Rams open MWC tournament as No. 8 seed...

After closing out the regular season with an overall record of 9-20, and posting a 4-12 record in Mountain West Conference action, the Colorado State women's basketball team enters the 2009 Conoco MWC tournament as the No. 8 seed.

The Rams improved by seven wins over their regular-season record from 2007-08, and captured four conference victories under first-year Head Coach Kristen Holt. The four conference victories are the most by a Rams' squad since the 2004-05 team posted a record of 6-8 in MWC action and earned a No. 5 seed.

Since that 2004-05 season, Colorado State has entered the tournament as the eight seed three times (2006, 2007 and 2009).

A change in format...

For the first time since TCU joined the MWC in 2005-06, the tournament format has undergone a bit of a facelift. Over the past three seasons, the No. 8 seed played the ninth place squad in a play-in game before facing the top-seeded team once the field was pared down to eight teams.

Under the new format, Utah and San Diego State, the Nos. 1 and 2 seeds, respectively, will not play their first matchups until Friday's semifinal round. The No. 3 seeded team, TCU, has earned a bye into the quarterfinal round.

The remaining six teams, will open the tournament with three contests on Tuesday. No. 4 New Mexico and No. 9 Air Force tip off at 2 p.m. PT, with the winner advancing to a quarterfinal matchup with the winner of the Rams' game vs. rival No. 5 Wyoming at 4:30 p.m. PT.

No. 6 BYU and No. 7 UNLV close out the first day of action at 7 p.m. PT, with the winner of that matchup advancing to face the TCU Lady Frogs in the quarterfinal round. No. 2 seeded SDSU will await the winner of that game in the semifinal round.

Should the Rams progress beyond the second round, the top-seeded Utah Utes will be waiting in the semifinals, with an appearance in the championship game at stake.

For a complete bracket, please refer to Page 1 of this release.

Bold - Denotes Rams' opponent in 2008-09

Fans can catch live telecasts of the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds on The Mtn. (Comcast 411; DirecTV 616). The women's championship game, scheduled for Saturday at 1 p.m. PT, will be broadcast nationally on Versus (Comcast 55; DirecTV 603; DISH 151).

CSU's MWC tournament history...

Colorado State is 9-8 all-time in the Mountain West Conference tournament, including a 8-5 mark in tournament games played in Las Vegas, Nev.

In 2001, the Rams rolled to a 3-0 mark to capture the tournament championship, and last season came out of nowhere to post victories over UNLV and top-seeded Utah, en route to a 2-1 showing and an appearance in the semifinals.

Below is a listing of the Rams' record vs. each league foe at the MWC tournament:

Team	Tournament Games	Record
Wyoming	4	3-1
BYU	4	1-3
New Mexico	3	1-2
Air Force	2	1-1
UNLV	2	1-1
San Diego State	1	1-0
Utah	1	1-0
Totals	17	9-8

Closing in on 500 wins...

The Colorado State women's basketball program is approaching the program's 500th victory, and enters the 2009 MWC tournament with an all-time record of 495-482 (.507). With five more victories, Colorado State will become the sixth MWC program to reach the 500-win plateau, joining BYU, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah, and Wyoming. Both Wyoming and San Diego State reached the milestone during the 2008-09 season.

Improvements paying off in win column...

Colorado State reached nine victories during the 2008-09 regular season, their most since the 2005-06 campaign which saw the Rams post a 9-20 mark. The Rams' five-game improvement over last season's record ranks tied for 29th nationally as of games played March 3, and 20th overall among programs that had less than 10 victories a season ago.

A pair of sweeps for the Rams...

Colorado State's four Mountain West Conference victories in 2009 came at the expense of two programs, as the Rams earned regular-season sweeps over Air Force and UNLV. It marks the first time that a CSU team swept two conference foes since the 2004-05 squad picked up season sweeps over San Diego State and Air Force.

Holt signs on through 2012-13...

Colorado State Head Coach Kristen Holt on Feb. 5 agreed to a multi-year contract that will keep her at CSU through the 2012-13 season. The announcement was made by Director of Athletics Paul Kowalczyk. "I would like to thank Dr. Frank and Paul Kowalczyk for the opportunity to remain at Colorado State as the head women's basketball coach," said Holt. "I am excited about the strides that our team has made this season. Colorado State has a history of great women's basketball and it is my goal to elevate this program atop the Mountain West and return it to national prominence."

Crashing the boards...

Colorado State ranks among the conference leaders in rebounding this season. The Rams' 40.6 rebounds per game ranks first in the Mountain West Conference, and is just shy of the all-time record of 40.8 rebounds per game, set by New Mexico during the 2002-03 season. The Rams are also at the top of the MWC in offensive rebounding, pulling down a conference-best 14.17 rebounds per game off of the offensive glass. Colorado State's overall rebounding margin of +1.6 ranks third in the league. As a team, the Rams have recorded 411 offensive boards on the season, the third-best single-season team total in school history and the most since the 2007-08 team notched 435 offensive rebounds. The Rams enter the MWC tournament 28 offensive rebounds shy of the school record (439) set in 36 games in 1998-99.

Senior forward Amaka Uzomah, the Rams top rebounder, ranks ninth in the Mountain West Conference, averaging 6.6 rebounds per game, and has notched 76 offensive rebounds on the season, becoming the first player with back-to-back 70-plus offensive rebounding seasons since Melissa Dennett did it three times between 2003-06.

