2009-10 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON PREVIEW

Last season head coach Jim Jabir took one of the youngest and most inexperienced teams in the Atlantic 10 Conference and led it to one of the most successful seasons in program history. Despite the team's youth, Dayton finished the 2008-09 season with a 21-14 overall record and made its third-ever and second-straight appearance in the postseason WNIT. The Flyers' success was due in part to a balanced effort from a young and athletic team. With the loss of only two lettermen, the return of all five starters from last year's squad, and the addition of three talented recruits, the Flyers are on pace for another successful campaign in 2009-10.

Leading the pack is 2009 A-10 Rookie of the Year Justine Raterman who averaged 13.1 points and 8.5 rebounds per game last season. Junior guard Kristin Daugherty also returns after averaging 12.7 points and 4.9 rebounds per game. Seasoned veteran Kendel Ross finished the campaign as the team leader in steals (1.1 spg.). The Flyer senior was UD's third-leading scorer with averages of 10.1 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Post player and A-10 All-Rookie selection Casey Nance will look to build off a strong finish to her freshman season in which she led the Atlantic 10 in blocks per game (1.8). Also key members of this year's squad are returning sophomore guards Patrice Lalor (3.4 apg.), Kayla Moses (5.9 ppg., 1.4 apg.), and De'Sarae Chambers (6.9 ppg., 3.6 rpg.). Starting or coming off the bench, each is capable of creating a spark for Dayton.

The freshman class is three deep and includes guards Kari Daugherty (Fresno, OH/Fresno) and Samantha MacKay (Dublin, OH/Dublin Coffman) and forward Olivia Applewhite (Forestville, MD/Eleanor Roosevelt). Kari is the younger sister of Kristin Daugherty. Redshirts Brittany Wilson, Aundrea Lindsey, and Colorado State transfer Elle Queen will also be eligible to play this year.

A return to the A-10 Championship to play for the league title is always the goal for the UD women's basketball team. However, after proving their success in the WNIT, the Flyers have their sights on earning a bid to the NCAA Tournament.
