6	Semifinals !	TBA
7	Finals !	TBA

Home Games in BOLD CAPS will be played at Goodman Arena-CSU Convocation Center.
 (DH) - Denotes doubleheader with men's team
 * - Horizon League game. All times Eastern.
 ! - The semifinals and championship will be played at Wright State or at the highest remaining seed.

The Opening Tip: Cleveland State (3-22, 2-12 HL) returns home to close out the regular season with a pair of games this week in the Wolstein Center. The Vikings, who are locked in as the No. 9 seed in the upcoming American Family Insurance Horizon League Championship, will host Butler on Thursday, Feb. 24, followed by a Senior Day tilt with Wright State two days later.

Head Coach Kate Peterson: The sixth head coach in 32 seasons of Viking women's basketball, Kate Peterson is 15-38 (.283) in her second season directing the Cleveland State program. Last year, she guided the Vikings to a 12-16 record, including a school-record nine league wins. Prior to her arrival in Cleveland, Peterson spent six years as an assistant at Wisconsin, serving as the recruiting coordinator starting in 1998. She also worked at Eastern Illinois (1993-97) and Indiana (1991-93). A 1991 graduate of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, she earned Kodak All-America honors her senior season after setting the NCAA Division III record for three-point field goals per game at 3.85.

Noting The Bulldogs: Winners of four of its last six, Butler heads into Thursday's game at 12-13 overall and 6-8 in the league. The Bulldogs are averaging 60.0 points and allowing 60.6 while shooting 39.4 percent from the field. Cortney Urquhart leads the team in scoring (11.8) and rebounding (6.2), while Ellen Hamilton (11.2 ppg) and Jackie Closser (10.9) are both averaging in double figures. Closser is dishing out a team-best 4.9 assists. Head coach Beth Couture is 32-51 in her third season in Indianapolis and 290-168 in 16 years overall.

The Series: Butler leads the all-time series by a 13-8 margin. The Bulldogs dominated early on, winning the first eight meetings. However, the Vikings rebounded to win eight of the next 10 contests before Butler claimed the final two games last season and the first meeting this year in Indianapolis.

Seed Planted: Youngstown State's win at No. 23 UW-Green Bay not only ended the Phoenix's 51-game home league winning streak, but it locked Cleveland State in as the No. 9 seed in the upcoming American Family Insurance Horizon League Championship. The Vikings trail the Penguins and Loyola by two games in the standings, but YSU has the tiebreaker courtesy of its win over UWGB, while Loyola swept the season series from CSU.

Senior Day To Have Hoosier-Like Feel: Saturday's Senior Day activities will have a common thread involving the four players being recognized. Jill Barnbrook, Maria Rickards, Christina Shrake and Mandy Sighting are all Indiana natives. Shrake was originally supposed to complete her eligibility last year, but redshirted in 2001-02 after suffering a season-ending injury in the second game.

Upon Closer Inspection: While it's true that the Feb. 17 game against No. 23 UW-Green Bay was Cleveland State's first contest this year against a ranked opponent at the time of the game, that doesn't mean the Vikings have played a soft schedule — far from it. CSU scrimmaged No. 2 Ohio State in the preseason and faced No. 18 Iowa State early in the year before the Cyclones moved into the Top 25. In addition, Virginia (another early-season opponent) has received votes in both polls for most of the year.

Sobolewski Enters Hall: Feb. 12 was a special day for Robin Sobolewski as she became the eighth member of the women's basketball program to be inducted into the CSU Hall of Fame. Sobolewski excelled in both basketball and softball during her career. On the hardwood, she helped the Vikings to a 65-41 record during her career, including a school-record 23 wins in 1982-83. On the softball diamond, she helped the team to All-Ohio titles in both 1983 and 1984, serving as player-coach during her senior season. She joins former hoopsters Laura Englehart, Sue Hlavacek, Sue Koziol, Jane Pease (coach), Patty Salvatore, Deb Taylor and Lanette Taylor in the Hall.

Dean's List Features Viking Sextet: Six members of the women's basketball team earned Dean's List recognition for the recently completed fall semester. Jill Barnbrook, Robyn Hoying, Erin Martin, Maria Rickards, Mandy Sichtung and Nicole Thomas each bettered the requisite 3.25 GPA needed to earn the honor, led by Hoying's perfect 4.0.

