FRESNO STATE SOCCER ACADEMY

The Fresno State Soccer Academy is designed to provide a safe environment that will allow for the best soccer instruction for all players. Our goal is to provide you with a great learning experience. We will facilitate the players learning experience by providing a low coach-to-player ratio.

The soccer activities and games will enhance the player's technical and tactical development. Players will be exposed to many challenging game situations that allow for each player to have maximum ball contact and decision making opportunities to ensure optimal development.

Individuals and teams are encouraged to take part in this great experience. Goalkeepers will receive rigorous training from the Fresno State goalkeeping staff.

Fresno State Head Coach Steve Springthorpe and his assistants, Chris Shaw and Christine Johnson, will guide all of the sessions during the academy. The coaching staff has many years of coaching and playing experience at all levels of the game, and will be assisted by current and past Fresno State players and other quality coaches. Fresno State Athletic Complex will be used, thus combining quality instruction and facilities to ensure players will have a positive and rewarding experience.
