

POST-GAME QUOTES GREENVILLE REGIONAL

(1) East Carolina vs. (4) Binghamton
May 31, 2009 • Clark-LeClair Stadium • 2 p.m.

East Carolina Head Coach Billy Godwin

On His Team's Performance

"Certainly that was a great effort by our guys. I thought when we went down 7-3 and then put up an eight-spot in the fifth inning it showed tremendous character and perseverance. This is the time of the year when we just want to win, survive and move on."

On Starting Pitcher Brad Mincey

"He was outstanding. I told him I thought two keys were that we had to put runs up and that we needed our starter to go deep in the game. He did a little more than that as he gave us a complete game. I thought that was a huge effort on his part. The two things I asked this team to do we certainly did."

"We prepare our pitchers to go 100-120 pitches this late in the season but his was probably closer to 140. But he felt good and was still throwing strikes. I left the eighth inning up to him. He felt good and he wanted to go out there."

On ECU's Pitching Staff Heading Into Tomorrow

"We're going to start Kevin Brandt and he has done some pretty special things for us this season. We're sitting here playing our fourth game in two days and are able to role out a guy like Brandt is comforting. He has to execute because South Carolina is a good offensive club."

Designated Hitter Kyle Roller

On His Fifth-Inning Home Runs

"Honestly on the first home run I was just trying to put the ball in play with two strikes. He left a change-up over the plate and I was kind of out on my front foot. But I got the best of it and the wind helped me out."

Starting Pitcher Brad Mincey

On His Performance

"I don't think I've ever had to throw that many pitches in a game really. I was just doing whatever would help the team and help the bullpen so we would be ready for the next game."

"I didn't think he [Coach Godwin] would let me go nine as much as I wanted to. I was surprised he let me go all nine."

On Shutting Binghamton Down In Order After The Eight-Run Fifth

"I felt like that was important. I just wanted to go out there and keep momentum on our side. After a big inning it's always important to put up a zero so we can keep our confidence up and stay on a role hitting."

Binghamton Head Coach Tim Sinicki

On His Team's Experience At The NCAA Regional

"It was a wonderful experience for our guys and our program. We competed very hard as we have all season."

On His Pitchers

"We knew if we got to today it was going to be an uphill battle. Our pitching was running short. Our guys did exactly what we asked. They came in and pitched as long as they could."

Binghamton Rightfielder Peter Bregartner

On The End Of The Season

"Its always going to be a disappointment when you lose and end your season, but I do look at it as a victory. We won our conference championship which we wanted to do. We came to a regional, competed and actually won a game."

Binghamton First Baseman Dave Ciochi

On His Team's Determination

"We knew it was going to be a game like this because East Carolina is an awesome hitting team. We are capable of hitting and today we stepped up and competed, we just came up short."
