

FAU College Prospect Clinic

March 9-10, 2012

The Florida Atlantic University Cheerleading Program has organized a clinic to help you prepare for college cheerleading tryouts. This clinic has been developed to help individuals who plan to make the transition from high school to college cheerleading. At this clinic, you will get help with coed and all girl stunt techniques, tumbling, fitness, and interview skills.

We believe that you will benefit from this clinic if you are interested in trying out as a college cheerleader anywhere across the nation. The techniques and skills that we will help you develop will give you a big head start over your competitors.

At this clinic, you can expect to be taught by current members of the Florida Atlantic University Cheerleaders in a low-pressure, safe, and fun environment.
