WOODS NAMED NATIONAL PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK

East Carolina junior RHP Zach Woods is one of four players to be named Louisville Slugger National Player-of-the-Week the publication announced Monday, Apr. 5. Woods picked up his fourth win of the season and first career save on the week. Against Elon on March 30, he struck out a career-best 15 batters, becoming just the third Pirate since 1940 to strike out 15 in a game. He fanned seven of the first nine batters he faced, including the side in the first after allowing a leadoff single. Woods faced two over the minimum after giving up a base hit to start the game until he ran into trouble in the eighth with two outs, which included 10 in a row from the fourth to the seventh when he issued a two-out walk.

In all, he worked 7.2 innings, surrendering three hits and one walk, while facing 29 Phoenix batters. Against Tulane he recorded his first career save with 3.2 shutout innings where he allowed two hits, two walks and struck out four. Woods has not allowed a run in his last three outings, a streak that spans 12.2 innings dating back to the N.C. A&T game on March 24.

HARRIS NAMED NATIONAL PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK

East Carolina's Devin Harris is one of four players to be named Louisville Slugger National Player-of-the-Week the publication announced Monday, Mar. 22.

Harris had a monster week hitting an impressive .524 (11-for-21) raising his season average 96 points to .332. The junior outfielder led the team with five home runs, 12 RBI, four doubles and slugged 1.429 during the Pirates 3-2 week. He also walked once and swiped 2 of 3 bases.

The Gastonia, N.C. native has homered in four straight games marking the first time since Corey Kemp in 2008 that a Pirate has accomplished this feat. Harris, who recorded four multi-hit and multi-RBI games last week and belted a pair of home runs against Monmouth in the series opener on Mar. 19, collected at least one hit, recorded one RBI and scored one run in all five games.

Harris is the first Pirate to take home the Louisville Slugger weekly honors since Ricky Brooks in 2005. On April 25 of that year, Brooks was also named National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Pitcher-of-the-Week after throwing a no-hitter against Memphis at Lewis Field inside Clark-LeClair Stadium.

CALIFORNIA ROAD TRIP

The Pirates headed out west during their Spring Break for a midweek match up against Cal State Northridge and a three-game non-conference series at Pepperdine. Despite a 1-3 week, the Pirates finally broke through and snapped a nine-game losing streak in the state of California with a 3-2 win over Pepperdine in the series finale.

Below is a closer look at how the Pirates have fared when playing teams from the West Coast:

RIVALS.COM POWER RANKINGS

Every week Rivals.com puts out a weekly power rankings, kind of like a stock market report, of the Top 10 individuals around the country with regards to positions.

Dustin Harrington was ranked as high as No. 3 for midfielders until the most recent rankings on Apr. 7.

Fellow classmate Devin Harris opened the season ranked as the No. 9 outfielder (Feb. 16).

A year ago, four Pirates (Stephen Batts/OF, Brandon Henderson/1B, Trent Whitehead/OF and Ryan Wood/INF) appeared in the rankings.

Drew Schieber appeared in the weekly rankings in 2008 at third base.

BRANDT'S C-USA HONOR (Apr. 12, 2010)

East Carolina sophomore Kevin Brandt was named Conference USA Pitcher-of-the-Week following his career-best performance in Sunday's 3-2 victory at Memphis that gave the Pirates a series win on the road.

Brandt tossed his first career complete game in the series finale against Memphis on Sunday, striking out a personal-best 11 batters. He allowed two runs (one earned) on four hits with no walks for his third win of the season. The Fuquay Varina, N.C. native, retired 19 of the last 20 Tigers he faced with Trey Wiedman reaching on an error with two outs in the ninth. From the third inning on he fanned seven batters, including Adam McClain to end the game and he retired the side in five straight innings (4th through 8th).

For Brandt, it is his second career Pitcher-of-the-Week honor following his impressive 10 strikeout performance against No. 1 North Carolina on Apr. 22, 2009 in Greenville, N.C.

Below is an inning by inning look at Brandt's 11 strikeouts:

MANESS' C-USA HONOR (May 3, 2010)

IRVING, Texas - East Carolina junior Seth Maness was named Conference USA Pitcher-of-the-Week after his complete game performance in a win over Marshall on Saturday afternoon the league office announced Monday afternoon.