Rickards Heats Up: Junior guard Maria Rickards was on fire from behind the three-point arc during a recent three-game stretch against Butler, Loyola and UW-Milwaukee. During that span, she went 12-for-15 (.800), en route to averaging 15.2 points. Amazingly, she was just 4-for-18 (.222) from inside the arc in the three contests. Her performance catapulted the New Albany, Ind. native to second in the league in three-point percentage at .443 (27-61). Included in the outburst was a season-best 18 points against UW-Milwaukee (Feb. 12) courtesy of a career-high tying five triples.

Triple Threat: CSU heads into Thursday's game having made a three-point field goal in 354 consecutive contests — the longest active run in the nation. Louisville (394 games) and Appalachian State (367) stand 1-2 all-time NCAA annals, but both had their streaks come to an end recently. The last time the Vikings failed to drain at least one three-pointer was in a 78-55 loss at Cincinnati on Dec. 17, 1992.

My Favorite Martin: Junior guard Erin Martin matched her career-high with 25 points against UIC on Jan. 3. However, the Canfield, Ohio native did more than just score, tallying six rebounds, four assists and four steals. Her versatility is reflected in the league rankings where she stands fifth in scoring (12.8), 12th in rebounds (4.8), seventh in assists (2.84), 12th in free throw percentage (.669), 10th in steals (1.72) and 10th in three-pointers (1.36). She posted the first two double-doubles of her career against Detroit (13 points, 10 rebounds) and UIC (23 points, 10 rebounds). Martin has scored in double digits in 11 of the last 14 games and is averaging 14.2 points to stand fourth in the Horizon League in conference-only games.

Vikings Offensive On The Boards: Cleveland State has done an excellent job on the offensive glass during its 14 Horizon League contests, ranking first with 12.93 offensive rebounds. Mandy Sichtung leads the way with 27 caroms on the offensive end, while Erin Martin has 23 and Jill Barnbrook has grabbed 21. Unfortunately, the Vikings could only convert a season-high 21 offensive rebounds into 14 points on Jan. 15 at Loyola. CSU has totalled at least 10 offensive boards in 21 of 25 games this season.

Staff Growing By The Minute: Kate Peterson's staff keeps getting bigger and bigger with each passing day. No, the Vikings aren't violating any NCAA rules regarding the number of assistants, rather Kyle Rechlicz's due date of March 23 is rapidly approaching. She and her husband Dave are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their first child — a daughter they have named Payton Anne.

Chairwoman Of The Boards: Sophomore Nicole Thomas seems to have a nose for rebounds. She is second on the team lead in rebounding (4.6) despite playing only 12.5 minutes per game. In addition, the San Antonio native is third in total offensive rebounds (35) even after missing eight games with a back injury. She grabbed a team season-high 13 rebounds at Butler (Feb. 5) in just 17 minutes of action and has one of CSU's three double-doubles this season, posting 13 points and 10 boards against Texas A & M on Nov. 27.

Convo Gets New Moniker: The Vikings were on the road for so long in December and January that the building they play in had a new name when they got back. The CSU Convocation Center officially became the Bert L. & Iris S. Wolstein Center on Jan. 21 when the CSU Board of Trustees approved the name change to honor the couple for their $6.25 million commitment to the CSU Foundation. Bert Wolstein, who passed away last May, was a graduate of the Cleveland-Marshall School of Law. He was a fixture in the professional sports scene in Cleveland, serving as the founder and owner of the Cleveland Force indoor soccer team, which will continue to play all of its home games in the Wolstein Center.

Neidermeyer, Alive: With apologies for the Animal House rip-off, Kim Neidermeyer's performance on Feb. 10 against Loyola was eye-opening to say the least. The Willoughby Hills, Ohio native posted career highs for points (13) and field goals made (6) playing just 11 minutes. Entering the contest, she had scored just 11 points all season, making two field goals in 61 minutes spanning 15 games.

Line-Up Shuffles: Due to injuries and various other contributing factors, Kate Peterson has been forced to use seven different starting line-ups this season. After starting the first 24 games, senior center Mandy Sichtung (who has been playing with a stress fracture in her foot all year) came off the bench on Saturday at Detroit as the Vikings went with a four-guard line-up. CSU employed just three different starting line-ups in 2003-04.

