PROBABLE STARTERS: (based on last game)

G - #12 Carderro Nwoji [6-0, 175, Sr., Wichita, KS] - 9.0 ppg | 3.4 rpg

Drained a season-high six 3s last time out, leading FAU with 20 points vs. UM

Just 15 turnovers in 476 minutes this season...86% percent career from free throw line (2nd-best in FAU history)

G - #1 Shavar Richardson [6-2, 165, Fr., Brooklyn, NY] - 10.9 ppg | 3.9 rpg

Streaky shooter that can be dangerous when hot... Scored 19 points, making 3 triples vs. UM

G - #25 Paul Graham III [6-5, 190, Sr., Philadelphia, PA] -17.5 ppg | 3.7 rpg

Averaging 23.1 ppg in last five outings... 3rd leading scorer in Sun Belt... Eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau earlier this season

F/C - #40 Brett Royster [6-8, 220, So., Arlington, TX] - 6.0 ppg | 4.8 rpg | 1.8 blocks pg

Averaging 1.8 blocks per game... Big part of FAU rotation, has started in 14-of-15 games this season

G - #5 Alex Tucker [5-11, 160, Fr., San Pedro, CA] - 5.3 ppg | 4.4 apg

Sun Belt's fourth-leading assist man (4.4 apg)... Started and distributed an FAU season-high 10 assists last time out vs. UM

Began practicing with the team late (NCAA Clearinghouse), missed first three games

KEY RESERVES:

F - #32 Carlos Monroe (6-8, 245, Sr., Philadelphia, PA) - 14.2 ppg | 5.6 rpg

One of the most accomplished players in FAU history... Only FAU player to have 600+ rebounds and 1,000+ points...

Made his season-debut against Denver (12/16), scored 23 in second-game back vs. Troy (12/18)... Grabbed 9 rebounds at UK

F - #3 Chris Watson [6-6, 210, Fr., Daytona Beach, FL] - 4.6 ppg | 4.2 rpg

Seeing less playing time than earlier in the year.. Also recruited to play football at FAU... Outstanding leaper

F - #50 Sammy Hernandez [6-5, 230, Sr., Miami, FL] - 2.2 ppg | 2.6 rpg

Missed last Thursday’s game with USA with strained groin suffered vs. UK... Has made two starts this season... Played for George Mason's Final Four team of 2006

ROSTER NOTES:

Carlos Monroe (academics) did not play Monday at UM... Sammy Hernandez (INJ groin) missed last Thursday’s game with USA...

Sanchez Hughley (INJ lung) is not expected to play this season... Xavier Perkins (academics) may miss the rest of the season
The Owls (4-11) are in the midst of a six-game stretch where they are playing five tournament teams from a year ago [UAB (NIT), Kentucky (NCAA), South Alabama (NCAA), Miami (NCAA) and Western Kentucky (NCAA)] and the preseason favorites to win the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee State. Despite 25 points from senior guard Paul Graham III and 21 from classmate Carlos Monroe, FAU slipped to 0-3 in the Sun Belt after dropping a 74-69 decision at home to league rival South Alabama last Thursday. FAU will be looking to snap a six-game losing streak when they play MTSU. Due to injury and eligibility just seven scholarship players were available vs. Miami Monday night. Despite being shorthanded FAU trailed the ’Canes by just five at halftime and were in the game deep into the second half. F Carlos Monroe (14.2 ppg/5.6 rpg) is expected to play Thursday night at MTSU after sitting out against Miami for academic reasons. Freshman starter G Shavar Richardson averages double figures in scoring (10.9 ppg) and back-court teammate PG Carderro Nwoji poured in a season-high six 3s last time out against UM.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE ST: Seventh-year head coach Kermit Davis and his Blue Raiders (9-5) were picked the win the league this season by the Sun Belt's coaches. Nine letterwinners returned from a MTSU team that advanced into the 2008 NCAA tournament final last season. The Blue Raiders have won five-straight and are off to a 3-0 start in the SBC after beginning the year winning just 4 of their first 9. Davis is armed with one of the league's best players in junior F Desmond Yates (18.9 ppg). Yates scored 25 in an 89-80 overtime win at North Texas last week and made 8-of-13 from the field helping MTSU to an 82-67 victory at South Alabama on Saturday. MTSU scores 73.9 points per game - 80+ in each of its first three Sun Belt games - and scores efficiently, shooting 47% from the field as a team. Defensively, teams are managing just 63 points per game against the Blue Raiders.