Maness tossed his second career complete game against The Herd allowing three runs on eight hits with eight strikeouts. He improved to 8-2 on the season (with eight consecutive victories) and 4-0 in league play in five starts this season. With the win, the right-hander improved to 16-2 all-time against C-USA members. He retired the side three times including nine of his first 11 batters and faced 37 total batters, getting Marshall to ground out 12 times and fly out seven to go along with his eight punch outs.

WOODS' 15-STRIKEOUT PERFORMANCE

Against in-state rival Elon on March 30, junior Zach Woods fanned a career-high 15 batters, the second-most in the last 40 years at ECU and third-most in school history. The right-hander gave up a lead off single then faced just two over the minimum until running into trouble in the eighth inning. In all, Woods worked 7.2 masterful innings allowing three hits and walking one.

WOODS' C-USA HONOR (Apr. 5, 2010)

IRVING, Texas - East Carolina junior RHP Zach Woods was named Conference USA Co-Pitcher-of-the-Week the league office announced Monday afternoon. Woods is the first ECU pitcher and fourth overall Pirate to take home weekly honors this season.

Woods picked up his fourth win of the season and first career save on the week. Against Elon on March 30, he struck out a career-best 15 batters, becoming just the third Pirate since 1940 to strike out 15 in a game. He fanned seven of the first nine batters he faced, including the side in the first after allowing a leadoff single. Woods faced two over the minimum after giving up a base hit to start the game until he ran into trouble in the eighth with two outs, which included 10 in a row from the fourth to the seventh when he issued a two-out walk.

In all, he worked 7.2 innings, surrendering three hits and one walk, while facing 29 Phoenix batters. Against Tulane he recorded his first career save with 3.2 shutout innings where he allowed two hits, two walks and struck out four. Woods has not allowed a run in his last three outings, a streak that spans 12.2 innings dating back to the N.C. A&T game on March 24.

ROLLER SETS SINGLE-SEASON WALK RECORD

In East Carolina's 7-4 win over in-state foe Elon, senior Kyle Roller set the school's single-season record for walks with his free pass in the sixth inning.

Roller, who is tied for third nationally in walks, has 19 multi-walk games and was issued a career-best four walks against Marshall on May 2, 2010.

The Rockingham, N.C. native ranks second all-time at ECU in walks with 138, trailing only Ryan Wood (151) by 19.

ROLLER SETS SINGLE-GAME HIT BY PITCH RECORD

Kyle Roller, who already holds the single-season (24 in 2009) and career (59) hit by pitch records, added another record to his portfolio when he was plunked four times (one shy of the NCAA single-game record) in the opening contest of the three-game C-USA series against UCF on May 14, 2010. In all he was hit five times during the series and pushed his season total to 21.

MANESS TOSSES SECOND CAREER COMPLETE GAME

GREENVILLE, N.C. - Junior Seth Maness tossed his second career complete game and Zach Wright hit a pair of three-run home runs as East Carolina took game two of the Conference USA weekend series from Marshall Saturday (May 1) 12-3 at Lewis Field inside Clark-LeClair Stadium. With the win the Pirates take the season series and improve to 27-17 overall and 8-6 in league play, while The Herd drops to 20-24 and 9-8.

Maness (8-2) struck out eight batters and allowed three runs (all solo home runs) on eight hits with three walks. The right-hander from Pinehurst, N.C. improved to 16-2 all-time against C-USA members and has won his last eight decisions after starting the season 0-2. Maness retired the side three times and nine of his first 11 batters. In all, he faced 37 batters getting Marshall to ground out 12 times and fly out seven.

Wright, who was 4 for his last 31 entering today's game, broke out of his offensive slump collecting his second career multi-HR game and collected a career-best six RBI. After drawing a pair of walks in his first two at bats and striking out in the fifth, Wright sent a three-run shot to center in the seventh and a three-run bomb to right center in the eighth.

Mike Mason (2-6) suffered the loss after giving up four runs (all earned) on six hits with five walks and five strikeouts in four innings of work. The Herd's used four more pitchers from the bullpen (Ryan Kiel, Kevin Shackelford, Ben Frith and Mark Cann) gave up a combined eight runs on seven hits over the final four innings of work.

Jared Avchen put the Pirates up 2-0 in the first on a two-RBI single to left field that plated Trent Whitehead and Corey Thompson. Whitehead, who was 2-for-5, singled up the middle to start the inning then landed on third after Thompson walked and John Wooten was plunked by Mason to load the bases for Avchen with two outs in the frame.

ECU extended its lead to 3-0 in the third on Kyle Roller's 10th home run of the season and 49th of his career to right center.

