- ♦ UConn is 2-0 vs. the Big Ten with wins over Indiana in 2003 and '06.

THE COACHES

CONNECTICUT HEAD COACH RANDY EDSALL

UConn Randy Edsall has tackled the challenge of bringing a former NCAA Division I-AA team up to par with the BIG EAST in a 10-year span head on, guiding the Huskies to the 2007 BIG EAST Championship, three bowl games in the past five years with two bowl wins.

He is beginning his 12th season at UConn and has led the Huskies to wins in 55 of the UConn's last 90 games dating back to the ninth game of the 2002 season. He has a 57-41 (.582) mark through the first 98 games of UConn's tenure at the FBS level. His overall career mark at UConn stands at 66-65.

Saturday's game against Michigan will be the 132nd of his UConn career --the most of any coach in UConn history. He topped the mark of 121 set by J.O. Christian (1934-49). His 66 career coaching wins at UConn is tied as the most in school history along with Christian.

Immediately prior to becoming UConn's head coach in 1998, Edsall served as defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech in 1998 under George O'Leary. Edsall began his coaching career at his alma mater, Syracuse, from 1980-1990, working under Frank Maloney and Dick MacPherson in a variety of capacities. Edsall moved on to Boston College where he coached defensive backs under Tom Coughlin from 1991-93 before following Coughlin to the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars, staying on the First Coast through the 1997 season.

Edsall is a native of Glen Rock, Pa., and graduated from Susquehannock High School. He was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

MICHIGAN HEAD COACH RICH RODRIGUEZ

Rich Rodriguez is entering his third season in charge of the Michigan program and is just the school's 11th head coach since 1901. Prior to coming to Michigan, he was the head coach at West Virginia for seven years -- his alma mater. He had a 60-28 record at WVU and led the school to four BIG EAST titles and six consecutive bowl games.

Before becoming the coach at WVU, he was the offensive coordinator and associate head coach at Clemson in 1999 and 2000. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Tulane the two years before that.

He was the head coach at Salem in 1988 and at Glenville State from 1990-96. Rodriguez was a three-year letterwinner at WVU as a defensive back.

RADIO & TV COVERAGE

TELEVISION COVERAGE

Saturday's game will be televised live by ABC Sports and is one of three games in the time spot joined by Kentucky at Louisville and UCLA at Kansas State. Sean McDonough is on play-by-play while Matt Millen is on color and Heather Cox is on sidelines. Bo Garrett is the producer and Mike Roag is the director.

RADIO COVERAGE

For the 19th consecutive season, WTIC 1080-AM in Hartford serves as the flagship station for the UConn Radio Network. WTIC is the state's only 50,000 watt signal and can be heard in 23 states and parts of Canada.

Veteran UConn announcers Joe D'Ambrosio (play-by-play) and Wayne Norman (color commentary) return to call the action with Kevin Nathan on the sidelines and E.B. Davis on production.

The UConn pregame show begins 90 minutes prior to kickoff, while home games, the UConn Tailgate Show will air two and a half hours prior to the game with Arnold Dean.

The UConn Football Radio Network also includes WILI 1400-AM in Willimantic, WSUB 980-AM in New London, WLIS 1420-AM in Old Saybrook and WMRD-1150 AM in Middletown. UConn football games are also broadcast over the internet at WTIC.com.

UConn AND SNY

SNY, the television home of the New York Mets, Jets and the BIG EAST Conference, in conjunction with the University of Connecticut announced in August of 2010 a comprehensive, multi-year partnership that makes SNY "the official television home of the UConn Huskies football and men's basketball programs".

Beginning this September, SNY will annually feature 300 hours of UConn programming - including 120 hours of Huskies game coverage. Additionally, SNY will significantly expand its UConn sports coverage throughout its sports news and entertainment programming. SNY will also create a UConn Huskies sports section on the network's website - www.SNY.tv.

