Sharon Baldwin-Tener
Head Coach

ECU Head Coach Sharon Baldwin-Tener arrived in Greenville with the best of credentials and the reputation of being a program builder. Since her tenure at ECU began in 2002, Coach Baldwin-Tener has lead the Lady Pirates to six straight C-USA Tournament berths. She lead the Lady Pirates to the 2006-07 C-USA Championship and the first NCAA tournament appearance in 25 years. In addition to the team success, she was instrumental in the development of Courtney Willis, who was the first Lady Pirate to garner C-USA first team honors. Cherie Mills and Jasmine Young have both received C-USA All Conference recognition. Coach Baldwin-Tener is an intense and energetic motivator and therefore it is easy to see why she has coached numerous All-Americans, in which many have gone on to continue their basketball careers professionally, both in the WNBA and overseas. Coach Baldwin-Tener has been awarded numerous Coach of the Year honors, including the WBCA NAIA National Coach of the Year, Naismith Georgia NAIA/Division III Coach of the Year (twice), and the WBCA Division I National Assistant Coach of the Year. Also, while at the University of Georgia as an Assistant Coach, she participated in two NCAA Division I Final Fours. Coach Baldwin-Tener has known nothing but success in her coaching career, as well as her playing career. A tremendous player in her own right, Coach Baldwin-Tener was a captain during her playing career at Georgia.