Kurt Lipton hit the first of his two home runs on the afternoon to start the fourth inning sending a 2-1 offering from Maness down the right field line, pulling Marshall within two, 3-1.

Cam Freeman answered Lipton's homer with his third round-tripper of the season to right center in the bottom half of the fourth, putting ECU back on top 4-1.

The scored remained 4-1 until the Pirates put up a five spot in the seventh and a three-spot in the eighth, both highlighted by three-run homers by Wright, which gave ECU a comfortable 12-2 lead. Alfredo Brito smacked his second home run of the year with two outs in the ninth off Maness to close the game at 12-3.

Offensively the Pirates had 13 hits with Avchen, Freeman, Roller, Whitehead, Wooten and Wright each collecting two base knocks a piece.

THOMPSON HITS FOR CYCLE

Sophomore Corey Thompson, who has been on fire as of late, hit for the cycle against Conference USA foe Marshall on Apr. 30 and became the fourth Pirate since 1999 to accomplish the feat.

The Woodbridge, Va. native completed the cycle in five at-bats and finished the game going 4-for-5 with 3 RBI and 3 runs scored.

Below is how Thompson fared on his historical night:

At-bat	Inning	Result
1.	1st	strikeout swing
2.	3rd	RBI triple
3.	5th	Solo HR
4.	7th	Single to RC
5.	8th	Double to RC

AVCHEN NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

GREENVILLE, N.C. - East Carolina senior catcher Jared Avchen has been named to the CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District First-Team according to an announcement Thursday, May 6 by CoSIDA. Avchen has a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in business and will be listed on the national ballot for CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine All-America honors.

Avchen is a two-time Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Medal and C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll selection and has been named to the ECU Director of Athletics Honor Roll four consecutive semesters.

On the field, the two-time Johnny Bench Award Watch List Candidate, has started 25 of 32 games played where he is batting .275 (28-for-102) with a career-best four home runs and 26 RBI.

In his two-year career with the Pirates, the Palm Bay, Fla. native has started 81 career games and boasts a .309 average (86-for-278) with six home runs and 55 RBI, nine of which have been game-winning.

'09 PIRATES AMONG THE BEST

The Pirates were arguably one of the Top 4 hitting teams in the nation a year ago pouncing out an NCAA-best 814 hits. ECU was one of four teams to rank in the Top 25 in all five major hitting categories. Below is a closer look at how the Pirates stacked up with their FINAL NATIONAL ranking in parenthesis.

Team	Hits	Runs	HRs	SLG%	Avg.
East Carolina	814 (1)	565 (t4)	108 (7)	.546 (12)	.339 (15)
Mid. Tenn. St.	776 (3)	545 (8)	101 (13)	.567 (6)	.340 (13)
N. Mexico St.	772 (4)	668 (1)	119 (2)	.599 (1)	.353 (4)
Alabama	689 (25)	509 (18)	107 (t8)	.566 (7)	.330 (t22)

ROLLER APPROACHES 50-50

Kyle Roller is fastly approaching the rare 50-50 club (home runs & hit by pitch) where the senior first baseman has 49 career round trippers and has been plunked 59 times. Roller is the only active player in college baseball to have at least 49 HRs, 200 RBI, 240 Hits and 50 HBPs. Below is a closer look at players in the history of collegiate baseball who have reached this particular 50-50 club:

Player	School	Years	HRs	HBPs
Khalil Greene	Clemson	1999-02	52	58
Matt LaPorta	Florida	2004-07	74	51
Josh Holliday	Ok. State	1996-99	53	54
Billy Gasparino	Ok. State	1997-99	55	55
Kyle Roller	ECU	2007-10	49	59

MORE 2-OUT STATS

Here is a closer look at how the Pirates have batted with two-outs since 2000:

HOMAN TO WEAR NO. 23

Junior outfielder Austin Homan will wear East Carolina's honorary No. 23 jersey during the 2010 season according to an announcement made by head coach Billy Godwin during the program's annual "Meet the Pirates" fan session, which was held inside the Murphy Center Saturday afternoon.

The No. 23 jersey, which was the number worn by the late ECU Head Coach Keith LeClair throughout his coaching and playing career, became an honorary number for the Pirate baseball program in 2003.

Homan, one of four captains for the Pirates in 2010, set career-highs in every offensive category including hits (28), RBI (19), runs (24) and slugging percentage (.452) a year ago. He played in 43 games with 15 starts in the outfield and ranked third on the team with a career-best .354 batting average.