As the TV home of UConn football, SNY is planning to air approximately five live games in 2010 - which will be wrapped by in-depth post-game shows - produced by SNY. In addition to the network's live game coverage, SNY will carry the following UConn Huskies football programming:

- ▶ Comprehensive UConn Huskies Football Season Preview Show
- ▶ Randy Edsall's Weekly Press Conference
- ▶ In-Depth Post-Game Shows (Following all SNY-televised UConn football games)
- ▶ UConn Huskies Season-in-Review/Bowl Preview Special
- ▶ UConn's "Football Signing Day" Press Conference
- ▶ Re-airs of every UConn Huskies Football Game (subject to availability)
- ▶ Huskies Power Hour: A 60-minute cut-down version of that week's game.
- ▶ SNY Spotlight with Head Coach Randy Edsall. SNY Spotlight is an exclusive signature series - created by SNY's Original Entertainment Division - that features in-depth interviews with New York's most influential leaders in sports and entertainment.

When the college basketball season tips off, SNY's all-access pass will feature at least 13 UConn Men's basketball contests and a minimum of one Women's basketball contest each season.

SERIES NOTES

HUSKIES VS. MICHIGAN ALL-TIME

Saturday's game will be the first meeting between Connecticut and Michigan in the sport of football. Michigan will travel to Connecticut to play at Rentschler Field in East Hartford on Sept. 21, 2013.

HUSKIES VS. BIG TEN ALL-TIME

Saturday's game is the third time in school history that Connecticut has played against a Big Ten school. UConn won a pair of games against Indiana -- at home on August 30, 2003 (34-10 win in the dedication game of Rentschler Field) and in Bloomington with a 14-7 win on September 23, 2006.

"THE BIG HOUSE"

It is anticipated that Saturday's game at Michigan Stadium will be the largest crowd in the history of NCAA football, topping the mark of 112,118 at Michigan Stadium for the Michigan-Ohio State game on Nov. 24, 2003.

The largest crowd for a UConn game currently stands at 80,795 when the Huskies won at Notre Dame on November 21, 2009.

The capacity of Michigan Stadium at 109,901 is bigger than the population of every city and town in Connecticut except for Bridgeport, Hartford, New Haven and Stamford.

UConn VS. MICHIGAN SCHOOLS

Saturday's game is the fourth in school history against teams from the state of Michigan. The Huskies lost at Eastern Michigan in 2000 (32-25 in the season opener) and won at home 19-0 on October 6, 2001. UConn defeated Western Michigan on Nov. 1, 2003 by a score of 41-27 at Rentschler Field.

UCONN IN OPENERS

UConn is 7-1 in season openers since making the jump to then-Division I-A in 2002. UConn has won each of its five season openers at Rentschler Field (2003-Indiana, 2004-Murray State, 2005-Buffalo, 2006-Rhode Island and 2008-Hofstra) and also downed Duke, 45-14, in Durham, to open the 2007 season and Ohio University, 23-16 in Athens, to open 2009. UConn's only FBS era opening day loss was a 24-16 defeat at Boston College on Aug. 31, 2002 in UConn's first game as an official member of the FBS. Overall, UConn is 50-58-2 in season openers dating back to 1896.

UCONN AND MICHIGAN CONNECTIONS

The UConn roster does not have any Michigan natives on it nor does the Michigan roster have any native Nutmeggers on it, although Wolverine tailback Michael Cox, a native of Dorchester, Mass., prepped at Avon (Conn.) Old Farms...UConn Director of Football Alumni and Community Affairs Andy Baylock earned a master's degree from Michigan in 1962 and was a GA for the baseball team. Baylock is the former head baseball coach at UConn.

RENTSCHLER GAMEDAY

At UConn home games, FanFest takes place starting four hours before kickoff up until 30 minutes before the game. This year, it moves to between Gates A and B outside the stadium gates...The offerings change each game, but activities typically include inflatable games for children, live bands, promotional vehicles and UConn student-athletes from various team signing autographs...The "Husky Walk" is a chance for fans to welcome the UConn teams as they get off the team buses and head to the stadium. That takes place at approximately two hours and 15 minutes before kickoff between Gates A and B...UConn's home opener next week agaisnt Texas Southern will be Military Appreciation Day...Kickoff is at 12 p.m.