Trio good from three-point range...

Colorado State features three players on the 2008-09 roster that have knocked down at least 40 three-pointers on the season, and have led the Rams to one of the top three-point shooting seasons in school history. As a team, Colorado State has notched 167 three-pointers on the season, good enough for 9th on the team single-season charts in the Rams' record book.

Leading the charge is senior Kandy Beemer, who with 61 three-pointers, has become just the eighth player in school history to knock down 60 or more treys in a single season. Beemer ranks fifth in the MWC averaging 2.10 three-pointers per game.

Freshman guard Kim Mestdagh ranks second on the Rams squad with 48 three-pointers on the season. The Belgian-born guard's total in her first season ranks second in the Rams' freshman record book behind former All-America performer, and all-time leading scorer, Becky Hammon, who tallied 88 treys in her first year in a Rams uniform.

Sophomore guard Bonnie Barbee ranks just behind Beemer and Mestdagh, having knocked down 43 shots from long range, which ranks eighth on the sophomore single-season charts in CSU history.

Minor major at the line...

Senior forward Britney Minor has made 171 career free throws in two seasons at CSU and cracked the career top 20 at Colorado State this season. Minor is the only player on the list with less than three seasons at CSU. Entering the tournament, Minor is just two free throws shy of becoming the first player since Melissa Dennett, in 2004-05, to record 100 makes from the charity stripe in a single season.

Cornell heating up the winter months...

Juanise Cornell strung together some strong performances for the Rams during the Mountain West Conference slate. Cornell ranks as the team's leading scorer in MWC action, averaging 8.3 points. Her 5.0 rebounds per game in league games ranks second on the team behind Amaka Uzomah (6.8 rpg.). Over the Rams' final 12 games of the regular season, she is averaged 9.6 points and 5.1 rebounds. The hot streak was sparked by a 19-point, 12-rebound performance in leading CSU to a 55-50 victory at Air Force on Jan. 17. She followed up that performance with 20 points and 11 rebounds in the Rams' first matchup with vs. Wyoming (Jan. 24). Cornell has scored in double-digits in seven games during that stretch.

Van den Adel makes CSU Debut...

Natalie van den Adel's long wait finally ended. The freshman guard, who served a 27-game NCAA amateurism penalty to start this season, saw her first action in a Rams uniform at New Mexico on Feb. 28 and played in CSU's regular-season finale vs. San Diego State (3-4).

Kristen Holt

Head Coach | First Season at CSU | Ohio, '92

On March 26, 2008, the Colorado State women's basketball program took its first step back to national prominence with the promotion of Head Coach Kristen Holt. Holt, who becomes the 10th head coach in the history of the Rams women's basketball program, has been charged with the task of guiding CSU as it transitions back to a position as a prominent player in the Mountain West Conference and nationally.

"I am confident that Kristen Holt will provide the best leadership and guidance for our women's basketball program as we move forward," said Director of Athletics Paul

Kowalczyk upon announcing Holt's promotion on March 26, 2008. "She has had a wealth of experience and her knowledge of our program is invaluable."

While Holt, 39, leads the Rams through a period of change, the transition from assistant coach to head coach is not one with which she is unfamiliar. A 14-year coaching veteran at the NCAA Division I level, Holt brings a unique perspective to the Rams evolution, having been in a similar position early in her career.

Following the 2000-01 season, her sixth season as an assistant coach at Radford University in Radford, Va., Holt was named interim head women's basketball coach of the Highlanders' program. Taking over the reins of a team selected in the preseason to finish last in the Big South, Holt guided Radford to an overall 11-16 mark, the school's best mark in the previous three seasons. More impressive, however, was the Highlanders' third-place finish (8-6) in Big South conference play, a performance that earned Holt recognition as the Big South Coach of the Year.

While at Radford, the team won the 1996 Big South Conference tournament championship and participated in the 1996 NCAA tournament, before losing to eventual champion Tennessee in Knoxville. Holt also played an integral role in the development of three all-Big South Conference guards at Radford – Lorrie Mitchell, a first-team performer in 1998 and 1999, Catrice Horton, a first-team performer in 2000 and 2001, and Kim Hairston, a second-team honoree in 1997.

Prior to her time at Radford, Holt spent one season as an assistant coach at Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she helped to guide the Muskateers to a Midwestern Collegiate Conference championship before moving on to Radford the following season.

Upon graduation from Ohio University, Holt served a stint with the Cincinnati Reds from 1993-94, helping the Major League club with group ticket sales and pregame events, before pursuing a full-time career as a coach.

Holt originally joined the Rams staff in 2007 as an assistant coach after four seasons at Wichita State University. While at Wichita State, she played a vital role in the development of the Shocker guards. She also was an asset off the court helping to coordinate "Jane's Gems" Kids Club and the women's basketball booster club, High Hoops.

A native of Lima, Ohio, Holt graduated in 1993 from Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, with a master's degree in physical education. She was a four-year letterwinner for the Bobcats, and was named to the 1988 Mid-American Conference all-freshman team. She also served as OU's team captain from 1990-92.

She starred as a three-sport athlete at Lima Bath High School, and as a senior was named first-team all-state in both basketball and softball. During her time on the court for Lima Bath, Holt led the team to its first state championship in school history and she was named MVP of the state tournament, pouring in 29 points in the championship game.

Holt is the oldest of three children. Her parents are retired school teachers.