The State College, Pa., native was the Pirates 10th-man, where he batted a team-best .421 with six RBI as a pinch hitter. Homan played in seven post-season games in 2009 and in his lone start was 1-for-4 with a pair of RBI in the Pirates 16-9 win over Binghamton. As a two-year letterwinner, Homan has started 17-of-61 games played boasting a .333 career average with five doubles, 24 RBI and 26 runs scored.

The number is awarded annually to a deserving player who best displays the hustle, determination and desire that made LeClair a great coach and player.

LeClair's courageous battle against amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, commonly referred to as ALS or Lou Gehrig's Disease, has garnered support and admiration throughout the ECU community.

ROLLER'S A HIT AT THE PLATE

Kyle Roller has the dubious honor of holding East Carolina's single-game (4), single-season (24) and career (59) records for hit by pitches. The senior from Rockingham, N.C. broke his own single-season record, which was set in 2008, when he was plunked by a pitch for the second time against N.C. State on 4/1/09.

Ten days later Roller set the all-time record when he was nailed by a Rice pitcher passing Harrison Eldridge. Below is a look at the top five single-season and all-time HBP leaders at ECU:

CAREER LEADERS

1.	Kyle Roller (2007-10)	59
2.	Harrison Eldridge (2005-08)	28
3.	John Williamson (1998-2001)	27
4.	Brandon Henderson (2006-09)	27
5.	Ryan Jones (2001-04)	22

SINGLE-SEASON LEADERS

1.	Kyle Roller (2009)	24
2.	Kyle Roller (2010)	21
3.	Kyle Roller (2008)	12
t4.	Brandon Henderson (2008)	11
t4.	Jedd Sorenson (2002)	11
5.	Harrison Eldridge (2008)	10

GRAND SEASON FOR WRIGHT

East Carolina sophomore catcher Zach Wright became the first Pirate in school history to hit three grand slams in a season with his bases loaded jack in the third inning against Elon (3/30/10).

Prior to that, Wright also hit grand slams against N.C. A&T (3/26) and N.C. Central (3/26) - hitting three in a span of five games.

During that five-game stretch, the Goldsboro, N.C. native hit four home runs, drove in 16, scored nine times, roped pair of doubles and laced a triple for a .360 (9-for-25) average.

Currently he leads the squad in home runs (13), while ranking second in RBI (46).

SUMMER IN THE CAPE

Even though the collegiate baseball season is just a few weeks old, four Pirates have already signed contracts to spend the 2010 summer playing in the prestigious Cape Cod Baseball League (CCBL).

Sophomore left-hander Kevin Brandt will once again play for the Hyannis Mets, where he posted a 1-2 record in 11 games with six starts. He allowed 19 runs (17 earned) on 35 hits in 39.0 innings with 32 strikeouts and posted a 3.92 ERA.

A trio of freshmen will travel north for the summer in Tyler Joyner (Bourne Braves), Joseph Hughes (Harwich Mariners) and John Wooten (Harwich Mariners).

Last summer the Pirates had seven players in the Cape (Brandt, Harris, Harrington, Maness, Roller, Simmons and Whitehead).

FREEMAN'S C-USA HONOR (Mar. 8, 2010)

IRVING, Texas - East Carolina junior 2B Cam Freeman has been named Conference USA co-Hitter-of-the-Week after helping the Pirates to a perfect 3-0 week which included the Seventh Annual Keith LeClair Classic crown.

Freeman led the team in batting average (.542/6-for-11), home runs (2), RBI (6) and total bases (12), while sharing the team lead in runs (3), hits (6) and on-base percentage (.500). Three of his six RBI came with two outs and he drove in game-winning runs against West Virginia (2 RBI single in third) and Western Carolina (2-run HR in eighth), the first of his career. He collected two hits and drove in two runs in all three games of the Keith LeClair Classic, hitting home runs against Illinois and Western Carolina.

HARRINGTON'S C-USA HONOR (Mar. 29, 2010)

IRVING, Texas - East Carolina junior SS Dustin Harrington was named Conference USA Hitter-of-the-Week after helping ECU to a 5-0 week where the Pirates out scored its opponents 87-18 on the week.