SQUAD NOTES

EDSALL HAS LONGEVITY AT UCONN

UConn head coach Randy Edsall is in his 12th season in charge of the Huskies and he is tied for the seventh-longest tenured FBS coach at his current job. In addition to Edsall, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz (a UConn graduate) and Oklahoma's Bob Stoops were all hired for their current jobs heading into the 1999 season. Joe Paterno is in his 45th season at Penn State to lead the way.

Edsall has now won 66 games at UConn, which ties him for the school record set by J.O. Christian (1934-49). Edsall holds the UConn school record for most games coached with 131 and broke the record of 121 held by Christian.

Edsall is the fourth coach to lead the Huskies into 100 career games, joining Christian (121), Tom Jackson (119 from 1983-93) and Robert Ingalls (106 from 1952-63).

CLOSE CALLS

UConn's five losses last season were by a combined 15 points and the Huskies have held fourth quarter leads in four of the five games.

* Sept. 12 vs. North Carolina: UConn led 10-0 after three quarters, but gave up 12 fourth quarter points for the loss. The Tar Heels scored the winning points on a safety when UConn was called for holding in the endzone.

* Oct. 10 vs. Pittsburgh: UConn led 21-3 late in the third quarter. Pittsburgh scored a TD with 12 seconds left in the third quarter and added a TD and field goal as time expired for the win.

* Oct. 24 vs. West Virginia: UConn led 17-14 at halftime and took a 24-21 lead with 3:50 to go in the fourth on an 88-yard TD play. West Virginia came right back and scored on a 56-yard running play with 2:10 to go for the win.

* Oct. 31 vs. Rutgers: UConn led 24-21 after taking their first lead of the game with 38 seconds to go. Rutgers scored on an 81-yard pass play for the 28-24 win.

* Nov. 7 vs. Cincinnati: This time a UConn comeback fell short. UConn trailed 30-10 at the half and 37-17 with 7:03 to go in the third. UConn then outscored Cincy 19-3, but failed on a two-point conversion with 5:03 to go that would have tied the game at 40-40. The teams traded TDs for the 47-45 final.

HUSKIES MAKE NATIONAL POLLS

Connecticut was in the "Also Receiving Votes" category in both the preseason Associated Press and USA Today polls. In the AP voting, UConn received 32 points and was the sixth highest-team in the ARV category. In the USA Today coaches voting, UConn was eighth in ARV with 40 points.

Connecticut was selected No. 20 in the preseason by Athlon Yearbooks and No. 23 by SI.com.

UConn's last appearance in the top 25 with a spot in both national polls came on Sunday, Sept. 28, 2008 following its win at Louisville. UConn was ranked 23rd in the USA Today coaches' poll and 24th in the Associated Press poll. The Huskies fell out of both polls following a loss to North Carolina.

During the 2008 season, UConn was ranked in the AP top 25 one week and received votes in ten of the other 16 polls. In the USA Today poll, UConn was ARV in every week but two.

UConn earned its first national rankings in 2007 as it appeared in four AP polls: 16 on Oct. 28, 16 on Nov. 14, 25 on Nov. 11 and 20 on Nov. 18. It also appeared in three USA Today polls: 20 on Oct. 28, 16 on Nov. 4 and 21 on Nov. 18.

BIG EAST PRESEASON POLL

Connecticut was picked fourth in the BIG EAST preseason media poll. It was the highest selection for the Huskies since joining the league in 2004 and UConn also received its first-ever first place vote.

Pittsburgh was first followed by Cincinnati, West Virginia, UConn, Rutgers, USF, Syracuse and Louisville.

UCONN VS. RANKED TEAMS

The November 7, 2009 game vs. Cincinnati marked the 16th time in school history that the Huskies faced a team ranked in the Associated Press poll at the time of the game. UConn's only win in those 16 games came on Oct. 27, 2007 with a 22-15 win over No. 11 South Florida. UConn first played a ranked team in the 2001 season opener at No. 9 Virginia Tech. UConn has played the country's top ranked team once when it travelled to Miami on Oct. 5, 2002.

