GAMEDAY STORYLINES

- Coastal and South Alabama are meeting for the fourth time overall, and second time this season. The Chants fell to the Jags on Jan. 18 in Mobile, tipping the series 2-1 in favor of USA. Saturday marks USA's first trip to Conway.
- Coastal snapped Troy's six-game winning streak with an 84-71 victory on Thursday night (full recap page 8). The Chants defeated the Trojans twice in the regular season, and have now swept two regular season series against Sun Belt opponents since joining the league (previous was App State in 2016-17).
- Jas Adams scored 40 points in Thursday's win, finishing just short of the Coastal program record of 45 points set by Andrea Singleton in 1985-86. Adams is only the second player in program history to reach 40 points, and set the HTC Center single-game record. She also had 11 rebounds for her second double-double of the season.
- Adams is now the Sun Belt's leading scorer once again, a position she held from Dec. 4 - Jan. 13 this season.
- Naheria Hamilton colled her seventh double-double of the season Thursday, scoring a career-high 18 points while leading the team with 12 rebounds.
- USA fell in overtime at App State on Thursday, extending its current losing streak to four games.

2017-18 COASTAL CAROLINA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME 26 • SOUTH ALABAMA • HTC CENTER • FEB. 17

UP NEXT

- Coastal heads to Arkansas to face Little Rock and Arkansas State for the second time this season.
- The Chants fell to both teams at the HTC Center to close out the month of January.

COASTAL'S ONE-TWO PUNCH

- Jas Adams and DJ Williams continue to be two of the top point producers in the Sun Belt.
- Adams is the Sun Belt's leading scorer while Williams currently ranks fifth in points per game.
- Adams has scored in double figures in all but three games this season, including a stretch of 10 straight games from Dec. 4-Jan. 13. Williams has reached that mark in all but six games.
- The two have combined to score over 30 points as a pair in 18 of Coastal's 25 games this year.

ADAMS BACK ON TOP

- A 40-point performance against Troy on Feb. 15 returned Jas Adams to the top of the Sun Belt scoring race. She led the league in scoring from Dec. 4-Jan. 13 before dropping as low as third place.
- Adams has surpassed 20 points in each of her last four games, and five of her last seven.
- She is averaging 21.8 ppg in her last seven games dating back to Jan. 20.

ADAMS SCORES 1,000

- Jas Adams became the 15th Coastal women's basketball player to score 1,000 career points. The senior reached the milestone while scoring 24 points at UTA on Feb. 3.
- Adams became Coastal's 12th all-time scorer following a 29-point game vs. App State (Feb. 10). Currently sitting at 1,092 career points, she will look to catch Janice Dewitt (1983-84) at 1,179.
- Adams is on pace to be Coastal's ninth player to score 500 points in a season, and first since AJ Jordan accomplished the feat as a senior in 2014-15.

WILLIAMS' COMPLETE GAME

- DJ Williams ranks in the top 10 in the Sun Belt in five categories on both sides of the ball.
- In addition to being fifth in scoring, Williams ranks second in assists, fourth in steals, sixth in rebounds and 10th in minutes.
- Williams set a career high with 29 points at South Alabama on Jan. 18, and matched that effort at Texas State on Feb. 2.

HAMILTON DOUBLES HER DOUBLE-DOUBLES

- Naheria Hamilton collected four double-doubles in her last six games, more than doubling her season total to seven.
- Hamilton's latest included a career-high 18 points, and 12 rebounds versus Troy on Feb. 15.
- The sophomore center is now fifth in the Sun Belt in rebounding averaging just fewer than eight rpg.
- Hamilton is also third in the conference in blocks per game, and has recorded a career high of five rejections on three occasions this season.

BLANDING'S CAREER HIGH

- Junior point guard Breelyn Blanding scored a career high 21 points in Coastal's win over UTA on Dec. 31. She later matched that with 21 points in Coastal's win at Troy on Jan. 20.
- It was her first game scoring 20 or more points. Her previous high was nine points, which she reached in three games this season.
- The Chants are 6-2 this season when Blanding scores nine or more points.

SECOND HALF CHANTS

- Since Coastal began its Sun Belt schedule, the Chants are averaging over 36 points in the second half compared to 30 points in the first half of games.
- Coastal has scored more second-half points in 12 of its 14 conference games.
- The Chants are particularly strong in the third quarter, averaging 18 points coming out of the halftime break.

Williams is the sixth head coach in the 43-year history of Coastal Carolina women's basketball.