Harrington batted a team-best .600 (12-for-20) last week with two home runs, nine RBI, two doubles, a triple and slugged a team second-best 1.100 in the Pirates perfect 5-0 week. He recorded multiple hits in all five games and extended his current streak to six consecutive games with at least two hits. Harrington hit homers against High Point (solo) and North Carolina A&T (3-run), while driving in two or more runs in three of the five games played. He scored 10 runs on the week and at least two runs in four outings, while registering an extra base hit in four games. Harrington opened the week with a 4-for-5 performance that included a home run and three runs scored against High Point. He followed that with a 2-for-5 trip at the plate with a HR and three RBI against N.C. A&T. In the weekend series against N.C. Central, Harrington batted .600 (6-for-10) with five RBI and five runs scored with two walks and two sacrifice hits.

WIN STREAK ENDS AT 8

The 2010 Pirates had their season-high win streak snapped at eight games on Mar. 31 when in-state rival UNC-Wilmington walked out of town with a 15-13 win at Lewis Field inside Clark-LeClair Stadium. The streak began on Mar. 20 against Monmouth and is tied for the 28th longest in school history.

WILLIAMS' JUNGLE MVP'S

Every year the Pirate Jungle members honor the baseball team with its Annual Jungle Awards. Members of the famed Jungle present an Offensive and Pitching MVP with the recipient receiving a plaque as well as having their names immortalized inside the Clark-LeClair Stadium Clubhouse. Below is a list of recipients since the inaugural awards in 2001:

Year	Offensive MVP	Pitching MVP
2001	Chad Tracy	None
2002	Clayton McCullough	None
2003	Jamie Paige	Davey Penny
2004	Ryan Jones	Greg Bunn
2005	Brian Cavanaugh	Ricky Brooks
2006	Jake Smith	Brody Taylor
2007	Ryan Wood	Shane Mathews
2008	Corey Kemp	Seth Maness
	Harrison Eldridge
2009	Trent Whitehead	Kevin Brandt
2010	Kyle Roller	Seth Maness

WOODS' 11-STRIKEOUT PERFORMANCE

Following his first collegiate start where he fanned a then career-best eight batters against ODU, junior Zach Woods struck out 11 Mountaineers in a seven inning relief appearance at the Seventh Annual Keith LeClair Classic.

The right-hander entered the game in the third with a runner on first and allowed Matt Frazer single before getting out of the jam. He would scatter two more hits over the next six frames for his second win of the season.

From the fourth inning on, Woods retired two over the minimum and struck out seven of nine batters faced in innings five through seven.

Below is an inning by inning look at Woods' outing:

Number	Inning	Player	Type of K
1	3rd	Malloy	Swinging
2	5th	Buckner	Swinging

BASEBALL OUTSCORES FOOTBALL

The East Carolina baseball team put up 30 runs against N.C. Central on Friday, Mar. 26 in a 30-4 win at Clark-LeClair Stadium. To put it into perspective, the baseball team scored more runs in this game than the Conference USA Champion football program did in seven contests in 2009. Below is a closer look:

Sept. 5 vs. Appalachian State W, 29-24
Sept. 26 vs. UCF W, 19-14
Oct. 3 at Marshall W, 21-17
Oct. 10 at SMU L, 28-21
Nov. 5 vs. Va. Tech (No. 22) L, 16-3
Nov. 28 vs. Southern Miss W, 25-20
Jan. 2 vs. Arkansas (Liberty Bowl) L, 21-17 (OT)

MORE INSIDE SCOOP FROM N.C. CENTRAL SERIES

ECU's 30 runs in game one of the three-game non-conference series against N.C. Central were the most by a C-USA team in 2010 and is the second most runs ever by a C-USA team (overall) trailing on the Pirates' 32 runs against Cincinnati in 2004. Other inside tidbits from the N.C. Central game and the three-game series:

25 hits (3/26) 3rd most in school history
..... most since 27 on 3/18/09 (vs. Norfolk St.)

30 runs (3/26) 2nd most in C-USA history

15 walks (3/28) single-game school record
65 runs (3/26-3/28) 3-game school record
11 runs in 1 inn. (3/28) school record
2 Grand Slams (3/26) single-game school record
10 hits in 1 inn. (3/28) single-game school record

20-PLUS RUNS THREE TIMES

Though they did not set the school record for runs in a single-game, the 2010 Pirates have tried their best to bring down the six-year old mark. During the 2004 season, the Pirates scored 32 runs on 34 hits against former C-USA foe Cincinnati on Apr. 17 which established a new school and league record.

