BETH PAWLAK AWARD

Central Michigan softball gives out only one team award, the Beth Pawlak Award.

The award began in 1998 as a memorial to former player Beth Pawlak, who was killed in an automobile crash during the winter of her junior season.

The award is voted on by the team and recognizes the dedicated player whose leadership, hard work, and positive attitude serve as an inspiration to those she encounters both on and off the field.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The Central Michigan University Softball Silver Anniversary Team (1979-2003) was selected by voting done by the general public on CMU's Official Athletics Web site, cmuchippewas.com. A total of 35 former players appeared on the ballot. Those players were selected by a nomination committee. Players who received major national or conference awards were automatically nominated, along with two-time first team all-conference or all-region selections. The committee selected additional nominees based on career honors, records held and contributions to the program.