NEXT UP: versus Western Kentucky Saturday, January 10 at 7 p.m. ET. For tickets and more information call 1-866-FAU-OWLS.

THE GOOD: G Paul Graham III is consistently scoring 17 points per night... Thursday, FAU should be with the services of senior F Carlos Monroe - FAU’s all-time leading rebounder and a First Team All-SBC player from a year ago - who has missed 10 of FAU’s first 15 games... 5 of 7 upcoming Sun Belt games for FAU will be played at the FAU Arena in Boca Raton where the Owls are 3-1 and 35-8 over the past three seasons... FAU shoots 72% as a team from the free throw line which is best in the league.

THE BAD: Playing short-handed the Owls have received just 27 bench points in the last five games combined... FAU defends the perimeter well but points in the painted area have been a different story. The Owls are allowing teams to shoot 46% overall, which is near the bottom of the league in FG defense... FAU is last in the league in steals per game (4.2) and 325 out of 330 teams nationally in that category... FAU is 0-9 on the road this season.

YOUTH MOVEMENT: Despite getting a late start in recruiting due to his hiring in May, Mike Jarvis brought in five new players including freshmen guards Shavar Richardson and Alex Tucker. The prep school stars have made a big impact. Richardson is on pace to approach FAU’s freshman record for 3-point makes in a season (63 by Jeff Cowsans in 2000-01). Tucker is leading the team in assists (4.2) and is one of the top distributors in the Sun Belt Conference.

RECORD OF SUCCESS: Mike Jarvis has taken three different schools into post-season play in his first season as head coach (BU, GW and STJ). Jarvis has made 9 NCAA Tournament appearances and went through an 8-year stretch from 1992-00 in which his teams (GW and STJ) advanced into postseason play in each season.

LAST TIME OUT: Florida Atlantic trailed Miami by just four midway through the second half before the homestanding Hurricanes pulled away, winning 85-69 at the BankUnited Center Monday. FAU (4-11) played with just eight available bodies.
Senior guard Cardeo Nwoji made six 3s and finished with 20 points for the Owls before fouling out with 8:10 left. Nowji went 6 of 8 from long range, helping the Owls make 11 triples on the night. Miami (11-3) received 24 points from Dwayne Collins, who scored 12-straight for the Canes during a 16-4 second half run. Collins scored 18 points in the second half, allowing Miami to lead 75-60 with 4:37 left. "I wish we could have made a couple of more shots early in the second half so we could really scare them," said FAU head coach Mike Jarvis. "I thought the guys competed for the full game. Obviously to beat this Miami team, we would have to of made a few more plays." Down by just five at halftime, FAU had cut the lead to four, 50-46, at the 13:02 mark on a pair Paul Graham III free-throws.

SUN BELT LEADERS: Paul Graham II 3rd in scoring (17.5 ppg); 8th in 3FG made (30); 7th in minutes (33.7 p/g)... Alex Tucker 4th in assists (4.4 apg); 7th in assist/turndover ratio (1.8)... Brett Royster 5th in blocked shots (28)... Cardeo Nwoji 10th in minutes (32.4 p/g)... Shavar Richardson 13th in 3FG made (27)... FAU 2nd in 3-FG defense (32.5%)... FAU 1st in FT % (72.8)... Sun Belt games only: Paul Graham III 1st in scoring (24.7 ppg); Carlos Monroe 6th in scoring (18.0 ppg).

AS OF LATE: FAU has lost six-straight and 10 of 11... Excluding the UAB game (a 33-point loss on Dec. 22) the Owls are playing close games on the road, in every game deep into the second half.

ITS BEEN A WHILE: The Owls are looking for the program's first road win since beating Troy 99-93 on February 27, 2008 (last season)... FAU is averaging just four wins per season away from home since the 2005-06 season.

DEFENDING THE PERIMETER: FAU is one of the league's top team defending the 3-point shot. The Owls limit its opponents to 31% shooting from long range.

BLOCK PARTY: 6-foot-8 sophomore Brett Royster celebrated the New Year by swatting four shots against South Alabama. It was Royster's fourth game this season where he has blocked four shots...His 28 blocks puts him on pace to total 56 blocks this season - that would approach FAU's season block record of 59 set by Raheim Brown in 2001-02. Royster established a new freshman record (41) for blocks in a season a year ago.