So far this season, ECU has hit the 20-run plateau three times scoring 30 vs. N.C. Central (3/26), 20 vs. N.C. Central (3/28) and 20 vs. Memphis (4/10)

This is the seventh time during the Billy Godwin era the Pirates have scored at least 20 runs in a game. Other 20-plus runs in ECU's history: 20 vs. ODU/08; 21 vs. UNCA/'09; 26 vs. Norfolk State/'09 and 26 vs. UCF/'09.

Below is a closer look at the line score from both 20-run games this season:

March 26, 2010 in Greenville, N.C.

WOOTEN MAKING A SPLASH

Freshman infielder John Wooten has lived up to the hype that made him a 20th round selection by the San Diego Padres out of Eastern Wayne High School.

The Goldsboro, N.C. native homered in his first collegiate at bat, sending a to shot right field putting the Pirates up 1-0 on UVa. He would finish his collegiate debut going 2-for-4 with 2 RBI and a run scored, while recording eight putouts at first base.

In his next two games, Wooten smacked a pair of home runs, recorded four hits and four RBI and also homered in his first three collegiate games.

Despite missing a few games with a sore back during the middle of the season, Wooten still ranks among the team leaders in average (.311/5th), hits (65/3rd), runs (38/5th), home runs (9/4th) and total bases (102/5th).

He has started 51 of 52 games played on the season with 18 games at first base, 21 at short, 9 at third base and 3 in the outfield. Recorded first career game-winning RBI against UAB (4/18) in the bottom of the 12 frame and posted first career multi-HR game against Houston on May 21st.

6.0 + IP / QUALITY STARTS

Kevin Brandt and Seth Maness each have seven quality starts (6.0 IP or more and 3 or less ERs) on the season. When a Pirate hurler has a quality start, ECU boasts an 17-5 record. Below is a closer look at each quality start this season:

ROLLER AMONG LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS AWARD NOMINEES

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - East Carolina senior DH/1B Kyle Roller has been selected as one of 30 candidates for the 2010 Lowes' Senior CLASS Award for baseball, presented annually to an NCAA Division I student-athlete in nine sports. Based on criteria focusing on the "Four C's" of classroom, character, community and competition, the award winners will be selected by a national balloting of head baseball coaches, national media and college baseball fans.

Lowe's, an official Corporate Partner of the NCAA, will announce the Senior CLASS Award winner at the NCAA College World Series in June.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Roller, a 2009 first-team All-America selection by the America Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and Ping!Baseball, batted .366 (86-for-256) with 16 home runs and 75 RBI. He ranked among the national leaders in hit by pitches (fourth), RBI (23rd), total bases (79th), home runs (80th) and hits (98th) after earning first-team All-Conference USA and NCAA Greenville Regional All-Tournament honors.

The Rockingham, N.C. native Roller has been tabbed preseason All-America by Collegiate Baseball (first-team), National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) (second-team), Ping!Baseball (second-team), All C-USA (first-team) by the leagues head coaches, while also being selected as the sixth-best player in college baseball by CollegeBaseballBlog.

The list of candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot.

WOODS & ROLLER NAMED TO NATIONAL ALL-STAR TEAM

Zach Woods and Kyle Roller have been named to the CollegeBaseballFoundation National All-Star Lineup for their play this season.

Woods, who was named to the team on Apr. 6, picked up his fourth win of the season and first career save. Against Elon, the junior struck out 15 in 7.2 innings of work, giving up just three hits and one walk. In the weekend series against Tulane, Woods threw 3.2 shutout innings, allowing just two hits and two walks while striking out four to earn the save.

Roller (Apr. 13) earned his second career designation after going 8 for 11 (.727) in the conference series against Memphis, with four doubles, six RBI, and six runs scored. Roller tallied a .813 on base percentage after walking three times and being hit by a pitch twice.

PIRATES HOLD ECBL GAME

GREENVILLE, N.C. - Apr. 18, the East Carolina baseball team hosted its annual Exceptional Community Baseball League (ECBL) game at Lewis Field inside Clark-LeClair Stadium.

Formerly the Challenger League, the ECBL has three divisions (youth, senior youth and adult) and plays each Saturday from the end of April through mid June.

Roughly 100 participants from ECBL's eight teams batted through their lineups and ran the temporary bases placed along the base paths at Clark-LeClair as Pirate players, coaches and a slew of other volunteers served as buddies who assisted with participants.

Pirate coach Billy Godwin roamed the playing grounds, often assisting some of the players with their hitting or fielding and providing a high five when others crossed the plate.

