 17 points and eight rebounds as the Vikings outlasted Chicago State, 77-73.
Defining Moment: Moore and Davis combined to score the first 15 points of the second half for CSU, taking a four-point halftime lead and extending it to nine (55-46).
Key Stats: The Vikings out-scored Chicago State, 48-24, in the paint. The game was the first loss for the Cougars in the Jones Convocation Center, which opened this season.
Performance Leaders: Despite being in foul trouble, J'Nathan Bullock scored 14 points, going six-for-six from the line. Cedric Jackson scored a season-low six points but handed out eight assists and made two steals. Davis led the Vikings in scoring for the second straight game, scoring 18 points in 25 minutes off the bench.

GAME 10		Cleveland State	77
		Youngstown State	54
Dec. 8, 2007		Cleveland, Ohio
Final: Cleveland State dominated from the opening tip, never trailing in the contest en route to a 77-54 victory. The Vikings opened up a 20-point halftime lead and did not allow the Penguins any closer than 15 points in the second stanza.
Defining Moment: Back-to-back three-pointers by Cedric Jackson and J'Nathan Bullock gave CSU a 12-3 lead just 4:21 into the game.
Key Stats: CSU shot .646 from the field (31-48) while limiting YSU to just .358 shooting (19-53). The Vikings had 27 assists on 31 baskets for a .871 assist percentage, the second-highest total in CSU history. CSU had a 32-23 rebounding edge and blocked 11 shots, one short of the school record.
Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson posted a double-double with 21 points and a career-high 10 assists while George Tandy set CSU highs with 14 points and five blocked shots.

GAME 13 Kent State 84
Cleveland State 69

Dec. 29, 2007 Kent, Ohio

Final: Gary Waters' return to the school that gave him his first head coaching job did not go as planned as CSU struggled at both ends of the court in dropping an 84-69 decision to Kent State.

Defining Moment: Kent State scored the first eight points of the game and never looked back, opening a 50-27 halftime lead.

Key Stats: The Golden Flashes shot .500 from three-point (11-22) while CSU could make just four of its 17 three-point attempts (.235). The two teams combined to take 73 free throws (KSU 38, CSU 35).

Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson and Joe Davis led CSU with 12 points each but Jackson fouled out with 11:15 to play. D'Aundray Brown scored a career-high 10 points with six rebounds and Nick Weaver scored a career-high eight points in just three minutes.

GAME 14 Cleveland State 63
Loyola 55

Jan. 3, 2008 Cleveland, Ohio

Final: Cleveland State rebounded from a slow offensive start to catch Loyola just before halftime and never relinquish the lead, claiming a 63-55 win in the Wolstein Center. CSU improved to 2-0 in league play for the first time since the 2000-01 season.

Defining Moment: After CSU missed its first eight shots and went scoreless for the first 7:38 of the game, the Vikings regrouped, making nine of its next 17 shots to take the lead for good.

Key Stats: Loyola missed its first 13 three-point attempts in the game and finished shooting just .158 beyond the arc (3-19) while the Vikings were a respectable five-for-15 from three-point (.333). CSU closed the contest by making 10 of its 12 free throws in the final five minutes of the game.

Performance Leaders: Kevin Francis led CSU with a season-high 14 points, making a career-high four three-pointers. J'Nathan Bullock scored nine of his 12 points in the final 5:06. Cedric Jackson scored 10 points with six assists and three steals.

GAME 15 Cleveland State 68
UIC 51

Jan. 5, 2008 Cleveland, Ohio

Final: Cleveland State used solid defense and rebounding to race past UIC, 68-51. In the process, the Vikings (10-5, 3-0) matched their overall and league win totals of a year ago (10-21 overall, 3-13 HL in 2006-07). The win was also CSU's fifth straight in the Wolstein Center, allowing the Vikings to go 3-0 in league play for the first time since 1999-2000.

Defining Moment: A 16-2 run centered around halftime turned a four-point lead into an 18-point Viking advantage and CSU was never seriously threatened the rest of the way.

Key Stats: CSU limited UIC to .286 shooting (16-56), the lowest percentage by a Viking opponent this year. CSU had a commanding 44-30 rebounding advantage. Horizon League scoring leader Josh Mayo (18.4 ppg) could manage just 11 points on 2-for-7 shooting.

Performance Leaders: J'Nathan Bullock scored a game-high 16 points with eight rebounds and Kevin Francis pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds.

GAME 16 Cleveland State 74
Detroit 64

Jan. 10, 2008 Detroit, Mich.

Final: A harassing defense, strong rebounding and timely free throw shooting were the key ingredients as the Vikings won in Detroit for the first time in 21 games, 74-64. CSU improves to 4-0 in league play for the first time since 1999-2000.

Defining Moment: Trailing by 13 with 7:41 left in the first half, CSU scores 15 of the next 17 points to even the game at 29-29 just before half and climb back in the game. Down 40-36 with 12:17 left, the Vikings score seven straight (5 by Jackson) to take the lead for good.

Key Stats: Detroit made three of its first four treys but only made one more the rest of the way, shooting .222 from beyond the arc (4-18). CSU out-rebounded UDM, 34-24, including 20-8 in the second half.

Performance Leaders: J'Nathan Bullock and Cedric Jackson paced CSU with 16 points each while the freshmen duo of D'Aundray Brown and Norris Cole team up for 16 more (Brown-9, Cole-7). Jackson leads CSU with eight rebounds and five assists.

GAME 19

Cleveland State 69
Valparaiso 63

Jan. 19, 2008 Cleveland, Ohio

Final: Cleveland State never trailed in improving to 7-0 in Horizon League play for the first time ever, upending third place Valparaiso, 69-63 in the Wolstein Center. The win was the Wolstein Center record tying seventh straight going back to earlier this season.

