1995

The program began its inaugural season under the legendary Joan Joyce, finishing 33-18. Amy Alderman was the program's first official signee. The Owls ended the season as the runner-up in the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament, falling to Campbell 3-2 in 10 innings in the championship game. Diana Hargis led the team with a record .420 batting average. She also drove in 52 runs. Alana Klaus finished 20-12 with a 1.70 ERA and was named A-Sun Player of the Year. She was the first FAU player, in any sport, to earn such honors. Klaus also threw the program's first no-hitter, in a 2-0 victory over Barry on Feb. 5. Joyce was named A-Sun Coach of the Year.

1996

FAU (37-32) finished third in the A-Sun Tournament after a season that saw the pitching staff in the rebuilding mode. Highlights included a 1-0 win over no. 12 Florida State on April 13. Kathie Marin, who recorded the victory over FSU, and who pitched 33 consecutive innings in the A-Sun Tournament, finished the season 16-11 with a 1.54 ERA. Amy Alderman led the team with a .333 batting average.

1997

After two unsuccessful tries, FAU (42-29) captured its first A-Sun Tournament championship. At the time, it was only the second championship in FAU athletics history. Chris Sutcliffe and Liz Niadna were the anchors of the pitching staff. Sutcliffe led the team with a 1.33 ERA, while Niadna led the team with 19 wins. Sutcliffe was named the MVP of the A-Sun Tournament. At the plate, Jennifer Kintz led the Lady Owls with a .346 average. Joan Joyce went on to win her second A-Sun Coach-of-the-Year honor and picked up her 100th victory on April 5 against Stetson. No-hitters were thrown by Courtney Shoff in a 4-0 victory over Bethune-Cookman on Feb. 7, and by Sutcliffe in a 1-0 victory over Mercer on Feb. 8. In a play-in series against Nicholls State, FAU's bid to advance to its first NCAA Tournament fell short as NSU won the best-of-three series 2-0.

1998

FAU (47-20) followed its previous year's success by earning its second A-Sun title. Courtney Shoff pitched the program's first perfect game in a 1-0 victory over Florida International on Feb. 25. The game was the second of a doubleheader, which opened FAU Field. Kintz repeated as the team's top hitter with a .335 average. Niadna set a new team record with 30 wins and posted a 1.26 ERA. FAU served as the host of the A-Sun Tournament, which marked the first time any FAU team had done so. Following the A-Sun Tournament, the team took on Northwestern State in another play-in series and lost 2-1 in the three-game series.

1999

Success paid off for the Lady Owls (49-20) in the form of its first NCAA Tournament appearance following its third straight A-Sun championship. Suzanne Flege and Michelle Shirah were named to the All-Regional Tournament Team. Joyce earned her third A-Sun Coach-of-the-Year award and won her 200th game April 19 against Stetson. The coaching staff earned NFCA South Region Coaching-Staff-of-the-Year honors. The squad featured freshman pitcherby the Nikki Myers, who led the team with 24 wins and 211 strikeouts. She also lead the team with a .359 batting average and 12 home runs.

2000

The Lady Owls went on to win their fourth straight A-Sun championship and advanced to their second straight NCAA Tournament. The season featured a record 57 wins against just 17 losses. Nikki Myers became the program's second A-Sun Player of the Year and was named First-Team All-South Region. Joan Joyce earned her fourth A-Sun Coach-of-the-Year honor. Myers posted a 22-7 record with a 0.80 ERA. In the process, she had four no-hitters, including two in back-to-back starts. She led the A-Sun in victories, ERA and strikeouts (309). She was second in the nation in strikeouts per seven innings. At the plate, Myers led the team with a .299 batting average and 11 homers. The season featured a record 18-game winning streak.

2001

FAU (46-21) continued its A-Sun dominance with a fifth straight conference championship and third straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Nikki Myers again led the Owls in pitching and hitting, going 26-13 on the mound with a 0.57 ERA and batting .376 with a team record 19 homers. Myers earned her second straight A-Sun Player-of-the-Year award along with her third straight conference tournament MVP award. Myers also received Second-Team All-America honors. Joan Joyce won her 300th game April 14 against Samford.

