Head Coach Steve Cleveland 3rd year (51-38)

In his third season at Fresno State, Steve Cleveland has quickly turned the basketball program around, leading the Bulldogs back to the postseason for the first time in five years.

In his second season, Cleveland led the Bulldogs to a 22-10 overall record and a berth into the postseason NIT Tournament. The 22 wins marks the most wins for the basketball program since the 1995-96 season and is only the 16th time in school history a coach has led a team to over 20 wins.

Cleveland and the Bulldogs began the season 7-0 and received votes in both national polls twice during the season. Before heading into WAC play, the Bulldogs carried an 11-2 record. Fresno State finished WAC play 10-6 and alone in third place.

Fresno State ranked No. 9 in the nation in 3-pointers made per game and Cleveland's up-tempo offense had the Bulldogs averaging 71.3 points per game.

Cleveland and the Bulldogs had two players earn All-WAC honors in Dominic McGuire and Quinton Hosley and McGuire was selected in the second round of the NBA Draft. McGuire also set the single-season blocks record with 114 and ranked No. 5 in the nation.

In 2005-06, Cleveland saw two players garner all-conference accolades, including one who would go on to be named to the WAC All-Newcomer Team in his first season at Fresno State.

While the Bulldogs set a new home court record for wins (12), which Cleveland broke in his second season with 15 wins, and set/tied 19 new arena marks, Cleveland guided the program to a winning season for the ninth time by a first-year coach as well as establishing the fifth-most wins (15) by a first-year Bulldog skipper.

A trio of Bulldogs not only finished the year as the WAC leaders in assists (Kevin Bell), 3-pointers (Ja'Vance Coleman) and steals (Quinton Hosley) but the same three also would be nationally-ranked throughout the season in their respective categories. Fresno State, which led the conference in four statistical categories overall, finished as the top scoring team in the WAC with a 73.8 point per game average.

In three seasons at Fresno State, Cleveland has a record of 34-7 (.829) at the Save Mart Center. Over, Coach Cleveland is in his 11th season as a Division I coach.

Scouting Nevada

The Wolf Pack (19-10, 11-4) enter this week with a chance of gaining a share of the WAC title, something they've done of the last three years. They will need a little help to catch Boise State, which hosts Utah State on Thursday in the final WAC game for the Broncos. Marcellus Kemp had scored 38 straight games in double figures before that streak was ended last week. He's averaging 20.0 points per game, second-best in the WAC. At 75.7 points per game, Nevada ranks third in the league in scoring. JaVale McGee continues to lead the WAC in blocked shots. He has 81 on the season.

Against the Wolf Pack

Nevada owns a 41-34 lead in this series, which began in 1925. Nevada has won four straight in the series dating back to a 66-63 in at Nevada in 2005.

Bell's Big Game

Two of the leading contenders for WAC Player of the Year, Fresno State's Kevin Bell and Utah State's Jaycee Carroll put on an exciting show in Monday's game against Utah State. The battled started in the first half. Carroll scored 15 points in the first nine minutes of the game. He finished the first half with 17 points, making 4-of-5 threes. After trailing 29-10, Bell led a 27-8 run to pull the Dogs to within seven points, 37-30. He had 16 points on 7-of-10 from the floor and added a steal in the first half. Carroll finished with 33 and Bell with 31 on the night. His 31 points were a career-high.

Dog Defense

Fresno State ranks second in the WAC's in defense, holding opponents to just 69.3 points per game this season.

Eddie Loves the SMC

There's no place like home for Bulldog shooting guard Eddie Miller. The senior sharpshooter is hitting more than 46% of his three point attempts (69-151) and in WAC home games this season, Miller is averaging 21.6 points, three rebounds, one assist and one block while shooting .443 from three.

Miller Leads the WAC

Senior guard Eddie Miller continues to lead the Western Athletic Conference in three point goals made per game (3.6). Miller has 105 treys this season. He has 11 more three point field goals that Utah State's Jaycee Carroll. Miller has climbed to 9th in the WAC in scoring, 15.1 points per game. In WAC games, he is averaging 16.5 points, good for seventh-best in the league.

Miller's 30

Miller joined some elite company with his 30-point game against Boise State. He became the third WAC player this season to score 30

Kevin Bell Record Watch

Bell Climbs Record Books

Fresno State senior point guard Kevin Bell is working his way up the record books this season in his final year in a Bulldog uniform. Bell moved into second place in Fresno State history for assists. He is eight assists away from passing Dominick Young for the all-time record. Bell has led the WAC in assists the last two seasons and his assist total has gone up all three years he has been here. He'll need to average 4.8 assists per game to catch Young. In addition to handing out assists, Bell has moved into Fresno State's top 20 in career points. At his current pace of more than 18 points per game, he will finish in top 20 all-time for Bulldog scorers. If Bell leads the WAC in assists again this season, it would mark the 11th time in the last 15 years a Bulldog player has led the league in assists. Others to leads the WAC in assists were: Shantay Legans, Tito Maddox, Demetrius Porter, Chris Heron, Dominick Young and Brian Santiago.

Mr. International: Hector Hernandez F, 6-9, Sr.

For most college students, the summer is spent relaxing. For most college student-athletes the summer is spent working on their game, but not like Hector Hernandez did.

While many Fresno State student athletes lift weights, run drills and have summer workouts against one another, Hernandez was doing plenty in facing some of the world's best talent.

Hernandez, a senior at Fresno State, played last summer for his country on the Mexican National Team. Hernandez spent his summer playing with the best players from Mexico, while playing against some of the best basketball players in the world.

Instead of lounging by the pool during the summer, Hernandez spent two months working out with the Mexican National Team, training near his hometown of Chihuahua, Mexico. After several exhibition games in Mexico and a couple in El Paso, Texas, the Mexican National Team was off to its main goal, competing in the FIBA Americas Tournament held in Las Vegas.

"I learned a lot playing with the Mexican National Team and it was a great honor to represent my country," Hernandez said. "The experience I gained this summer will definitely help me down the road."

While in Las Vegas, Hernandez and the Mexican National Team went 2-5 overall. While their goal of qualifying for the Olympics didn't happen this year for Hernandez and Mexico, a lot of progress was made from both sides.

Hernandez played in all seven games, which were held at the Thomas and Mack Center in Las Vegas and had a couple of those games on national television. Hernandez had the chance to play against Team USA, which included LeBron James, Kobe Bryant and Carmelo Anthony on national television and scored six points against Team USA.

The 6-9 forward also helped Mexico defeat Puerto Rico and Venezuela in the tournament and Hernandez scored a tournament-high eight points in 15 minutes of action against Canada.

"It was a great experience to be on the same floor as some of the best players in the world," Hernandez said. "That was an experience I will always remember."

But after a long summer, Hernandez is excited to be backing Fresno and is excited to get his senior season underway. Hernandez returns as the team's leading scorer from last year, when he averaged 11.2 points and 5.2 rebounds per game.