FASTEST FROM DIVISION I-AA TO THE POLLS

SCHOOL	I-AA DEBUT	FIRST RANKING
Marshall	1997	Two years, four weeks (9/12/99)
CONNECTICUT	2002	Five years, 10 weeks (10/28/07)
South Florida	2001	Six years, three weeks (9/9/07)
Boise State	1996	Six years, 13 weeks (11/10/02)

UCONN FOOTBALL A LEADER IN ACADEMICS

The UConn football program continues to be a leader in the BIG EAST Conference in terms of academic performance by its student-athletes.

UConn was the top team in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of both October 2008 and '09 among league schools.

The UConn football program also had the highest NCAA GSR for African-American student-athletes among all state universities that participated in a bowl game in 2008.

In five of the past seven years, including 2007, '08 and '09, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate.

UConn's overall GSR in 2009 was the third-highest of the more than 50 state universities that participated in a bowl game.

In 2010, the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the UConn football team was an impressive 949 over a four-year cycle, with a one-year mark of 968 for the 2008-09 academic year.

HUSKIES VS. THE BIG EAST

UConn owns an all-time mark of 17-24 in BIG EAST Conference games since joining the league for football in 2004. The Huskies posted their best conference record with a 5-2 mark in 2007.

HUSKIES ON THE ROAD SINCE 2002

The Huskies have put together a 19-25 road record since 2002.

In non-conference road affairs over that same span, Connecticut has posted a mark of 16-9 and has won eight of its last 10 such games, including last year's wins over Ohio, Baylor and Notre Dame.

HUSKIES VS. NON-CONFERENCE FOES SINCE 2002

Connecticut boasts a 37-16 record against non-conference opponents in the regular season since making the move to the FBS in 2002.

The Huskies have won 12 of their last 15 regular season non-league games overall with the only blemishes coming via a one-point loss at Virginia (17-16) in 2007 and losses to North Carolina in 2008 and '09.

UConn has posted the following records in non-conference games: 6-6 (2002), 9-3 (2003), 4-1 (2004), 3-1 (2005), 3-2 (2006), 4-1 (2007), 4-1 (2008), 4-1 (2009).

In addition, Jordan Todman was tied for 34th in the country in rushing yards per game at 91.38 while the graduated Andre Dixon was 47th at 84.08. Lawrence Wilson was tied for tenth in tackles.

HUSKIES IN THE NFL

UConn had 11 former players that were on NFL rosters in 2009 (a school high) and 13 former Huskies are currently in NFL camps.

The 2009 NFL Draft made history for the Huskies as four UConn players were selected in the first 63 selections. UConn is the only BIG EAST school to have four players picked that early since the league was reorganized in 2005. UConn had two players selected in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The veteran of the UConn group is in his sixth year in the league. Quarterback Dan Orlovsky is in his second season with the Houston Texans after spending his first four with the Detroit Lions.

Fullback Deon Anderson is in his fourth year with the Dallas Cowboys.

UConn currently has two third-year players on NFL rosters: offensive lineman Donald Thomas with the Miami Dolphins – a 2008 sixth round draft and defensive back Tyvon Branch of the Oakland Raiders – a fourth round pick.

UConn has five NFL second year players, including Donald Brown, a running back who was UConn's first All-American in the BCS era and the Huskies' first NFL First Round Draft Pick. He's with the Indianapolis Colts and played in last year's Super Bowl.

Other second year players are: Darius Butler with the New England Patriots, William Beatty with the New York Giants, Cody Brown with the Arizona Cardinals, Julius Williams of the Jacksonville Jaguars, who made the team as a free agent; and Tyler Lorenzen of the New Orleans Saints, who was on the team's practice squad and earned a Super Bowl championship ring.

UConn rookies in the NFL are Marcus Easley, who was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round of the 2010 draft, and Robert McClain, who was picked in the seventh by Carolina. Easley has already suffered a season-ending knee injury.

Larry Taylor is in his first year in the NFL with the New York Jets after spending the previous two years in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes. He was the 2009 CFL Special Teams Player of the Year as Montreal won the Grey Cup.

HUSKIES IN THE CFL

In addition, there are six former Huskies that are playing in the Canadian Football League this year – O'Neill Wilson (British Columbia Lions) and Jordan Younger (Toronto Argonauts), are both seven-year players in the league.

