DUQUESNE ATHLETIC FUND

On Feb. 7, 2009, Duquesne's men's basketball team upset ninth-ranked Xavier 72-68. As the Palumbo Center crowd stormed onto the court, a national television audience took notice: Duquesne pride is back.

That moment began a thrilling six-week odyssey that saw the Dukes upend UMass, Rhode Island and Dayton in the A-10 Championships, push Temple to its limits in the title game, and qualify for the NIT for the first time in 15 years. Despite a double-overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the opening round, a young squad picked to place 12th in the A-10 posted more wins than any Duquesne team since 1971.

Meanwhile, Duquesne's women's basketball team set a school record 20 wins, earning its first post-season berth ever. And the success wasn't limited to the hardwood: men's cross country placed second in the conference. Men's and women's swimming placed third in the A-10—their best finishes ever. And Duquesne student-athletes maintained their domination in the classroom, with more than 60 percent posting GPAs of 3.0 or more. Duquesne pride is back—thanks to support from top University administrators, improved facilities, outstanding coaches, a dedicated athletics staff, and your generous gifts to the Duquesne Athletic Fund.

The Duquesne Athletic Fund ensures that our student-athletes have the financial resources they need to prepare and perform at the highest level. Your gifts make a difference on the scoreboards and in the standings, while touching and changing each of our 500 student-athletes, who emerge as better teammates and stronger leaders in their personal lives and professional careers—on and off the fields and courts.

As always, your contribution—in any amount—advances the Dukes' historic legacy. Please help us capitalize on our success and build on our great tradition. Make your Duquesne Athletic Fund gift today