Defining Moment: After Valpo cut the CSU lead to 36-32 with 15:55 left, the Vikings answered with baskets by J'Nathan Bullock, Chris Moore and D'Aundray Brown to extend the lead to double-figures and Valpo would get no closer than six the rest of the way.

Key Stats: CSU had a 36-28 rebounding edge with 12 offensive boards. The Vikings made 22-of-30 free throws (.733) while Valparaiso went to the line just seven times, making six (.857).

Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson led CSU with 16 points while Chris Moore added 12 points (6-9 shooting). J'Nathan Bullock had a game-high seven rebounds with 11 points to become 17th player in CSU history to score 1,000 points.

GAME 20

Green Bay 59
Cleveland State 50

Jan. 24, 2008 Green Bay, Wisc.

Final: Terry Evans scored 16 points and CSU is outscored 20-11 at the foul line as the Vikings fall for the first time in eight league games, 59-50, at Green Bay.

Defining Moment: CSU takes a 42-41 lead with 6:01 left on a three-point play by Chris Moore, but the Vikings miss their final six field goal attempts and gradually fall behind.

Key Stats: CSU shoots a season-low .283 from the field (17-60) but limits the Phoenix to .340 shooting (18-53). Green Bay becomes just the fourth team to out-rebound CSU, owning a 45-40 edge on the boards.

Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson scored 19 points, going six-for-12 from the field and making all four three-point attempts, adding seven rebounds and three steals. J'Nathan Bullock grabs a game-high 10 rebounds.

GAME 21

Milwaukee 79
Cleveland State 71

Jan. 26, 2008 Milwaukee, Wisc.

Final: Five Panthers scored in double figures, led by Ricky Franklin's 18 points, as Milwaukee wins for the 11th straight time against CSU, 79-71. The Viking loss allows Butler (8-2) to move into first place in the league standings, a half-game ahead of CSU.

Defining Moment: After CSU used a 15-4 run to open the second half and tie the game at 36-36, UWM runs off seven straight to take the lead for good (43-36, 13:25).

Key Stats: The Vikings are out-rebounded for the second straight game as UWM grabs 43 boards (14 offensive) while limiting CSU to 34. Neither team can find the range from the perimeter as the Vikings shoot .143 from three-point (2-14) while the Panthers go two-for-13 (.154). CSU is outscored 29-13 at the line with UWM going 29-for-41 (.707).

Performance Leaders: Cedric Jackson scores 16 points with a career-high 11 rebounds for his second career double-double. Norris Cole comes off the bench to score 11 points, one off his career best, while Chris Moore, who did not start for the first time this season, scores 10 points (on five-for-five shooting), eight coming in the second half.

GAME 22

UIC 74
Cleveland State 68

Jan. 31, 2008 Chicago, Ill

Final: Josh Mayo scored 29 points, the most by a CSU opponent this year, and Scott Vandermeer added 14 points and five blocked shots as the Vikings fall for the third straight road game and miss out on a chance to move into a first place tie in the league standings with idle Butler.

Defining Moment: UIC scores the first eight points of the second half to turn a four-point deficit into a four-point lead. CSU never gets the opportunity to tie or take the lead after that.

Key Stats: UIC shoots .511 from the field (23-45). CSU turns the ball over just nine times and UIC blocks 11 shots, the most by a Viking opponent this year.

Performance Leaders: Joe Davis is the only Viking in double figures, scoring a career-high 27 points. Cedric Jackson had his second straight double-digit rebounding effort, finishing with 10 rebounds, eight points, five assists and four steals.

GAME 25 Cleveland State 60
Detroit 56

Feb. 9, 2008 Cleveland, Ohio

Final: J'Nathan Bullock scored 21 points, going 10 for 11 from the line, as CSU swept the season series with Detroit for the first time in program history.

Defining Moment: With Detroit leading 40-35 (14:03), CSU ran off 11 straight points to take the lead for good, 48-42 with 7:26 left. The Titans would have chances down the stretch but good CSU defense limited the opportunities.

Key Stats: CSU forces 22 Titan turnovers to own a 20-13 edge in points of turnovers. Both teams shoot well from the line with the Vikings making 19 of 22 (.864) while Detroit shoots .700 (14-20). Detroit shoots .400 from three-point (6-15) while CSU can make just three of 22 trey attempts (.136).

Performance Leaders: J'Nathan Bullock records his 10th career 20-point game, scoring 21 points, the most against a Horizon League opponent this year. Cedric Jackson added 13 points, a team-high six rebounds and three steals.

GAME 26 Cleveland State 81
Green Bay 64

Feb. 11, 2008 Cleveland, Ohio

Final: Cleveland State used a monster 39-point performance from J'Nathan Bullock to run away in the second half from Green Bay, winning 81-64. The win allows the Vikings to tie their record for most Horizon League wins in a season (9) and claim their 10th win in the Wolstein Center for only the third time ever.

Defining Moment: After allowing Green Bay to score the last seven points of the half to even the game at 37-37 at the break, CSU scores the first five points of the second half and never trails in the contest.

Key Stats: CSU shoots .529 from the field (27-51) and .786 from the line (22-28), owning a 30-24 rebounding advantage.

Performance Leaders: J'Nathan Bullock scored a career-high 39 points, the fifth-highest single game scoring total in school history. He was 13-for-14 from the field (.929 field goal percentage 4th best in CSU history) and 11-for-14 from the line. Cedric Jackson hands out eight assists and makes four steals.