2002

A sixth straight A-Sun championship was in store for FAU (62-13), which led the nation with 62 wins. The season turned out to be the best yet in the program's eight-year history, as the Lady Owls were ranked as high as 10th in the national poll. Nikki Myers was once again named A-Sun Player of the Year while receiving Second-Team All-America honors. Myers led FAU with a .368 average and was tied for the national lead with 36 wins. Her 437 strikeouts gave her 1,376 for her career, which placed her third all-time in NCAA history. FAU received its first no. 1 seed at the NCAA Regional in Tallahassee. The team won 17 straight games at one point, coming one game shy of tying its record set in 2000. Joan Joyce was named Coach of the Year for the fifth time. Candice Freel was named A-Sun Freshman of the Year.

2003

Coach Joyce went into the season knowing that the team would be one of her youngest and most inexperienced. Coupled with a grueling early-season schedule, the Owls stumbled to a 13-18 start. However, the team developed into another impressive group and won its seventh-consecutive A-Sun championship and made its fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Pam Mazzarella led the team in batting, while Amanda Morin picked up A-Sun Freshman-of-the-Year honors. FAU (44-28) finished the year winning 31 of its last 41 games.

2004

The Owls extended their A-Sun record with an eighth straight conference championship. Its 56 wins rank third-best in team history. FAU (56-18) secured the top-seed at the A-Sun Tournament in a memorable doubleheader sweep of UCF at FAU field in the regular season finale. Candice Freel, who was named A-Sun Pitcher of the Year, threw an 11-inning no-hitter with 20 strikeouts on that night. The Owls went on to their sixth straight NCAA Regional, which involved traveling to Lincoln, NE. There, FAU advanced to the third day of competition for the second straight year. Freel, Pam Mazzarella and Jessica Sachs received first-team all-conference honors. Freel went 28-9 with a 0.67 ERA, sixth-best in the nation. Mazzarella led the team with a .339 batting average.

2005

FAU began the fall practice of 2004 with tremendous hope. Injuries plagued the pitching staff, which moved into the 2005 season with three sophomores in the rotation. Candice Freel, the returning A-Sun Pitcher of the Year, would see the mound just eight times. The Owls posted a 37-32 record as they continued to play the most difficult schedule in the conference. At season's end, FAU was 14-6 in A-Sun play and finished second at the conference tournament ending an eight-year run of conference championships. Offensively, Jessica Braggins led the squad in average, hits, doubles and homers. Pam Mazzarella became the first player in FAU history to earn first-team conference honors four consecutive seasons. Braggins and transfer Danielle Arriaga earned second team honors. Lauren Crandall earned a spot on the all-freshman team.

2006

Injuries to the pitching staff once again hampered the start of the 2006 season. Projected ace Meghan Doonan missed the early portion of the season, making her first appearance on March 26 on her way to an 8-1 season in 12 appearances. A slow start by the offense, which scored three runs or less in 11 of its first 14 games including eight games of one run or less, prompted a 5-9 start by the Atlantic Sun's perennial contender. As conference play began, the team started to get healthy and the bats heated up. The Owls would finish third in the conference in batting average and went on a 16-2 run to end the regular season and the A-Sun Conference Tournament to earn the program's ninth conference title and seventh NCAA Regional berth. Jen Musillo's right arm aided the Owls with a pair of wins over Stetson to earn the conference crown and picked up two more wins over Florida in the Gainesville Regional to advance FAU to the regional final versus USF. Freshman Kala Guy earned first-team all-conference and all-freshman honors while seniors Jessica Sachs and Danielle Arriaga and junior Jenna Lopez earned second-team honors.

The first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference saw the Owls earn the conference's regular season crown on the final day of the regular season and was highlighted by a triple-header sweep on the final day of the conference tournament, bringing the Owls out of the consolation bracket and into the champion's ceremony. After winning 10 of its final 12 conference games to edge out Troy for the regular season crown, the Owls were upset in the first round of the conference tournament by the no. 8 seed Florida International in 15 innings. FAU responded by winning five straight, including the triple-header sweep against Middle Tennessee (2) and Troy in the championship game. FAU swept the Sun Belt's major season awards as Head Coach Joan Joyce was named Coach of the Year, Jen Musillo was named Pitcher of the Year and Mandie Fishback was named Player of the Year. Musillo and Fishback were also named All-Southeast Region. Despite the numerous successes during the season, because the Sun Belt did not have an automatic bid to an NCAA Regional this season, the Owls were the program with the highest RPI to be left out of the NCAA Regionals in 2007.