PHILLING IT UP: Philadelphia native Paul Graham III is having a terrific senior season, eclipsing the 1,000-point plateau for his career vs. UMKC on Nov. 22 and has upped his scoring output to a career-best 17.5 points per game. He is one of the top scorers in the Sun Belt and is looking like a strong candidate for first team all-league honors. Graham scored a career-high 31 points at Kentucky (Dec. 27) and is averaging 23.1 in FAU’s last 5 games.

FAU’S JARVIS SIGNS TALENTED RECRUITING CLASS: Florida Atlantic University men's basketball Head Coach Mike Jarvis announced the signing of four student-athletes to National Letters of Intent. The class includes three of the top high school seniors in the state of Florida and a McDonald's All-America nominee from Coolidge High School in Washington D.C. The four recruits are all-state point guard Ray Taylor (Plantation/American Heritage High School), two-time Gainesville Sun "Player of the Year" Greg Gantt (Gainesville/Gainesville High School), 6-foot-6-inch forward Jordan McCoy (Orlando/Olympia High School) and all-DC1AA forward Andre Mattison (Washington D.C./Coolidge High School). The incoming class is expected to attend FAU for the Fall 2009 semester and play for the Owls in 2009-10. "The first thing we want is great kids, character people," says Jarvis on his recruiting philosophy. "Not only are we getting four outstanding basketball players, but every one is a National Honor Society student. So we are getting kids that are coming here for all the right reasons, to improve as basketball players but also to receive a great education which they will get at Florida Atlantic." Jarvis is adding a dynamic point guard with exceptional quickness and ball-handling ability with Taylor, who led Miami Pace High School to a 4A state championship title in 2007. Gantt has been widely-recognized as one Florida's top shooters. The 6-foot-3-inch guard averaged 19 points per game as a junior, leading Gainesville High School to a Final Four appearance in the 5A state tournament in 2008. Mattison is a 6-foot-7-inch forward who has a 7-foot-1-inch wingspan and cleared 11 rebounds per game as an All-Washington D.C. IAA selection as a junior. McCoy helped one of the nation's top prep programs, Olympia High School in Orlando, go 24-3 last season and advance into the 2008 6A district semifinals.

2008-09 FAU OWLS MEN'S BASKETBALL || fausports.com

THE FAU RECORD BOOK: F Carlos Monroe is FAU's all-time leader in rebounds (672), 4th in points scored (1,262), 4th in scoring average (15.4) and field goals made (491), 3rd in career field goal % (53.8), 2nd in career double-doubles (24), 4th in free throws made (275). F/C Brett Royster set FAU's freshman record for blocks (41) last season and is on pace to become FAU's all-time leader in blocks... Royster is also on pace (1.8 bpg) to total 56 blocks this season, which would approach FAU's season block record of 59 set by Raheim Brown in 2001-02. G Paul Graham III ranks 6th all-time in points (1,209), 7th in assists (193), 7th in 3-FG makes (108), 4th in free throws made (269). G Carderro Nwoji hit 87.4% of his free throws last season, the 2nd-best single-season % in FAU history. Nwoji also posted the 5th-highest single-season assist total (122) and was 9th all-time in single-season 3-point baskets (59).

FATHER AND SON: In 1992-93 FAU's associate head coach Mike Jarvis II began his collegiate coaching career as a first-year assistant working with his father, Mike Jarvis, at George Washington. A veteran of nine NCAA Tournaments, his impressive resume includes coaching tenures at George Washington University, Drexel University, St. John's University and Duke University. As a coach, Jarvis II has reached the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 four times. He owns four conference championship rings and was essential in St. John's National Invitational Tournament (NIT) Championship title in 2003 and the Red Storm's run into the NCAA Tournament's South Regional Final (Elite 8) in 1999.

COACHING CREDENTIALS: Collectively the FAU coaching staff has made 23 trips to the NCAA Tournament. As a staff, FAU's four coaches (Mike Jarvis, Mike Jarvis II, Matt McCall and Tim Kaine) entered the year with a career record of 816-386 - a near 70% career winning percentage.