CAMP AWARDED LINDA P. HOLLANDSWORTH SCHOLARSHIP

- On Jan. 10, Janae Camp was awarded the Linda P. Hollandsworth Scholarship. The recently contributed scholarship is to be awarded annually to a CCU women's basketball player that is in good academic standing, and strives for greatness both on the court and in the classroom.
- Camp, a freshman, surpassed a 3.0 GPA in her first semester despite having moderate to severe dyslexia, which is genetic in her family.
- Because of her dyslexia, Camp was homeschooled and played basketball at TPLS Academy in Richmond, Va.
- Camp is one of 18 children in her family, including part of one of two sets of twins. Janae's twin, Janeen, was also homeschooled because of her dyslexia, and played alongside Janae at TPLS.

WINNERS IN THE CLASSROOM

- Eight of the 12 team members finished the 2017 fall semester with a 3.0 GPA or higher.
- Isiwuwa Oghagbon made the President's list with a perfect 4.0 GPA, while Mery Visone, Kaylin West and Jamie Williams made Dean's list with a 3.5 GPA or higher.
- Senior Jas Adams graduated cum laude in December with a BS in Management.

ADAMS NAMED SUN BELT PLAYER OF THE WEEK (x2)

- Jas Adams was named Sun Belt Player of the Week on Dec. 12 and Jan. 2.
- She is the first to receive the award since Coastal moved to Sun Belt in 2016, and first Chant to win multiple conference Player of the Week honors in a season since AJ Jordan (now on the coaching staff) in 2013-14.
- The first honor saw Adams average 22.5 points in wins over Fort Wayne and NC Central. She shot 55 percent from the field that week, was 8-13 from 3-point range and a perfect 7-7 at the free-throw line. She played 45 minutes and scored 29 points (both career highs) in the overtime win against Fort Wayne.
- The second time, Adams averaged 20.3 points and 7.3 rebounds as Coastal went 3-1 with wins against Wofford, UTA and Texas State, and a loss to #23 Syracuse. She recorded her first double-double (17 pts, 12 reb) of the season against Wofford, and scored 22 and 24 points versus UTA and Texas State, respectively, to lead Coastal to a 2-0 conference start.

HOME SWEET HOME

- Coastal plays 17 regular season games at the HTC Center during the 2017-18 season, tying the women's record for most regular season games played in the arena. The Chants were also at home for 17 regular season games during the 2014-15 season.
- Coastal did not play its first true road game of the season until it traveled to ULM on Jan. 4.
- The Chants' non-conference schedule included three neutral-site games, two in the San Juan Shootout (Daytona Beach, Fla.) and one in the Carolinas Challenge (Myrtle Beach Convention Center).

AT THE HTC CENTER

- Coastal is 54-36 (.600) overall playing inside the HTC Center since the building opened prior for the 2012-13 season.
- The Chants won 10 games in each of the first three seasons in which the arena was open, followed by eight wins in 2015-16 and seven wins in 2016-17.

SEASON OUTLOOK

- The 2017-18 Chants are the youngest team under head coach Jaida Williams, who is in her fifth season leading Coastal.
- This season's team features only five returners, including one returning starter in sophomore center Naheria Hamilton. Jas Adams is the team's only senior.
- The rest of the roster is comprised of seven newcomers, all of whom are freshmen.
- During Williams' tenure, the previous high in freshmen on a single team was six (2015-16) while the previous low in seniors was two (2014-15).

Adams Scores 40 as Coastal Topples Troy

CONWAY, S.C. - Jas Adams scored a career high 40 points to lead the Coastal Carolina women's basketball team to an 84-71 victory over Troy on Thursday at the HTC Center.

Coastal improves to 13-12, 7-7 with the victory, and snapped a six-game winning streak for Troy, which falls to 13-11, 8-5.

Adams became just the second Chanticleer in CCU women's basketball history to score 40 points in a game, and fell just five points short of tying Andrea Singleton (1985-86) for the program's single-game record of 45 points. Adams did however set the HTC Center single-game scoring record as she surpassed the previous record of 36 points scored by AJ Jordan in 2014-15.

Adams finished the night 9-of-18 from the field with six 3-pointers, and 16-of-21 at the free-throw line. After scoring just one point in the opening quarter, Adams tallied 18 points in the second. She then added 11 points in the third, and 10 in the fourth. Adams also pulled in a team-leading 11 rebounds for her second double-double of the season.

Naheria Hamilton also had a double-double, bringing her season total to seven. The sophomore center scored a career-high 18 points while hauling in 12 boards.