The Owls began their second season in the Sun Belt trying to defend their regular season and tournament titles. The young squad featured nine players with previous Division I experience. The team came close to defeating two nationally-ranked teams, falling to both Michigan, and Stanford in extra innings. FAU broke through with a 3-0 win over no. 6 LSU at the Palm Springs Classic. The trip to Palm Springs also included a scrimmage with the U.S. Olympic Team. The Owls then won 14 of 17 games during the middle of the season, including a 3-2 victory over Illinois in the Championship game of the Miken Classic, their first home tournament title since 2004. A 17-7 record in conference play was good enough for second place during the regular season. Amber Barton was named 2nd Team All-Sun Belt as the Owls ended the season with a 35-26 record.

Bliss was named Sun Belt Player of the Week in back-to-back weeks early on the year, before missing an extended stretch of the season due to injury. Fellow senior Becky Brandies also missed significant time due to injury and the team struggled in their absence. The Owls rallied late in the season and advanced all the way to the championship game of the Sun Belt Conference tournament, ultimately falling to Louisiana-Lafayette. Bliss and Blair Bodenmiller were named first team all-conference at designated player and shortstop, respectively, and Bodenmiller and Amy Bukovich were named to the All-Tournament team. FAU finished the season with a 30-30 record.

2010

FAU got off to a slow start to the 2010 campaign, losing its first six games of the season, before winning seven of its next eight. The highlight of that run came in a 1-0, nine-inning win over South Carolina in the final game of the Miken Invitational. The Owls stood at 6-9 in Sun Belt play before winning six of its last seven regular-season games to head into the Sun Belt Tournament as the no. 4 seed. FAU defeated South Alabama in its first game, but losses to Louisiana-Lafayette and North Texas ended the season with a 28-24 record. Blair Bodenmiller was named First Team All-Sun Belt for the second year in a row. Taylor Fawbush and Jessica Myers made the Second Team. Amber Barton made the All-Tournament Team.

2011

The Owls began the year losing seven of their first nine games, but soon rebounded. FAU won its first four conference series, including a 6-3 win over Middle Tennessee for Coach Joan Joyce's 700th career win and later in the season swept perennial conference power Louisiana-Lafayette. The victories were the first in school history over the Ragin' Cajuns and garnered national attention for the team. The Owls advanced to the Championship game of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament for the third time in their five seasons as a member of the Sun Belt, ultimately losing to Louisiana-Lafayette. Junior second baseman Heather Barnes and senior pitcher Rose Gressley were named to the Sun Belt All-Conference and All-tournament teams. Gressley was also named to the NFCA All-Region team. Rose Gressley won 20 games in the circle, becoming the first FAU pitcher since Jen Musillo (26, 2007) to win at least that many in a season.

2012

FAU suffered through the first losing season in program history, but still achieved several accomplishments. Junior pitcher Stephanie Call was named Sun Belt Player of the Week, Taylor Fawbush was named Second Team All-Conference as a utility player and the Owls hosted the conference tournament as a no. 8 seed.

2013

A win over 10th ranked USF highlighted the opening weekend of the season for FAU. The Owls had a 10 game winning streak during the middle of the season, including preseason all-conference selection Taylor Fawbush throwing her second career no-hitter. That effort led to Fawbush being named Sun Belt Pitcher of the Week. A late-season skid led to the team ending the year with a 28-29 record, but outfielder Lindsey Shell and utility player Stephanie Call were named to the All-Sun Belt Second Team.

2014

The Owls began their first season as a Conference USA member with a 3-0 win over nationally-ranked Louisville on the first night of the year. Wins over fellow conference member Tulsa and Ohio State also highlighted the weekend. A mid-season hot streak saw the team win 11 of 15 games. In their first ever C-USA series, FAU overcame an opening game loss to take the series from Marshall. The Owls finished the regular season by winning nine of their 10 games, earning a no. 4 seed in the conference tournament. FAU also served as conference tournament host for the second time in three seasons, ending the year with a 33-22 record. Sophomore outfielder Christina Martinez was named to the all-conference first team, junior pitcher Samantha Messer made the second team, while pitchers Amanda Wilson and Kylee Hanson made the conference all-freshman team.