Heavens To Betsy: Prior to an 0-for-6 effort on Feb. 5 at Butler, sophomore guard Betsy Bowser had scored in double-digits in four straight games, averaging 15.0 points. She had averaged just 3.4 points through the first 16 contests. Included in the recent outburst was a career-high 17 points against both UIC (1/22) and Youngstown State (2/2). In her first career start on Jan. 22 against UW-Green Bay, the Galveston, Ind. native notched 16 points, five rebounds and three assists. During her recent hot streak, Bowser shot .488 (20-41) from the floor and an even more impressive .500 from three-point range (11-22), while averaging 3.3 assists and 2.8 rebounds. Before injuring her back on Feb. 10, she had averaged a team-high 32.8 minutes in the previous five games, including a career-best 37 against Youngstown St. on Feb. 2.

Harrington Show: Junior guard Omega Harrington erupted for a career-high 20 points in the Jan. 3 win over UIC. She went 5-for-8 from the field, 2-for-2 from three-point and 8-for-9 from the line in 27 minutes of action. The Indianapolis native is averaging 8.6 points, 2.6 rebounds and 2.8 assists in the last 14 contests after posting a modest 4.3 points in 13.0 minutes of action in the three games after making her Viking debut on Dec. 19 at Ohio. Harrington transferred to CSU last January after playing 36 games at Duquesne.

On The Bright Side: Cleveland State's travels in December and January do have one fringe benefit — the Vikings close out the year with a plethora of home games. Starting with the Jan. 26 game with UW-Green Bay, CSU will take to the Wolstein Center court six times in their last nine games, including a Senior Day affair on Feb. 26.

Vikings Dropped At Detroit: Detroit sent its five seniors off in style, defeating Cleveland State, 62-53. The Titans shot just 33.3 percent for the game (21-63), but the Vikings missed 12 of their first 14 shots and were just 37.3 percent overall (19-51) en route to losing for the 14th time in 15 tries in Calihan Hall. Bowser paced Cleveland State with nine points. Detroit took advantage of CSU's early shooting woes to claim an 18-5 lead eight minutes into the game. After taking a 31-20 margin into the locker room, Detroit opened the second half with a quick 12-5 run to push the lead to 18.

Sweet Home Indiana: The Feb. 5 trip to Butler provided six members of the CSU team their only trip home this season. All four seniors (Jill Barnbrook, Maria Rickards, Christina Shrake & Mandy Sichtung) hail from Indiana, as do junior Omega Harrington and sophomore Betsy Bowser. Harrington is an Indianapolis native and attended the same high school (North Central) as assistant Kyle Rechlicz.

Center Stings Opponents: Senior center Mandy Sichtung scored a career-high 19 points on Dec. 11 against Toledo, going 9-for-15 from the field. On the year, she ranks second in the league in field goal percentage at .540 (81-150). The Martinsville, Ind. native is a career 55.4 percent shooter from the floor (199-359) — a number that would rank first in school history if she met the minimum for attempts (400). However, she had not reached 100 attempts in any of her first three seasons, prior to surpassing the mark during the Jan. 8 game with Detroit. Her best season came in 2002-03 when she knocked down 59 of her 93 field goal attempts — an impressive 63.4 percent clip.

Newcomers Continue To Make Impact: Freshmen Brittany Korth and Robyn Hoying have failed to crack the starting lineup just 14 out of 50 possible times this season (all but one coming in the last six games). Korth is averaging 6.3 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.4 assists, while Hoying has recorded 3.2 points and 4.2 rebounds. Korth flirted with a triple-double against Akron on Dec. 7 before finishing with 15 points, eight rebounds and seven assists, while Hoying is second on the team in total rebounds (106) and had a career-high 12 points versus Toledo.

Charitable Musings: Cleveland State has turned in two of the top efforts in school history from the free throw line this season. The Vikings tied for fifth all-time by going 18-for-20 (.900) at the line at Texas State on Nov. 26, before turning in the ninth-best performance ever at Loyola on Jan. 15 (15-17, .882).

Unfortunately, CSU has made just 65.0 percent (266-409) of its charity tosses in the other 22 games. The Vikings converted 70.9 percent (406-563) of their free throws last season, good for the third-best mark in school history.