The Chants had previously defeated the Trojans this season on Jan. 20, making Troy the second Sun Belt school that Coastal has swept during regular season play. Coastal also won both of its regular season matchups against Appalachian State last season.

Coastal held game advantages in both field goal shooting percentage (42) and rebounds (51). The Chants also shot 71 percent at the free-throw line, converting 28 of 39 chances.

Troy received 20 points from Jasmine Sanders and 15 from Sky'Lynn Holmes. Kayla Robinson, the Sun Belt Player of the Week for the last three consecutive weeks, was held to seven points.

The first quarter included five ties and five lead changes, and ended in an 18-18 tie as the two sides matched each other basket for basket. The Chants made seven field goals, two 3-pointers and two free throws, while the Trojans countered with eight field goals, including two 3-pointers. Hamilton and Rivers led their respective teams with seven points each.

The Chants began pulling away from the Trojans in the second quarter thanks to a pair of large runs and 18 points by Adams. The senior scored Coastal's first seven points of the quarter, including the first five of a 7-0 CCU run that put the Chants in front, 27-23. Troy managed to tie the game twice more before Coastal scored 10 unanswered points in the final two minutes of the half to take a 41-31 lead. Blanding had the first two points in the run before Adams scored the final eight, bringing her halftime total to 19 points.

The Chants remained in front of the Trojans for the entirety of third quarter as Adams added another 11 points, giving her 30 points after 30 minutes of play. Coastal led by as many as 13 points in the frame following a 10-2 run. Troy responded by scoring 10 straight points, but still trailed by eight going into the fourth quarter.

Adams tacked on 10 more points in the final quarter as the Chants enjoyed a double-digit lead for all but 45 seconds of the frame.

Coastal Falls on the Road at South Alabama

MOBILE, Ala. -The Coastal Carolina women's basketball team suffered a 68-62 loss at South Alabama on Thursday evening inside the Mitchell Center. The Chants fell behind by over 20 points in the first half, which proved to be too large of a deficit to overcome despite making it a two-possession game with two minutes remaining.

The Chants fall to 10-8, 4-3 with the loss and remain winless on the road this season. South Alabama improves to 12-5, 5-1.

USA, which entered the contest as the top shooting team in the Sun Belt, finished the game shooting 40 percent from the field. The Jags made 12 3-pointers for the game while holding the Chants to just one.

Chyna Ellis paced the Jags with a 12 point, 10 rebound, 10 block triple-double, the first in USA history since 1989. Ellis' fourth block of the game gave her the Sun Belt Conference record in career blocks. Savannah Jones had team-leading 17 points, and Genesis Perrymond added 11.

DJ Williams had a career scoring effort in the loss, leading all players with 29 points. Williams made 11 baskets on 21 attempts, the highest field goal percentage for a Chant with over 15 attempts from the field this season. She was also 7-of-10 on free throws, one of the few Chants to perform well at the line as Coastal finished 17-of-28 as a team.

Jas Adams, Coastal's leading scorer this season, saw her 10-game streak of scoring in double figures come to an end as the senior finished with seven points.

Following a pair of DJ Williams' free throws to begin the game, South Alabama scored 13 unanswered points to go ahead by double figures in the game's first five minutes. Erin Autio scored USA's first nine points on 3-pointers, and the Jags hit three more triples before the quarter came to an end. USA finished the opening frame with seven straight points to take a 30-14 lead. Williams and Naheria Hamilton scored 12 of Coastal's 14 first-quarter points.

South Alabama's 68 field goal shooting percentage in the first quarter dropped to 29 percent in the second, but four of the Jags' five baskets came from beyond the arc. Perrymond made two of the 3-pointers in the first half of the quarter, and Ellis hit consecutive triples in the final minute to give USA a 47-26 lead at halftime.

USA's shooting percentage dropped even further in the third quarter as the Jags made just three of their 16 attempts. Coastal was able to trim a 21-point deficit to just eight points over the 10 minutes, scoring 10 unanswered points over a four-minute span and totaling 19 for the quarter. Williams made half of Coastal's six field goals in the period, and added another two points at the free-throw line. The Chants got seven of their points in the quarter at the line as USA committed eight personal fouls.

The Jags returned the margin to double figures shortly into the fourth quarter as Perrymond and Shaforia Kines hit a pair of 3-pointers. The Chants then scored eight unanswered points -- including four by Williams -- to trail by just four points with 1:36 remaining. Kines stopped the streak with a jumper, and Savannah Jones made a pair of late free throws to put the game out of reach.
