ABOUT THE ACADEMY

Field Player Camp (Ages 6-14)

The camp utilizes the game's skills- passing, receiving, dribbling, shooting, and heading. Whether your son/daughter is a beginner or an accomplished player, the field player camp can make them better. Campers will be grouped according to age and then on ability as the week progresses; assuring the challenge of learning new skills and tactics. We offer early drop-off and late pick-up at no extra charge. Available at all day camps. Full day campers need to bring a lunch.

Advanced Select / Goalkeepers (Ages 8-16)

This camp teaches advanced techniques for all level of players. Topics include imprinting styles of play, build-up, situational tactics, and advanced technical training. This camp targets the player who wants to play collegiate soccer. You will gain information that you can continue to use each day to help you become a high level player.

Goalkeepers will also be placed in an environment that is challenging, educational, and highly competitive. Emphasis will be put on technical and tactical skills necessary for a goalkeeper to excel.

Camp Philosophy

The Dayton Flyers Soccer Camps provide an environment where skill acquisitions, tactical awareness, and their adaptability to the game of soccer are emphasized. Sessions are conducted to meet the needs of each group and skill level. Beginning, intermediate, and/or advanced players will be challenged at their own pace.

Teams

Our qualified staff is prepared to train your team for the upcoming season. Teams will stay together and train as a unit. We can customize your team's session to meet their needs. We will conduct technical and tactical sessions for your team or focus on topics such as zone defense or attacking play. All sessions are open for team coaches to observe.

Athletic Trainers

Certified Athletic trainers will be present at all times during camp.