Martin Shines: Junior guard Erin Martin, who scored 21 points against Akron on Dec. 7, was named the Horizon League Player of the Week for Dec. 6-12. It was the first time the Canfield, Ohio native was honored in her career. Martin put together back-to-back solid efforts for the Vikings, averaging 19.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists. In the win over the Zips, she knocked down five three-pointers en route to a season-high 21 points. On Dec. 11 against Toledo, she nearly recorded a triple-double, finishing with 17 points and career-highs of eight rebounds and eight assists.

Attendance Marks: A Wolstein Center crowd of 1,037 watched Cleveland State open the season against Virginia on Nov. 19. The attendance was the fourth-highest ever for a women's game and the third-best in non-doubleheader action. The record of 2,173 was set against Western Illinois on Feb. 14, 1993. In addition, the 5,647 fans at Iowa State were the fourth most to ever watch CSU take the court. The highest total came when 6,831 Badger fans showed up to watch Wisconsin on Feb. 11, 1997. The following is a breakdown of the top five attendance marks, both home and overall:

Home Games	All Games
2,173 vs. Western Illinois, 2-14-93	6,831 at Wisconsin, 2-11-97
1,607 vs. Detroit (DH), 1-25-03	6,679 at Ohio State, 12-9-99
1,217 vs. Eastern Illinois, 1-16-94	6,402 at Notre Dame, 11-26-02
1,037 vs. Virginia, 11-19-04	5,647 at Iowa State, 11-21-04
1,023 vs. Northern Illinois (DH), 1-13-96	5,204 at Wisconsin, 1-20-05

Team Goes Clubbing: The Vikings hit a different kind of club on Dec. 4, hosting a pair of clinics for the Boys & Girls Club of Cleveland. The players spent two hours at both the Mt. Pleasant Club and the West Side Club, teaching fundamentals, working on skills drills and passing on their love of basketball to nearly 50 kids.

Rickards Earns Tourney Honor: Senior guard Maria Rickards earned all-tournament honors for her play at the CenturyTel Bobcat Classic on Nov. 26-27. The New Albany, Ind. native came off the bench and went 9-of-15 from the field (.600) en route to averaging a team-best 11.0 points. She also tallied down nine rebounds and two steals.

Home Improvement: The Nov. 19 game with Virginia served as the regular season debut of a new seating configuration in the Wolstein Center. The court has been shifted to the east, towards the Viking Loge, with a curtain being added behind the western edge of the playing surface. The move reduces the seating capacity in Goodman Arena to just under 9,000, while creating an area on the western end of the floor (behind the curtain) that will be used as a fan zone before the four doubleheaders.

Cagers Broaden Radio Coverage: The women's basketball program took another step forward last season when the Vikings' last five games were broadcast live over the internet. This year, all 12 home games — and a 30 minute pregame show — will be streamed live on CSUVikings.com and SportstalkCleveland.com. In addition, the games against Toledo (Dec. 11), Detroit (Jan. 8), UW-Milwaukee (Feb. 12) and Wright State (Feb. 26) will air live on WKNR 850 AM. David Wilson will serve as the voice of the Vikings. The Chagrin Falls resident doubles as the voice of the Lake County Captains (a Class A affiliate of the Cleveland Indians). Jason Gibbs — the host of the Mike Garland radio show — will join Wilson on the four games broadcast on WKNR.

Vikings Ink Trio In Early Signing Period: Katie Baxter, Dominique Butler and Natalie Miller signed national letters of intent to attend Cleveland State and play basketball beginning in the fall of 2005.

A 6-2 post player, Baxter earned honorable mention all-league honors last year at Hilliard Davidson High School (just northwest of Columbus, Ohio). As a junior, she averaged 8.0 points and 9.0 rebounds while shooting 50 percent from the floor and 70 percent from the free throw line.

Butler was rated as the 20th-best shooting guard in the country and the 149th-best player overall by All-Star Girls Report. She averaged 16.5 points, 7.0 rebounds and 5.5 steals as a junior at Milwaukee Madison High School. A 5-9 swing player, she was a first team all-conference selection last year.

A 2004 first team all-Ohio selection at Dover High School, Miller heads into her senior season needing just 52 points to become the school's all-time leading scorer. A 5-10 small forward, she earned league and district player of the year honors, averaging 16.7 points, 6.0 rebounds, 3.0 steals and 2.1 assists while shooting 52 percent from the field.