Maurice Lloyd (Edmonton Eskimos) is in his fifth year in the CFL while Shawn Mayne (Montreal Alouettes) is in his fourth year while Martin Bedard (Montreal Alouettes) is in his second.

James Hargrave, who was one of the captain for the 2005 Huskies, is in his first year in the CFL with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

SCOUT TEAM PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Each week head coach Randy Edsall issues an award for the Scout Team Players of the Week.

In recognition of their hard work, those players earn a spot on the Husky travel squad and the dress list for that week's game.

GAME BALLS

After each UConn victory, head coach Randy Edsall awards game balls for the team's top performer on offense, defense and special teams.

ACTIVE CAREER LEADERS:

Robbie Frey (4), Scott Lutrus (4), Lawrence Wilson (4), Moe Petrus (2), Anthony Sherman (2), Dave Teggart (2), Cody Endres (1), Trevardo Williams (1).

HUSKIES ON THE REBOUND

UConn is 23-14 in games following a loss since Oct. 26, 2002.

BALL CONTROL IS THE KEY

A telling sign of UConn's strong performance on both sides of the ball during its tenure as a FBS program has been its ability to both record and prevent long drives.

Since the start of the 2002 season, UConn's offense has strung together 71 scoring drives of at least 80 yards while the Husky defense has surrendered just 49 such marches.

UConn also holds a 19-5 advantage over its opponents in the number of 90-yard and over drives since becoming a I-A program.

HUSKIES DOMINATING ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL

Over the past 89 games, UConn has outgained its opponent 58 times.

This stretch, like many UConn trends, dates back to a 28-24 loss at Vanderbilt on Oct. 26, 2002.

CONNECTICUT'S FOUR CAPTAINS

The UConn team selected four team captains for the 2010 season, Scott Lutrus and Anthony Sherman (both for the second-consecutive year) and Zach Hurd with Kendall Reyes Jasper Howard, who passed away last season and would have been a senior in 2010, is an honorary captain.

OFFENSE NOTES

TODMAN LEADS THE RUSHING GAME

Junior Jordan Todman (North Dartmouth, Mass.) is the leading returning rusher for the Huskies as he rushed for 1,188 yards last year -- the sixth-highest mark in school history.

He also teamed with the graduated Andre Dixon (who rushed for 1,093 yards in '09) to mark the first time UConn had two 1,000 yard rushers in the same season. UConn was just one of three FBS schools to have multiple 1,000 yard rushers last year.

Todman was a Second Team All-BIG EAST performer in 2009 and became the 11th Husky to rush for 1,000 yards. His 235 carries in 2009 was the sixth-highest in school history and his 14 rushing TDs is tied for fifth.

Todman had five 100-yard rushing performances last season, including three of the last four regular season games.

He was named a preseason candidate for the Doak Walker Award, given to the top running back in the nation.

FRAZER AT THE QB POSITION

Senior Zach Frazer leads the Huskies at the top spot at quarterback as the 2010 season opens. Frazer has seen action in 12 games for UConn over the past two seasons and has nine career starts. Frazer transferred to Connecticut from Notre Dame and sat out the 2007 season in Storrs.

Frazer began the 2009 season as UConn's starting QB and led the Huskies to a win at Ohio. He was injured in the loss to North Carolina and did not play in the next five games.

He was called into action on Oct. 31 vs. Rutgers when Cody Endres went down and was 21 of 46 for 333 yards, one TD and three interceptions.

Frazer started the five games of 2009 and led the Huskies to wins in the final four. Following the three interceptions vs. Rutgers, he threw just to more in the next five games.

He led his team to a double-OT win over his former school, Notre Dame, and was 12 of 25 for 141 yards against the Irish. He also enjoyed an outstanding game in the regular season final vs. USF as he was 20 of 30 for 225 yards and a pair of TDs.

Frazer made his collegiate debut in UConn's win over Louisville in 2007 at quarterback for the Huskies. He came into the game late in the first half after starting QB Tyler Lorenzen suffered a broken foot.

He led the Huskies to a come-from-behind win over Louisville as he was eight of 15 in the air for 90 yards and a touchdown -- despite not having played in an organized football game since his high school senior year of 2005 in Mechanicsburg, Pa.

