Lisa Evans - Head Coach
1st season, 8th with program

Lisa Vacca Evans enters her first year at the helm of the Duquesne women's lacrosse team after being promoted to head coach in August 2016. Prior to being named head coach, Evans served two seasons as first assistant (2015-2016) and an additional five years (2009-2014) as a volunteer assistant under Mike Scerbo.

Evans began her collegiate coaching career at Robert Morris, where she specialized in offense and goalies as an assistant under head coach Katy Phillips for four seasons (2005-2009). While at RMU, Evans was also the assistant coach for the Colonials' field hockey team for one season.

Prior to her stint at RMU, Evans was an assistant at Quaker Valley High School and head coach at Quaker Valley Middle School for three years, where she was named 2005 Western Pennsylvania Scholastic Lacrosse Association Coach of the Year.

Additionally, Evans has coaching experience with Shady Side Academy field hockey (two seasons) as well as with the Intrepid Lacrosse Club (five seasons).

Evans played four years with the University of Pittsburgh club lacrosse team, captaining the Panthers for three seasons. She graduated from Pitt in 2002 with a degree in psychology.

Hailing from West Chester, Pennsylvania, she played lacrosse for the Downingtown Whippets.

Evans is currently enrolled in Duquesne's School of Business, where she is working toward a Master of Sports Business. She currently serves as a site director for the Pittsburgh Premier Lacrosse Club based in Western Pennsylvania. Evans resides in the South Hills with her husband, Owen, and their cat, Tater.

Caitlin Prince - Assistant Coach

Caitlin Prince, a former standout attacker and Duquesne class of 2014 graduate, joined the staff as assistant coach of women's lacrosse in Sept. 2016. Prince returned to the Bluff after serving as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Robert Morris University women's lacrosse team during the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

As a Duke, Prince ranked third in program history with 162 career goals and had a program best 62 goals in a single season in 2012. She was named to the Atlantic 10 First Team All-Conference twice (2012 and 2014) and was placed on the A-10 All-Rookie Team her freshman season.

Additional honors for Prince include being named to the 2012 Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coach's Association (IWLCA) All-West/Midwest Region Second Team and 2012 A-10 Academic All-Conference. Prince also had the opportunity to try out for the U.S. Lacrosse national team.