MAJOR UPGRADES IN 'THE BURROW': The FAU Arena (a.k.a. 'The Burrow'), home of Florida Atlantic basketball, has undergone a transformation over the past two years. The entire arena was remodeled inside and out in the fall of 2007 - which included the installation of a state-of-the-art video scoreboard. Gone are the bleacher seats, as chair-back seating is now in place throughout the arena. Additionally the University has completed the installation of four luxury suites which overlook the floor. The suites are equipped with 16 seats, nine fixed seats in front and seven stools in the back row. A sink and refrigerator are both available as well as individual climate control and a wall-mounted flat-screen TV. For more information on seating and tickets call 1-866-FAU-OWLS.

MONROE PICKED AS SUN BELT'S TOP PLAYER: CollegeHoops.net named Florida Atlantic University senior Carlos Monroe a Preseason Mid-Major All-America player. Monroe, a 6-foot-8-inch power forward from Philadelphia, entered his final collegiate season as the projected "Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year" according to Lindy's Magazine and the USA Today. Monroe averaged 15.4 points and 9.5 rebounds per game as a junior last season, which included 13 double-doubles, already established himself as FAU's all-time leader in rebounds and is on pace to become the school's all-time leading scorer.

FAU PICKED FOURTH IN SUN BELT EAST: The Owls were picked to finish fourth in the Sun Belt's East Division as voted upon by the league's coaches. The SBC East sent two teams to the NCAA Tournament last season (Western Kentucky and South Alabama) and Middle Tennessee State is projected favorite to win the league title in 2008-09.

STRONG FINISH IN 2007-08: Florida Atlantic won 8-of-12 to finish the 2007-08 season. Under the direction of second-year head coach Rex Walters the Owls rebounded nicely from a 1-7 overall start and a 0-5 conference beginning. The Owls were 15-18 and 8-10 in Sun Belt Conference play.

Mike Jarvis is in his 20th season as a Division I men's basketball head coach and his first as coach of the Florida Atlantic University Owls. FAU President Frank T. Brogan and Athletics Director Craig Angelos announced Jarvis’ appointment at a press conference in FAU's Tom Oxley Athletic Center on May 27, 2008.

Jarvis’ accomplishments place him among the nation’s elite college basketball coaches, having led three different programs into the NCAA Tournament during stops at Boston University (1985-90), George Washington University (1990-98) and St. John’s University (1998-04).

Whether winning state titles during his high school coaching days in Massachusetts or taking St. John's to within one game of the Final Four in 1999, Jarvis has consistently delivered postseason tournament appearances, league titles and championships wherever he has been.

The New England native was a standout high school athlete at Rindge Technical High School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. After graduating from Northeastern University, where he played both basketball and baseball in 1968, Jarvis went back to Ridge Technical to teach physical education while also serving as an assistant basketball coach at Northeastern from 1968-73, where he coached under Jim Calhoun in 1972-73.

Jarvis’ assistant coaching career continued at Harvard University from 1973-79, learning from legendary Boston Celtics' great and then-Harvard head coach Tom Sanders, who was fresh off an eight-time NBA Championship playing career with the Celtics from 1960-73. Jarvis credits mentors such as Sanders, whose No. 16 jersey is retired by the Celtics, Calhoun, Hall of Famer Red Auerbach and Jarvis’ coach at Northeastern, Dick Dukeshire, the Greek national team coach in 1979, for prepping him for a head coaching career that would begin at his high school alma mater in 1978.

At Cambridge Rindge and Latin School (CRLS) - formally named Rindge Technical High School - Jarvis flourished as a young head coach, guiding the city's lone public high school to three-consecutive state titles (1979, '80 and '81), while compiling a near-perfect 77-1 record during that span. Jarvis' prep players at CRLS included Patrick Ewing, Rumeal Robinson and current George Washington head coach Karl Hobbs.

Jarvis remained at CRLS until Boston University (BU) offered him the opportunity to begin a collegiate head coaching career in 1985. Immediate success ensued when Jarvis guided the Terriers to a 21-10 record and a berth into the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in his first season. He won two ECAC North Atlantic Conference Championships (1988 and '90) and made three postseason tournament appearances at BU. Jarvis became the program's all-time winning coach (101-51 record) and led the Terriers to the NCAA Tournament twice (1988 and '90). Prior to his arrival, the Terriers had gone to the "Big Dance" just two times in its 26-year history.

