Selland Arena Fun Facts

- Selland Arena has always been known as a difficult place for opponents to win. Just how difficult is proven with this fact: Of teams that played more than two games at Selland Arena, only two have winning records against Fresno State:

Team	Record	Years Won at Selland
UNLV	4-8	1983, '86-92
Utah	2-3	1993, '95, '99

- UNLV had the longest winning streak at Selland of any road team. The Runnin' Rebels won seven in a row from 1986-92. That streak was snapped in 1997 with a 93-82 Bulldog victory.

- UNLV also owns the highest winning percentage of any opponent at Selland. The Rebels' 8-4 record gives them a winning percentage of .667.

- Fresno State will close out Selland with a 21-game winning streak against non-conference opponents. The Bulldogs' last home loss against a team not from the WAC was Nov. 19, 2000, when St. Bonaventure handed Fresno State a 87-74 defeat in the championship game of the Hispanic College Fund Classic.

- No team has had less success at Selland than Sacramento State. The Hornets have played the Bulldogs 14 times in the facility and have never won a game. Here is a list of the least successful teams in Selland history:

Team	Record at Selland
Sacramento State	0-14
