Fresno State Makes Final WAC Tournament After Fourth-Place Finish

• The Bulldogs (13-14, 7-7 WAC) will open against the defending tournament champion After 20 years as a member of the Western Athletic Conference, the Fresno State volleyball team qualified for its final conference tournament with its best league performance since 2003. At 7-7 in WAC action, the Bulldogs finished tied with Utah State for fourth, earned the No. 5 seed for the tournament and will face the fourth-seeded Aggies on Monday at 7:30 p.m. PT.

Clarke Becomes Bulldogs' Second Leading Career Blocker, Passes 1,000 Kills

Senior Brianna Clarke, a middle blocker from Fresno, Calif., is now Fresno State's second-leading blocker with 429 career blocks, which is eight shy of the career record (437) held by Suzie Regal (1989-92). Clarke also became the 10th Bulldog to ever record 1,000 or more kills and enters the WAC Tournament at 1,017 during her four-year career.

Wild's Shift Back to the Outside Fuels 'Dogs Attack

Sophomore Korrin Wild played the first 11 matches at libero and averaged 4.1 digs per set in the defensive role. In that 11th match, junior outside hitter Marissa Brand suffered a season-ending knee injury and left a major void (3.9 kps/2.5 dps) to fill. Wild stepped up and returned to the outside, which she played as a freshman. In WAC matches, Wild delivered 3.9 kills per set and 2.5 digs per set while leading Fresno State back to the conference tournament.

Agraz, Brand Named Capital One Academic All-District Honorees

Junior outside hitters Cecilia Agraz and Marissa Brand received nods as 2011 Capital One Academic All-District selections. Agraz was a first-team honoree this year after earning a second-team selection last season. She is the first two-time Academic All-District winner in Bulldog volleyball's 41-year history. Brand was named to the second-team for her first career Academic All-District honor as the team's kills, digs and points per set leader.

'Dogs Pound Their Way to Three Season Sweeps of WAC Opponents

Fresno State recorded three season sweeps of WAC opponents by beating San Jose State, Nevada and Louisiana Tech twice during league play. The Bulldogs swept the Lady Techsters in both matches while Fresno State beat SJSU and Nevada in five-set road thrillers along with 3-1 home victories. In the six combined matches, Fresno State went 18-6 in the 24 sets.

Netherby-Sewell Leads Bulldogs Back to Tourney

After being edged out from competing at the WAC Tournament last year by a tiebreaker, head coach Lauren Netherby-Sewell revamped her rotation that gave the Bulldogs their first .500 conference clip in eight years. In Fresno State's last trip to Las Vegas for a WAC Tournament in 2009, the Bulldogs knocked off Nevada to advance to the semifinals.

About the Utah State Aggies

Utah State (12-16, 7-7 WAC) is tied for fourth in the WAC standings with Fresno State. The Aggies and 'Dogs split the season series and USU is led by Liz McArthur (3.8 kps). Utah State leads all-time series record between the schools, 12-8.

FROM THE START: Fresno State Focused on Opening Strong

A point of emphasis for the Bulldogs is to start strong right from the first serve. With a combination of aggressive serving, passing and attacking, 'Dogs enter the WAC Tournament:

- 8-1 in matches when they win the opening set
- 5-13 in matches when they lose the opening set

Brand Honored as WAC Player of the Week

Fresno State junior outside hitter Marissa Brand earned her first WAC Player of the Week honor of the season and the second of her career for her play at the Sacramento State Invitational. Brand averaged 4.60 kills on .300 hitting, 3.10 digs, 0.50 blocks, and 0.50 service aces as she led the Bulldogs to a second-place finish with a 2-1 record. She has won two of the past four WAC weekly awards dating back to the final week of last season.

'Dogs Take 2nd, Duo Named to All-Invitational Team in Sacramento

Fresno State defeated Sacramento State (3-1) and Marist (3-0) en route to a second-place finish at the Hornet's annual invitational. The Bulldogs' lone loss in the two-day affair came to undefeated champion Cal State Northridge. Senior middle blocker Brianna Clarke and junior outside hitter Marissa Brand were named to the all-tournament team.

Wild Named to Fresno State Classic All-Tournament Team, 'Dogs Place 3rd

Sophomore libero and team captain Korrin Wild earned a spot on the Fresno State Classic All-Tournament Team for her leadership and defensive effort. After the first weekend of play, Wild led the WAC in digs (65) and digs per set (5.91) as the 'Dogs took third in the annual four-team Classic with a 1-2 record. The Bulldogs' win came over Long Island (3-0) while

Clarke Nominated for Lowe's Senior CLASS Award

Bulldog senior Brianna Clarke was nominated for the 2011 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for her exceptional work ethic and contributions to the team throughout her Fresno State career. The Lowe's Senior CLASS Award celebrates the loyalty of seniors that honor a four-year commitment to their university. The honor recognizes these student-athletes for great achievement during competition and in their community while staying in school.