In 1990, Jarvis accepted his first coaching position outside the state of Massachusetts, taking over at George Washington University (GW) in Washington D.C. Jarvis immediately transformed GW into one of the nation’s best teams, finishing 19-12 in his first season (1990-91) and earning an invitation into the NIT. Making his initial accomplishments at GW even more impressive was the fact that the Colonials were just one year removed from a 1-27 campaign in 1988-89. In his third season at GW, Jarvis led the Colonials to its first 21-win season in 38 years. That 1992-93 team qualified for the first of four NCAA Tournament appearances during Jarvis’ tenure at GW and went on to advance into the tournament's Sweet 16. An 18-12 season and return trip to the NCAA in 1993-94 firmly positioned GW among the nation’s top college programs.

Jarvis compiled a 152-90 record in eight consecutive winning seasons at GW, leading the Colonials to seven postseason tournament appearances and three 20-win seasons. During a record-setting final year in 1997-98, the Colonials would achieve a university-best national ranking of No. 17 by the Associated Press. Jarvis' knack for recruiting and developing national and international talent at GW resulted in 11 players scoring more than 1,000 points during their careers. He became just the second men's basketball coach in the program's history to be elected to the George Washington University Athletic Hall of Fame.

After outstanding tenures at BU and GW, the 13-year coaching veteran accepted the challenge of coaching a storied St. John's University program in Queens, New York that had enjoyed just one winning season in the five years prior to his appointment. That same season, Jarvis was elected president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).
Again success was immediate as Jarvis led The Red Storm to a 28-9 record in his first season at St. John's and his first appearance in an NCAA Regional Final - just one step away from the Final Four. From 1998-04, in six seasons (five complete), Jarvis went 110-61 at St. John's. Under his direction, The Red Storm won the BIG EAST Tournament Championship in 2000 and won the NIT Championship at Madison Square Garden in 2003.

Following his experience at St. John's, Jarvis moved to Boca Rat and embarked on a new career as a basketball analyst for ESPN and Yahoo. Since that time, he also has become a motivational speaker and launched an Internet broadcast service, 'Jarvis TV,' that enables colleges and community organizations - such as churches - to stream live events and programming over the Internet.

FAU has offered Jarvis his fourth collegiate head coaching stop. Like Jarvis' rapid climb among the collegiate coaching ranks, FAU has made a rapid ascent from the program's first season in 1988-89. After just five years, FAU made the transition into Division I. One of just eight active coaches to have won 100-plus games at three different schools, Jarvis hopes to join Lefty Driesell as one of just two to have done so with four.

After one season as an Independent in 1994-95, its first at the Division I level, the Owls competed as a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference from 1995-2006. FAU won the league title in 2002 and qualified for the University's first NCAA Tournament appearance that same season. FAU moved into the Sun Belt Conference in 2006-07, a league that sent two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, including one that advanced to the Sweet 16.

Jarvis and his wife, Connie, live in Boca Raton and have two adult children, Mike II and Dana Shaiyen, along with two grandchildren, Geoffrey and Ian.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT JARVIS' HIRING AT FAU

"I have known Mike both professionally and personally for many years. He is an excellent basketball coach as well as a tremendous person of character. He will do a great job for Florida Atlantic. They are extremely fortunate to get him to lead their program."
- Mike Krzyzewski - Head Coach, Duke University

"I'm delighted for Mike. I have known him for 16 years and know his passion and love of the game. I know how much he has missed it on a daily basis. For Mike to have the opportunity to return to the game and to work with the student athletes is a plus for everyone especially the student athlete, the University and for Mike. He now has the opportunity to build another program."
- Jim Haney - Executive Director, National Association of Basketball Coaches

"We are very happy for Florida Atlantic and ecstatic for Coach Jarvis. FAU is getting a proven and outstanding head coach. I have known him since the early 90's. He is a quality person and will do wonders for the program."
- Floyd Keith - Executive Director, Black Coaches Association

"He is special and coaching against his teams and watching him coach has been outstanding. He will bring immediate recognition to Florida Atlantic because of his game knowledge, experience and connections in the basketball world. He can go anywhere in the country to recruit. He and his wife will develop and build relationships throughout the administration, community, alumni and corporate sponsors. One of Mike's greatest skills is communications. He can communicate with anyone, but especially his players."
- Tubby Smith - Head Coach, University of Minnesota
