YOU MUST HAVE A PRIMARY HEALTH INSURANCE PROVIDER TO PARTICIPATE IN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS AT FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY!

Fayetteville State University provides an optional primary health insurance policy. If you turn down this primary policy provided by the school YOU MUST HAVE YOUR OWN PRIVATE PRIMARY HEALTH INSURANCE.

The Athletic Department at Fayetteville State University provides you with a SECONDARY health insurance policy at no cost. This secondary policy is different from the school's primary plan and is for intercollegiate student-athletes and injuries resulting from intercollegiate athletics only. Keep in mind that this policy is secondary to any other primary health insurance policy and will not pay until after a primary insurance has paid. This policy also has $3000 disappearing deductible, which means it will not pay leftover costs until after the primary insurance and the claimant have paid at least $3000 in medical expenses. For example, if you require an $8000 knee surgery, your primary insurance may pay $4000 towards it. The secondary insurance will pay the remaining $4000. However, if the bill for medical services is under $3000, the remainder after your primary pays is YOUR responsibility.

For insurance to cover the costs of your medical bills, proper paperwork must be filed according to the particulars of your health insurance provider. It is ultimately YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to see that paperwork and claims are turned in and filed correctly. The athletic trainers and school medical staff are here to help and assist you however possible. If you receive any bills, paperwork, or forms needing replies from hospitals or insurance companies regarding an injury related to athletics, please bring them to the training room as soon as possible so that we may assist you in proper handling of these items.