Double Dip: After playing seven doubleheaders last season, the men's and women's teams share just four dates at home in 2004-05. All four twin bills fall on Saturdays with the women's games tipping at 3:00 p.m. with the men following at 5:30. The dates are as follows:

Date	Women's Game	Men's Game
12/11	Toledo	Kent State
1/8	Detroit	Youngstown State
2/12	UW-Milwaukee	Illinois-Chicago
2/26	Wright State	UW-Milwaukee

Up Next: Cleveland State closes out the regular season against Wright State on Saturday, Feb. 26 as the first game of a doubleheader. Prior to the contest, seniors Jill Barnbrook, Maria Rickards, Christina Shrake and Mandy Sichtung will be honored.

Game 1 — Virginia's size and depth proved to be too much for Cleveland State to overcome, as the Vikings fell, 65-55, in their season-opener. A Convocation Center crowd of 1,037 saw the Cavaliers post a 32-20 scoring margin in the paint and a 37-14 advantage off the bench. CSU led 24-21 on a Maria Rickards' jumper with 9:11 remaining in the first half. However, the Vikings would go nearly 13 minutes without a basket as UVa took control of the game. Erin Martin paced the Vikings with 14 points and three steals, while Mandy Sighting added 11 points and five rebounds.

Game 2 — Iowa State broke open a tight game with a 22-0 run over the final 6:01 of the first half en route to a 95-46 victory. The Cyclones shot 47.7 percent from the floor (31-65) while limiting the Vikings (0-2) to just 26.2 percent (17-65). The Vikings trailed by just three (22-19) with under nine minutes remaining in the first half, but the ISU scored 28 of the final 31 points in the stanza to carry a 50-22 lead into the locker room. Betsy Bowser came off the bench to score a career-high 12 points, while Erin Martin tallied 10 points and three rebounds.

Game 3 — Cleveland State struggled in the second half as Dayton used a late surge to prevail 73-62. Brittany Korth led a balanced CSU scoring attack with 11 points. Erin Martin and Maria Rickards added 10 points each for the Vikings. CSU held a 52-51 lead with 9:05 left but was saddled with heavy foul trouble as three starters were all on the bench with four fouls. CSU continued its offensive struggles in the contest, shooting just .370 from the field (20-54) and .640 from the line (16-25).

Game 4 — Cleveland State was done in by another poor shooting performance, as the Vikings went just 15-for-52 (28.8 percent) from the field in a 65-54 loss at Texas State on the opening day of the CenturyTel Bobcat Classic. The Bobcats led 32-30 five minutes into the second half, but broke open the game with a 12-0 run over the next three minutes. Erin Martin paced the Vikings with 15 points, while Maria Rickards and Brittany Korth both added 12.

Game 5 — Texas A & M used a strong second half performance to defeat Cleveland State, 89-58, on the final day of the CenturyTel Bobcat Classic. Leading by just two (36-34) in the opening minute of the second half, the Aggies would score 11 straight points and 22 of the next 28 to take a commanding 58-40 advantage with 12 minutes remaining. A & M shot 63.6 percent (21-33) in the second half and turned 28 CSU turnovers into 34 points. Nicole Thomas tallied 13 points and 10 rebounds to pace the Vikings.

Game 6 — CSU dropped its sixth straight game, losing 88-51 decision at Central Michigan. The Vikings led 12-6 early on, but shot just 31.3 percent (20-64) for the game while the Chippewas knocked down 55.2 percent (32-58) of their field goals. Freshman guard Brittany Korth led CSU with a career-high 14 points, while senior center Mandy Sighting added 12 points.

Game 7 — Propelled by second half runs of 12-3 and 11-0, Cleveland State overcame an 11-point second half deficit en route to stopping Akron, 77-74. The Vikings shot a season-high 50.0 percent (27-54) from the field, including a 61.5 percent (16-26) mark in the final 20 minutes as they erased a nine-point deficit with nine minutes remaining. Erin Martin knocked down five three-pointers as part of a game-high 21 points, while Brittany Korth tallied career-highs with 15 points, eight rebounds and seven assists. Jill Barnbrook sparked the Vikings with 14 points off the bench.