EXPERIENCE ON THE LINE

Todman, Frazer and company will have a chance to run the offense behind a very experienced line this year. UConn returns players that made 49 of the 65 starts on the offensive line.

UConn's returning offensive linemen have made a total of 75 starts over their careers.

Senior offensive guard Zach Hurd (Waterford, Conn.) and junior center Moe Petrus (St. Laurent, Que.) lead the way with 26 career starts.

FREY LOOKING FOR BOUNCE BACK

Junior Robbie Frey (Lehigh, Pa.) ended his season in 2009 on Oct. 31 as he suffered a knee injury against Rutgers. He also saw limited practice time during the spring.

He has enjoyed a productive preseason camp and will be looking for playing time at both the tailback spot and on kickoff returns.

Frey had a solid day returning kickoffs on October 24, 2009 vs. West Virginia as he had a career-high 136 yards on five returns. His high was 55 yards in the second quarter -- which set up a TD drive.

He had three returns for 163 yards vs. Rutgers before a shoulder injury ended his day and season. He had a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. the Scarlet Knights -- the third in school history.

THE RECEIVERS NEED TO STAND UP

As experienced as UConn is in many areas of its team this year, it does lack that at the wide receiver position.

UConn lost its top two receivers from last year in Marcus Easley (48 rec., 893 yards, 8 TD) and Brad Kanuch (27 rec., 325 yards and a TD). Those two combined for 75 of UConn's 214 receptions (35 percent) and nine of UConn's 16 receiving TDs (56.3 percent).

UConn's leading returning receiver is redshirt junior Isiah Moore (Cambridge, Mass.), who had 24 receptions for 286 yards and a TD. Second is redshirt sophomore tight end Ryan Griffin (Londonderry, N.H.) with 23 for 272 yards.

SHOEMATE JOINS THE HUSKIES

Tailback D.J. Shoemate (Corona, Calif.) enrolled at UConn in July, after spending his first two years at the University of Southern California. Shoemate is eligible to play at UConn immediately and has two years of eligibility remaining.

Shoemate served as a backup fullback for the Trojans and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2009. He played in 12 games for USC and had a pair of carries for two yards and two receptions for 23 yards, including a 13-yard TD.

Shoemate began 2008 as a wide receiver, and then was moved mid-season to fullback. He also played on special teams and played in a total of nine games.

He enjoyed a tremendous career at Servite High School in Anaheim where he was teammates with current Husky quarterback Johnny McEntee.

DEFENSE NOTES

DEFENSE AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

UConn's defensive unit was amongst the best in the nation in 2007 and 2008. In 2008, the UConn scoring defense was ranked 22nd in the country and third in the BIG EAST at 19.77 points per game and was sixth in the nation and first in the BIG EAST in total defense, giving up just 278.00 yards per game. UConn was also first in the league in pass efficiency defense and ninth in the country.

WILSON, LINEBACKERS EXPERIENCED

UConn senior linebacker Lawrence Wilson (Birmingham, Ala.) was the leading tackler on the Husky team with 140 stops and had 11 tackles for a loss and five sacks. He was a first team All-BIG EAST pick last year.

He is part of a highly experienced linebacker unit. Wilson has started 37 games during his career and all 13 last year.

Joining him is senior Greg Lloyd (Clermont, Fla.), who has 20 career starts (most of them on the defensive line) and senior Scott Lutrus (Brookfield, Conn.) with 34.

Lloyd was a second team All-BIG EAST pick and suffered a season-ending knee injury that also kept him out of spring practice. It was originally thought that Lloyd might have to miss this season as well, but he has recovered and will play.

JOSEPH STARTS RIGHT AWAY

UConn sophomore Jesse Joseph (Laval, Que.) started his first career game for the Huskies in last year's opener. He became the first Husky to start as a true freshman in a season-opener since punter Shane Hussar in 2004. Tailback Terry Caulley and fullback Deon Anderson both started the season-opener as true freshmen in 2002.

Joseph wound up starting all 13 games and had 38 tackles on the season.