"It's just really important for our kids to give back to the community and give back to people who are not as fortunate as we are," Godwin said. "This was such a great environment for these participants to come out and have an opportunity to play baseball. It's what life is all about, giving back."

With more than just the skills of baseball learned through the experience, the value of the ECBL is found in the proven therapeutic and socialization benefits of participants' self esteem, the opportunities to mainstream into other divisions of play, and the disciplines of teamwork, sportsmanship and fair play which are hallmarks of the Little League program.

Basic Rules of ECBL are as follows:

- Teams can include as many as 6-10 players.
- Each player has a "buddy" which will assist each player during the course of the game.
- Every player on the roster gets to bat and play the field each inning.
- No score will be kept.

WRIGHT NAMED TO BENCH AWARD WATCH LIST

WICHITA, Kansas - East Carolina's Zach Wright has been named to the official watch list for the 2010 Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award delivered by Papa John's Pizza the Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission announced Monday evening. The Bench Award, which is given annually to the nation's top division one collegiate catcher, will be updated to include other candidates until May 5, 2010.

Wright has started 16 of his 24 games played behind the plate in 2010 where he leads the team with nine home runs and 35 RBI, while ranking third in batting average (.345). The sophomore, who has also played six games in left field, established a new school-record for grand slams in a single-season in the third inning against Elon on Mar. 30. Prior to that, Wright also hit grand slams against N.C. A&T (3/24) and N.C. Central (3/26) - hitting three in a span of five games (Mar. 24-30).

A native of Goldsboro, N.C., Wright is the fourth catcher since 2006 to be named to the prestigious award watch list following 2006 Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award winner Jake Smith, 2008 semi-finalist Corey Kemp and two-time watch list nominee Jared Avchen (2009-10).

The watch list will be narrowed down to ten semifinalists, whom will be announced May 19, 2010. Ballots will be sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists. The finalists will be announced June 2, 2010 prior to the NCAA Regionals and Major League Baseball Draft. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 13th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on July 1, 2010.

THOMPSON'S C-USA HONOR (Mar. 1, 2010)

Corey Thompson was named Conference USA Hitter-of-the-Week after leading the Pirates to a series victory over No. 10 South Carolina the league office announced Monday afternoon.

Thompson helped the Pirates to a 3-1 week, including their first ever regular season series win over South Carolina. On the week, he led the team with a .438 (7-for-16) average, seven hits and six RBI. Thompson also drove in at least one run in all four games and had five in the weekend series against No. 10 South Carolina. Dating back to the series finale against then No. 2 Virginia, he has collected at least one RBI in five-straight games.

In Friday's game against SC, Thompson smacked his second career home run, a two-run shot to right field. He followed that game with a game-tying RBI in the ninth inning on Saturday with a single to left. During the rubber match game, Thompson singled down the left field line pushing across two of the Pirates three runs in the first inning recording his first career game-winning RBI. This was the first weekly award for the sophomore from Apex, N.C.

SIMMONS NAMED TO STOPPER- OF-THE-YEAR WATCH LIST

IRVINE, Calif. - East Carolina's Seth Simmons is one of 45 relief pitchers to be named to the midseason watch list for the sixth annual National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Stopper of the Year Award, given to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division I baseball, as announced by the association Thursday.

The junior right-hander has appeared in 17 games as the Pirates closer posting a 1-1 record with seven saves, which leads Conference USA (all games). On the year, he has fanned 28 batters, walked 12 and allowed seven runs (all earned), while posting a team-best 3.06 ERA.

In his three seasons as the Pirates closer, Simmons has made 77 relief appearances with 18 saves, boasting a 6-2 record and a 3.94 ERA. He has struck out 121 batters while walking just 41 in 93.2 innings of work. On ECU's all-time charts, the Lewisville, N.C. native ranks second in saves and third in appearances.

Leading the elite field with a nation-best 11 saves is Virginia's Kevin Arico. The junior right-hander owns a 2.37 ERA and had registered 27 strikeouts in 19.0 innings pitched.

Also included on this year's midseason watch list is 2009 finalist Matty Ott of LSU (0-0, 2.70), who ranks second in the nation with 10 saves. Last year, Ott, the 2009 SEC Freshman-of-the-Year, set a new high for the most single-season saves in LSU history with 16 and carried his team to a national championship. Oklahoma's Ryan Duke (0-1, 1.59) and Appalachian State's Chris Patterson (2-1, 0.77) each hold 10 saves apiece, tying them for second in the country with Ott.