Game 8 — Cleveland State never led, as the Vikings fell to Toledo, 81-67. The Rockets shot 52.5 percent from the field, including a 10-for-20 effort from behind the three-point line. Toledo jumped out to a 17-8 lead with 13:45 left and used an 18-4 run spanning halftime to effectively put the game away. Mandy Sighting paced the Vikings with a career-high 19 points, while Erin Martin nearly recorded a triple-double, finishing with 17 points and career-highs of eight rebounds and eight assists.

Game 9 — Despite a career-high 16 points from Jill Barnbrook, Cleveland State dropped a 62-56 decision at Ohio. The Vikings led 32-28 at the half thanks to a 55.1 percent (15-29) effort from the floor. However, CSU made just 28.1 (9-32) percent of its shots in the final 20 minutes. The Vikings shot just 1-for-17 (5.9 percent) from behind the three-point arc, while Ohio knocked down 14 of its 16 free throws (87.5 percent). Keena Rembert added nine points and six rebounds.

Game 10 — Despite holding the Penguins to an opponent season-low 36.7 field goal percentage, Cleveland State fell at Youngstown State, 74-52, in the Horizon League-opener for both schools. The Vikings were just 17-for-55 (30.9 percent) from the floor and 15-for-29 (51.7 percent) from the free throw line in addition to being out-rebounded 51-38. Jill Barnbrook led the way for CSU with 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting.

Game 11 — Western Illinois extended the nation's third-longest home winning streak to 31 games with a 67-50 victory over Cleveland State. After falling behind 4-0 in the game's opening minutes, the Westerwinds went on a 14-0 run, gaining a lead they would never relinquish. CSU shot 35.3 percent (18-51) for the game, while WIU knocked down 45.8 percent (27-59) of its shots thanks in part to a 38-16 scoring advantage in the paint. Mandy Sighting paced the Vikings with 12 points.

Game 12 — Cleveland State put together its most complete game of the season as it upended UIC 75-68. The Vikings used a 28-6 run late in the first half to erase an 11-point deficit and grab a lead they would never relinquish. CSU held a decisive 22-10 advantage in made free throws and had a season-best plus-12 (47-35) margin on the boards. Erin Martin matched her career high with 25 points, while Omega Harrington tallied a career-best 20 points. The pair combined to go 16-19 (.842) from the line.

Halftime: Toledo 44, Cleveland

Game 13 — Cleveland State turned the ball over 28 times and Wright State shot 54.2 percent from the field in an 81-52 Raider victory. WSU scored 31 points off of CSU's miscues, held a 40-25 advantage on the boards and limited the Vikings to a 36.0 shooting percentage. Erin Martin paced CSU with 18 points while Christina Shrake came off the bench to score a career-high 10 points.

Game 14 — Poor shooting once again hampered Cleveland State in a 70-60 loss to Detroit. The Vikings were just 17-for-57 (29.8 percent) from the floor and 7-for-23 (30.4 percent) from three-point. The Titans used a 14-3 run midway through the second half to build a 52-36 advantage with 11:31 remaining. Omega Harrington led CSU with 17 points, while Erin Martin tallied 13 points and 10 rebounds for her first career double-double.

Game 15 — Cleveland State put together its best half of the season, but came up just short in a 71-66 loss at UW-Milwaukee. Trailing by 11 at the half, the Vikings shot 59.4 percent (19-32) in the final 20 minutes, eventually taking a three-point lead at 66-63 with 1:55 remaining. However, CSU went scoreless the rest of the way as the Panthers knocked down a jumper and all six of their free throws. The game was decided at the charity stripe as UWM went 28-for-34 (including 22-25 in the second half), while the Vikings were just 6-for-11. Erin Martin led the way with 17 points, five rebounds and three steals, while Betsy Bowser added 10 points.

Game 16 — Timely three-point shooting by Loyola and another poor shooting effort by Cleveland State led to a 66-58 Rambler victory. Loyola knocked down 10 three-pointers and the Vikings shot just 27.8 percent from the floor. Mandy Sichtung led CSU with 17 points and eight rebounds, while Betsy Bowser tallied 10 points and five boards. The Vikings held a 46-37 rebounding margin, but could convert 21 offensive boards into just 14 points. The Ramblers shot 44.0 percent from the field and 43.5 percent from three-point. CSU was just 15.8 percent from three.