Volleyball Earns Back-to-Back Team Academic Awards

The American Volleyball Coaches Association has recognized the Fresno State volleyball program the past two seasons with their academic honor after the 'Dogs averaged a 3.30 grade point average. The award, which was initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors collegiate and high school volleyball teams for excellence in the classroom.

Fresno State Notable AVCA Facts

- Fresno State was one of three NCAA D-1 schools in the state of California, along with Stanford and California, and one of 92 in the nation honored with the 2010-11 award.
- Fresno State was the only California State University to receive the honor in 2010-11.
- Fresno State is the only WAC school to earn the award in each of the past two years.

Greek Cup Gold Medalist Gibson Joins Bulldog Coaching Staff

Mallori Gibson, a Greek Cup gold medalist and two-time first-team All-Big West outside hitter, joined the Fresno State Bulldog volleyball program as an assistant coach this summer. Gibson, a native of Bakersfield, Calif., recently played professionally in Greece for the Olympiacos Sport Club. She started her playing career at the University of Colorado before transferring to University of the Pacific for her final two collegiate seasons.

Bulldogs Excel at Offseason Grass, Sand and Doubles Tournaments

Over the offseason, the Bulldog returners played volleyball all over the state in a series of doubles tournaments. Fresno State juniors Cecilia Agraz and Marissa Brand took second in the CBVA beach tournament July 30-31 in Ocean Beach, Calif., while Agraz and Brand, along with sophomore Korrin Wild, blazed through the FGVA Inferno Tournament in late June as undefeated champions in their respective divisions.

Fresno State Remains WAC's Top Overall Program Over Past Nine Years

With its strong commitment to superior athletic competition and academic performance, Fresno State finished second in the last two Western Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup races and remained the top program throughout the nine years of the award. The 'Dogs rank first among the current WAC institutions, ahead of Nevada and Hawai'i as the top three WAC schools. Fresno State is one of three repeat Cup winners (2007-08 & 2008-09), along with Rice University (2003-04 & 2004-05) and Boise State University (2009-10 & 2010-11).

Welty Accepts 'Dogs Invitation to Join Mountain West Conference

President John D. Welty announced last summer that Fresno State accepted an invitation to become a member of the Mountain West Conference. The Bulldogs will leave the Western Athletic Conference after the 2011-12 season to compete against Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, Nevada, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming.

Graduation Rates Steadily Improving

At 57 percent, Fresno State's record-setting six-year federal graduation rate for the incoming class in fall 2004 is six percentage points higher than the the general Fresno State student body at 51 percent. It also far surpassed the previous four years by Bulldog student-athletes, improving from 50 percent for 2003-04, 45 percent for 2002-03, 49 percent for 2001-02 and 51 percent for 2000-01. Additionally, 10 of the 14 applicable sport programs, including men's basketball, graduated 50 percent or more of their student-athletes during the time frame.

Fresno State to Host 2012 NCAA Women's Basketball Regional

All-Session Tickets are also on-sale for the NCAA Women's Basketball Fresno Regional Semifinals on Mar. 24, 2012 and the Fresno Regional Finals on Mar. 26. Adult tickets are $50, student and youth tickets are $25 or family plans are $99, which includes 2 adult and 2 youth all-session tickets. Tickets can be purchased through the Bulldog Ticket Office at www.GoBulldogs.com, calling 559-278-3647 or in person at at Bulldog Stadium.

Bulldog Foundation Supports Student-Athlete Scholarships

The Bulldog Foundation supports student-athletes as they strive for excellence in the classroom, in competition and in life "Beyond the Game." This mission is accomplished through the cultivation of individual and business relationships throughout the San Joaquin Valley and the Red Wave. Philanthropic donations can be made by calling 559-278-7160.

Coming Soon: Meyers Family Sports Medicine Center

The initiation of the $6 million capital project symbolizes the Bulldogs' strong commitment to create and continually enhance the best possible "student-athlete experience" at Fresno State. The unique and essential facility developed for preventative medicine, nutritional counseling, physician examination, injury treatment, on-site x-ray and rehabilitation services. The center will serve as a cornerstone of Fresno State's "Student-Athlete Village" and is designed to centralize several student-athlete support functions, including sports medicine, academic counseling, strength and conditioning, nutrition education, and equipment services within a single secure location.

FIGHTING SPIRIT TRACKER

Lauren Netherby-Sewell introduced the 'Fighting Spirit Award' to Fresno State in 2008, an award that began at Hofstra by Hall of Fame coach Fran Kalafer. Netherby-Sewell presents the award to an individual or the team on a weekly basis for the best display of a fighting spirit through adversity and challenges.

At the end of the season, the individual or team who earns the most awards during the season receives the year-end "Fighting Spirit Award" and past recipients include Allannah Munson and Baylee Platt (2008), the entire team (2009) and Kelly Mason (2010).