At the conclusion of the regular season, the Division I national saves leader and four other relief pitching standouts will be selected as finalists and released Wednesday, June 2, prior to start of NCAA regional tournament competition. The NCBWA's All-America Committee then will select the winner, with this year's recipient to be announced on the opening day of the College World Series on June 19.

Texas hurler J. Brent Cox won the inaugural Stopper of the Year Award in 2005, with Don Czyn of Kansas claiming the honor in 2006, Luke Pridhoda of Sam Houston State winning it in 2007, Georgia's Joshua Fields topping the field in 2008 and San Diego State's Addison Reed grabbing the honor last season.

ROLLER NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD WATCH LIST

DURHAM, N.C. - East Carolina senior DH/1B Kyle Roller has been named to the preseason Golden Spikes Award Watch List for the 2010 season. The release of the watch list marks USA Baseball's first step toward identifying the top player in college baseball.

Sponsored by Major League Baseball, the Golden Spikes Award will be presented in 2010 for the 33rd time. The Watch List features 50 of the nation's top amateur talents, and it will be a "rolling" list to ensure that athletes can play themselves into consideration for the Golden Spikes Award, to be presented live on Tuesday, July 13, at the 2010 Major League Baseball All-Star FanFest in Anaheim, Calif.

Roller, a 2009 first-team All-America selection by the America Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and Ping!Baseball, batted .366 (86-for-256) with 16 home runs and 75 RBI. He ranked among the national leaders in hit by pitches (fourth), RBI (23rd), total bases (79th), home runs (80th) and hits (98th) after earning first-team All-Conference USA and NCAA Greenville Regional All-Tournament honors.

The Rockingham, N.C. native Roller has been tabbed preseason All-America by Collegiate Baseball (first-team), National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) (second-team), Ping!Baseball (second-team), All C-USA (first-team) by the leagues head coaches, while also being selected as the sixth-best player in college baseball by CollegeBaseballBlog. Earlier in the week, Roller was selected as one of 30 candidates for the 2010 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for baseball, which focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

The 2010 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award will be presented nationally July 13 on an award show via live telecast from Anaheim on goldenspikesaward.com, USABaseball.com and MLB.com in conjunction with All-Star FanFest.

Past winners of the Golden Spikes Award include Terry Francona (1980), Will Clark (1985), Robin Ventura (1988), Jason Varitek (1994), J.D. Drew (1997), Mark Prior (2001), Jered Weaver (2004), Tim Lincecum (2006), David Price (2007), Buster Posey (2008) and last year's winner, Stephen Strasburg.

CB360 PRIMETIME PERFORMERS

Through two weeks of the 2009 season, three Pirates have been named to the CollegeBaseball360.com (CB360) Primetime Performers Weekly Honor Roll.

On Feb. 23, Kevin Brandt was named to the Inaugural Honor Roll list after leading the Pirates' to a 6-1 victory over then No. 2 UVa. The left-hander from Fuquay Varina, N.C. held the Cavaliers to one run on five hits in 6.2 innings, while walking three and fanning four.

Brandt improved to 4-0 all-time against teams ranked in the Top 25. During his freshman campaign, he was 2-0 in starts against nationally-ranked opponents (No. 1 North Carolina and No. 22 South Carolina) and notched his first collegiate win against No. 11 Oklahoma State in a relief outing where he worked 6.1 scoreless innings with seven punch outs.

Brad Mincey and Corey Thompson were named to the Primetime Performers Honor Roll on March 2 after helping ECU to a series win over No. 10 South Carolina.

Mincey picked up his first win of the season against the Gamecocks on Sunday allowing one run (unearned) in seven innings of work. He faced 27 batters, fanned five and walked three to help the Pirates win the series. Earlier that week he made a relief appearance against ODU fanning two in one inning and allowing a hit. In all, he pitched eight innings, allowed one run (unearned) on four hits with seven strikeouts and three walks.

Thompson led the team with a .438 (7-for-16) average, seven hits and six RBI. He also drove in at least one run in all four games and had five in the weekend series against South Carolina. Dating back to the series finale against then No. 2 Virginia, he has collected at least one RBI in six-straight games. In Friday's game against SC, Thompson smacked his second career home run, a two-run shot to right field. He followed that game with a game-tying RBI in the ninth inning on Saturday with a single to left. During the rubber match game, Thompson singled down the left field line pushing across two of the Pirates three runs in the first inning recording his first career game-winning RBI.