Game 17 — Cleveland State fell at Wisconsin 87-71 in a homecoming game of sorts for coaches Kate Peterson and Kyle Rechlicz. Trailing 57-32 with 17 minutes remaining, the Vikings went on a 21-4 run over the next seven minutes to pull within eight. However, the Badgers responded with an 11-1 burst to regain control of the game. The teams combined to shoot 74 free throws as 50 fouls were called on a poor-shooting night for both squads. Mandy Sichtung paced CSU with 17 points, while Erin Martin and Betsy Bowser added 16 and 10 points, respectively.

Game 18 — A season-high 12 three-pointers were not enough to overcome 22 turnovers as Cleveland State fell at UIC, 82-70. The Flames, who committed a season-low nine turnovers, converted CSU's miscues into 20 points as they never trailed in the game. Erin Martin posted her second double-double of the season with 23 points and 10 rebounds, while Betsy Bowser tallied career-highs of 17 points, four three-pointers and five assists.

Game 19 — Cleveland State struggled against league-leading UW-Green Bay, as the Vikings dropped an 88-59 decision to the Phoenix in the Wolstein Center. UWGB used an early 15-0 run to lead 43-15 at the half and was never seriously challenged. The Phoenix turned 19 CSU turnovers into 28 points and enjoyed a 20-6 advantage in made free throws. Erin Martin led the Vikings with 18 points, seven rebounds and six assists. Betsy Bowser added 16 points. UWGB's Nicole Soulis scored a career-high 26 points off the bench.

Game 20 — Cleveland State held visiting Youngstown State to an opponent season low .267 field goal percentage (20-75) en route to a 64-58 victory. The Vikings didn't shoot much better (20-59, .339), but put four players in double figures, led by a career-high tying 17 points from Betsy Bowser. YSU erased a 31-21 deficit early in the second half with a 13-2 run to take a one-point lead. However, Bowser answered with a three-pointer to put CSU ahead for good as the Vikings made 19 second-half free throws after not getting to the line once in the opening 20 minutes.

Game 21 — Cleveland State shot just 29.7 percent (19-64) from the field and Butler scored 46 points in the paint as the Bulldogs cruised to a 78-57 victory in a game broadcast on Fox Sports. Maria Rickards led the Vikings with a season-high 16 points. Butler connected on 45.0 percent (27-60) of its shots and turned 18 CSU turnovers into 21 points. The Bulldogs led 40-30 at the half and increased to lead to as much as 27 late in the second stanza. Nicole Thomas had a career-high 13 rebounds for the Vikings.

Game 22 — Loyola shot 50.0 percent in the second half and Cleveland State converted a season-low 41.2 percent from the free throw line as the Ramblers earned a 78-69 victory. Loyola used second half runs of 9-2 and 13-3 to pull away after leading 33-31 at the break. Erin Martin paced the Vikings with 16 points, seven assists and six rebounds, while Kim Neidermeyer erupted for a career-high 13 points in just 11 minutes.

Game 23 — UW-Milwaukee used a 17-5 run late in the second half to pull out a 69-61 decision over Cleveland State. The Vikings shot a season-high .579 (11-19) from three-point, but went just 11-for-38 (.289) from two-point en route to shooting .386 overall. UWM turned 19 offensive rebounds in 19 points and converted 14 free throws to just six for CSU. Maria Rickards knocked down five three-pointers en route to a season high 18 points while Erin Martin added 11 points and nine rebounds.

Game 24 — No. 23 UW-Green Bay shot 64.5 percent (34-64) in the first half en route to a 78-61 win over Cleveland State, extending its winning streak to 16 games. The Phoenix committed a season-low seven turnovers and scored 44 points in the paint. Erin Martin led the Vikings with 19 points, while Omega Harrington finished with 16. Tiffany Mor had a game-high 23 points and Abby Scharlow nearly had a triple-double with 12 points, 11 assists and nine rebounds.

Game 25 — Detroit sent its five seniors off in style, defeating Cleveland State, 62-53. The Titans shot just 33.3 percent for the game (21-63), but the Vikings missed 12 of their first 14 shots and were just 37.3 percent overall (19-51) en route to losing for the 14th time in 15 tries in Calihan Hall. Betsy Bowser paced Cleveland State with nine points. Detroit took advantage of CSU's early shooting woes to claim an 18-5 lead eight minutes into the game. After taking a 31-20 margin into the locker room, Detroit opened the second half with a quick 12-5 run to push the lead to 18.