Joseph became the first player to start the opening game as a true freshman on defense in the UConn FBS era -- since 2002.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

TEGGART ALREADY IN RECORD BOOK

Redshirt junior Dave Teggart (Northborough, Mass.) has connected on all 63 of his extra point attempts during his career -- including 47 last year. The 47-straight extra points ties a school record while its also the fourth-highest total in single-season history.

Teggart ended the 2009 regular season in fine form as he booted a 42-yad field goal as time expired to give the Huskies a 29-27 win over USF.

He also kicked a 29-yard field goal with 1:10 to go that tied the game vs. Notre Dame (Nov. 21) -- a contest the Huskies eventually won in overtime.

He had a total of 14 field goals in 2009 which is tied as the fourth-highest in school history.

Teggart made his collegiate debut on Oct. 25, 2008 as the Huskies' kicker and was an impressive four-for-four on field goals and also made four extra point attempts against Cincinnati.

Teggart is the first kicker in school history to successfully convert his first 11 field goal attempts.

SHOES TO FILL AT PUNTING

UConn lost a highly experienced punter from the last three years in Desi Cullen. Cullen graduated as the leading punter in school history in terms of average at 41.1 yards per boot. Last season, he averaged 42.8 yards per punt (another school record) and had two of the top six punting seasons in school history.

STADIUM/ATTENDANCE NOTES

RENTSCHLER FIELD

The Huskies moved into brand new Rentschler Field in East Hartford for the 2003 season with the stadium opening its doors on August 30 when UConn defeated Indiana, 34-10.

Conveniently located within miles of Interstates 91, 84 and 384, the home of the Huskies lies on 75 acres of land donated to the State of Connecticut from the historic Pratt & Whitney Airfield.

The stadium, like the former airfield, is named for that company's founder, Frederick Rentschler. The stadium boasts a capacity of 40,000 with 38 luxury suites in a massive press box tower which helps enclose the natural grass field.

A HOT TICKET

Swelling interest in the Husky football program as it gradually moved up into BIG EAST play can perhaps be best evidenced by the rise in attendance.

UConn sold 28,000 season tickets in 2008 and sold its entire allotment of student season tickets at 4,700. These figures are staggering sums considering that the entire 2001 season ticket base was around 4,000. In 2002, the number reached 11,300 in the final season of Memorial Stadium. The burgeoning season ticket base more than doubled to 24,000 for the inaugural season at Rentschler Field and rose to 28,000 a year later in 2004. UConn reached an all-time high of 32,000 season tickets in 2005.

SELLOUTS THE NORM

The Huskies have sold out 26 of their first 45 dates at Rentschler Field, including a stretch of 12 in a row.

UConn has played to 96-pct. of capacity all-time there, drawing 1,733,960 fans, or an average of 38,532 per game.

RENTSCHLER FIELD PROVES FRIENDLY FOR HUSKIES

The Huskies went 7-0 at home in 2007 at Rentschler Field and 4-2 in 2005 after compiling a 6-1 home record in 2004.

UConn's 3-4 mark at home in 2006 was its only sub-.500 record at Rentschler Field.

The seven home wins in 2007 set a school record for a single season which was previously set in 2004. In the process, the Huskies joined the 1993 West Virginia Mountaineers as the only BIG EAST schools to ever post a perfect 7-0 home record.

UConn presently stands at 33-12 all-time at Rentschler Field including a 19-4 mark in non-conference games.

MICHIGAN, TENNESSEE AMONG THOSE COMING TO RENTSCHLER FIELD IN THE FUTURE

Following UConn's trip to Ann Arbor this weekend, the Wolverines will come to Rentschler Field on Sept. 21, 2013 to take on the Huskies.

UConn will also play a home-and-home series with Tennessee beginning in 2015 with the Volunteers coming to Rentschler Field on Sept. 26 with a return trip to Knoxville on Sept. 3, 2016.

Other upcoming non-conference opponents coming to Rentschler Field include Vanderbilt (2010), Iowa State (2011), North Carolina State (2012) and Maryland (2013). By the conclusion of the 2010 season, UConn will have played host to non-conference opponents from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big 10, Big XII and Southeastern Conference at Rentschler Field.
